LOCAL NOTES AND TOBACCO JOTTINGS.

BY O. L. JOYNER.

Mr. J. W. Morgan has been unwell for the past few days.

D. J. Walker, of Durham, a very highly respected gentleman and a good judge of tobacco, has come to Greenville to locate.

Col. J. Bryan Grimes sold nineteen grades of tobacco on the Eastern, Tuesday, for which he got a check for $765.

Reports say that the long protracted spell of dry weather has kept farmers in the old tobacco belt from selling but very little tobacco as yet. Now that we have had a general season, an idea of what the up county crop is can soon be learned. If it is a bright one we may look for lower prices, if a poor one it is likely prices on good tobacco will advance.

When first we commenced to write the Tobacco Department, Greenville was a local market and our sales were composed of tobacco that grew almost exclusively in Pitt county in the section tributary to Greenville, and in our articles we referred to Pitt county tobacco. Gradually as the market grew larger we began to draw from a larger territory until now the sales are made up of tobacco from as many different counties surely as any market in eastern North Carolina, and likely as any market in the State. The counties in the center of which Greenville is situated are in reality the tobacco growing eastern counties, viz: Pitt, Greene, Lenoir, Craven, Beaufort, Martin, Edgecombe and Wilson. Of course there are other counties that are generally considered eastern counties, but strictly speaking do not belong to them. Besides those mentioned there are Bertie, Hertford, Washington, Tyrrell and a number of others that are just beginning to grow tobacco but will probably never plant it extensively on account of the salt water atmosphere. The eight above named constitute the leading tobacco growing counties of Eastern North Carolina. There are three leading tobacco markets in this belt, Greenville, Wilson and Rocky Mount. The last two named draw largely from Nash, Franklin and Vance counties and the territory adjacent to and in South Carolina, while Greenville is in the eastern center of these and is strictly the bright tobacco market of Eastern North Carolina. There are five counties around Greenville that grow more bright tobacco than any other seven counties in the State of equal size, and by the common consent of some of the best judges that we have, it is by far the most choice, hence it is plain to all, and dreadfully apparent to the worst enemies of the market, that Greenville has by far the best bright tobacco market and the most encouraging future of any tobacco town in the State.

EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY)

The President has issued his proclamation naming November the 28th as a day of Thanksgiving.

The Fair of the colored people opened in Raleigh yesterday and bids fair to be a success in every particular.

To-day it is expected that the noted pacers, John R. Gentry and Joe Patchen will reduce the record heretofore made for pacing a mile. Watch for faster time than 2:03.

Elections were held yesterday in the following States with probably the following results:

Kentucky, Democrats win. Ohio, both parties claiming it. New York, City Democratic, State Republican. Kansas, Republicans will elect. The same result in Iowa. Massachusetts is Republican. Maryland probably Democratic. Mississippi overwhelmingly Democratic. The Republicans win in Nebraska. Virginia goes Democratic. Pennsylvania will remain Republican. New Jersey is claimed by both parties.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The President Designates November 28 as Thanksgiving Day.

President Cleveland has issued a proclamation designating Thursday, Nov. 28, as Thanksgiving Day. The proclamation follows.

"The constant goodness and forbearance of Almighty God, which have been vouchsafed to the American people during the year which is just past, call for their sincere acknowledgment and devout gratitude. To the end, therefore, that we may with thankful hearts unite in extolling the loving care of our heavenly Father, I, Grover Cleveland, President of United States, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 28th day of the present month of November, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept by all our people. On that day let us forego our usual occupations, and in our accustomed places of worship join in rendering thanks to the giver of every good and perfect gift for the bounteous returns that have rewarded our labors in the fields and in the busy marts of trade, for the peace and order that have prevailed throughout the land, for our protection from pestilence and dire calamities, and for the other blessings that have been showered upon us from an open hand. And with our thanksgiving let us humbly beseech the Lord to so incline the hearts of our people unto Him that He will not leave or forsake us as a nation, but will continue to us His mercy and protecting care, guiding us in the path of national prosperity and happiness, enduing us with rectitude and virtue and keeping alive within us a patriotic love for the free institutions which have given to us our national heritage. And let us also on the day of our thanksgiving especially remember the poor and needy, and by deeds of charity let us show the sincerity of our gratitude.

"In witness, whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this, fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and in the one hundred and twentieth year of the independence of the United States.

(Signed) GROVER CLEVELAND.
By the President:
RICHARD OLNEY, Secretary of State.

A dispatch from San Antonio, Tex., says: "The pecan nut crop is being harvested in Southwest Texas, and already several carloads have been shipped from here to Northern markets. The crop is the greatest in production and quality of nut for several years. The ruling prices are 4 and 5 cents per pound. It is estimated that the total crop in Texas this year will amount to 20,000,000 pounds."

North Carolina Sunday School Convention.

The Fourteenth Annual Convention of the Sunday School Workers of North Carolina will be held in Goldsboro, commencing Monday, November 25th, 1895, at 7:30 o'clock P. M., and continue Tuesday and Wednesday, November 26th and 27th.

The Convention will be attended by Prof. H. M. Hamill, Superintendent of Normal Work, of the Illinois Sunday School Association and probably by Evangelists W. P. Fife and Weston R. Gales and other prominent workers.

The representation in the Convention will consist of members of the the State Executive Committee, all speakers named in the Programme of the Convention, and five delegates for each county.

Greatly reduced round trip rates of fare will be obtained from all railroads. An outline programme and information concerning railroad facilities will be published as soon as possible.

All Counties which have not held Conventions this year, are earnestly requested and urged to take immediate action, hold Conventions and elect delegates to the State Convention. A full representation from every county in the State is greatly desired.

We appeal to the Ministers, Superintendents and every lover of the Sunday School cause throughout the State to bestir themselves and see that County Conventions are held in Counties where none have been held during the year.

The local committee, on behalf of the people of Goldsboro, extend a hearty invitation to the Convention, and will cordially welcome to their Christian homes Pastors and Sunday School workers throughout the State.

County Associations are urged to prepare full statistical reports for the Convention, blanks for which can be obtained from Mr. J. W. Causey, Statistical Secretary Greensboro.

Let every Sunday School in the State determine, if possible, to be represented at Goldsboro by its very best workers, and it should be a prayer and expectation of the Christian people of North Carolina that the approaching Convention may be the most successful and memorable one of the series in its favor, its high tone, its powerful and permanent spiritual effects, and its results of good fruit in the vineyard which we are aiming to cultivate.
