A Fine Business Block.

Elliot Bros.' new two-story brick block on the east side of Evans street, the contract for which has been awarded to Riddick & Barnes, of Suffolk, Va., will be the finest block of buildings ever erected in Greenville. All the material will be the very best. The front will be of pressed brick, and the roof covered with the best Glendale tin.

The first floor will be devoted to business purposes and the second to both business and professional as may be wanted.

The stores will be fitted up in the most modern style with fine, large show windows. They will occupy one floor or two floors as the tenant may prefer. Those with two floors will be provided with stairways and with Bates' best elevators if desired. There will be five large offices in the building suitable for doctors, lawyers, dentists or bachelors' sleeping rooms. All these will have large windows and transoms to give plenty of light and air, and will be reached by an easy stairway from the street. To make the stores and offices cool in summer ventilators will be placed in the front and in the roof of the building. Work has commenced and the building is to be completed and ready for occupancy by the 15th of August.

'LIDGEON, AND DE NIGGER.'

Fo you clam up ter de angels,
You got ter lef you sin,
Fo you holler in de meetin'
You mus' be borned agin,
Fo you gie de white man pledges
You got ter git up mity soon,
And fo you sop de skillet,
You got ter ketch up wid de coon.
Fo you rassel wid de scriptur
You got ter be baptise,
And gie de watermillion chance
And lef off tellin' lies,
Den you gin ter sniff de breezes
Dat is long de hebenly paff,
Siftin all de whea' out ter yoursef
And 'scussin dat what's chaf.'

Nowe dyah is Brer Ableham
From yonder cross de crick,
For zortine in de meetin'
He can knock de biggest lick,
Er shoutin' en er trampin'
Tell he fyarly fit ter bus'
Den I know mer watermillion
Gwinter git rite up and dus
An' when I hear him tote de chune
Long side er Sister Luce,
I gwine ter keep my eye ball sot
Square pun mer chicken roose.
An' when he ramble scripter
In de high-falutin style,
I gwine straight home an' chain mer
dog
Jam gin mer fodder pile.

Now dis is what de difference is
Twix lidgeon and de nigger,
You got ter nus dis lidgeon
Till hits biggerer an' biggerer.
You got ter nus it in de church
An' in de tater ro.
Er torkin out yo sperunce
An' er wucken wid de ho.
Case dis lidgeon er de nigger
Is er monstus curus ting,
It low you to de chicken roose,
But not de pidgeon wing.
So you got to nus dis lidgeon
Till hits biggerer an' biggerer,
An' when he nigh de million patch
You got ter nus de nigger.

IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Matters Of Interest Over the State.

A boiler explosion at Monroe, instantly killed two men and wounded several others.

The Democrats of the Ninth district have nominated J. S. Adams, of Asheville, for Congress.

The University of North Carolina baseball team will leave Chapel Hill about the 8th of June for a tour of the Northern States.

The State Board of Medical Examiners, in session at Winston last week, granted license to 62 applicants, one of them a lady. Fifteen applicants failed to pass.

Oakley Items.

OAKLEY, N. C., May 18th, 1896.
—Rev. Mr. Barns, of Bethel, filled his appointment at Piney Green school house Sunday evening.

We are glad to be able to state that our people in this section are improving from lagrippe.

It was our pleasure to attend the Democratic meeting at Stokes' Saturday, 16th, and everything was harmonious. Our Populist friends, some of them, came in and took a part in the meeting and I am sure that everything will be all right in time, and that is as it should be. There are not but two parties in this country of ours, and all men that desire good government should join in with the Democrats and make one common cause against the Russell gang.

Bicycle Club.

Our local wheelmen met at the store of Baker & Hart, on Monday night, and organized a club to be known as the Greenville Cycle Club. The officers elected were L. H. Pender, President; J. S. C. Benjamin, Vice President; H. C. Hooker, Secretary and Treasurer; W. I. Pender, Captain.

The club is having a riding path built up at the base ball ground in Skinnerville. This path is oval-shaped, one-sixth of a mile around and 16 feet wide. The track will soon be completed and will afford a nice place for riding or racing.

TUESDAY, MAY 19TH, 1896.

The nomination of Daniel L. Russell by the Republicans as their candidate for Governor is variously commented upon with wide divergent views. With any party except the Republican party he would not stand a shadow of a chance of carrying anything like the vote of his own party. He would run twenty-five thousand behind the remainder of the ticket. But it will hardly make any difference with his followers what he has said or done. There is one thing the Republicans have ever been powerful in and that is in driving every man into line when the day of election comes. This they will doubtless do this time or at least make an effort along that line. Russell, however, has more to overcome than any man the convention could have nominated. It remains to be seen whether he can be elected. He will be elected by Republicans if he is elected because we have no idea that Populists will take any stock in the work of that remarkable convention at Raleigh last week. Never was more corruption seen than was here exhibited. Everybody ought to say down with such a party.

HIS EYES OPENED.

A Recent Convert to Republicanism Recants, Abjures and Abhors His Affiliation With the Party.

GOLDSBORO, May 16.—Mr. James R. Holt, Jr., the young cotton manufacturer, who recently went over to the Republican party because he was an advocate of protection and was made a delegate to the St. Louis Convention, is in the city today by chance, and here met and viewed the returning Republican forces from the State Convention that last night nominated Russell for Governor. In consequence, he publishes this afternoon in the Goldsboro daily Argus the following letter, which speaks for itself:

"Editor Argus.—It is an old saying, but a true one that 'self preservation is the first law of nature.' Acting on this principle from a mistaken standpoint of view as to in what consisted my preservation as a purely business question I have of late lent my aid and influence to the furtherance of the policy of protection championed by McKinley and advocated by the Republican party, and I have gone so far as to permit myself to be named as a delegate from the Fifth (my resident district) to the St. Louis National Convention. But Mr. Editor, to-day in the city of Goldsboro, on my way home from the session of the Mystic Shrine in Newbern, I am greeted by a scene that gives me pause, and deeper reflection than heretofore. I have read of the scenes and experiences of 1868, as we read of other dark epochs in history; but reared since that time, growing up under the benign influence of Democracy and enjoying only the pacific blessings and elevating experiences that appertain to its supremacy, I could not comprehend what 'The Men of Old' endured, nor could my mind formulate a picture so dark as their words painted. But to-day in Goldsboro I am able to approximate from what Democracy has delivered the State and to what we are again trending. I am greeted here by a seething surging mass of conglomerated humanity, howling negroes and exultant white men, arm in arm, bearing aloft a banner with the painted picture of 'D. L. Russell, Our Choice for Governor,' and with McKinley badges 'on the side.' And this is the party with which I have become allied, and this is the ilk, negro and all, with which I am to consort at St. Louis. 'My God, Abernathy!' Never! I hereby recant, abjure, abhor my affiliation with this party that fosters and glories in such scenes in North Carolina.

I believe, Mr. Editor, in honest money, sound money, if you will, honest values and in 'our' turn at protection to the infant manufacturing industries of the South but what would industry, however much exalted, amount to in a State, dominated by Russell and his mob of howling savages? Yes, Mr. Editor, there is protection and there is protection, and for that greater protection I hereby withdraw as a delegate to the St. Louis Convention, renounce my affiliation with the Republican party, only just begun, I am happy to say, and return an humble but earnest worker in the ranks of the Democracy for white supremacy in North Carolina, good government economically administered, and home protection.

Very truly,

J. H. HOLT, JR.

LOW-DOWN BREED.

I'd a got off mighty sartin an' I neber would be'n collared
Ef dat stunted yaller rooster hadna' loosed his naick an' hollered,
Dat petteroller neber see me comin' from de roos',
An' I step as light as fadders dat's a drappin' f'om de goose.
Dar warn't no dogs a yellin' an' no squinch owls anyhow,
An' all de game I had I fought war hypnotize fo' fa'r.
De night was eben darker dan dis dark-complected gent,
An' de a'mosere so heaby dat de blood-houn' couldn't scent.
An' I'm shuah, yas, I knows, I would'nt eben be'n a-follered
Ef dat scabby yaller rooster hadn't lifted up an' hollered.

An' dat speunce sorter teach me w'en I do mer fuchtn pickin's
Dat I wants ter draw de limit at his low-down bread er chickens.

A Pitiful Sight.

Sheriff G. M. Johnson, of Clay county, came down the Western last night en route to Raleigh with three prisoners, who will serve out sentences in the State prison.

The group attracted considerable attention and much sympathy from the bystanders. One of the three prisoners was a young woman, Eliza Stiles, and she will serve out a sentence of twelve months for stealing tobacco from a barn in Clay county.

She was handcuffed and chained to the other prisoners, one of whom is her husband. He goes to prison for the same crime and will serve a like sentence.

The other prisoner, a man named Bivins, goes to the pen for nine months for stealing a sheep.

The woman seemed to feel keenly her degraded condition, as, surrounded by a crowd of on-lookers in the waiting room, she leaned on the breast of her husband and tried to hide her face from the gaze of the curious.—Salisbury World.

Life is too short for neighbor to be eternally plotting to destroy the happiness of his neighbor.

When a man really loves his neighbor as himself it generally turns out that the neighbor is a pretty girl!

Courage.

Have the courage to wear your old garments till you can pay for new ones.

Have the courage to pass the bottle without filling your glass.

Have the courage to speak your mind when it is necessary that you should do so, and to hold your tongue when it is better that you should be silent.

Have the courage to pay a debt while you have the money in your pocket

Have the courage to provide an entertainment for your friends within your means, not beyond them.

Have the courage to own that you are poor, if you are so.

Have the courage to obey your Maker, at the risk of being ridiculed by man.—Chatterbox.

"So you have been having a pretty dry time out in Kansas?" "Dry? Well, rather. Why, the air was so dry out there that the moon used to fairly raise a dust as it went through the sky, and the moisture was all evaporated out of the milky way, until it looked like a long trial of pulverized chalk." "How did you get water for yourselves and stock?" "Well, that was a hard matter. We used to have to run the well through the clothes wringer every morning to get water for cooking, and we would go and throw a lot of little pebbles on the barn to make the horses think it was rain falling on the roof, and in that way keep them from getting discouraged."—New York Truth.

FAITHFULLY KEPT HIS PLEDGE.

Promised His Mother He Would Never Play Cards Again.

A party of well-dressed men met at a leading hotel the other night. A game of poker was proposed, when one of them said:

"I never play, so you will have to excuse me, gentlemen."

"Why, I played with you several years ago," said one.

"Yes, but since that time my mother died. For years before her death I was a professional gambler, and it nearly broke her heart, for she had always hoped that I would make my mark in some honorable profession. At her deathbed, three years ago, I promised her that I would never touch another card, and I have kept my word. I never will."

His companions were visibly affected by this candid recital, and one of them said:

"I honor you for your course, and we will not play poker to-night. I suppose you went into a profession when you ceased your career as a gambler, and I hope you have been successful."

"Very," replied the reformed card player. "In three years I am about $50,000 ahead, and I would not have been worth a dollar if I had continued in my former course."

"May I ask what profession you now follow?"

"Certainly. I am a bookmaker. Bet on horse races exclusively."

Then silence reigned.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The Greek nose was straight and tolerably prominent.

—The one prudence in life is concentration; the one evil is dissipation.—Emerson.

—Among the 1,000 persons making up the population of Alfred, Me., are 24 between the ages of 80 and 90 years.

—Springfield, Ill., is built on 5½ square miles of ground and has 30,000 population, who owe $902,350 and own $5,857,195.

—Among the Mongolians, Indians and negroes, the internal cavities of the nose are more largely developed than among the Caucasians.

—A woman working in a factory at Coloma, Mich., for 75 cents a day, last week fell heir to a fortune of $62,000 through the death of an uncle in Germany.

—The tapir's snout is an extension of his nose. This singular animal is regarded by some naturalists as the intermediate class between the elephant and the pig.

—The whale's nose is on top of his head, at least his nostrils are situated there, through which he expels the columns of water during the action known as "spouting." Whales only spout when they are feeding.

—The shovel fish uses his nose as a tool to make his living. By means of his nasal protuberance he turns over the mud of the bottom of the sea and unearths the worms and small shell fish on which he feeds.

—The treasury circulation statement issued February 1 gives the amount of gold in the United States, outside the treasury, as $499,110,535. The amount of all kinds of money in circulation is placed at $1,589,720,607, an increase since January 1, 1896, of $10,513,883. The per capita circulation is $22.47.

—Strangely enough, the city of Philadelphia has never had a fitting monument to its most illustrious citizen, Benjamin Franklin. But it will have at least two in the near future. Justus C. Strawbridge, of Philadelphia, has commissioned John J. Boyle to model a statue of Franklin, and another statue of him will soon be erected by the Fairmount Park Art association.

THE NEGRO IN THE SOUTH.

Customs in Regard to His Treatment Are Slowly Changing.

The southern people say that a northern man, after living south a few years, is a fierce negro-hater, far outdoing the southern man in his antagonism to the negro race, much more intolerant of the negro's inherent characteristics. It is, however, the northern people who are helping the negroes to educate themselves. This is not said in criticism of the southern people, for conditions were made for them long ago, and their feelings and opinions in regard to the whole negro question are the result of hereditary environment, which will in time be changed by the new conditions.

It is simply impossible for them to look at the negro as we do. Illustrations of this are constantly met in going about the city. One morning, when starting for the fair grounds, a bus driver on his way back from the grounds drew up his horse to the walk, where several were waiting for the car, and said if we would make up a load he would turn around. When we started off there was room for two more in the bus and room for one on the seat with the driver. I sat next to the driver on the inside, and we had gone only a few rods when a neatly-dressed, very respectable young colored woman and a boy, also well-dressed, signified by a slight gesture that they wanted to ride. The driver did not see it, so I said: "There are two passengers." He drew up to the walk and the woman and boy got in. The driver looked around at them, and then, utterly regardless of their feelings, said in a loud voice: "If I had known it was a nigger I wouldn't have stopped." But he did not turn them out. A few rods further an Italian, dirty and ill-kept, stood with his harp by his side, as if he also were waiting for a ride, and our driver pulled up his horses and pointed to the seat beside him; but the harpist was not ready to go, so we drove on.

It is simply a conflict of ideas, not personal antipathy. A young southern woman was shocked because we two northern women went to lunch in the negro building. She acknowledged that a colored cook always prepared her meals, and a colored waiter always served her, but to go to a restaurant where a colored man's brain managed the business, and a colored man or woman might occupy a table next to you—that she could not conceive of a white person's doing.

The negro has, however, made a great stride by this exhibition. Not so much by the simple showing what they can manufacture as by the fact that they are allowed to do it in such a peaceable and even friendly way, and have brains enough to manage their department, and to manage it so well. It seems there was some misunderstanding at the outset, for their are notices put up all through the negro building stating that colored people are not restricted to their own building, but are at liberty to go wherever they please inside the grounds, enjoying the same privileges as their white neighbors.—Springfield (Mass.)

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by

P. P. P., Lippman's
Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD

HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE

NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the night coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.
Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga. Gent: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night. I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally. Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1891.
J. M. LAMBERT, N. P.,
Comanche County, Texas.

Catarrh Cured by P. P. P.

(Lippman's Great Remedy) where all other remedies failed. Rheumatism twists and distorts your hands and feet. Its agonies are intense, but speedy relief and a permanent cure is gained by the use of P. P. P. Woman's weakness, whether nervous or otherwise, can be cured and the system built up by P. P. P. A healthy woman is a beautiful woman. Pimples, blotches, eczema and all disfigurements of the skin are removed and cured by P. P. P. P. P. P. will restore your appetite, build up your system and regulate you in every way. P. P. P. removes that heavy, down-in-the-mouth feeling. For Blotches and Pimples on the face, take P. P. P. Ladies, for natural and thorough organic regulation, take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, and get well at once.

Badly Hurt.

Monday afternoon a 10-year-old son of Mr. Marshal Cox, of Chicod township, was driving a log cart. In some way the windlass that held up the log became unfastened and the lever flew over and struck the boy on the back. The boy was badly hurt and narrowly escaped being instantly killed.

The Norfolk Excursion.

Wednesday, 27th, is the date for the big excursion from Washington to Norfolk. Parties from Greenville and other points in this vicinity can take the morning train to Parmele and meet the excursion train there. It will be a good chance for a delightful trip at a low price. The round trip fare from Parmele is only $2.50.

The Outlook Encouraging.

So far the REFLECTOR has received reports of the primary meetings held last Saturday from all but two townships in the county. The news that comes from all these townships is that the meetings were largely attended and everything passed off harmoniously. Several townships passing resolutions in favor of the free coinage of silver indicates the strong sentiment in that direction that prevails throughout the county. In some of the meetings men who two years ago left the party and went with the Populists came back and identified themselves with the Democrats. The Democracy of Pitt has good cause to look for success in the coming campaign.
