NEXT DOOR TO BANK.

FOR SUPERSTITIOUS WOMEN.

These may be interesting to superstitious women:

Monday's child is fair of face.

Tuesday's child is full of grace

Wednesday's child is born for woe.

Thursday's child has far to go.

Friday's child is loving and giving.

Saturday's child must work for a living.

But the child that is born on the Sabbath day.

Is bonny and happy and wealthy and gay.

Of the month in which one is born it is said:

If a girl is born in January, she will be a prudent housewife, given to melancholy, but of good temper.

If in February, a humane and affectionate wife and a tender mother.

If in March, generous and impulsive, but apt to be headstrong.

If in April, inconsistent, not very intelligent, but likely to be good looking.

If in May, handsome, amiable and likely to be happy.

If in June, impetuous, will marry early and be frivolous.

If in July, passably handsome, but with a sulky temper.

If in August, amiable and practical, and likely to marry rich.

If in September, discreet, affable and much liked.

If in November, liberal, kind and of a mild disposition.

If in December, well proportioned, fond of novelty and extravagant.

Died.

At Black Jack, Friday night, October 18th, Mrs. Hattie, wife of Henry R. Mills. She was the oldest daughter of Robert Dixon. She leaves a babe three months old. Mrs. Mills suffered long and was fully resigned to the will of God.

Count Penniless—My dear Mees Banks, speak ze word zat vill make me happiest of mortals.

Miss Banks—Money.

For a good smoke try "Southern Leader" at D. S. Smith's.

RICHER AND HANDSOMER

I have any ever produced. My Clothes, Hats and Furnishings, I'm talking about. Look over the stock; it's complete now, and see if you don't agree with me. One of two things I always mean to do: To sell you better goods than you get elsewhere for the same price; to sell you the same goods lower than you get them.

The King Clothier.

Sunday Sermons.

Rev. G. F. Smith preached another one of his series of sermons Sunday morning on "Thou shalt not steal," the way he went for respectable stealing was to the point. His subject was handled with ease and good points were brought out all along. We have heard it whispered that it ought to be repeated.

Rev. C M. Billings subject on Sunday morning was "Bitter Waters of Marah." There was some sharp shooting throughout the discourse and he enlightened his hearers on the many trials they have to go through with. His scene, when death enters the household, and the sorrowing ones are gathered around the dead one, how we were standing by the "bitter waters of Marah," and we could look to Jesus and put all on him and the waters would be sweetened by that one grand hope, was beautiful.

When you are sick and ill at ease,

With wearing Cloaks that do not please,

Just banish sorrow, save the pangs,

Are You a Help to Your Husband?

Of course all ladies help their husbands all they can. When one don't help its because they don't know how. I know how you can help your husband and save a nice little sum, that is if you have got to buy any DRESS GOODS, NOTIONS and SHOES, by trading with

H. B. CLARK.

You will find that a dollar will buy more at my store than a dollar ever bought before. This a broad statement, but it is true. The only way to account for this lowness in prices is the fact that a little profit is all I expect. To simply say my line of dress goods are pretty is not doing them justice, they are more than pretty, dainty and sensible novelties that combine style and wear and satisfaction. My line CLOTHING and GENTS FURNISHINGS is in reach of every one. I have the nicest and cheapest ever brought to this town. Don't forget to see me before buying.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, DC., Oct. 18th.

President Cleveland and all the members of his cabinet met for the first time in several months at the regular cabinet meeting this week. The meeting was more in nature of a friendly social gathering than one of business, although there was some exchange of opinions and informal discussion of important matters bearing upon the coming session of Congress.

Sympathy for the Cuban revolutionists is a perfectly natural feeling in the hearts of Americans, but the zeal of an enterprising newspaper publisher of Washington, in pursuit of popular free advertising for his property, has caused a number of more or less prominent business men to allow their sympathy to run away with their good judgment and to join in a public call for a mass meeting to be held in Washington for the purpose of publicly expressing sympathy for the revolutionists. The meeting will be held, and the resolutions of sympathy adopted; but under existing circumstances it is an ill-advised affair, implying an entirely unnecessary and uncalled for lack of confidence in the administration to deal properly with the Cuban affair. The aforesaid enterprising publisher has been seconded in this scheme by Republicans, who hope thereby to embarrass the administration. President Cleveland is probably as fully conversant with the present status of affairs in Cuba as any man in the United States, and holding meetings in Washington or elsewhere, will neither delay nor expedite matters. He will do his duty regardless of his own or the sympathy of others.

Assistant Attorney General for the Post Office Department Thomas—he's a clever fellow, a good lawyer and a good democrat notwithstanding that long title—in his annual report to Postmaster General Wilson leaves no doubt of his opinion of those business concerns which adopt lottery methods to attract customers. After giving the number of lotteries which have been shut out of the mails by the anti-lottery law, which he declares has sounded the death-knell of lotteries in this country, Mr. Thomas in his report says: "But many business men think they must, in order to succeed, resort to schemes that appeal to the gambling spirit of the people, and they accordingly sugar coat their legitimate enterprises with lottery advertisements. These fascinating apparently innocent schemes reach the boys and girls of the land and tend to make them gamblers." The rebuke is sharp, but no thoughtful newspaper reader can deny it is deserved, nor that it is needed by some business concerns.

Mr. Harrison's managers are losing their shrewdness, if they approve of or are responsible for a political fairy story that was circulated in Washington this week. Talk about a thing making a horse laugh, if such a thing were possible this story would do it. The preface to the story sets out that it was Tom Platt and his wicked anti-Harrison associates, and not the immaculate Benjamin who stabbed Gov. Morton in the back at the Minneapolis convention of '92 and gave the vice-presidential nomination to Whitelaw Reid. And as if that were not a sufficient perversion of facts for a single story, it proceeds to tell that Mr. Harrison doesn't want next year's nomination to go to Reid, McKinley or Allison, but to his bosom friend and one-time running mate, Gov. Morton. Gov. Morton has not proved himself to be as good a politician as he is a business man, but nobody in Washington believes that he can be fooled by any such story as this. He knows that Mr. Harrison was in telegraphic communication with the men who controlled the Minneapolis convention, and that one word from him to John C. New would have prevented the Whitelaw Reid deal being carried out. He also knows that the friendship now so publicly proffered is but the Judas-like precursor of another stab in the back, if the opportunity to administer it occurs.

A great many cock and bull stories are being told concerning bargains made by the Democratic Senators with the Republican Senators for a reorganization of the Senate, and a division of the committee chairmanships, etc. No such bargain has been made. Just before the last session of Congress closed there was an informal talk about some such arrangement, but it was not participated in by more than half a dozen Senators and they had no authority from their colleagues to make any bargain. I do not say that some such arrangement may not be made but I do say that it cannot be made by two or three Senators.
