Every Man Has a Chance.
Every man endowed with commonsense and reasonable health has a competence within his grasp, if he is only willing to pay the price. To do this he need not be as cunning as Jay Gould, nor as stingy as Russell Sage, but he must both earn and save. If he earns little he must save a portion; if he earns much he must save much. It is better to have a ten per cent. faculty for saving than a one hundred per cent. faculty for earning, without it. A competence does not require great self-sacrifice—great wealth requires parsimony and a heart of iron. We have abundant examples of these.

Capt. S. A. Ashe, formerly editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, has started a new Democratic weekly paper in Raleigh called the State. It will advocate bimetallism, the industrial development of North Carolina, and the extension of popular education. Subscription price $1.25. Capt Ashe will receive a hearty welcome upon his return to journalism.

The statement is made that the sales of commercial fertilizers in North Carolina this year declined 15 per cent as compared with last year's sales. This is not in proportion. The acreage in cotton is supposed to have decreased more than that. In the process of cheapening the production of cotton it would seem necessary that the use of commercial fertilizers would have to decline. It is a pity to see that this year this use has actually increased over last.—Statesville Landmark.

Perhaps this can be explained from the fact that when the cotton acreage declined, especially in the eastern counties, the acreage in tobacco increased, and tobacco requiring more fertilizer than cotton kept the sale of that article from falling off in proportion with the decrease in the cotton acreage.

Big lot Box Papers, Mourning Paper, Slate and Lead Pencils, Penholders, &c., just in at Reflector Book Store.

RICHER AND HANDSOMER

Than any ever produced. My Clothes, Hats and Furnishings, I'm talking about. Look over the stock; it's complete now, and see if you don't agree with me. One of two things I always mean to do: To sell you better goods than you get elsewhere for the same price; to sell you the same goods lower than you get them.

FRANK WILSON,
The King Clothier.

While passing through Raleigh the other day we noticed a horse trotting along the street with a load of five bales of cotton and with apparently as much ease as a horse down this way carries one bale. This shows the advantage of having good roads.

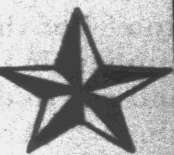

For correct letter and note heads you should see the splendid lot of paper just received at REFLECTOR office.

Today while Mr. Alfred Forbes was enjoying an afternoon nap in a chair near the front door of his store, a mule walked in and was quietly enjoying a look at himself in the large mirror about midway the store. That kind of customer is unusual and there was a hustling around when the mule was discovered.

EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY)

George Liddell, a sailor from the British ship Arion, was found by some negroes in a swamp near Wilmington. He was up to his neck in water, was crazy, half-starved, and torn badly by thorns and briars. For two weeks, while insane, he had thus wandered.

The city of Milwaukee, Wis., celebrated its 50th anniversary a few days ago. In connection with this attention is called to the fact that sixty four years ago there was no city in the United States that had the population (249,200) that Milwaukee has now. New York came nearest to it with a population of 203,000 and Philadelphia next with 167,000.

The Armour Packing Company, of Chicago, wrote the State Treasurer that its representative at Wilmington had been notified that he was taxed $200 as a franchise tax under section 48 of the new revenue act, which imposes that amount on a corporation with over $500,000 capital. The company protested that it employed only a small amount of capital in this State and that it was of the opinion the tax was only applicable to corporations in the State alone. Treasurer Worth referred the letter to Attorney General Osborne, who writes to him as follows: "My opinion is that section 86 of the new revenue act is applicable to foreign corporations and not to domestic corporations alone." Armour & Co. are notified that the tax must be paid. The ruling is an important one. Armour & Co's claim of exemption because it is foreign corporation does not stand at all.

How to Market Cotton.

Upon the subject of when to market your cotton, a very eminent authority gives the following advice. "If they would only market a part of it from time to time along through the winter months - if they would devote nine months to marketing, instead of four, they would get better prices for their cotton. I believe they will be able to do this now, for they have made good grain crops and can live without the hasty sale of their cotton. If they will practice this caution and not flood the market with cotton during October and November, the price is going to be much higher than it has been for two or three or four years, in my opinion." - Spartanburg (S. C.) Herald.

As if we didn't already have diseases enough in this country, the doctors have discovered another which they call the Railroad Kidney, not because it carries people off more speedily than other diseases, but because it is contracted from the fine dust absorbed through the skin in continuous railroad riding. Sea-faring people and people who travel on canals are not subject to it. - Wilmington Star.

Correct.
Sam Jones has been twice in Wilmington. If there were really a dozen genuine converts gathered in at the two meetings it is more than we believe. We know others of the same opinion. Evangelists who get "big money," are never known to go where there are not big crowds, established churches and good prospects of large collections. They simply "build upon other men's foundations." - Wilmington Messenger.

A Persistent Dun.

An aged lady complained to a London magistrate that because she was a little behind in her rent her landlady followed her to church and asked for it there. The landlady came into a pew alongside of her and when she was joining in the responses was constantly whispering to her about the rent. When it came to the response, "Incline our hearts," the landlady would add, "To pay our rent." The magistrate said that it was very annoying, but there was nothing illegal in it.
