BEWARE OF SOCIAL DRINKING.

A Young Man Gives Some Good Advice.

MR. EDITOR:—Will you please allow me a short space in your valuable paper, not to express my views upon political matters, but to warn the young men of our country of taking social drinks. The writer is a young man, and with experience, and he knows the evil of social drinks. He knows that in the end it will bring trouble to every home. Only a few days ago I was standing upon our streets talking to two aged gentlemen, one of them had two of his little boys standing by his side and he looked across the street and saw two young men coming out of a bar and remarked that he wanted to see whiskey taken out the country. "Not on my account," he said "but on account of my little boys." Placing his hand upon their heads he continued "I may see them fill drunkard's grave."

Young men, do you ever look around you and see men that are worthless to themselves, to their family, to the country? Do you ever pause to think that in their young days they took social drinks, little thinking that they would ever fill a drunkard's grave? Step by step you are coming behind them and it will only take time to put you where they are. Do you ever pause to think of the trouble that those poor fallen men give to their wives and to their children? Night after night the poor wife sits upon her front door steps watching, waiting for him to come home. She knows he is drunk, hardly able to get home, and she cannot sleep until he comes.

Young men will you continue to take social drinks until you have lost all pride, then throw yourself away, and many of you make the life of some true and noble women a miserable one? Many of you to-day have mothers that sit upon the steps at night waiting for you to come. She knows you are taking social drinks and she is afraid that you will get into trouble. Do you ever think of the trouble that you are giving her? Do you know that the life that you are living is shortening the days of your mother? You must not give these things one minutes thought, if you were to, it seems to me that you could not help from turning your back upon that which is ruining you, and go home early and be a pleasure to your mother and sisters.

The young ladies are responsible to a certain extent for drinking and they could if they would reform a great many young men. I do not believe there is to-day a young lady in North Carolina but who has some influence over some young man. It has been only a few years ago that it was considered a disgrace for a young man to enter a ball room under the influence of whiskey and the ladies considered it an insult for him to speak to them. My lady friends, how is it to-day? I will answer it for you. If he can walk, that is sufficient, you care not, many of you, how many drinks he has taken, and we young men all know it. If we have not brass enough to talk as we would like to, we take a social drink or two and we can swear to the biggest story ever heard of. Young ladies, don't you know that you can put a stop to that and add happiness to many homes? If you do why not do it? Don't you know if you refuse to dance with your friend once, because he has had a drink, that in the future he will meet you in the ball room sober? But as you treat them, many, many of them attend the dances to drink and have a glorious time generally. Without a change what will become of the young men of our country? The ladies have the influence but they do not use it.

Young men use your own will power, live a life that will be a pleasure to your aged father and mother. Remember that they will not be with you long and let their last days be a pleasure to them. M.

TUESDAY, APRIL 21st, 1896.

FAILED TO FUSE.

On last Friday the committees of conference from the Republicans and Populists met in Raleigh. When the committees assembled Senator Butler read the following as the basis upon which the Populist were willing to co-operate:

Whereas, the difference between many of the cardinal principles of the National People's party and those of the National Republican party are so divergent as to be irreconcilable, and

Whereas, it is manifest that in order for two political parties to successfully and honorably co-operate together, that such co-operation must be based upon at least one cardinal principle which is common to both,

Resolved, That the sub-committee of five be, and it is hereby authorized to propose to the State committee of the Republican party of North Carolina, co-operation upon the basis of the preamble and resolutions adopted and signed by Hon. Henry M. Teller and fifteen other Republican United States Senators, including Senator Pritchard, relating to the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1; and the tariff; the same being in accord with at least one of the cardinal principles of the National People's party.

Resolved further, That the committee on the part of the Republican party be requested to communicate in writing its acceptance or rejection of this proposition, to the end that if accepted a further conference may be had to arrange the details of co-operation under the terms of the above proposition, it being understood that all candidates nominated in this State for Presidential electors and for State officers by their respective conventions and agreed upon by both of them shall support the above cardinal principle and vote for neither men nor measures antagonistic thereto.

"Whereas, The difference of exchange between standard silver countries is equivalent to a bounty of 100 per cent on the products of the silver standard countries and

"Whereas, The cost of production in the old world and particularly in China and Japan, is less than products can be produced or manufactured for in this country by American labor, without reducing our farmers, miners, mechanics, manufacturers and industrial workers to the level of Chinese coolies, therefore be it

"Resolved, That we are in favor of rescuing the people of the United States from such impending danger by removing the difference of exchange between gold standard countries and silver standard countries by the only method possible, which is the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, by the independent action of the United States, and we are in favor of a tariff which shall be sufficient to equalize the cost of production in the United States and in Europe and Asiatic countries and that the protection incident to such tariff shall be equally distributed in every section of the United States, and between the various products and industries of each State.

"H. M. Teller, F. E. Warren, Leo Mantle, G. L. Shoup, J. C. Pritchard, Ed. O. Wolcott, John H. Mitchell, Frank J. Cannon, R. F. Pettigrew, Fred T. Dubois, H. C. Hansborough, T. M. Carter, Geo. C. Perkins, J. D. Cameron, C. D. Clark, Arthur Brown."

The following shows the refusal of the Republicans to accept the proposed terms and a counter proposition by them to the Populist, which will be seen was also rejected:

RALEIGH, N. C., April 17, '96.
To the Conference Committee of the People's Party, Raleigh, N. C.

We respectfully decline your proposition to abandon the Republican organization in North Carolina and submit a counter proposition for co-operation on State and local affairs, in writing which is the limit to which we are willing to go.

A. E. Holton, chairman Rep. State Executive committee.

H. L. Grant, member State at large.
James H. Young, member State at large.

J. C. Pritchard.
Thomas Settle.

The following was then read by Holton as the proposed substitute for the proposition of the Populists:

RALEIGH, N. C. April 17, '96.
To the Conference Committee of the People's Party:

We the undersigned conference committee on behalf of the Republican State executive committee submit the following as the basis of co-operation for the approaching campaign.

1. In the apportionment of the several offices to be voted for the Republicans shall nominate and the Populists endorse the following candidates: (1) Governor, (2) attorney general, (3) auditor, (4) one justice of the Supreme court. And the Populists shall nominate and the Republicans endorse (1) lieutenant governor, (2) secretary of State, (3) treasurer, (4) superintendent of public instruction, (5) one justice of the Supreme court.

2. That there shall be complete co-operation between the respective parties in Congressional and legislative districts and counties as of 1894.

3. That the agreement heretofore made between the respective parties, according to the Senatorship to the Republican party, is hereby ratified and confirmed and the Populists are to support the nominee of the Republican party.

4. That under existing conditions each party shall run its own electoral ticket.

A. E. Holton, Chairman Republican State executive committee.

H. L. Grant, member from State at large.

James H. Young, member from State at large.

J. C. Pritchard.
Thomas Settle.

Hardly had he finished reading when Senator Butler declared it would be impossible to fuse on any such basis, but that they would present the proposition to the full Executive committee which was at that moment in session in his room. This was done and Secretary Ayer was ordered to prepare and present to chairman Holton the following formal note of declination of the proposed terms.

To the Conference Committee of the State Republican Executive Committee:

Gentlemen: I am instructed by the State Executive committee of the People's party to respectfully inform you that your proposition for a basis of co-operation between the Republican party and People's party in this State is declined.

Very respectfully,
H. W. AYER,
Secretary.

And thus ended the attempt to fuse.

There was kicking on both sides, but thus ended the labors of the conference committees and so far as they are concerned fusion is at an end.

An Ohio woman has given birth to a couplet which it is said will rival the Siamese twins, if the children live. The connection extends from the shoulders to the top of the head. It is really two bodies with one head, although each face has all the features, save there is but one pair of ears. One is a boy, the other a girl.

It is not many weeks since the gold Democrats were standing the silver Democrats up in line, and asking them if they were going to bolt if the Chicago convention adopted a "sound money" platform. Now the bolt, so to speak, seems to be on the other leg. Several gold delegations have already bolted because free silver planks have been adopted in Democratic conventions—notably in Iowa, Oregon and Kentucky—and there is more talk in one day of bolting on the part of the sound money men if the Chicago platform does not suit them than any silver Democrats have given voice to in a week—Asheville Citizen.

The Pop-Rad fusion in North Carolina seems to have been followed by discord among the enemies of Democracy and the fact strongly suggests the wisdom of the fullest possible concord among the Democrats of the Old North State.—Richmond Dispatch.

A transparent mirror was brought from Germany to this country a few months ago by a New York firm and the perplexing properties of the glass excited much curiosity. It was at once in demand for many purposes, and the same firm is now engaged in importing it in large quantities. The coating is placed on one side of the glass just the same as the silvering on the mirror and has the same properties of reflecting the rays of light and color. The difference however, is that when looked at from the back the coating is entirely transparent. To one sitting indoors the view without is not obstructed in the least, but a pedestrian peering into the window or doorway is greeted by his own reflection. The glass is used largely in lieu of screens, where privacy is desired without obstruction of light from the outside or barring the vision of those inside. It was introduced with effect first in a New York club window. Behind it the chappies could sit and ogle the girls and view the passing throng without being themselves observed. Its use is also restored to in cafes and semi-public places, where it offered privacy to those lounging inside, while the latter had an undisturbed view of the street.

He Got an Answer.

For grave speeches of importance delivered with weight, Bismarck was, of course, most celebrated. When annoyed he nearly always adopted a jesting tone, which must have sounded to his frightened friends much as if the tiger in the menagerie had greeted them with a cordial handshake before devouring. "Do you mean to break the convention of Gasteln?" bluntly demanded the Austrian ambassador, Count Kurolyi, of the Prussian minister-president. "No," replied the latter, with great directness, "but even if I did so, do you think I should be such a fool as to tell you?"—Detroit Free

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The Greek nose was straight and tolerably prominent.

—The one prudence in life is concentration; the one evil is dissipation.—Emerson.

—Among the 1,000 persons making up the population of Alfred, Me., are 24 between the ages of 80 and 90 years.

—Springfield, Ill., is built on 5½ square miles of ground and has 30,000 population, who owe $902,350 and own $5,837,495.

—Among the Mongolians, Indians and negroes, the internal cavities of the nose are more largely developed than among the Caucasians.

—A woman working in a factory at Coloma, Mich., for 75 cents a day, last week fell heir to a fortune of $62,000 through the death of an uncle in Germany.

—The tapir's snout is an extension of his nose. This singular animal is regarded by some naturalists as the intermediate class between the elephant and the pig.

—The whale's nose is on top of his head, at least his nostrils are situated there, through which he expels the columns of water during the action known as "spouting." Whales only spout when they are feeding.

—The shovel fish uses his nose as a tool to make his living. By means of his nasal protuberance he turns over the mud of the bottom of the sea and unearths the worms and small shell fish on which he feeds.

—The treasury circulation statement issued February 1 gives the amount of gold in the United States, outside the treasury, as $499,110,535. The amount of all kinds of money in circulation is placed at $1,589,720,607, an increase since January 1, 1896, of $10,513,883. The per capita circulation is $22.47.

—Strangely enough, the city of Philadelphia has never had a fitting monument to its most illustrious citizen, Benjamin Franklin. But it will have at least two in the near future. Justus C. Strawbridge, of Philadelphia, has commissioned John J. Boyle to model a statue of Franklin, and another statue of him will soon be erected by the Fairmount Park Art association.

THE NEGRO IN THE SOUTH.

Customs in Regard to His Treatment Are Slowly Changing.

The southern people say that a northern man, after living south a few years, is a fierce negro-bater, far outdoing the southern man in his antagonism to the negro race, much more intolerant of the negro's inherent characteristics. It is, however, the northern people who are helping the negroes to educate themselves. This is not said in criticism of the southern people, for conditions were made for them long ago, and their feelings and opinions in regard to the whole negro question are the result of hereditary environment, which will in time be changed by the new conditions.

It is simply impossible for them to look at the negro as we do. Illustrations of this are constantly met in going about the city. One morning, when starting for the fair grounds, a bus driver on his way back from the grounds drew up his horse to the walk, where several were waiting for the car, and said if we would make up a load he would turn around. When we started off there was room for two more in the bus and room for one on the seat with the driver. I sat next to the driver on the inside, and we had gone only a few rods when a neatly-dressed, very respectable young colored woman and a boy, also well-dressed, signified by a slight gesture that they wanted to ride. The driver did not see it, so I said: "There are two passengers." He drew up to the walk and the woman and boy got in. The driver looked around at them, and then, utterly regardless of their feelings, said in a loud voice: "If I had known it was a nigger I wouldn't have stopped." But he did not turn them out. A few rods further an Italian, dirty and ill-kept, stood with his harp by his side, as if he also were waiting for a ride, and our driver pulled up his horses and pointed to the seat beside him; but the harpist was not ready to go, so we drove on.

It is simply a conflict of ideas, not personal antipathy. A young southern woman was shocked because we two northern women went to lunch in the negro building. She acknowledged that a colored cook always prepared her meals, and a colored waiter always served her, but to go to a restaurant where a colored man's brain managed the business, and a colored man or woman might occupy a table next to you—that she could not conceive of a white person's doing.

The negro has, however, made a great stride by this exhibition. Not so much by the simple showing what they can manufacture as by the fact that they are allowed to do it in such a peaceable and even friendly way, and have brains enough to manage their department, and to manage it so well. It seems there was some misunderstanding at the outset, for their are notices put up all through the negro building stating that colored people are not restricted to their own building, but are at liberty to go wherever they please inside the grounds, enjoying the same privileges as their white neighbors.—Springfield (Mass.)

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by

P. P. P., Lippman's

Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD

HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE

NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the nights coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.
Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.
Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night. I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1891.
J. M. LAMBERT, N. P.,
Comanche County, Texas.

Catarrh Cured by P. P. P.

(Lippman's Great Remedy) where all other remedies failed. Rheumatism twists and distorts your hands and feet. Its agonies are intense, but speedy relief and a permanent cure is gained by the use of P. P. P.

Woman's weakness, whether nervous or otherwise, can be cured and the system built up by P. P. P. A healthy woman is a beautiful woman.

Pimples, blotches, eczema and all disfigurements of the skin are removed and cured by P. P. P.

P. P. P. will restore your appetite, build up your system and regulate you in every way. P. P. P. removes that heavy, down-in-the-mouth feeling.

For Blotches and Pimples on the face, take P. P. P.

Ladies, for natural and thorough organic regulation, take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, and get well at once.

Trees and Caterpillars.

The trees are late budding this year, but the caterpillars are on time, therefore it is the more important to destroy these ravenous creatures. When the leaves have a fair start a single large limb will furnish food for a nest of caterpillars, but when they are eaten from the very bud the whole tree is liable to be stripped and neighboring trees injured. Tie a torch with a wire to a pole and burn them out. A soft brick bat saturated with kerosene oil makes a good torch. Another and perhaps better plan is to nail an old tin pan or bucket to a pole, put in live coals and feed the fire with chips. A second red is useful to rake the "worms" from the top of the limb. But if one can't take time to burn them, they can be badly injured by a sound pelting with clubs.—Durham Sun.

LOST IN THE WOODS.

And Remains Eight Days Without Food.

On Sunday morning the 12th inst., Miss Lilia Harrington, who lives at the home of her brother, Mr. Paul Harrington, in Contentnea township left home to visit relatives a few miles away. Not returning by the close of the week she was sent for on Saturday, when it was learned that she had not been to the house which she left home to visit, and nothing could be heard from her. The family became alarmed and started a search for her. Failing to find her on Saturday evening, a hundred men gathered on Sunday morning to make a more thorough search. They went up the railroad as far as she had last been seen on the previous Sunday, then separated a few feet apart to go through the pocosin. After going about half a mile in the woods some of her clothing was found, and a little further on they found Miss Harrington in an exhausted and helpless condition. She had been eight days without food and begged piteously for water as she was being taken out of the woods. Miss Harrington is about 60 years old. The family had noticed that at times she talked strangely as though her mind was slightly affected, and her wandering off in the woods is attributed to this. Since being taken back home she is getting along very well.
