BRYAN THE MAN.

Nominated on the Fifth Ballot.

HURRAH FOR BRYAN AND FREE
SILVER.

(Special to Reflector.)

CHICAGO 9, 8 P. M. New York decided to remain in convention but not to vote on nominations. A committee of six was appointed to visit other gold delegations and ask that they adopt this course.

The Bland marching club enters the Hall with loud shouts.

All prominent delegates cheered heartily as they enter.

Galleries crowded and every available spot of the vast auditorium filled to overflowing.

Convention called to order at 8:34 P. M.

The roll of States was ordered called for the presentation of candidates.

Nominating speeches were limited to thirty minutes.

Arkansas when called yields her privilege to Missouri and Vest takes the platform to put in nomination Bland. At the mention of Bland's name the cheering is immense. So much confusion Vest can scarcely be heard. This increased until Vest had to stop.

Every inch of the platform is crowded.

Convention quieted down and speaker resumes his speech.

At the mention by the Speaker of silver having come to stay, convention goes wild and cheering continues for 12 minutes. It quits for awhile and then breaks out a fresh. One third of the delegates stood on chairs and cheered themselves hoarse.

Chairman endeavors in vain to restore order.

Delegates finally resume their seats amid vigorous wrapping by the chairman.

Congressman Bell, the Populist member from Colorado, is here. "I am right from Denver," said he, "and Saturday I had a long talk with Senator Teller. He does not have the slightest idea that this convention will nominate him, and has not encouraged any of his friends to work for him here. I have a statement in my pocket, written by Mr. Teller himself, that if the Democrats nominate a good man and adopt a straight silver plank, he will take the stump for the Chicago ticket from Illinois to California, and do his utmost to defeat the Republican party."

Mr. Bell, ex-Congressman Jere Simpson and Lefe Pence, all Populists, who will attend the St. Louis Convention on the 22nd instant, say they will urge the Populists to indorse the Democratic ticket, if the platform suits them, as they believe it will. "We must all get together on silver," said Mr. Bell, "and I think we will."

(Nothing farther could be gotten from last night's session. Ed.)

CHICAGO, Ill. July 10, 10 A. M.—Convention called to order.

Mr. Harrity nominates Robt. E. Patterson.

Miller, of Oregon, presents the name Pennoyer.

Nominations for President declared closed at 11:06 A. M.

Roll of States for first ballot ordered.

Ballot resulted as follows:

FIRST BALLOT.—Bland 233, Boies 87, Matthews 37, McLean 54, Bryan 132, Blackburn 83, Patterson 95, Campbell 1, Russell 2, Pennoyer 8, Tillman 17.

SECOND BALLOT.—Bland 281, Mathews 34, Bryan 197, Blackburn 34, Patterson 100, Campbell 1, Russell 2, Pennoyer 8, Tillman 17, Boies 37, McLean 53, Teller 8, Stevenson 10, Hill 1.

THIRD BALLOT.—Bland 291, Mathews 34, Bryan 218, Blackburn 27, Patterson 4, Campbell 2, Russell 2, Pennoyer 10, Tillman 17, Boies 36, McLean 54, Teller 8, Stevenson 4, Hill 1.

Just as we go to press comes the news that Bryan was nominated on the 5th ballot Hurrah for Bryan and free silver.

PLATFORM ADOPTED.

Silver Men Have Over Two-Thirds Majority and Carry Every Point.

A bulletin from National Convention received after the REFLECTOR had gone to press Thursday evening showed that the wrangling that had occupied the day was blowing over and the noisy body was getting down to business by doing some voting.

At 5:05 o'clock a vote was taken on Hill's minority platform report offering a gold plank in place of the free coinage plank reported from the committee. This vote resulted in ayes 303, noes 628, and the announcement was received with cheers.

Another vote was taken on Hill's motion endorsing the present administration but there was so much confusion that it was impossible for the secretary to keep the vote announced. It was declared to be ayes 357, noes 564, some not voting. The announcement was hissed vigorously from the galleries.

Hill also offered a motion that if free coinage should prove a failure by the end of one year it should be discontinued, which was lost by a large vote.

The vote was then taken on the adoption of the platform as reported by the committee, which resulted ayes 628 no's 301, one absent.

The convention took a recess to 8 P. M.

A LITTLE PINK SHOE.

Only a little pink baby shoe

That is stained and wrinkled and torn,
With a tiny hole where the little pink toe

Peeped out in the days that are gone.

The little pink toe was the "biggest little pig"

That to market so often would go,
And over and over the legend was told:
As I kissed the little pink toe.

"Piggie some more," the red lips would lisp

And the story and kiss were given
Again and again, so happy were we
In motherhood's foretaste of heaven.

But there came a night, with desolate blight,

When death bore my idol away,
And no little toe ever peeps from the shoe!

To be kissed in the sweet old way.

But my tears have deluged the little pink shoe

And stained it a deeper stain,
And I long for the touch that would
Chill me in death

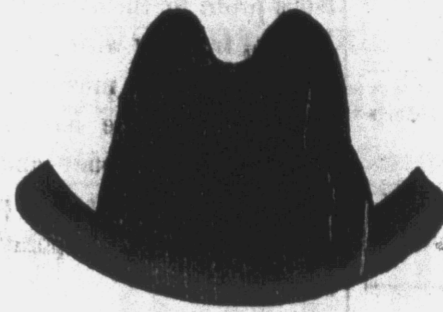

If it gave me my darling again.

So, when I am dead, lay the little pink shoe

Near my heart that is silent and cold
And perhaps up above, in the sunlight
Of love

Shall kiss the pink toe as of old.

FRIDAY, JULY 10TH, 1896.

Convention Dates.

Populist National Convention, St. Louis, July 22.

Silver National Convention, St. Louis, July 22.

This is a wonderful age in which we are now living. A fellow who has been working upon the matter for some years has perfected a plan by which photographs can be taken in colors, all at one flash. It has produced quite a sensation in the photographic world. And now an ingenious Frenchman has invented an apparatus by looking through which photographs present a life-like appearance and one may see his pictured friend in the flesh, as it were, and full of life. The resemblance is so perfect that is hard for one to realize that he is not looking upon a living person.

THE PLATFORM.

"We, the Democrats of the United State in National convention, do reaffirm our allegiance to those great essential principles of justice and liberty upon which our constitutions are founded and which the Democratic party has maintained from Jefferson's time to our own day; freedom of speech, freedom of conscience, the preservation of personal rights, the equality of all citizens before the law and the faithful observance of constitutional limitation.

"Recognizing that the money question is paramount to all others at this time we invite attention to the fact that the Federal constitution names silver and gold together as the money metals of the United States and that the first coinage law passed by Congress under the constitution made the silver dollar and unit of value and admitted gold to free coinage at a ratio measured by the silver dollar unit.

"We declare that the act of 1873, demonetizing silver without the knowledge or approval of the American people, has resulted in the appreciation of gold and a corresponding fall in the prices of commodities produced by the people; a heavy increase in the burden of taxation and of all debts public and private; the enrichment of the money lending classes at home and abroad; paralysis of industry and impoverishment of the people.

"We are unalterably opposed to the single gold standard, which has locked fast the prosperity of an industrious people in the paralysis of hard times. Gold monometalism is a British policy, founded upon British greed for gain and power, and its general adoption has brought other nations into financial servitude to London. It is not only un-American but anti-American and it can be fastened upon the United States only by the stifling of that incommensurable spirit and love of liberty which proclaimed our political independence in 1796, and won it in the war of the revolution.

"We demand the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of gold a silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. We demand that the standard of silver dollar shall be a full legal tender equally with gold, or for all debts, public and private, and we favor such legislation as will prevent the demonetization of any kind of legal tender money by private contracts.

We are opposed to the policy and practice of surrendering to the holders of the obligations of the United States the option reserved by law to the government of redeeming such obligations in either silver coin or gold coin. We are opposed to the issuing of interest bearing bonds of the United States in times of peace and condemn the trafficking with banking syndicates which, in exchange for bonds and at an enormous profit to themselves, supply the Federal treasury with gold to maintain the policy of gold monometalism.

"Congress alone has the power to coin and issue money and President Jackson declared that this power could not be delegates to corporations or individuals.

"We therefore demand that the power to issue notes be taken from the banks and that all paper money shall be issued directly by the government. We hold that tariff duties should be levied solely for purposes of revenue, and that taxation should be limited to the needs of the government, honestly and economically administered. We denounce, as disturbing to business, the Republican threat to restore the McKinley law, which has been twice condemned by the people in National elections, and which was enacted under the false plea of protection to home industry.

It has proved a prolific breeder of rust and monopolies, enriched the few at the expense of the many, restricted trade and deprived the producers of the great American staples access to their natural markets. Until the money question is settled we are opposed to any agitation of further changes in our tariff laws, except such as are necessary to make up the deficit in revenue caused by the adverse decision of the Supreme Court on the income tax.

"There should have been no deficit in the Federal revenue during the last two years, but for the annulment by the Supreme Court of the income tax law, placed upon the statue books by a Democratic Congress. The obstruction to the income tax which the Supreme Court discovered in the Constitution, after it had lain hidden for a hundred years must be removed, to the end that accumulated wealth may be made to bear its just share of the burdens of the government. We therefore, favor an amendment to the Federal Constitution that will permit the levy of an income tax. We hold that the most efficient way of protection to American labor is to prevent the importation of foreign pauper labor to compete with it in the home market, and that the value of the home market to our American farmers and artisans is greatly reduced by a vicious monetary system which depresses the prices of their products below the cost of production, and thus deprives them of the means of satisfying needs.

"We denounce the profligate waste of the money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation and the lavish appropriations of recent Republican Congresses which have kept taxes high while the labor that pays them is unemployed and the products of the people's toil are depressed in price till they no longer repay the cost of production. We demand a return to that simplicity and economy which best benefits a Democratic government and a reduction in the number of useless offices, the salaries of which drain the substance of the people.

"We denounce arbitrary interference by Federal authorities in local affairs as a violation of the Constitution of the United States and a crime against free institutions, and we especially object to government interference by injunction as a new and highly dangerous form of oppression, by which the Federal judges in contempt of the laws of the States and the rights of citizens, become at once legislator, judge and executioner.

"We are opposed to life tensure in the public service. We favor appointments based upon merit, fixed terms of office, and such an administration of the civil service laws as will afford equal opportunities to all citizens of ascertained fitness.

"We declare it to be the unwritten law of this republic as established by custom and usages of 100 years and sanctioned by the examples of the greatest and wisest of those who founded and have maintained our government that no man should be eligible for a third term of the Presidential office. Confiding in the justice of our cause and the necessity of its success at the polls, we submit the foregoing declaration and principles and purposes to the considerate judgment of the American people. We invite the support of all citizens who approve them and who desire to have them made effective through legislation for the relief of the people and the restoration of the country's prosperity."

Romance of a Fall.

The proverb that to stub one's toe while looking at one of the opposit sex is a sign of matrimonial bonds between the two will probably be proved true by a young couple of a New York village. It happened on Broadway, Troy, not long ago, that a pretty young lady made a misstep and fell into the arms of a total stranger. Restoring her to as taste of equilibrium, he said: "I'm glad you're pretty." The compliment struck rich ground, and they became known to each other by a formal introduction. They are now engaged, and it is said that Easter bells will ring their bans. The young man says he will never object to rough sidewalks again.

Painfully Hurt.

On last Saturday morning Mr James Brown while making flues, a piece of scale from the iron flew in his left eye and it was painfully hurt. On Saturday part of it was removed by Drs. Zeno Brown and Laughinghouse. He continued to suffer so much that the doctors examined it again and another part of it was removed. He is suffering a great deal now. The eye is very much inflamed, but he will not lose his eye-sight.

The Wheel Fooled Him.

A certain man in town had an engagement to meet another man at a place 10 miles in the country, and went to a friend to borrow a bicycle to make the trip on. He was asked how far he was going and answered 4 miles, whereupon the wheel was turned over to him. He mounted and away he went at a good speed. When the 4 mile post was reached he had no notion of taking up, and kept pushing on. But right at that particular spot the wheel sprung a leak and let the rider down just the exact distance he told the owner he was going. The engagement with the man 6 miles further on was not filled, and the funny part of it is he had to walk back to town through the rain with the wheel on his shoulder.

"I told that lady in order to get a good photograph she must forget where she was." "Well?" "She did it so thoroughly that she went away without making the required deposit."
