THE GROWTH AND DEVELOP-MENT OF THE GREENVILLE
N. C. TOBACCO MARKET

Some Interesting Facts About Greenville Now and Greenville Five Years Ago.

This house, that is perhaps the best known in Eastern North Carolina, was the second established in Greenville. It was built in 1892, and was opened on the 1st of September with one of the biggest occasions Greenville has known. The first season it was operated by O. L. Joyner and Alex. Heilbroner, and from the very start the Eastern took the lead of the market which position it has maintained ever since.

In the spring of 1893 Mr. Joyner purchased the interest of Mr Heilbroner in the business, and in the summer of the same year he sold an interest to O. Hooker.
Through the two seasons following Mr. Joyner conducted the business of the house alone with Mr. Hooker as a silent partner and under his splendid management the Eastern continued its successful career. Early this year a copartnership was formed between G. F. Evans, O. L. Joyner and O. Hooker, these three making the strongest team the market has ever had. Under this management the Eastern has gone on up the ladder, and so far this season has sold 40 per cent of the tobacco marketed here.

G. F. EVANS.

"Old Man Guss," as he is familiarly known to everybody, was among the first to become interested in tobacco culture in Pitt county and was the first to engage in the warehouse business in Greenville. From the start he has thrown his entire energy into it with a determination that

Greenville should take front rank in the Eastern markets. He is a superior judge of tobacco, possessing splendid business qualities, and is a man in whom the people have utmost confidence.

ner is. There is today not a more widely known man in the tobacco growing counties of the east than he. He has already told how he was induced to throw aside a flattering offer to go west and decide to cast his lot with the tobacco interests of Pitt county. When he came home from college, one's first impression of him was that he was just an ordinary overgrown boy, but a second glance told that there was something in him. The REFLECTOR was not slow to recognize that beneath the surface there was talent as well as push and enterprise, and feeling the very deepest interest in establishing a successful tobacco market here we opened the paper to him. He accepted the invitation and has since been regularly conducting a tobacco department in the REFLECTOR that has all along spoken for itself. It is not said with any spirit of boastfulness, but we honestly believe that what he has written through these columns has attracted more attention to the Greenville tobacco market than any other cause. To make a long story short, Olthos Joyner has been almost the life of the market. He has labored in season and out of season for its success, and has spent more money and worked harder in advertising it than any other man.

posed of three B's—brains, brass and beauty. By eliminating the the word brass and substituting another word beginning with B the tripple letters are combined very forcibly in Mr. Hooker. That he has the brain of a thorough business man goes without saying. While he makes no boast of beauty, in that particular he stands well above the average man, and—he's got the "boodle." The combination makes him by no means an undesirable partner. Though his first few years' connection with the tobacco industry was in a silent way, this season he is one of the active workers for the market and can be found at his post in the Eastern every day.

It is astonishing to see the difference of opinion as expressed by the Southern and Northern Press in respect to the causes which gave us the results of last Tuesday's election. The Southern Press, even that part of it which holds the views of Mr. Cleveland on the money question, are free to admit that the administration is largely responsible for the Republican landslide which came, and that part which advocates free silver does not hesitate to charge directly the results upon the powers that be.

The Northern Press attribute the result to the fact that the Democratic party is not standing by President Cleveland and go on to show that every man who has opposed Mr. Cleveland for the past two years was badly beaten Tuesday. The New York Herald goes so far as to say that the result of Tuesday's election makes it positively necessary that Mr. Cleveland be nominated if the Democrats expect to have any prospect of success.

An Old Hat.

At H. C. Hooker's store the REFLECTOR was shown a hat that is over a hundred years old. The hat is the property of W. B. Green. Bernard is not as old as the hat, of course, but he can tell you it's history just the same. He says it went through the war of 1812 and was an old hat then.

The Show Last Night.

Shedman Show last night had quite a nice house and the performance was good. The monkeys and dogs came in for a good share of praise and they were certainly well trained. The contortionist was far above the average and some acts were exceedingly difficult. The juggler was good, also the trapeze. There was nothing objectionable in the performance to offend any one.

Important Duty Devolved on the Clerks

Section 5, Chapter 159, of the Acts of 1895 is as follows: "That the Clerk of the Superior court of each county shall, within twelve months after the ratification of this Act, establish, alter or create separate places of election in their respective counties so as to provide, as near as may be, at least one separate place of voting for every three hundred and fifty electors in every sub-division of their respective counties, whether such sub-division be a township, village city or ward; of which said action the said clerk shall give due notice by advertisement in some journal published in the county, if any such there be; otherwise in some public place within the boundaries of each of said voting places or precincts, and at the courthouse door in the county." Ratified 8th March, 1895.

As Thanksgiving Day is getting near, at hand, the question may be asked by some one if the business houses will be closed up on that day. The custom has become so general in Greenville that the REFLECTOR feels safe in saying that the day will be observed by a suspension of all business.
