LOCAL NOTES AND TOBACCO JOTTINGS.

BY O. L. JOYNER.

TO ADVERTISE THE MARKET.

There is a movement on foot to raise a fund for the purpose of advertising the tobacco interests of Greenville in particular, and eastern North Carolina in general. There is doubtless no tobacco market in the State that has had less advertising from outside sources than Greenville. Those directly engaged in the tobacco business here, with the exception of a very small amount, have contributed every dollar that has been spent in the way of advertising the market. Our people at first didn't seem to think that it was incumbent upon them at all, nor was it in the slightest their duty to do so. They argued that it was the tobacco men who did the fiddling act and they should pay the fiddler, and so it has been ever since the market first sprung into existence, the tobacco men have paid for the fiddling and others have enjoyed equally the music. No argument is at all necessary now to convince a "way-faring man, though a fool," that the tobacco market has been an ocean of business that has fed lavishly every branch of industry in Greenville, hence we shall not discuss that matter any further now. We want to submit to the people of Greenville these questions, and let your own unbiased judgment answer them. Four years ago when Greenville first built a tobacco warehouse, suppose the tobacco men here had called upon the citizens for a thousand dollars with which to advertise the market, would it have taken their breath or would they have paid the amount over? That is the amount the citizens of Tarboro spent in advertising the tobacco interests of that place four years ago. In getting the Greenville tobacco market before the world suppose the tobacco men had gotten up a premium sale here three years ago, and asked the businessmen of the town to subscribe two thousand dollars to offer to the tobacco farmers of eastern North Carolina in premiums for their tobacco as an inducement to get them to bring it to Greenville, would they have done it? Well, that is just what Rocky Mount did, and in making up this amount the bank of Rocky Mount authorized the committee appointed to get up the fund to put them down for just double the amount subscribed by any other concern. Now wasn't that encouragement that was bound to add stimulus to already animated life and give new hope to the hopeful? In placing Greenville in the place she so proudly occupies, the leading strictly bright tobacco market of the world, wide, famed eastern Carolina, suppose the Greenville tobacco men had asked the citizens to put ten thousand dollars in prize houses for the accommodation of tobacco buyers and give rent sufficiently low to induce worthy and responsible buyers to locate here, would they have done it two years ago

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept 27th. 895.

Secretary Olney very naturally declines to discuss the possibilities of an early change in the attitude of this government towards the Cuban revolutionists, but recent happenings have made it a subject of discussion among those Democrats who may express their opinion without a breach of international etiquette or of diplomatic usage, and they are doing it. Among the things which indicate the drift of Democratic sentiment outside of Washington is the frequency with which Democratic assemblages have of late been adopting resolutions in favor of free Cuba, the latest and most conspicuous instance being the New York State Democratic convention. It was noted also with pleasure that Senator Gray, of Delaware, was instrumental, as their chief counsel, in getting the Cubans recently arrested near Wilmington, Delaware, as filibusters, released. Of course it was in his capacity as a lawyer, and not as chairman of the Senate committee on Foreign Relations, that Senator Gray befriended those Cubans, but all the same it has been taken as a straw indicating much. It is argued that Senator Gray would not have become the counsel of the Cubans if he had not personally sympathized with them, and his relations with President Cleveland are such that he would hardly have engaged in the case, even though his personal sympathy had been with the accused men and the cause they represented, if he had not known the inclinations of the administration to lean the same way. A public meeting in favor of free Cuba is being talked up in Washington and will probably shortly be held. Many Democrats hope to see the administration act before the matter comes up in Congress, as it is certain to do very early in the session.

If proof were needed that the Harrison boom is dead it is furnished by the frequency with which Republicans of prominence who come to Washington give it a kick. Its latest kicking was administered by ex-Senator Sabin, of Minn., who was once chairman of the Republican National committee. Mr. Sabin says he thinks Harrison ceased to be a Presidential possibility the moment it was certain that Quay and Platt would control the Pennsylvania and New York delegations to the Republican National convention. He also thinks that Reed is going to have a walk-over for the nomination, or says he does.

According to those who are usually posted on inside republican happenings, Mr. Foraker, of Ohio, has with Gov. McKinley's consent made a direct bid to win Boss Platt over to the support of McKinley's Presidential aspirations. It is well known that Platt was in 1888 promised on behalf of Mr. Harrison that he should be Secretary of the Treasury, a place that Platt has been hankering after for many years, if he would support Harrison, and he was elected. Mr. Harrison repudiated that promise, claiming that it was made without his knowledge or consent, and thereby made a life-time enemy of Platt. Mr. Foraker has now made the same promise for Gov. McKinley and has told Mr. Platt that McKinley would make it in person if Mr. Platt would agree to swing the New York delegation to McKinley after a complimentary vote is cast for Gov. Morton, who is generally regarded as merely a brevet candidate for the nomination. Foraker will also before he returns to Ohio endeavor to make a deal whereby he can secure the support of Boss Quay for McKinley. Reed has been supposed to have a mortgage upon both Platt and Quay, but they are very tricky individuals, and will both be found on the side of the candidate who offers them the most.

Ex-Representative Outhwaite, of Ohio brings cheerful news from that State. He says: "I have been greatly surprised at the way in which the democratic party in Ohio has rallied and got into fighting condition. There is none of the feeling that prevailed last fall in Ohio now among democrats. They are a unit, and the gubernatorial campaign will be one of the hottest the state has known. The silver question has been put aside for the present by Ohio democrats. I do not mean to say that silver men are giving up their fight for the white metal, but they have decided to lay aside every consideration that may interfere with a democratic victory in the state. Next year they will come forward again. The party today is absolutely without a warring element to interfere with its making a strong fight."

Hicks' Great Works.

Rev. Iri R. Hicks, the celebrated storm prophet, of St. Louis, is now a household name in nearly every home in America. His wonderful Almanac predicts the weather for a year ahead more correctly and accurately than any other publication or any other system. The testimony of a large number of careful observers is that 93 per cent of Hicks' predictions are fulfilled to the letter. His series of annual Almanacs are now well and favorably known in all parts of this country and in foreign lands. The new Almanac for 1896 is the most practical and instructive as well as the prettiest of this splendid series. It contains 100 pages, printed on fine book paper, with covers elegantly printed in colors. The matter, although scientific, is written in popular style there being nothing difficult to understand about it. It is also finely illustrated. Don't confound this with some patent medicine pamphlet. It is nothing of the kind, but is a fine book, which sells at all the news stands for 25¢. This fine Almanac is given as a premium to every yearly subscriber to the Rev. Iri R. Hicks' well-known and deservedly popular paper, Word and Works. This unique journal is a peerless educator of the masses, and is fast becoming a household guardian and necessity in the home of America. Those who want to keep up with the advanced thought of the age in science, religion and all social, commercial, intellectual and domestic subjects, should subscribe for Word and Works. Subscription only $1.00 a year. The Weekly REFLECTOR and Word and Works will both be sent a year for $1.75.

TO ADVERTISE THE MARKET.

when it was not positively known that the houses would be rented for a term of years at a price of 25 per cent over cost? (Everybody knows what a hard time we have had getting prize houses and if it hadn't been for one merchant and three tobacco men heaven only knows when we would have had any prize houses but now it is no trouble to get them on short notice) This is just what the Wilson business men did without waiting to get some one to become responsible for the rent for a period of years. They went ahead and built them and they have had no trouble in renting them out.

The Greenville tobacco market started off at slow speed but gradually increased until now we are going on at a pretty rapid gait. Our people always conservative have waited until they now see what the future of Greenville can be made, and for the first time since there has been a market here we are going to ask the business men to give us a voluntary contribution equal to that raised by the tobacco men.

From the very beginning of the tobacco market here the pages of the REFLECTOR have been open for the discussion of any matter or subject that tended to the development of the tobacco market. The writer has personal knowledge that the position of the editor of the REFLECTOR in regard to the Greenville tobacco market, has lost him advertising matter from other markets, yet notwithstanding this he has at all times and under all circumstances wielded a friendly pen for his home market, and in appreciation of his past services and the position that he has occupied in regard to the market the tobacco men, always grateful and appreciative for any courtesy bestowed, are going to issue eight thousand extra copies of the REFLECTOR (a thousand each week) with illustrations of the market. It will cost a great deal to get up these illustrations and to publish and mail the eight thousand extra copies, and now for the first time, as we have said before, we ask for a contribution from the business men. If there is one who does not think he has been benefitted by the tobacco market and that it will not pay him, as a matter of course we do not expect him to give anything, but we hope that our down town business men will be as open handed as the tobacco men.
