TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY.

Important Matters at the Asheville Session.

Most all teachers are church going people, in consequence the congregations of the various churches were largely increased on Sunday at both services. Many of us were also present at the Sunday School exercises.

On Monday morning the work of the Assembly was resumed, and probably the most interesting lecture of the session was listened to. It was interesting on the one hand because it was upon a subject that so many of us knew so little about and again because so much clear, plain information was given upon it. The subject was the "New Photography, or the Roentgen Rays." discussed by Dr. Henry Louis Smith. He said that these rays were destined to be used very largely by the Medical profession, and illustrated what could be done with them by some things he had done himself.

Dr. Kemp P. Battle, Prof. of History at the University followed with admirable paper upon "Some Observations on the Hundred Years' History of our State and National Constitution."

Dr. J. S. Bassett, Prof. of History at Trinity College, gave us a charming paper on "The Life of the Spirit in Historical Studies". Dr. Bassett is a live man and is doing a great work in collecting historical data.

"The Place of the Classics in a Liberal Education" was pleasingly presented by Prof. Hugh Morson of the Raleigh Male Academy and W. S. Drewry of the Fayetteville Military School.

The evening session was occupied by Mr. Nourse in rendering Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde.

The last day of the session was spent in discussing the following questions:

"The Place of the Fine Arts in a Liberal Education"

Music—Prof. Vernon Darnall, Peace Institute.

Poetry—Prof. Henry J. Stockard, Monroe Male Academy.

Art—W. G. Randall, Artist, Raleigh.

"A Complete Education" by Dr. J. B. Shearer, President of Davidson College.

We did not hear these discussions but they were doubtless in keeping with the former ones. Thus ended one of the best sessions ever held of the Assembly and one we hope may be often repeated. W. H. R.

Moonlight Excursion.

Our young people had another very enjoyable moonlight excursion down the river, on Steamer Myers, Friday night, under the auspices of the base ball club. The steamer left at 9 o'clock, went about ten miles and returned at 12. About thirty couples and some stags were along, and everybody seemed to have a good time. The night was delightful for such an outing. The baseball boys cleared a right good sum for he benefit of the club.

Farmers' Institute.

On Monday and Tuesday, July 6th and 7th, Hon. S. L. Patterson, Commissioner of Agriculture, with one of the professors of the A. & M. College, will hold a Farmers' Institute in Greenville. Dr. Williamson, a Veterinary Surgeon of Raleigh, will also be present and deliver an address on the diseases of animals, cause and treatment probably on the second day. This institute will be of vast interest to the farmers of Pitt county, and a large number of them should be present on both days.

The Home of Bright Tobacco.

But little "golden leaf tobacco" is grown outside the borders of the State of North Carolina, in fact this can rightly be called the home of bright tobacco. What a misnomer it then is to have it quoted in the markets of the world as "Virginia Brights."—Rocky Mount Argonaut.

For twenty-five years we have been fighting this most palpable fraud. We have aforesaid seen in Northern cities "Best Virginia Brights" advertised when every pound of it was grown in North Carolina and sold in the Danville, Richmond and Petersburg markets. It is a sham and lie, as well as an outrage, to palm off North Carolina fine tobaccos as the product of Virginia. But over there they have robbed our soldiers of their good name and their splendid achievements and sell our fine gold cured tobacco as grown in "Old Virginia."—Wilmington Messenger.

Failure to List Your Taxes a Misdemeanor.

The Fayetteville Observer calls attention to a fact not generally known, when it says:

We venture to say that but few of our people know that it is a criminal offence not to list one's property for taxation. Section 28 of the Machinery act of 1895 says:

"All persons who are liable for poll-taxes and shall wilfully fail to list it within the time allowed before the list taker or the board of commissioners, shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned more than thirty days."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26th, '96

Little except the Chicago convention is talked about by the politicians of all parties who are now in Washington.

All sorts of guesses are being made as to what the convention will do, but nobody pretends to be able to do more than guess.

One thing seems certain, if such Democrats as Senators Harris, of Tenn., and Jones, of Ark., are in touch with the controlling element in the convention, as they are believed to be.

That is, that Senator Teller will not be even seriously considered as a candidate for the Presidential nomination.

Another thing which seems probable, if not quite certain, is that the South will not furnish the candidate.

Senator Blackburn who has been endorsed by the Kentucky Democrats will, it is stated, declare his appreciation of the compliment and then decline the support offered, because of his belief that it would be unwise to nominate a southern man.

It is generally admitted by Democrats that the fight in the Chicago convention will probably be the bitterest since the convention of 1860, but they all hope that the result will not be so disastrous; and are all certain whatever the outcome that there will not be two Democratic Presidential tickets in the field this year.

Ample time is to be given for the delegates to fully consider the platform and the ticket, with the understanding that when action is taken it shall be concurred in by the minority.

Notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts which President Cleveland and his friends are making to prevent it, the general impression among all classes of politicians is that the platform will declare for the independent free coinage of silver by this country at the ratio of 16 to 1.

There was no surprise in Washington when it was stated as coming direct from Mr. Hobart himself that his nomination for Vice-President was the result of an understanding months before the convention with Mark Hanna, but when Hobart's talk got back to Hanna there was probably a few remarks made which could not be printed in a family newspaper.

One Republican remarked when told what Hobart had said that he thought Hanna might at least have selected a man for second place on the ticket who knew enough to keep his mouth shut.

It looks like it may be ascertained after a while just what it costs to make armor plate for warships.

During the last session of Congress the Senate Naval committee made a bluff at finding out, but it made such a bad failure that the House committee announced its intention to try, and meanwhile insisted upon inserting in the naval appropriation bill a clause instructing the Secretary of the Navy to make no more contracts for armor plate until Congress acted upon the matter.

and also instructing him to have an investigation made by naval officers.

This week Secretary Herbert appointed a board consisting of Capt. W. T. Sampson, chief of the Bureau of Ordnance; Lt. Commander N. E. Niles, and Lt. A. A. Ackerman to investigate and report to Congress.

The general belief is that too much has been charged for the plates by the only two concerns in the country which have the plants to make them.

"I see," said a man who served in Congress with McKinley and who knows him too well to vote for him, "that Mark Hanna is reported to have said that McKinley secured that nomination without making any promises.

If Hanna said that he must have been joking, for he must know that making promises has always been a weakness with McKinley.

Why, it kept him in hot water nearly all the time he was Governor of Ohio, and he even went so far sometimes as to promise the same thing to two different men.

In one such case, where both men had too much influence to be turned down, he had to get the legislature to help him out at the expense of the State by making two positions at $5,000 a year where only one had existed, when he promised it to two men.

Not made any promises, why, I'll bet my very head that McKinley had promised away every position worth having in the gift of the President, and nobody knows it any better than Mark Hanna."

While the rumor mongers were firing off whole broadsides of Fourth-of-July war fireworks, based upon what they supposed would be the nature of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee's report on the situation in Cuba, which, by the way, the President has not yet received, the President was catching a few salt water fish, and Secretary Olney was getting two or three days rest out of town.

When it comes down to hard work the sensational newspaper man wears the belt all the time.

At Trinity Colloge commencement, last week, four young ladies were among the graduates and the Wiley Gray medal for oratory was awarded to a full blooded indian. Two such unusual and notable events deserve more than a passing notice, as indicative of the progress of the age. It does indeed seem quite strange and surprising that a young indian, whose parents probably were unlettered barbarians, should have won a medal for oratory in a contest with a class of educated white youths. And the graduating of young ladies with the degree of bachelor of Arts, from a North College is a new departure that is calculated to shock the staid notions of some old fogies.—Pittsboro Record.

The smallest candidate for political office in the world resides in Springfield, O. His name is Col. Joe Luffel, and he wants to be the next Republican Mayor of the city. Though only forty six inches high, and a midget of the most diminutive proportions, he has refused several large offers from shows and museums. His father, one of the pioneers of the Western reserve, stood six feet one inch, and his mother's weight was 200 pounds. The Colonel when he came into this big world, in Charge county, on September 21, 1833, didn't take after either of his parents. He never has weighed more than sixty pounds. Strange to say, he found upon reaching a marriage age, that there was a girl in his town, Sarah B. Meade, who was nearly as small as himself. So he married her. They have four pretty children who show every indication of returning to the original size of the race. The Colonel was chosen a member of the city council in 1880 by the Republicans of his ward in Springfield and had some experience in political campaigns.

A Pessimistic View.
We do not agree with the bilious tempered individual who takes the pessimistic view of human nature presented below. Says he. "The more numerous the favors are that you do for others the less they respect you and your interests. It seems strange that the kindness you do for the good of others almost in every instance turn the one you assist against you." There are some people of this kind we know, but if they were the rule and not the exception we would have less faith in human nature than we have. Yes, thank Heaven, the qualities of gratitude and appreciation yet remain in the hearts of men and women, whether the writers of the lines quoted above has come in intimate contact with them or not.—Hinderson Gold Leaf

CATARRH. THE DAILY REFLECTOR.

GIVES YOU THE NEWS FRESH EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY) AND WORKS FOR THE BEST INTERESTS OF—

His Worst Enemy Defeated by
P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the night coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS
Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.
Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night. I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1891.
J. M. LAMBERT, N. P.,
Comanche County, Texas.

Catarrh Cured by P. P. P.
(Lippman's Great Remedy) where all other remedies failed.

Rheumatism twists and distorts your hands and feet. Its agonies are intense, but speedy relief and a permanent cure is gained by the use of P. P. P. Woman's weakness, whether nervous or otherwise, can be cured and the system built up by P. P. P. A healthy woman is a beautiful woman. Pimples, blotches, eczema and all disfigurements of the skin are removed and cured by P. P. P. P. P. P. will restore your appetite, build up your system and regulate you in every way. P. P. P. removes that heavy, down-in-the-mouth feeling. For Blotches and Pimples on the face, take P. P. P. Ladies, for natural and thorough organic regulation, take P. P. P. Lippman's Great Remedy, and get well at once.

Some one has truly said "the most obnoxious, disgusting piece of folly is to boast of your noble blood when you can for yourself show no noble deeds. Nobility of blood is all right, but nobility of deed as far surpasses it as does day the right."

The University.

This institution is steadily growing in popularity, patronage and efficiency. The enrollment this year is the largest in its history. We would like to aid some needy boy to get its advantages of scholarships and loans. See ad.

A Day in the Country.

Mr. W. L. Cobb spent Friday out at Mr. J. H. Cobb's old home, at Ballard's X Roads, and says it is a real treat to see all the nice crops out there. Mr. J. H. Cobb is one of the best farmers in the county and a thorough business man, and has fine crops himself. The REFLECTOR is enjoying some nice fruit from his place.

Mighty Poor Fun.

Some boys, instead of going to bed after returning from the excursion Friday night, spent the remainder of the night "larking" around town. Among other things indulged in was shooting the street lamp on the Methodist church corner. People living in the neighborhood heard the pistol shot about sunrise and some of them looking out saw the boys at the corner. Mayor Forbes investigated the matter this afternoon. The boys had much better been at home.
