LOCAL NOTES AND TOBACCO JOTTINGS.

BY O. L. JOYNER.

Mr. Mosely from Virginia came down last night to make Greenville his home for the tobacco season. To him, as to all other tobacco men, we say welcome.

Good breaks at all the warehouses Monday. Right amusing to hear the boys guy old man Guss about paying so much for tobacco. The more they say, the more he makes them pay for it.

Sorry Frank Hodges keeps so unwell, things do not look natural around the American Tobacco Company's prize house, with Frank absent, although clever Mr. Ellington continues correcting the boys mistakes in their bills.

Mr. L. W. Morgan looks to be one of the happiest men in town, see him coming from home, having taken a longing look at little Walter, he is all smiles, see him after a sale, with his immense purchase of brights for his company and you will find the same satisfactory smile on his countenance. Why not all of us smile and be happy.

There has been much talk about our Eastern tobacco not being so good as some offered on the other markets. We have all along contended that ours would compare favorably with, if not surpass that sold anywhere. In substantiation of our assertion we saw a letter a day or so ago from Mr. J. B. Cobb, Manager Leaf Department of the American Tobacco Company, saying the tobacco sold on the Greenville market suited their purposes as well, if not better than their purchases elsewhere.

We are told that we must not talk above a whisper when Cuba is mentioned for fear that Spain may hear us and get offended. This advice come from Washington City. As the people of the United States have as much right to express their opinions as they have to hold them we opine that the talk will hence forth be louder and plainer than ever. — Wilmington Review

RICHER AND HANDSOMER

Than any ever produced. My Clothes, Hats and Furnishings, I'm talking about. Look over the stock; it's complete now, and see if you don't agree with me. One of two things I always mean to do: To sell you better goods than you get elsewhere for the same price; to sell you the same goods lower than you get them.

DID YOU BUY YOUR HUSBAND

His last Suit of Clothes? Most ladies do buy their husband's Clothes. Its right that they should. A man don't know what looks well on him and besides he don't know a good piece of goods from a common piece. His wife does and its to his interest to let her buy his Clothes. He saves money by it and is more becomingly dressed. Speaking of Clothes I have a very nice line for Men I bought at a bankrupt sale which I will sell at a very low price—about one-half its real value. I have Suits from $2 up. Don't fail to see me before buying. I have also a nice line of Dress Goods and Notions that I am selling cheaper than any man in town. When in need of SHOES remember my stock is complete and will sell them cheap.

EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY)

There is an epidemic of typhoid fever in Washington City. The health officer reports that there are 600 cases in the District. Last week there were twenty-seven deaths. The epidemic is attributed to the low stage of water in the Potomac river, which constitutes the city's supply, and the use of well water in families.

The State Board of Public Buildings has brought suit against the Bell Telephone Co. to compel them to remove the telephone poles from the sidewalks around the Governors' Mansion. Governor Carr and Mayor Russ, of Raleigh, it will be remembered had a little tilt about this some time ago. The decision of this case will show where the rights of the city stop and the rights of the State come. This is a fight between the city of Raleigh and the State of North Carolina and it has some nice points of law in it.

It is very much to be regretted that some people of late have seen fit to make an attack upon the church. Even Dr. Cy Thompson's most intimate friends are sorry that he ever gave utterance to the expression at Cary, that the church had always been on the side of human slavery, and then followed this up with a communication uttering the same charge. This, however, might not have effected the church to any great extent, as a motive could be very clearly seen for this utterance by this politician. It is gratifying to see how universally the sentiment has been condemned. But now Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Raleigh, in a sermon last Sunday night very much to the mortification of his friends and hearers endorses what Dr. Thompson has said and with gloves off tries to show that the church from patriarchal days to the present has either encouraged or failed to enter its protest against human slavery. When we think of one of the ministers and leaders in a church bringing such a charge against the bride of Christ, we shudder with horror and indignation at the sentiment. It is true the church is not perfect, but Christ would never have blessed as he has the church any organization guilty of such a crime. We don't believe that the enlightened world and public sentiment are better than the church, and even these are against human slavery. We don't believe that these men who are bringing these accusations against the church are better than the church and they profess to condemn the sentiment. Neither do we believe that the church endorses and cherishes human slavery or has failed to teach that it is opposed to it. Dr. Cy Thompson and Rev. D. H. Tuttle to the contrary. It becomes us all to do what we can to make the church better but it is becoming in no man to bring such unfounded accusations against the only divinely instituted organization on earth.

BEAUTY AND HEALTH.

An Actress Tells How Both of Them May Be Obtained.

It is clearly demonstrated now that people can be fat or lean just as they like if they choose to take the trouble, and there is no use in their going about either like a bean pole or a feather bed. Some months ago I was getting too stout for the part I wanted to play, so for five weeks I ate nothing but beef and drank nothing but hot water with a little lemon in it. Tea and coffee are bad for the complexion anyway. All my tendency to fleshiness disappeared. Again a year ago some bones became visible in my neck. I got frightened and immediately set to work to change everything in my diet for things that were fattening. Those bones would not have come in my neck but that I had been foolish enough to worry about something. You know occasionally you can't help worrying. That season I ate bananas in every shape and form and at all hours at which I could cram them. I ate them with cream most of the time, and I ate everything else recommended as flesh producing. Every day it seemed to me a thicker layer of flesh formed over those bones, and I soon had the gratification of seeing them disappear altogether.

"Now, while I am just right, I eat what I like and always drink Rhine wine for dinner. As regards complexion, that is a great thing, and it has to be guarded and cared for as zealously as a mother cares for her newborn babe. I never neglect to stay for one solid hour each morning in a hot bath, and I find that keeps the complexion in splendid condition. Then I am very careful about anointing my face, neck and arms with the best quality of cold cream every night and every time there is any makeup to take off. When I go into the surf, I put a good lot of cold cream on my face and cover it thick with cornstarch—that proves a sure protection against both the salt water and the sun.

"If a woman wants to be good looking," she added, "she must make an idol of her physique and devote the same time and attention to it that other people devote to other things which they worship. Women who go in for art and music spend hours each day in cultivating themselves in those pursuits. The domestic woman devotes her time to her children and the affairs of her household. Just so an actress devotes her time to her physical well being. Her good looks are a large part of her stock in trade, and she is compelled to care for them. It is a weariness to the spirit, though, sometimes, such constant grooming, and occasionally I sigh for seclusion, the freedom of a sack and skirt and the feeling that I need not consider whether or not my hair has been shampooed or my nails received their hour's polishing. There are so many hundred things to be done in the way of physical improvement. Of course every now and again, as often as it seems needful, one must undergo a Turkish bath, and the ordeal can't be hurried under any circumstances."—New York

A STRANGE PHENOMENAL.

Is it one of the Signs Spoken of Forecasting the Great Day—Worth an Investigation by Some Scientist.

In the yard of Mr. John Flanagan, of Farmville township, on the old George Joyner homestead is a mysterious opening in the ground. It is a large crack in the earth, running from northeast to southwest and is about 100 yards long—large enough to run a tobacco stick in the crevice. It has been there more than a year. It disappears when the rain fills it with wet earth and as soon as the earth dries again it appears, each time more distinctly than the last. It is supposed to be caused by the effect of the earth quake a few years ago, which was so disastrous in many portions of the South. Some of the superstitious are very greatly alarmed, fearing there is about to be a break and separation of the earth in that portion of the world, and they don't know whether they will be on the other side or not. It is something to cause scientific investigation and quiet the fears of the people in that section.
