Adam and Eve

Wore CAPES AND COATS. They

always were and always will be a leading feature of women's wear—just now they are the vogue. Our Capes and Coats combine the elegance and completeness of up-to-date fashion, with the practical properties of the old-time Cloakings with a special price inducement for this week.

CLOVES!

If you fear temptation keep away from our Glove counter. We have a dollar Kid Glove that would tempt a miser. With some a dollar Glove is simply a pair of gloves for a dollar. With us it means the best Glove on earth for the price. If you want them for your own use or to give them to a friend, you can buy here without misgiving. A reasonable guarantee goes with every pair of dollar gloves.

C.T. Munford.

Have you an Eye

style, material and make. If you are, the knowledge will lead you here as the only place to satisfy you. If you are not, you should come here, any way, if only for protection. You cannot get a bad suit of us, we haven't got it. Only the choicest clothing that fine tailoring and honest materials will produce, nothing else. Compare our prices with anybody's.

CHRISTMAS EVE.

EUGENE FIELD.

Oh, hush thee, little Dear-my Soul.
The evening shades are falling—
Hush thee, my dear; dost thou not hear
The voice of the Master calling?

Deep lies the snow upon the earth,
But all the sky is ringing
With joyous song, and all night long
The stars shall dance with singing.

Oh, hush thee, little Dear-my Soul,
And close thine eyes in dreaming,
And angels fair shall lead thee where
The shining stars are beaming.

A shepherd calls his little lambs
And he longeth to caress them;
He bids them rest upon his breast
That his tender love may bless them.

So, hush thee, little Dear-my Soul,
Whilst evening shades are falling,
And above the song of the Heavenly
Thou shalt hear the Master calling.

CHRISTMAS DON'T'S.

Read Them Carefully and Increase Your Pleasure.

Don't celebrate too much—it looks bad.

Don't be cross with the children. It is their day.

Don't sit up Christmas-Eve playing poker all night.

Don't swear at the hard times. Make the best of them.

Don't grunt and roar as if the children make unusual noise.

Don't leave the price mark on any gift you make. It is shoddy.

Don't fail to give the children some thing. Pawn your coat, if necessary.

Don't eat too much. You will be a nuisance to yourself and every one else.

Don't spend $10 on the dinner and $2 on the children. Reverse the items.

Don't lie in bed all morning. Get up early and enjoy the best hour of the day.

Don't do any business on that day. Join the rest of the world in Fairyland.

Don't sulk because your husband did not give you a pair of diamond earrings.

Don't punish the children if they smash their toys. Let them enjoy the day in their own way.

Don't fail to give your house-servants something. They expect it, and will work the better for it.

Don't make fun of the cigars your wife may give you. It is a time-worn joke, and besides, causes needless pain.

Don't sulk or growl if your wife spends $20 on presents for her relatives. She has as much right to the money as you.

Don't tell the very young children there is no Santa Claus. It robs them of one of the most enchanting illusions of life.

Don't make any unfair discrimination in the gifts to the children. The slighted one will treasure the wrong for a long time.

Don't moan because you have spent twice as much as you intended. All do it, unless they are close-fisted, nose-grinding wretches.

Don't be mean above all things. Go down deep in your pocket and spend the last nickel, if necessary, to make the day pleasant for all.

Don't let the children know it if you are hard up. Do the best you can, and make them think they are having as fine a time as any one.

Don't stint the youngsters on candy. They will have the stomach-ache, and they will forget it; but they will long remember the pleasure of the feast.

Don't ridicule the Christmas dinner, even if it does not come up to expectations. Your wife has undoubtedly done the best in her power, and she feels the failure more deeply than you.

A STORY OF LOVE.

They sat together, side by side,
He bent her heart on winning,
His arm embraced her slender waist,
And the band played "Love's Beginning."

Said he, "My dear, 'tis thee I love,
My singing bird, my linnet.
And as he pressed her slender waist,
The band played "Fairly In It."

Above the heavens were all aglow,
Bright stars the sky adorning,
He kissed her lips—the band struck up,

"I Won't Go Home Till Morning."

Says she: "With you to foot the bills,

"Ill never want to die."

His face grew pale—the street band played,

"You'll Wink the Other Eye."

Orange (Va.) Observer.

An Excellent Number.

Christmas tide brings no visitor more welcome than the special Christmas Number of the Youth's Companion. Original, bright and striking, it is filled with a feast of good things, bringing pleasures alike to young and old. To the entire home circle its weekly visits are such a source of pleasure and profit, that the small subscription price of $1.75 should head the list of necessary household expenses.

Bethel Items.

BETHEL, N. C., Dec. 23rd.—Rev. W. A. Forbes and wife left last week to visit their daughter at Wallace.

Hon. F. G. James, Walter Wilson and J. A. Dupree of Greenville spent Saturday in town.

T. T. Hay, of Raleigh and Capt. Orren Williams of Tarboro, spent today in town.

Walter Harper and Hugh Mayo of Parmele spent Sunday in town.

The Reason.

Visitor (in the sanctum)—Why is it that while a lawyer in a court-room may call a man a liar, scoundrel, thief and so on, nothing comes of it afterwards, but if a newspaper prints such a reflection on a man's character, there is a libel suit or a dead editor?

Able Editor (promptly)—It is because the public believes what an editor says, but passes over the utterances of a lawyer as unworthy of attention.

An Excellent Appointment.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale has been selected as one of the Executive Committee of the Teacher's Assembly and will attend a meeting of this Committee in Raleigh next Friday night at which matters of vital importance will be attended to. No man on the Committee will be ready to do more than he for the future prosperity of the Assembly. His selection was a wise one as he stands foremost in educational matters in this section of the State.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24TH, 1895.

There is no period of the year to which so many people look forward with so much pleasure as that which is now upon us. It is as old as the centuries, and its hallowed customs have ever clung around it. It is but proper after the toils of a year of struggle, after the separations of twelve long months, after the weary watchings of so many long eventless nights, that we should cease from our toils, meet each other face to face and family with family, and leave our cares undisturbed, and think, and be and do only for each other's happiness.

To one and to all we say a happy, joyous Christmas, with the solacing remembrance when it is past that somebody has been made happier, some life brighter by some little act of our own.

The "Graveyard" insurance cases, of Beaufort, which have been on trial in Jones county for the past two weeks have been concluded. There was a verdict of guilty in every case that the state undertook to convict in. In pronouncing sentence upon those convicts Judge Graham said:

"If the evidence in these cases be true, the most stupendous crime ever committed in North Carolina has been unearthed. I suppose there is nobody that had any conception of the degree to which this rascality had gone. I can see how people could be drawn into this nefarious business of procuring or buying these policies upon these dying people and people who were likely to die, but few could be innocent. In order to procure these policies, forgery, false pretences and conspiracy were all committed. There has never been, within my knowledge, in the criminal annals of our whole country, a more gigantic conspiracy than this. Here we have the greatest crimes known except rape, murder, arson and burglary. It seems to have been going on for years, and it has drawn in a great many unsuspecting people, and these, in order to make money, either by the commissions or out of the policies, have committed these crimes. There has been enough forgery proven against Dr. T. B. Delamar to send him to the penitentiary for one hundred and fifty years, if all the cases for forgery were prosecuted against him, and the extreme punishment inflicted on him in each case.

"I regret circumstances are such that these men have not all been convicted of crimes for which I could impose punishment adequate to the offences proven. Many cases of forgery and false pretense being proven though not charged. But the crime of conspiracy is a misdemeanor and punishable only by imprisonment in jail and a fine. The crimes of false pretences and forgery are both felonies and can be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, and though I regret the same punishment cannot be meted out to all the defendants alike in these cases, still when this conspiracy is proven, when false pretences are proven, when forgery is proven to have been committed, then I must discharge my duty in each one of the cases, under the laws of North Carolina as I find it laid down in our statute books.

"It has been proven that these men, Levi T. Noe, J. C. Delamar and Selden D. Delamar were agents doing this fraudulent business; that Dr. T. B. Delamar was their medical examiner; that David Parker and William Fisher were their henchmen and went out and got the names of those people who were in the last stages of disease, as Parker said, "would die soon," in order, as one of the witness said, "they might make a little quick money."

"In the case of C. R. Hassell, if the evidence is to be believed he is the arch conspirator of the whole lot. He seems to have been engaged in this business for years, and his success for a time seems to have induced others to go into it. Then Noe took it up and after pursuing it for a year he takes the Delamars in with him. They are all induced by the success with which he has met to engage in this disreputable business.

"Then Bill Fisher comes in and forged the name of Florence Chadwick and others, and David Parker also appears as an agent and one of the conspirators. Their particular conspiracy was to defraud in probably 25 cases by the use of the names of a large number of people who were in the last stages of disease, many of whom were produced before the jury by the State. So without going into the details I repeat this is the most stupendous crime that has been committed in our State within my knowledge.

"As much as I sympathize with the families of these defendants in the misfortunes that have overtaken them, as much as I regret the disgrace that will have to attach to them the balance of their days, and as hard as it is for me to pronounce sentences in cases of this kind—for this is the hardest part of a Judge's life, I am bound to do my duty. The judgement of the court is that C. R. Hassell be confined in the State penitentiary at hard labor seven years; that Bill Fisher be confined in the penitentiary at hard labor five years; that Selden D. Delamar, J. C. Dolamar and Levi T. Noe be confined in the common jail of Craven county for a term of two years, and pay a fine of three hundred dollars each, that being the limit of imprisonment allowed by law."

An appeal having been taken, Hassell will give a justified bond in the sum of $1,500 for his compliance with the judgement of this court if affirmed by the Supreme Court.

The rest of the defendants will give bond in the sum of $1,000 each.

A Piece of News.

A little girl came home from Sunday school not long ago with an air of great importance as she bustled into the room where her parents were sitting. "Mamma," she cried, "did you know the widow of Nain's son was dead?" As her mother stared at her in utter bewilderment she went on importantly: "He is. I heard it in Sunday school this morning."

Jewels That Live.

Beauty, money and fame cannot be carried beyond the horizon line that shuts around this cradle of a world, but love, joy, peace, gentleness, faith, meekness, temperance are jewels which by their very nature will survive the transit of the world invisible.—F. E. Willard.

Cecil Rhodes.

Mr. Cecil Rhodes is peculiar in his way of living if the following is to be credited: "At home, although there are enough best bedrooms to put up quite a large circle of friends, Mr. Rhodes never sleeps in the house itself, but goes to rest in a room fitted up in an outhouse in the garden. There he knows he can be alone—alone with his work, his thoughts, free from intrusion and away from every sound of life. It matters not whether his home be full of friends or empty, he goes to his lonely room across the yard all the same."

The first cabbages grown in Great Britain were raised on the ground adjoining the abbey of Arbroath, having been produced from seeds obtained from Artois, in France.

Bombardment of the residence portion of towns, now forbidden by the laws of war, has been repeatedly practiced in spite of this prohibition.

"I am still of the opinion," said Mr. Billtops, "that the most exasperating of little things is a pen that won't mark."—New York Sun.

Moonstruck is borrowed from astrology. It formerly described one who was driven mad by sleeping in the rays of the moon.

EVERY BOY.

Wants or should want an Education.

And The Eastern Reflector is Going to help one Boy in that direction.

We will give absolutely free of charge a scholarship entitling the holder to free tuition in all the English branches for the entire spring term, 1896 (5 months) of Greenville Male Academy.

This is the best school for boys in Eastern North Carolina, and the boy will be fortunate who wins this prize. Y CONDITIONS.

This 5 months scholarship is to be given to the boy who will get the largest number of yearly subscribers for between now and 6 o'clock P. M. on Jan 11th, 1896. Two subscribers for 6 months or four subscribers for 3 months will count the same as one yearly subscriber. This is no catch penny device but a bonafide offer, and if only one subscriber should be brought during the time specified the boy who brings it will get the scholarship. Of course we expect more than one subscriber to be brought in, for this is a prize worth winning and many boys will work for it.

The Eastern Reflector

In order that there may be an incentive for every boy who wishes to enter this contest, we offer a cash commission of 10 per cent on all subscribers, so that those who fail to get the scholarship will be paid for their work, but the one who wins the scholarship will not get the commission. Now boys get to work with the determination to win this prize. You can get as many sample copies of the REFLECTOR as you need by applying to the office. If you decide to enter this contest send us your name as we wish to know how many boys are working for the prize. We will publish the result of the contest with the name of winner in the issue of the REFLECTOR of Jan. 15th, 1896, giving the successful boy time to enter school on the opening day of spring term Monday, Jan. 20th.

Address all letters to

SANTA CLAUS.

Found All These Folks in Their Stockings.

Rev. G. F. Smith returned from Louisburg Monday evening.

Z. F. Highsmith came over from LaGrange this morning.

G. E. Harrison left this morning to spend Christmas at Oxford.

J. J. Cherry Jr., left for Petersburg and Washington this morning.

Miss Aylmer Sugg went to Kinston Monday evening to spend the holidays.

Hon. J. H. Blount and Mrs. Blount went to Tarboro today to spend Christmas.

Mrs. Yancey and children left this morning to spend the holidays in Granville.

Miss May Woodard, of Durham, arrived Monday evening to spend the holidays here.

Prof. W. F. Harding came home from Charlotte Monday evening to spend the holidays with his parents.

Four children of L. V. Merrill, of Snow Hill, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Dr. W. M. B. Brown.

J. S. C. Benjamin, of Robersonville, spent Monday night here. We are glad to know he will return to Greenville to live next year.

J. K. Westbrook was taken sick very suddenly, Sunday evening, and for a while was very ill, but his many friends are glad to see him out again.

Mrs. Henry Hariss, Mrs. R. R. Carr, Misses May Hariss and Becca Worthington, and Jesse Speight, came home Monday evening from the Atlanta Exposition.

Christmas eve.

Hangings will be in order tonight.

Turkey catches it in the neck again today.

The express office is taxed with Christmas shipments.

There will be some horse racing out at the track tomorrow.

The little folks anxiously await the coming of Santa Claus.

Tomorrow will be the happiest morning of the year with the children.

Remember the poor to-morrow and help them to enjoy Christmas too.

The DAILY REFLECTOR sincerely wishes every one a merry Christmas.

Give the small boy and the tin horn full sway tomorrow and let them enjoy the day.

Dear Old Santa Claus, the children's best friend, will be around on his annual mission tonight.

The prettiest line of 5 and 10 cent tablets we ever had were received today at Reflector Book Store.

The town has been alive with people to-day, great throngs of Christmas purchasers being on the streets.

The Methodist Sunday School will have an old fashion candy stew in the Star Warehouse Thursday night.

Services will be held in the Episcopal church at 11 o'clock Christmas morning, conducted by Maj. Harding.

A man selling some kind of stuff was amusing the crowd on the public square to-day by rubbing lather on his face.

LOST.—A bunch of keys, finder will be liberally rewarded if left at this office or delivered to me.

B. C. PEARCE.

There will be the regular prayer meeting services in the Methodist church, Christmas night, and a marriage, too.

There will be regular services in the Baptist church Thursday night. A full attendance of the members is especially desired.

The REFLECTOR extends greetings to one of its Virginia exchanges, the Berkeley Graphic, upon the celebration of its sixth anniversary. It is a bright paper, and one we very much enjoy.

Weather prophet Hicks said we would have snow for Christmas, but the outlook is that he is going to miss it badly.

If it is more blessed to give than to receive, act upon that principle and see how blessed you can become to-morrow.

In a few days I will have 50 head of fine horses and mules, and they will be sold cheap. It will pay you to see me. J. F. KING.

Some beautiful box paper intended for holiday trade just arrived to-day at Reflector Book Store. As it is late you can get a box cheap by calling this evening.

The REFLECTOR is indebted to C. I. Hood & Co., manufacturers of Hood's Sarsaparilla, for some very handsome calendars. You can get one by calling on your druggist.

Touch 'em Off.

Boys, Mayor Forbes says you can shoot your pop-crackers and Roman candles from 6 o'clock this evening until sun rise Thursday morning. Now get ready for your fun, but be particular that you do no damage to person or property.

A Little Holiday.

The REFLECTOR boys after a hard year's work want a day or two of rest and recreation, and as the "old man" has considerable work to do on his books to get the business of the year in proper shape for closing up, we have decided not to issue the paper again until Saturday. We believe every reader will cheerfully accord us two days' after Christmas. The office will not be closed any day after Wednesday, and any one having business with us will find us in and ready to wait on them. We would appreciate filling up a good many subscription receipts, so don't hesitate to call. THE DAILY REFLECTOR will greet you again on Saturday.

Sale of Valuable Town Lot.

In obedience to an order made by the Board of County Commissioners at their meeting on the first Monday in November 1895, directing me as the Clerk of said Board to advertise for sale the lot belonging to the County of Pitt known in the plan of the town of Greenville as lot number 102, it being the lot now used by the town of Greenville as a Market House with the permission of the Board of County Commissioners. I, William M. King, ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Commissioners of Pitt County, do hereby give public notice that said lot will be exposed to public sale to the highest bidder, in front of the Court House door, at 12 o'clock M. on Monday the 6th day of January 1896. The terms of sale will be one third cash and the balance to be secured in two equal installments, payable in one and two years, with six per cent interest on deferred payments, with privilege to purchase to pay the whole at any time and take his deed. Title reserved until the whole of the purchase money is paid. The board reserves the right to affirm or disaffirm said sale. Notice is also given that the town government will be permitted to remove the Market House and other buildings erected on said lot by the town, in accordance with the agreement entered into at the time permission was given by the Board of County Commissioners to the town Commissioners to erect and use said buildings. The lot will be offered in three alternate ways which will be shown in detail on a plan on file in the office of the Register of Deeds and can be seen by the public at any time and will also be announced on day of sale.
