REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Gets Out a Skeleton Ticket—Their Plan of Fusion With Populists—Some of Them Don't Like Such Surrender.—A Bolt.

[CONCLUDED FROM LAST ISSUE.]

F. J. Johnson followed Cox and endorsed what he had said, adding that any talk about their voting for Bryan and Watson was simply absurd, that Tom Watson was the worst negro hater in the country. C. M. Bernard also made some complimentary remarks about Cox, and moved to ratify the work of the caucus.

G. W. Cox said he was not permitted to have a part in that caucus, and if the report was adopted as the sense of this convention he then was going to withdraw and be done with it. Several negroes got up to take sides with Cox against the caucus, and the opposition grew so strong that Bernard took the floor again to try and pacify matters.

E. V. Cox rose to a point of personal privilege, said he was ignored in the caucus and would not submit to such proceedings. He started to make another speech when Bernard called him down and insisted upon the question.

The motion was put and declared adopted.

Bernard offered the motion that in case the agreement between Republicans and Populists is not carried out the executive committee is authorized to take such action as is deemed necessary.

E. V. Cox got the floor again and said he would not run on a ticket brought out in any such way as this, that it had been Republican principles to let the voice of the people be heard but to-day a lot of bound and gagged men from a caucus are usurping the people's authority and such a movement could not have his support.

The confusion just here was immense and Bernard broke in with reading a resolution endorsing the action of the State convention in nominating Russell and declaring that he would not come down, and also endorsing the action of the National Convention in nominating McKinley.

He then made a motion to adjourn when E. V. Cox jumped up and tried to speak again, and in the confusion the question was put and the convention declared adjourned. Cox kept right on talking, those in sympathy with him remaining to hear him out. He again demanded what had been done, and told them another convention would be held and a straight Republican ticket nominated according to the plan of organization.

Oakley Items.

OAKLEY, N. C., Aug. 24, '96.—After an illness of a few days J. R. Whitehurst, aged 27 years died Tuesday near Hamilton and was buried Wednesday at his fathers, J. H. Whitehurst near here. The deceased leaves a wife and one child. May the Lord guide and protect the widow and her babe is our prayer.

Who can beat this for a fox story? A few nights ago J. H. Whitehurst was curing tobacco and a hen was setting near the barn and a fox came and caught her. Mr. Whitehurst sat two dogs on him and he ran about two miles and came back within thirty yards of where he caught the hen. Mr. Whitehurst shot at him and he dropped the hen, and all the damage she got was her feathers somewhat ruffled. When she started she began to squall and kept it up until the fox dropped her.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Judge Russell opened his campaign at Hendersonville last Saturday and if his speech is a fair sample of what he proposes to make in this campaign, nobody blames him from being a coward and fearing to meet Cy Watson or Guthrie either. He is said to have begun his speech by denouncing the Democratic party as "The party of free whiskey, free trade, free silver, nullification and Jeff Davis." His sectional venom became prominent at the very beginning of his remarks. It is strange how these fellows talk. Senator Pritchard had just preceded him and ridiculed the idea of the Democratic party pretending to favor free silver. Judge Russell calls it the party of free silver, &c. It would be well for these fellows to compare notes so that they might agree as to what the Democratic party does favor. It comes in poor grace from any man who fears to meet a man talking about what the other says. He elaborated upon Watson discussing national politics and not State matters. Why don't he meet him and confound him to State matters? Mr. Watson has cordially invited him to do so. He ought either to shut up or come up and meet his opponent. What a pitiable candidate of what claims to be a great party. Judge Russell has also flopped, that is it ever believed in free silver and ridicule what he once professed to believe.

Several Republicans are quoted as saying that this effort of the Governor, who is to be elected to remain at home, was the deadliest failure they ever heard. The people will freeze the Judge out before he is half through this campaign North Carolina will never have Russell for Governor.

Senator Pritchard spoke at Hendersonville last Saturday. It was about the first speech of the campaign from the Republican stand point and therefore interest centered in what might be his position. Everything is now clear. The gold standard and McKinley were praised and free silver was ridiculed. He said I stand on the platform announced by the Republicans at St. Louis on the money question. He also urged against the income tax, he favored protection and all the principles of the Republican party. In the face of all this the Populist are asked to support him and are expected to aid in electing him to the United States Senate next November.

With these facts staring them in the face somebody got the Populist Congressional Convention in this district at Edenton last week to endorse Senator Pritchard. Is it possible that some of the leaders who want office think that they can dupe the Populist into supporting a man that opposes everything they favor? If they do then the party must lose the respect of all right minded men. We are decidedly of the opinion that somebody is going to be mistaken when the votes are counted next November. No Populist can read Senator Pritchard's speech and then support him. If he did he would loose respect for himself.

Mr. Bryan made his first speech since the Madison Square Garden speech, last Saturday at Harrytown, N. Y. It was brimful of argument for the silver cause and convinced the hearers of the justice of his cause. There has not been a more effective speaker in American politics for the past century than Mr. Bryan is proving himself to be.

MR. SEWALL'S SPEECH.

The Terse and Weighty Utterances of the Candidate for Vice-President.

Mr. Chairman and Gentleman of the committee—You have given me official notice of my selection by the Democratic National convention as its candidate for Vice-President. For the courteous terms of your message and the kind personal expressions I thank you. Having been present at that great convention, I can more truly estimate the honor its action has conferred. It was the greatest and most earnest convention in the history of our party. It was closer and more in touch with the people. The delegates were there to voice the sentiment of their constituents, the people of the party, for the people of the party controlled and conducted that convention.

The Democracy of the country realizes that all the great principles of our party are as potent and essential to the well-being of the country to-day as they have always been, and as they ever will be. But the overshadowing issue before the country now, made dominant by the distressed condition prevailing throughout our land, is the demand for reform in our existing monetary system.

Our party, and, we believe, a great majority of the American people, are convinced that the legislation of 1873 demonetizing silver, was a wrong inflicted upon our country, which should and must be righted.

We believe that the single gold standard has so narrowed the base of our monetary structure that it is unstable and unsafe and so dwarfed in its development and in its power to furnish the necessary financial blood to the nation that commercial and industrial paralysis has followed.

We believe that we need and must have the broad and expanding foundation of both gold and silver to support a monetary system strong and stable, capable of meeting the demands of a growing country and an industrious, energetic and enterprising people, a system that will not be weakened and panic-stricken by every foreign draft upon us, a system that will maintain a parity of just values and the nation's money and protect us from the frequent fluctuations of to-day, so disastrous to every business and industry of the land.

We demand the free coinage of silver, the opening of our mints to both money metals without discrimination the return to the money of our fathers, the money of the Constitution, gold and silver.

We believe this is the remedy and the only remedy for the evil from which we are now suffering, the evil that is now so fast devastating and impoverishing our land and people, bringing poverty to our homes and bankruptcy to our business, which, if allowed to continue will grow until our very institutions are threatened.

The demonetization of silver has thrown the whole primary money function on gold. Restore the money function to silver appreciating its value, and its purchasing power will increase. Take from gold its monopoly, its value will be reduced, and in due course the parity of the two metals will again obtain under natural causes.

We shall then have a broad and unlimited foundation for a monetary system, commensurate with our country's needs and future development, not the unsafe basis of to-day, reduced by half by the removal of silver and continually undermined by foreigners carrying from us our gold.

This is the reform to which we are pledged, the reform the people demand the return to the monetary system of over eighty years of our national existence.

The Democratic party has already given its approval and its pledge. Our opponents admit the wisdom of the principle for which we contend, but ask us to await permission and co-operation of other nations.

Our people will not wait. They will not ask permission of any nation on earth to relieve themselves of the cause of their distress. The issue has been made. The people stand ready to render their verdict next November.

Mr. Chairman, unequivocally and through sincere conviction, I indorse the platform on which I have been nominated. I believe we are right, the people are with us, and what the people declare for, is always right and must prevail.

I accept the nomination, and with the people's confirmation, every effort of which God shall render me capable will be exerted in support of the principles involved.

WHEN THE CANDIDATE COMES.

When the candidate comes
With a thunder of drums,
Come out, little voter, come out!
With his bluster and brag
And his Mexican flag,
Come out, little voter, come out!
Make a dash
For the cash—
Let him win a flash—
Come out, little voter, come out!

When the candidate stands
With the votes in his hands,
Come out, little voter, come out!
When he lays down the law,
Give a hearty hurrah!
Come out, little voter, come out!
Come out
With a shout
That'll ring roundabout—
Come out, little voter, come out!

When the candidates go
In the office—O ho!
Get out, little voter, get out!
In his sleek beaver hat,
On his soft Brussels mat—
Get out, little voter, get out!
Get out!
Face about!
Or "Police" he will shout—
Get out, little voter, get out!

Fewer Saloons.

There has been a decided decrease in the number of liquor saloons in this country during the past few years. This is due to various causes. In the South the sale of intoxicating liquors has been prohibited in a great many counties, while nearly all the cities have adopted a system of high license and have restricted more closely the limits within which licenses are granted.

But the decrease in the number of saloons is not restricted to the South; it extends to all sections.

Under the Reins law the number of licenses is so limited that the number of saloons in New York has been greatly reduced. Similar results are seen, however, in States and cities where there is no law limiting the proportion of the saloons to the population. One hundred of the 900 liquor dealers in Louisville have failed to renew their licenses this year, Chicago has 1,000 fewer saloons this year than last.

The Pittsburg Leader says that the sheriff has been kept busy in that city recently levying executions on liquor saloons. The Wine and Spirits Gazette is authority for the statement that in Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin and other Western States, where the Raines law is unknown, saloons are closing by the thousands." Similar reports come from many other States.

The Wine and Spirits Gazette is convinced "that the retail liquor trade or the saloon business, which is the same thing, is much overdone. There are more saloons in all our great communities than there is business for. Of course they cannot all live. The weaker ones must go under, whether subject to the Raines law, the Dow law, the Nicholson law, or Neill Dow's prohibition law."

The Journal recently published statistics showing that the consumption of whiskey has decreased greatly in the United States within the past five years, but the consumption of malt liquors has largely increased.

It has however, the uniform testimony of saloon keepers in all parts of the country that there is not as much money in their business now as there was a few years ago.

The Number of Unemployed.

There are 10,000 laborers out of work in Boston; in Worcester 7,000 are unemployed; in New Haven 7,000; in Providence 9,000; in New York 100,000. Utica is a small city but the unemployed number 16,000; in Paterson, N. J., one-half of the people are idle in Philadelphia, 15,000, in Baltimore; 3,000 in Wheeling; 6,000 in Cincinnati; 8,000 in Cleveland; 4,000 in Columbus; 5,000 in Indianapolis; 2,500 in Terre Haute; 200,000 in Chicago; 25,000 in Detroit; 20,000 in Milwaukee; 6,000 in Minneapolis; St. Louis 80,000; St. Joseph 2,000. Omaha 2,000; Butte City, Mont., 5,000; 15,000 in San Francisco.—New York Labor World.

His Art Gift.

She was visiting at the house of the eminent politician.
"I hear," she said, "that you have a valuable addition to your art collection."
"My art collection?" he repeated.
"Yes. I take it for granted that you must have one."
"I have over striven, madam, to cultivate an appreciation of the beautiful."
"And wasn't it beautiful in the voters to remember you as they did?"
"I don't quite follow you, ma'am," said the eminent politician, growing red in the face.
"Why, I was told that they gave you a beautiful marble heart, and I am just dying to see it."—Wash

The Dejected Young Man.

"Woman," said the dejected young man, "is a fake."
"Yes?" spoke one listener.
"Yes. It has not been so many moons since I saved up all my billiard money and lived on beans two weeks to blow myself on an opera and a supper for a young woman. Then I asked her to marry me, and she said she was afraid I was too extravagant to make a good husband."—Indianapolis Journal.

THE PARTY PLATFORMS IN A NUTSHELL.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The democratic platform reaffirms the allegiance of the party to the principles of Jefferson—freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of conscience, the preservation of personal rights, equality before the law, and home rule.

It demands—

Free silver at 16 to 1.

That bond issues in times of peace shall cease.

That the government, and not the banks, shall issue the paper money.

That the tariff shall be for revenue only.

That there shall be an income tax.

That immigration be restricted.

That the powers of the interstate railroad commission shall be increased.

The extravagance of republican congresses is denounced.

Interference by the federal government in local affairs is condemned.

Government by injunction and rule of the courts by contempt proceedings are denounced.

Refusal of congress to refund the Pacific debts is approved.

The ruling of the pension commissioner against arbitrarily dropping names from the rolls is endorsed.

The admission of New Mexico and Arizona is approved.

Sympathy for Cuba is expressed.

Life tenure in office is condemned.

Devotion to civil and religious liberty is proclaimed.

Arbitration of strikes is recommended.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The preamble is an arraignment of the democratic party, which is charged with causing all the hard times, bond issues, etc.; and the party's record is held up for comparison with that of the republicans.

The platform speaks for—

SINCE MOLLIE WENT.

How bleak and bare the blue hills seem
Since Molly went away!

The dark has lost the rosy dream,
The Sunshine's left the day.

The birds sing not as sweet as when
They saw the roses stir
And look and listen in the glen
For the dear steps of her.

It seems that for the birds, the brooks,
There's never any May,
And that when Molly went she took
The world and all away!

I sit here when the day's begun
And feel the lonely place,
The sunflowers following the sun
And dreaming of her face.

And wonder why in shrub and tree
The sweetest birds are dumb;
While all the roses look at me
And whisper: "Will she come?"

I didn't think 'twould seem so strange—
That any heart would break;
But how this world of God's can change
For one dear woman's sake!

One little woman. "Will she come?"
The rose says, day by day;
Or not: My heart is dumb
Since Molly went away!

News From Billville.

It's so hot these days that one can only vote up to 11 o'clock. After that we retire and rest till the cool of the evening.

There is no "sound money" club in Billville. The last sound from money in this locality was made by a dollar dropped by a drummer on the pavement. The whole town turned out, and both the dollar and the drummer were lost in the scuffle.

We understand that a man named Nansen has discovered the north pole. But there is no danger of the voters emigrating there, for while there's plenty of ice, there's no whiskey to go with it.

Getting Ready to Open.

M. Owens, of Currituck, has arrived to get ready for opening a large furniture business here about Sept. 1st. He will open temporarily in the Elliott building on east side of the street until two stores can be fitted up for him in the new block now going up on the other side of the street. If Mr. Owens proves as good a citizen as some other Currituck folks we have, as we have no doubt he will, Greenville is very fortunate in getting him.
