AYCOCK AT GREENVILLE.

He Makes a Strong Speech to a Large Audience.

Since it was first announced that Hon. C. B. Aycock was to speak in Greenville on Wednesday night people have been talking about it, and as was expected a large crowd gathered in the Court House to hear him. The speaker was handsomely introduced by L. I. Moore.

After referring pleasantly to the introduction Mr. Aycock said "There is a great fight and a great contest before us. It is a fact that the Democratic party has for one hundred years stood on the side of the masses and against the classes. Democracy means rule by the people. It is a glorious thing to be a Democrat. On one hand we have Republicanism, on another Populism, but ours is a party of principle. There is no ism about the Democratic party."

"I am a Democrat." If David B. Hill has lost his patent on those words I can still use them. You never saw a Democrat who was not proud of being one, while numbers of the other parties have to apologize for being where they are.

"Four years ago the Democratic party made the best platform ever drawn, and this year it has made a better one. The Democratic party is like apple brandy, grows better as it grows older."

Mr. Aycock then took up the financial part of the platform of four years ago, explained what our interpretation of it was and the clause that other sections misconstrued to have a different meaning from what we believed, and said that the platform this year had been made so plain that it could not be misunderstood by anybody. "It means the free coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting for the intervention of any other nation on earth." There is no chance for anybody to go wrong on it.

He then spoke at length upon the money question, showing that it was like everything else, controlled by supply and demand. Mr. Aycock then went in one of the clearest arguments along this line we have ever heard. He showed how silver was worth just as much as ever and that the difference between the value of the two metals was because gold had appreciated and not silver depreciated. "To restore silver to its coinage privileges would mean better prices to the producer and that is what we all ought to work for, as the salaries and wages of all other classes are regulated by farm wages and farm wages are regulated by the price of products."

Space forbids us giving a full report of the excellent speech and mentioning all the good points brought out. Mr. Aycock was frequently interrupted by applause, especially at the mention of Bryan and C. Watson and the fine tribute paid each of them.

He cautioned his hearers against believing the Republican party was dead and urged vigorous work.

He said some of the Populists claim they have driven the Democrats to free silver, if that is so then they ought not to desert us after driving us to it but should help us win the battle for free silver.

The audience was enthusiastic and enjoyed the speech fully. We wish every man in the county could have heard it.

To-day the Eastern Warehouse had tobacco from Halifax, Edgecombe, Wilson, Greene, Lenoir and Pitt counties. Now, if this house was not doing good work for the farmers do you believe so much tobacco would come to it, and from such a large territory?

WHOLESALE THIEVING.

Is There a Band of Robbers?

M. Hoffman & Bro. missed goods from their store. They set a watch and discovered that a colored man named Young Savage was wearing clothes like they had missed. They sworn out a warrant against him and deputy sheriff C. W. Dunn called to arrest Savage Monday morning. He called in front of his house and when Savage came out he read the warrant to him. Savage said he bought the clothes in Greenville. He said he would go with officer Dunn but asked him to let him step into the house a minute. Mr. Dunn waited in front, but Savage slipped out at the back door and had considerably lengthened the distance between himself and officer Dunn before the latter knew it. Savage, it is said, had a large bunch of keys of several descriptions, but at present writing officer Dunn has neither seen nor heard from him.

Immediately after the escape a search warrant was issued and Savage's house was searched. There were found in his house 7 pair of children's and women's shoes, one bolt of cloth, 1 pant pattern, one bolt of black cashmere and other things. The bolt of cloth matched cloth that had been missed from Hoffman's store, the pant pattern was identified for the store of R. C. Josey & Co., the white cloth matched some that K. Jenkins had missed, and all these goods were respectively returned.

It develops that merchants have been missing goods for some time, but had no means of getting up with them. Mr. Hoffman says he has missed thirteen suits of clothes from his store and coffee by the sack. It also develops that recently the colored man Savage has been selling goods about town. He sold Mr. W. R. Walston a part of a bolt of ticking for making mattresses. Mr. Ed. Shields bought a sack of coffee and some tobacco from him and Collin Anthony also bought some goods from him. Some colored people in town had bought shoes from him.

Savage said he brought the goods from Greenville where he had a store which he was closing out. It is thought that he has confederates here and in Greenville.

The pity is that he could not have been safely kept and the whole thing exposed—Scotland Neck, Commonwealth.

The above is just along the line of what has been going on in Greenville. For some time merchants here have been missing goods from their stores. It seems that this negro Savage has been making frequent trips between Greenville and Scotland Neck and that he always carried a trunk with him. One of the largest losers here has been Mr. W. H. White, a great many shoes and some other goods being stolen from him. Learning of the discovery of Savage at Scotland Neck, Mr. White went up there and found some of his goods.

Believing that Savage had confederates in Greenville, Mr. White went to the store Cas Johnson, colored, just north of the Market House, and found some goods there that belonged to him. Johnson said he got the goods from Savage. A warrant was at once issued for Johnson, he was given a preliminary and bound over to Court.

The Last Words of Governor Vance.

When the bill for the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman law was before the senate of the United States the late Hon. Z. B. Vance said to a young man whose father now lives in Danville: "Young man, the president will force congress to repeal this law; now mark my prediction, for you will live to see it. I will not. This will be the complete demonetization of silver. It will cause more distress, more unhappiness in our country than anything that has yet been done." When said this he bowed his head on his table and wept.

After this he went into the senate and made his last great speech against this bill, which bill was also opposed by nearly all of the democratic senators and members of the house. It was against this bill that W. J. Bryan made his celebrated speech.

The last words of Senator Vance were September, 1, 1893 in the senate. "It was said that the string of the bow of Ulysses warned him of the approach of danger by singing a song of battle and of strife. Let me say to these conspirators against the welfare of the common people that before they shall succeed in their unhallowed designs and drive them through the valley of the shadow of death, to attain a single gold standard in order that the conspirators may grow rich on human suffering, they will see many a field of political battle and hear the roar of much political strife.

"In this fair land the thunderbolts of Jove dwell still with those whose voice is as the voice of God and the bow of Ulysses is yet in the people's hands, and its quiver is filled with death-dealing darts. It strings will yet sing many a song of battle to awaken the sleeping people, and upon every plain and in every valley and upon every mountain side from shore to shore of our inclosing seas, they will spring to the feet at the calling of the music with the light of conflict on their hearts. In that day it would be better for some of those who have joined in the fight against the money of the poor that a millstone had been hanged about their neck and they had been cast into the mi list of the sea."

Surely the fountains of the great deep of humanity are broken up and the hearts of men are stirred within them as they never have been stirred before since the civil war.

The great fight is on.

The power of money and its allies throughout the world have entered into this conspiracy to perpetrate the greatest crime of this or any other age to overthrow one-half of the world money and thereby double their own wealth by enhancing the value of the other half, which is in their hands.

The money changers are polluting the temple of our liberties.
"To your tents O Israel."
Respectfully,
THOMAS HAMLIN.

CURRENT TOPICS.

According to the Chinese Consul at San Francisco, there are not more than 12,000 subjects of the Chinese Emperor now living in that city, and they are leaving at the rate of 3000 to 4000 a year. The proportion of those who return to those who depart is small. Evidently the almond-eyed knights of the tub in Frisco have laid aside enough good American dollars to see them comfortably through a long spell of rainy weather.

About twenty years ago there were only about fifteen thousand Jews in Jerusalem; now, however, it is said that the Hebrew population in the City of David numbers between sixty thousand and seventy thousand souls. Through out Palestine they are buying farms and establishing themselves in a surprisingly rapid manner.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED--COULD

HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT--ONE

NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the nights coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night.
I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

POPLIST CONVENTION.

They Finish the Skeleton Ticket. Left by the Republicans.

The Populist Convention met here today and was called to order by Harry Skinner chairman of the executive committee. The Speech that he made ought to be heard by every Democrat in the State. If it were there is not a man in the State who has one drop of Democratic blood in his veins that would even say or believe again that Harry Skinner has one single solitary interest in any thing but that which advances his own interests and mitigates against Democratic principles. We may analyze and report some things which he said at some other time but have not the time or space to do so this evening. We will content ourselves by saying that the foremost thing which Harry Skinner politically is to advance his own interest and the next is to aid the Republicans in whatever way he may be able.

At the close of his speech he named E. A. Moyer for permanent chairman who made a short speech upon taking the chair and declared the convention ready to proceed with its work.

J. A. Lang was made permanent secretary.

Harry Skinner offered the motion that the convention proceed to nominate candidates for two commissioners, a Surveyor, Treasurer, Sheriff, Senator and one Representative, leaving the Register of Deeds, one Representative, one Commissioner and the Coroner to be selected by the executive committee. This motion was carrying out the agreement made with the Republicans for fusion and the vacancies left to be filled by the executive committee means to endorse the candidates put out by the Republicans for those positions.

Sam Wilson of Swift Creek, moved that the roll of townships be called for a vote on Skinner's motion.

A. Pittman, of Contentnea, opposed Skinner's motion and said he favored nominating a full ticket. He was opposed to a sacrifice of principle just for the sake of a few offices, and one man particularly who had been named on the combination ticket he could never support.

S. V. Laughinghouse spoke in favor of the motion and said he was willing to lay aside principle for the sake of electing the ticket.

The roll of townships was called, resulting in yeas 95, nays 6.

Nominations were then declared in order.

For the first County Commissioner W. M. King was nominated by acclamation.

For the second Commissioner J. L. C. Manning was nominated on second ballot.

For Surveyor, J. R. Jenkins, by acclamation.

For Sheriff, W. H. Harrington by acclamation.

For Treasurer, J. A. Thorpe, by acclamation.

For the Legislature, S. Chapman, on first ballot.

For the Senate, A. J. Moyer, on second ballot.

J. A. Lang was elected chairman of the county executive committee.

"Rev." J. L. Phillips moved that the several candidates "come forward, state their views, express their thanks and elucidate their bombast."

The candidates were called out by the chairman and made brief speeches of acceptance, only one or two "elucidating their bombast" in accordance with "Parson" Phillips suggestion.

"Parson" Phillips, who was not even mentioned for an office, was called for and made a speech telling part of what he did in the last Legislature, but steering clear of mentioning the Airington committee and other of his escapades.
