C. T. MUNFORD.

THE NEW CASABINCA.

A. N. C. IN SILVER KNIGHT.

William C. stood on the deck,
'Twas said he would have fled,
For the flames that lit the golden wreck
Shone 'round him o'er the dead
Yet calm and peaceful William stood,
Amidst the silver storm,
A creature of heroic blood,
A proud, defiant form.

'Twas silver's day: he would not go,
Without his boss's word—
That boss now quivering far below,
His voice no longer heard,
He called aloud, "Say, Grover, say,
If yet my task be done?"

He knew not that the chieftain lay
Bereft of all save one.

"Speak, Grover!" once again he cried,

"If I may yet be gone,"

And but the mighty shouts replied
And fast the tide rolled on,

Upon his brow he felt its breath

And in his waving hair,

But bravely from that post of death

He looked in dark despair.

And shouted but once more aloud,
"Say, Grover, must I stay?"

While o'er him fast, o'er sail and shroud

Swept silver's ceaseless sway

Then came that heavy burst of sound,

And William—where was he?

Go search Chicago's street around,

Go ask the silver sea,

With Gorman, Brice and David B.

Who well had borne their part,

The saddest thing that perished there

Was William's tender heart.

LATE NEWS.

Toledo, O., August 25.—The International yacht race between the American yacht Vencedor and the Canadian yacht Canada went to the Canada by two miles. Time of winner 4.18.50.

Memphis Tenn., August 25.—The free silver democrats of the Tenth Tennessee district this morning nominated E. W. Carmack, ex-editor of the Commercial-Appeal, for congress by acclamation.

In the report of the Congressional convention published yesterday it should have been L. I. Moore instead of Fred Moore as Pitt's member of the committee on permanent organization. And the name of J. Bryan Grimes should have been given as the member for Pitt county of the district executive committee.

James M. Ipock, of Vanceboro, Craven county, sold six lots of tobacco on the Eastern floor yesterday and made an average of 19.45. One lot of 66 pounds at 16 cents, one lot of 10 pounds at 16.75, a lot of 96 pounds at 19.85, 45 pounds at 23, 25 pounds at 26.50, 1 lot at 29. The Eastern can give you prices if that is what you want.

S. E. Pender & Co. are moving into the new Elliott block and occupy the store next to Cobb. They are putting in a full line of stoves, tinware, bicycles and house furnishing goods.

We regret to know that Capt. W. A. Parvin of the steamer Myers, is quite sick at his home near Washington. George Dowdy and R. M. Hearne are in charge of the steamer while he is off. May "Capt. Bill" soon be restored to health.

Notice.

Members of the Greenville Driving Association are requested to meet at the President's office on Monday, Aug. 31st, at 3 o'clock.

S. T. HOOKER, Sec'y.

ALL ABOUT.

Nineteen million gallons of beer are consumed in the United Kingdom each week.

Statistics show that the longest lived people have generally been those who made breakfast the principal meal of the day.

There are 6,000 building and loan associations in the United States, with 1,800,000 shareholders and assets aggregating $500,000,000.

Dr. Huggins, the well-known astronomer, says the stars are red, white and blue, according to their ages. The white stars are the youngest.

The oil tobacco found in the stems of the long-used pipes, or obtained by distillation at a red heat, is one of the most active and powerful poisons known to the chemist. A single drop will often cause death in the case of a dog or cat.

An ordinary man can say everything that any occasion calls for with a vocabulary of 1,000 words. Of these he only uses 400 or 500, using the remainder when an idea out of the usual line of thought occurs to him. Most of us being only ordinary men, seldom draw upon the surplus 500 words.

Professor Asa Gray is reported to have once said that the Washington elm at Cambridge has been estimated to produce 7,000,000 leaves, which would make a surface radiation of about five acres in extent and give out every fair day in the growing season seven and three-fourths tons of moisture.

The Largest Break We Ever Had.

Again the town of Greenville has witnessed the largest tobacco break ever known on this market and goes to show how much the managers have done to make Greenville a centre of attraction for business.

The large crowd that brought that large sale to town to-day is evidence of the approval and endorsement of the good management of the tobacco market. There was indeed a throng of people, and it looked like a business mart sure enough. Every house was full and prices varied from good to better.

The destiny of Greenville is in the hands of the people. Will they overlook many important features? A board of trade is a necessity. The better government of the town is imperative, and there should be a delight to make the town attractive, as well as substantial.

There is more business done in the town of Greenville than any town of the same size in the State, and the natural advantages that we possess, with the pluck and energy of many of the people, the town should have some manufacturing interests going on, and a large force of nonproducers employed in manufacturing. There would be a stimulus to the farmers who bring many products and marketable articles to sell, to go into much larger efforts in the trucking and poultry raising &c.

X,

A Treat For Pitt.

Hon. Chas. B. Aycock, of Goldsboro, will address the people of Pitt county at Greenville, Wednesday, Sept. 2nd, at night.

Grafton, Thursday, Sept. 3rd.

He is among the very best speakers in North Carolina, and is not a stranger to the people of Pitt. They have heard him gladly in former years and will be glad of the opportunity of listening to him again on the political issues of the day.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 27TH, 1896.

Unquestionably political conditions are mixed. Mark Hanna's admission that it is too early to form an opinion about the situation in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois is one of the frankest utterances of the campaign.—Washington Post, Ind.

The Democratic advocates of the single gold standard who formerly voted with the Democratic party are taking a primary course of instructions under such coaches as Bourke Cochran for admission into the Republican college next November.—Richmond State, Dem.

John R. Venable, Esq., of Marion, is one of the true blood Democrats to whom the so-called sound money Democrats of Henrico and Richmond addressed an invitation to join their movement. Mr. Venable has replied in indignant terms and notified the Committee of Invitation that when, if ever, he leaves the Democratic party it will be to fight in the open.—Richmond Dispatch, Dem.

Senator Pritchard on his way through Raleigh yesterday had his attention called to the statement made the day before by Chairman Holton, namely, that if there were men at the Hendersonville meeting who had on free silver badges, they were not Republicans. He not only confirmed the statement of the Republican chairman, but further said that there were no free silver Republicans in Western North Carolina and very few silver Democrats.—Raleigh News and Observer.

A lad 15 years old in Guilford county, accompanied by some other boys, recently passed near a field of corn. The boy pulled an ear of corn, shucked it, and as he walked along the road commenced to eat the corn. They met the owner of the corn, who accused the lad of stealing the corn. The boy told him he had taken but one ear that he was hungry, and that he would pay him for it. The owner said he would indict him for it, and went before J. A. Pritchard, a justice of the peace, and swore out a warrant and had the boy arrested, and the justice bound him over to the Superior Court.

Tuesday a challenge for a joint canvass between Mr. Watson, Maj. Guthrie and Judge Russell was sent to Chairman Holton, of the Republican State committee, both Chairman Ayer, of the Populist committee, and Chairman Manly, of the Democratic committee, signing the letter.

Chairman Holton sent the following replies:

"Hon. Clement Manly, Chairman Democratic Executive Committee.

"Dear Sir:—Yours of the 25th inst., concurred in by Mr. Ayer, chairman People's party executive committee, to hand. In reply I desire again to call attention to the resolution adopted by my committee August 13th, a copy of which I enclosed you on the 17th inst. I shall adhere to this policy unless otherwise advised by my committee.

"Yours truly,

"A. E. HOLTON.

"Chairman Republican Ex. Com."

"Hon. Hal. W. Ayer, Chairman Populist Executive Committee;

"Dear Sir:—Yours of the 25th inst. to hand, joining Mr. Manly, chairman Democratic executive committee, requesting a joint discussion between candidates for Governor. In reply I desire to call your attention to the resolution adopted by my committee on the 15th of August, a copy of which I enclose. I shall adhere to this policy unless otherwise advised by my committee.

"Yours truly,

A. E. HOLTON,

Eusebius Will Not Support Populists

State Senator A. Y. Sigmon, of Catawba, who publishes the Hickory Press and Carolinian as a red-hot McKinley gold organ, declares that he will not support either A. Graig Shuford for Congress in the Seventh district. He wants a straight-out Republican who is for high tariff, gold, and McKinley. Why not A. Y. Sigmon for Congress? He represents the Republican policy.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 15.—William J. Bryan's eventful day ended with an accident which narrowly missed being a disaster. One-half of the platform from which he was addressing a crowd of several thousand, in the square in front of the Baggs Hotel, in Utica, at midnight, fell to the ground and, although the Presidential candidate escaped injury, Clinton Beckwith, of Herkimer, a member of the reception committee, had an ankle sprained, Jno. T. Teller had a leg broken, and several others were badly bruised and cut, but no one was seriously injured.

The crackling of timbers and terrified shrieks of women nearly created a panic. Mr. Bryan raised his hand to quiet the crowd, and after a delay of ten minutes, during which the police and bystanders helped out the men who had gone down in the wreck, he continued his speech. Overcrowding the platform caused the accident. The Utica crowd was nearly as large as that which heard Mr. Bryan at Albany, and included several campaign clubs from Watertown, Herkimer and other places.

A POPULIST VIEW.

A Suggested Way Out of the Vice-Presidential Muddle.

State Senator Westmoreland, of Davidson county, a prominent Populist makes the following suggestion in this week's edition of his paper, the Davidson County News:

We believe it will be best for Bryan and best for the People's party, if an arrangement is made between the Bryan Democratic and the Populist National committees to have but one Bryan electoral ticket in each State, the electors to vote for Sewall and Watson in proportion to the Democratic and Populist vote cast for their State tickets at the coming November election, so that the fight between Sewall and Watson could be made on a square issue.

A vote for the Populist State ticket would mean a vote for Watson, and a vote for the Democratic State ticket would mean a vote for Sewall. Here would be an issue that would keep the Populists distinct from the Democratic party, and it would materially help Bryan. The same candidates for Presidential electors would be on both tickets, and every vote cast for them, whether on the Populist or Democratic ticket, would be for Bryan. For instance, if in North Carolina there were 105,000 Democratic votes and 95,000 Populist votes polled, each elector would receive 200,100 votes; the electors, if elected, would all vote for Bryan.

and would divide their vote as between Sewall and Watson in proportion to the strength of the two parties as shown by the vote on the State ticket. If some such arrangement is not made, the Bryan vote may be divided. If North Carolina continues to have two sets of Bryan electors, the McKinley electors may be chosen. As Populists desire their votes all to count for Watson, and are utterly opposed to voting for Sewall, many of them may refuse to vote at all for electors rather than have their vote count against Watson. Let it be so arranged by the National committees that there will be a race upon merit between Watson and Sewall, then the Populists will roll up a mighty vote which will be counted for Bryan and Watson.

REWARDED.

Heavy the heart, and weary the brain:
 But write, my pen, O write!
 For rest from labor will come again
 With a kiss from her lips at night!

Sonnet and story—trace them well,
 In beautiful lines and bright;
 But the tenderest thought in my heart
 will dwell

On the kiss from her lips at night!
 And the world may frown on the head
 bowed down,
 And its splendors veil from sight;
 I bear the cross, for I wear the crown
 With a kiss from her lips at night!
 —Frank L. Stanton,

A King Will Rule Us.

Boston, August 25.—"God spoke to me. He said that if His word was not obeyed the country would no longer have a president, but a king. The day is not far distant. If the people heed my revelation the country and its president will continue, if they do not, a king will rule. God has said it."

So speaks Jennie Adders, the colored prophetic of 33 Woodbury street, Roxbury, who has a large following of both white and blacks who are firm in their faith that this humble washwoman is the direct representative of God on this earth. She says she has seen the Divinity. She says: "I went to the third heaven and saw Him. I saw Christ, too. I did not want to come back, but He said I must till I had done His work, so I am here now."

The colored prophetic is of medium height, solidly built and about 40 years old. She is not of the darkest hue, but quite light. The most noticeable thing about her is her eyes, that are black and brilliant.

OUT FOR THE GAME.

From every place they're speaking:
 You cannot find a spot
 From Billville down to Smithville town,
 Where an orator is not!
 It's speak, speak, speak!
 While the rusty farm gates creak;
 O the fellows want the office, if it's
 fifty cents a week!

The hot sun cannot hurt them—
 They never fear a stroke!
 They break the news to people,
 And all are mostly "broke."

It's speak, speak, speak!
 While the rusty farm gates creak:
 O the fellows want the office, if it's
 fifty cents a week.

Long and Faithful Service.

The editor spent Wednesday in Bethel and while there had a long chat with his venerable friend, Col. N. M. Hammond. The Colonel is the very efficient agent at that place of the Atlantic Coast Line, and has held the position continuously since the railroad was first built to Bethel, now nearly fourteen years. He tells us that in all these years he has never missed a train. The railroad authorities have just had a handsome new depot built there and Col. Hammond was spending his first day in it when we dropped in on him. He takes just pride in his new quarters.

Free Silver Pocket Book.

The REFLECTOR is prepared for the coming of free silver and is now more anxious than ever for its advent to hasten along. Our clever friend, Capt. E. L. Hact, of the Atlantic Coast Line, has sent us a free silver pocket book that for uniqueness and appropriateness takes the rag off the bush. This pocket book is nothing more nor less than a full size ladies' stocking with an imitation silver clasp closing the top of it. We have heard of stockings being used as receptacles for money and other valuables and no doubt that accounts for the origin of this free silver pocket book. If our pile of free silver is to be measured in this pocket book our friend sends us, then we will be in luck surely, and will have enough in store for many rainy days.
