The American Tobacco Company Buys
the J. G. Butler Tobacco Company Plant.

The Journal mentioned last week that Mr. J. B. Duke, president of the American Tobacco Company, was on a visit to St. Louis, and that rumor had it he was negotiating for the purchase of a plug tobacco factory in that city.

The announcement was made a few days ago that the J. G. Butler Tobacco Company had become a branch of the Trust. It was acquired in the usual way, a good round sum being paid in cash and the remainder probably the larger part, in stock. Just what the purchase price was has not been disclosed, but it is thought that it was a million dollars or more. This factory has been turning out several million pounds of plug tobacco annually, and the plant is nearly new. An adjoining lot was also bought by the Trust.

Mr. J. G. Butler will continue in charge of the business of the factory, while the manufacturing department will be under the conduct of Mr. B. Doerhoeffer, of the National Tobacco Company branch at Louisville.—Winston Tobacco Journal.

The deficiency in rainfall since January 1st, 1895, is over a foot, the exact amount, as given out by the weather bureau, being 12.66 inches. It is said that these deficiencies at one season of the year are always made up at another season, nature getting what is required. If this is so and the above shortage is made up before the close of the present year there will most likely be some tolerably moist days between now and the first of next January.

Mr. Schultz, what new goods have you? Cans, New York and Mountain Roll Butter, Buckwheat prepared P. R. Molasses, Oat Flakes, Dried Apples, California Prunes and Raisins cleaned Currants, etc.

"Ceasted."

"Little Jim," the beautiful gold fish that was owned by one of our lovely young ladies, ceasted this morning and the genuine tears flowed in dead earnest. It was a present from her—"beg you pudding," won't tell. Anyway it was highly prized and it was buried and good byes were said and flowers placed on the grave.

The Puff and its Effect.

It is more fun to see a man read a puff of himself in a newspaper than to see a fat man step on a banana peel. The narrow minded man reads it seven or eight times and then goes around and steals—appropriates—what copies he can. The kind hearted man goes home and reads it to his wife, then pays up his dues to the paper. The successful business man who advertises regularly and makes money by it, immediately starts to find the editor and then the two men leave the sanctum and walk silently and thoughtfully down the street together, the business man taking sugar in his and they both eat a clove or two, and all life is sweeter, and peace settled down on their hearts for the moment. Such is the experience of seed that falls upon different soil.—Adair County (Ia.) Kicker.

EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY)

There is cold comfort in Tuesday's elections for any Democrat. The only consolation too that the Populist can have is that they have aided the Republicans and thereby defeated the Democrats. Only two States out of the eleven that voted went Democratic. These were Virginia and Mississippi. In Maryland it was a fight between the Baltimore Sun and Senator Gorman and the Sun is on top. It claims that it was fighting for Democracy and that this election makes the State forever Democratic. It is strange logic that the way to make the State Democratic is to carry it for the Republicans. It also seems to us bad politics to aid the Republicans to beat Senator Gorman. The thing to do was to beat in his own party. In Kentucky it was a spectacle of a man who was an avowed free silver man running on a gold bug platform and in consequence the result is not surprising. These two States were the only ones that it was expected would be carried by the Democrats in addition to the two above mentioned as having gone Democratic. No party can succeed that is not partizan and when people feel like they can vote regardless of party principles, and to gratify personal ends we may expect just such results as were given us on last Tuesday. Unless there is a decided change a Republican will be the next President.

A Nash county negro who has served eight terms in the penitentiary for stealing chickens and pigs, got home from that institution at 3 p. m., on a recent day, says the Rocky Mount Argonaut, and at 9 p. m., was caught robbing a hen house.

Humors of the Bike.

It isn't always safe to swear at a bicyclist who is responsible for a collision. A number of a well-known athletic club, riding along at an easy pace, was overtaken by another wheel, which didn't turn out in time and a rear-end collision was the result. When the club man recovered from the shock he found himself lying on his back with the baggy knee of a pair of trousers across his face. Furious at the stupidity of the other rider, he struggled to get up, shouting: "Why in the devil do you ride like that?"

"Oh, dear! Oh, dear?" said a plaintive voice. "I didn't mean to, I'm all tangled up."

"Oh, Lord, a girl?" groaned the young man. "And I went and swore at her," and his contrition increased when he picked himself up and saw gazing up at him from around the wreckage a very pretty face, flushed with mortification. Lifting the owner to her feet, the young man tried to apologize.

"Awfully sorry, I thought it was some idiot of a man that had run into me. That is error—I don't mean you're an idiot, you know; if I'd known that you were I wouldn't have sworn at you. No, no, I don't mean that, either, I'm a little rattled, you see, but I thought it was a man when I saw your trousers. That is, I thought your—er—garments were trousers of a man, you know. If I'd known you wore bloomers—that is, if I'd known those trousers were bloomers—I mean if I'd known it was a girl who wore trousers—. Oh darnitall! I apologize," and the youth mounted and sped away so madly that he narrowly escaped wrecking a street car, leaving the girl redder than before.

Women.

Men never get tired of talking about them, fighting about them, thinking about them; and they never will.

Men laugh at them but love them; curse them, but bless them; marry them, but abuse them; lose them, and mourn for them.

Men try to appear at their best before a good woman. A bad one can set them a competitive examination in wickedness.

Men still occasionally think they are the masters of women. But by degrees the truth is getting to be pretty well understood.

Men like both the new woman and the old in fact, but in the theory find fault with both.

Men demand that women shall be better than themselves. And women fulfill the demand, though it is not very just.

Men are in the hands of beautiful women helpless. The women deserve the more credit by using their power more mercifully.

Men claim to be lords of creation; and so they are. But Lord knows how much their lordship amounts to.—N. Y. Recorder.

The Tube Rose Industry in Duplin.

Mr. N. H. Carter, of Teachey's, who was in the city today, tells us that the tube rose farmers are preparing to gather the bulbs for shipment North. They will be rushing them about the first of November. There are between 1500 and 2000 acres devoted to the culture of these bulbs in Duplin county, all along the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad. The yield is generally an average of 25 barrels to the acre and they are worth about $4 per barrel. This is $100 dollars to the acre and it is expected that the culture of these bulbs will this year drop from $15,000 to $20,000 in Duplin.

The bulbs are shipped to florists North and West and it is a curious fact that many of them find their way back here from the hands of these florists who, of course, make a handsome profit by the transaction.—Wilmington Review.

We have seen one of the ballots used in the New York election on Tuesday. It is almost as large as a newspaper and contained every ticket in the field, the voter having to designate by cross marks the ticket he wished to vote, or the individuals in case he wanted to split a ticket. The ballot was sent to M. R. Lang by Alex Heilbronner.

How is This for High?

Extremes always meet; this time it will be doubly so. A marriage license is soon to be issued to two residents of Raleigh whose extreme ages and weight is something remarkable. The lady who is the bride to be is 22 years of age and tips the scales at 310 pounds. The groom to be is 60 years of age and registers on a good pair of scales 100 pounds at the most. This couple can stand up against the world without a parallel, says the Visitor.

NOVEMBER NOTES.

Sung in the Key of "G"—Join the Choir of Readers.

To-day has been almost as warm as summer time.

Pitt County Rifles had a meeting this afternoon.

Dark nights, and when it is cloudy they are dark sure enough.

The train was late again last night. It waited at Parmele for the fair train.

When this warm spell breaks you may look for some weather bordering the blizzard nature.

Oliver Smith brought his fox horn to town with him to-day and gave frequent blasts from it.

News—The best Flour is Proctor Knott sold by S. M. Schultz. Try a 24 lb bag.

Mr. Alfred Forbes brought the REFLECTOR some of his fall crop of Irish potatoes. They are very fine.

New York city had a $3,000,000 fire on Tuesday, and a $10,000,000 wedding the next day. Verily, the metropolis takes things on a large scale.

A new steamer to run on Tar river has just been launched at Washington. It is for the Old Dominion Co., and will take the place of the steamer Meyers.

Gov. Carr has ordered a special term of Jones court to try the Beaufort "graveyard insurance" cases to begin December 9th, Judge Graham to preside.

The celebrated clown, John Lowlow, says the "Southern Leader" is the best cigar he ever smoked. For sale at D. S. Smith's.

The two Petersburg sportsmen, who had been spending a few days hunting in this section, left this morning. They had fine sport and took away a nice basket of game.

The REFLECTOR has reason for thankfulness before Thanksgiving Day gets here, for a nice country ham which the editor's aunt, Mrs. W. R. Whichard, sent over for our Thanksgiving dinner.

The reason so many people go to D. S. Smith for a smoke is because he keeps a full line of the very best brands of cigars and they are sure to get suited.

They had a royal time in the Daniel T. Simpson home in New York one night last week. Daniel and his wife celebrated their golden wedding, their daughter, celebrated her silver wedding and their granddaughter was married. They pooled their issues as it were and had a good time.
