OAKLEY ITEMS.

OAKLEY, N. C., Aug. 31 '96.

Deputy Sheriffs Rumley and Jones, of Beaufort county, having learned that John Koonce, col., for whom they had been looking for some time, was on the farm of W. G. Little, last Friday morning they surrounded a colored man's house on the place and called at the door, and when the door opened Koonce came out and started to run and Jones halted him. He failed to stop, when Jones shot him twice in the leg with No. 4 shot when he came down. They took him to Pactolus on their way home and had the shot picked out.

W. H. Williams attended the Primitive Baptist Union at Conetoe Saturday and Sunday, and reported a fine time.

Mrs. W. G. Stokes, of whom mention was made two weeks ago as being very sick, is improving.

BETHEL ITEMS

BETHEL, N. C. Aug. 31st.

Miss Cate Dean, of Henderson arrived Friday night.

D. J. Whichard, editor of the REFLECTOR, spent last Wednesday in town.

Miss Bessie James of Pactolus, is visiting relatives in town this week.

The Primitive Baptist Union at Conetoe was largely attended Sunday by Bethelites. All say they had a pleasant time.

J. R. Bunting and T. T. Cherry, of the firm of Staton, Cherry & Bunting, at Bethel and Conetoe, left last Thursday morning to spend a week in Baltimore and New York to purchase their fall and winter stock.

Dr. R. J. Grimes is having a new front put on the store occupied by J. C. Taylor & Co., which add a great deal to the looks.

At 6 o'clock this morning at the house of his father Edward Ward died of Typhoid fever.

Prof. B. F. Hassell's school opened this morning, in the Academy, we hope this school will be well patronized.

Dwelling Burned.

Monday morning the dwelling house of Mr. John Parker, who lives just over the line in Greene county, was destroyed by fire. The fire was discovered about 4 o'clock by some neighbors who ran over and aroused the occupants. The flames had progressed so far that nothing could be saved from the building. Mr. Parker and his wife were in Newbern visiting relatives at the time, but their children were at home. It is supposed the fire originated in some way from the kitchen flue.

Attend the Primaries.

Next Saturday afternoon the Democratic primaries will be held in the several townships to select delegates to the county convention on the 10th, and to nominate candidates for Constable and three Justices of the Peace. Every Democrat in each township should attend his primary. Let the work of the primaries be done well and the work of the convention will take care of itself. Select good and true men for delegates, and see that the very strongest men are brought out for candidates. It is important that no mistakes be made in this particular.

Wednesday night is the time. Be on hand at the Court House if you want to hear C. B. Aycock make one of the best speeches you are going to hear during the campaign.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Shoots Her Paramour and Then Kills Herself.

[Special to Reflector.]

TARBORO, N. C., Sept 1—A terrible tragedy occurred here yesterday afternoon. About 4 o'clock J. L. Dawson, a liveryman of this place, and Lillie Pope, a woman of ill repute, were found dead in the house of the latter. When discovered both were outstretched on the bed dead. A bullet hole was in Dawson's temple and one in the face of the woman underneath the eye. Lillie Pope still clenched the pistol in her hand. No other signs of violence were found on the body of either of them.

It is believed that the woman murdered Dawson in a fit of passion and jealousy and then killed herself. The tragedy must have occurred several hours before the bodies were discovered.

Dawson's remains were taken on the evening train to La Grange, where his people live, and Lillie Pope's body was sent to Battleboro.

THE BILLVILLE BANNER.

Li Hung Chang would facilitate matters if he came to Billville. As he carries his coffin with him, all we'd have to do would be to furnish the rope.

We don't know what the meaning of Li Hung Chang's visit is, but we do know that we've lost our ticket, and the subjects he represents have collared our laundry.

Lord Russell failed to visit Billville during his American tour. Somehow or other the report got out that the Billville bar was all moonshine, when in reality nothing but four X passes over it.

There's a Hannah in McKinley's family and one in ours, and so we're sympathizing with him every day. Here's our hand Bill—the one that's nearest our heart!—Atlanta Constitution.

A Politician's Wooing.

My Dear Miss Brown—I hereby announce myself as a candidate for your hand, and I shall use all fair and honorable means to secure the nomination. I know that there are many candidates in the field, and hesitated long before entering the race, but now that I am in it, I am in it stay.

My views on love and matrimony have often been expressed in your hearing, and I need not repeat them here. You know I favor the gold standard of love—a one hundred cent dollar love, and maintenance of the standard after marriage.

If you decide to confer on me the honor I seek, please fix a date for a caucus with your mother. I have no objection to her acting as temporary chairman, provided it is clearly understood that I am to be chairman of the permanent organization. Should the result of the caucus prove satisfactory, we can soon hold the primaries and select the date and place of convention.

I have never believed in long campaigns so if you decide to honor me I will ask you to make the convention date as early as possible.

Devotedly yours,
JOHN CROOKS.

We are requested by the President to state that the Ladies Aid Society will have their meeting and missionary tea at Hotel Macon on Thursday afternoon. Full attendance desired. All members take their mite boxes along.

AN EXPENSIVE DOLLAR.

Facts That Will Have Weight With Thoughtful Workmen.

Men who work for wages should remember that money not only buys things, but that it has to be bought.

A dollar is bought by a workman with a certain amount of work. If dollars are few and workmen plenty he will have to pay pretty dear in effort for his coin. Perhaps he will not even get a chance to buy it at all, either because there are not enough dollars to go round or because he cannot or will not pay the price. In such event the fact that the dollar he doesn't get is one of great value neither interests nor profits him.

The shopkeeper buys his dollars with goods. Ninety-nine out of every hundred of his customers, if he runs a city store, work for wages, and if the dear-ness of the dollar destroy their power of purchasing he will get fewer dollars to pay clerks and some must be discharged, fewer dollars with which to buy goods and factories will be closed. Every class of labor thus suffers by a dear dollar.

Does the banker, the money lender, the man whose investments bringing in interest outweigh all his other sources of income suffer from a dear dollar? In no way. He does not buy dollars with work, with goods, with produce. He lends a dollar, gets back one which, under existing conditions, is sure to be more valuable than the one he lent, and moreover receives interest in money of high purchasing power. His apparent interest lies wholly on the side of a dollar which is dear to-day and dearer to-morrow. We say his apparent interest because in fact the present system persisted in will be harmful to the banking classes as to others. The goose that lays the golden egg may be slaughtered. All securities are founded on the prosperity of the nation, and a policy which compels the distress of the people will compel the depreciation of the banker's securities.

The common people, however, will get near the core of this currency question if they remember that to get a dollar they must buy it with labor if workingmen, with wheat and corn if farmers, with cloth and china if merchants. The dollar which will exchange for twice as much of these commodities as did the dollar of thirty years ago is a dollar that costs them dear.—New York Journal.

The Bible is now printed in 381 languages, fifty-two versions having been added in the last five years. Forty-two of these versions are credited to English and Scotch societies, and five to American societies. Twenty-three of the languages and dialects belong to the African Bantu family, and four belong to each of the Malayan Chinese, and Malanesan. Three are in Indian languages, two each belong to the negro, Turki, Druidian, and Hamitic groups, and one each to the Thibeto-Burman, Aryan, and Micronesian families.

THE GOOD POLICEMAN.

Dick Roe he was a proper man,
The finest in the fold,
And though he was a copper man
He always went for gold.

At night when he was strolling out,
He never begged a treat,
His money, it came rolling out,
Though he was on the beat.

And maidens short and damsels tall
Admired his handsome mug,
And though he took no alcohol,
He put "things in the jug."

He walked about in solitude,
Before his morning grub,
And though he was no social dude,
He stuck close to his club.

He was no melancholy wight,
To give the man his due;
He was, indeed a jolly sight,
But his uniform was blue.

His course was carefully defined,
He gave no one a welt,
But though most peacefully inclined,
He ne'er forgot his belt.

He surely kept within fair bounds,
A credit to creation,
Until Death came upon his rounds
And took him to the station.

—Boston Budget.

"Next to the sin of voting wrongly," says the Rev. Dr. Cuyler, "is the sin of not voting at all." The venerable divine might have put the injunction even more strongly and declared that not voting was by far worse sin of the two. A man may vote wrongfully through lack of enlightenment, in which case he is hardly to be accounted a sinner at all—if he have sought the light. But there is no man so lacking in enlightenment as not to know that to throw away a vote is a species of contempt for the Government and of disloyalty to its fundamental principals for which there can be no defence or palliation.

According to the report of the Commissioner of Immigration at New York for the year ended June 30, 1896, the number of immigrants landed at that port during the year was about 264,000, an increase of 73,000 over the previous year. The inflow of population has apparently taken a new and vigorous start; but there is much to deplore in the fact that it is an inflow of ignorance. Of every one hundred immigrants, twenty-five were from Italy, twenty from Austria-Hungary and eighteen from Russia. Nearly one-half of the Italian immigrants were unable to read or write, and the proportion of illiterates among the Russians and Hungs was probably as great. Thus at least one-third of the new arrivals may be classed as undesirable. The need of an enactment on the lines of the bill which passed the House of Representatives at its recent session imposing an educational qualification upon prospective immigrants seems to be growing from year to year.

It may not be generally known that the issue of counterfeit weather predictions is prohibited and punishable under Federal law as well as the emission of false tokens and counterfeit notes. The fact, however, is that the counterfeiter of Government weather reports is a misdemeanant whose crime subjects him to a fine of five hundred dollars or imprisonment for ninety days, or to both fine and imprisonment. The law was intended to prevent speculators from affecting the prices of agricultural products on the exchanges by spreading spurious prognostications of the weather; it has been invoked, however, for the first time in the cases of incredibly mischievous persons in the West, who thought it would be great fun to create panics by circulating false predictions of approaching tornadoes. There is much gratification to be derived from the fact that this new type of rascal can be so summarily collared by the strong arm of the law.

The S. A. L. Complimented by Candidate Bryan.

The Seaboard Air Line got out a poster announcing reduced rates on the occasion of the Bryan notification which was attractive and unique. It was printed with silver ink on blue glazed paper. A copy was sent to the Democratic candidate with the compliments of General Passenger Agent T. J. Anderson, and that gentleman is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Bryan, in which he says:

"I beg leave to acknowledge receipt of your very attractive poster announcing the silver flyer to the notification meeting at New York. It is one of the most unique things of the sort encountered during the campaign. I am grateful for the interest that prompted it."—Portsmouth Star.

There were some things in England that Mr. Li Hung Chang couldn't quite understand. One of them was why a lady should appear in a low-necked dress and bare arms, and wear gloves. According to his notion, naked hands are preferable to naked chests and arms.

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD

HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE

NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the night coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS. Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga. Gentls: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night. I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally. Yours respectfully, A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true. A. M. RAMSEY. Sworn to and subscribed before me this, August 4th, 1891. J. M. LAMBERT, N. P., Comanche County, Texas.

Catarrh Cured by P. P. P.

THE PARTY PLATFORMS IN A NUTSHELL.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The democratic platform reaffirms the allegiance of the party to the principles of Jefferson—freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of conscience, the preservation of personal rights, equality before the law, and home rule.

It demands—

- That bond issues in times of peace shall cease.
- That the government, and not the banks, shall issue the paper money.
- That the tariff shall be for revenue only.
- That there shall be an income tax.
- That immigration be restricted.
- That the powers of the interstate railroad commission shall be increased.
- The extravagance of republican congresses is denounced.
- Interference by the federal government in local affairs is condemned.
- Government by injunction and rule of the courts by contempt proceedings are denounced.
- Refusal of congress to refund the Pacific debts is approved.
- The ruling of the pension commissioner against arbitrarily dropping names from the rolls is endorsed.
- The admission of New Mexico and Arizona is approved.
- Sympathy for Cuba is expressed.
- Life tenure in office is condemned.
- Devotion to civil and religious liberty is proclaimed.
- Arbitration of strikes is recommended.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The preamble is an arraignment of the democratic party, which is charged with causing all the hard times, bond issues, etc.; and the party's record is held up for comparison with that of the republicans.

The platform speaks for—

It demands—

- Free silver at 16 to 1.
- Increase in the volume of the currency.
- That no more bonds shall be used except by specific act of congress.
- That demonetization of lawful money by contract shall be prohibited.

- That postal savings banks shall be established.
- That the government shall own and operate the railroad and telegraph lines.
- That the Pacific railroad lines shall be foreclosed.
- That the grants of railroad lines not needed by the roads shall be reclaimed and held for settlers.

The Observer says Gov. Jarvis made a powerful speech in Fayetteville Monday.

A fresh lot of run Cream Cheese and Vermont Butter, on ice, at J. S. Tunstall's.

Fine Italian Macaroni, just received, at J. S. Tunstall's.

Fresh Carr Butter to-day, at S. M. Schultz.

Miss Bettie Warren will open her school in Mrs. Whichard's school-room on Monday, 14th, September.

Just one pile of tobacco sold at the Planters Warehouse Monday for $99.68 There were 616 pounds in the pile and it was bought by B. E. Parham.

The Israelitish New Year falling on Tuesday, Sept. 8th, and the day of Atonement on Thursday, Sept. 17th, the stores of M. R. Lang and S. M. Schultz will be closed on those days.

Big Sales Every Day.

If anything the tobacco breaks to-day were even larger than Monday. The horses were all running over and the sale lasted the whole day. It seems to be coming down to the point that the size of breaks on the Greenville market are to be gauged only by the capacity of the warehouses. With every house full every day and the sales running from 9 o'clock A. M. until night, it looks like Greenville is not being left very far behind. We will go a wager, too, that on an all around comparison this market will show better prices than any other in the State.

SEPTEMBER SNAPS.

Our Kodak Catches Them Coming and Going.

Dr. C. J. O'Hagan went to Chapel Hill to-day.

Dr. R. L. Carr left this morning for Baltimore.

J. W. and J. S. Higgs left this morning for New York.

Miss Winnie Skinner left this morning for Chapel Hill.

Charlie O'Hagan and Joe Jarvis left to-day for University.

Miss Lina Sheppard left this morning for Staunton, Va., to attend school.

Louis Skinner left this morning for Raleigh to attend the A. & M. College.

Miss Lillie Edmundson, of Greene county, who has been visiting Mrs. J. L. Wooten, returned home Monday evening.

Miss Julia Howell, of Goldsboro, who has been visiting Mrs. B. Sugg, left for her home Monday evening.

H. L. Wrenn, of Goldsboro, who for three months has been assisting in the telegraph office here left Monday evening for his home in Goldsboro.

Right In Front.

The Eastern Warehouse had last sale today, but did you notice that it was full as usual. The fact is the Eastern is full every day. The good work done by Olthas and "Old Man Gus" draw the people to them every time. The farmers just will carry their tobacco to the Eastern and they never regret doing it, for they always get the best prices to be found.

Watch Him

The Greenville Warehouse had more tobacco again today than could get on the floor, notwithstanding the large addition recently made to the floor space. Leon Evans is a worker from the start. He buckles right down to every pile on sale and don't let anything go for less than its value. The farmers are learning his ways and his business increases accordingly.

Who Will be Nominated?

There is not a great deal of talk as to who the Democrats will nominate at the convention on the 10th for the various county offices. Sometime ago a correspondent of the REFLECTOR suggested a ticket and we have heard several express their approval of it. No doubt that ticket is still fresh in the minds of most our readers. All suggested were good men and staunch Democrats. The best ticket possible is the one to bring out.

Administrators Notice.

Having qualified according to law as administrator of Jesse Brown deceased, late of Pitt County and State of North Carolina, all parties having claims against his estate are hereby notified to present them to me for payment within twelve months from the date of this notice or it will be paid in bar of their recovery.
