ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Can a military gait bear arms?

The "cup that cheers" must be a noisy piece of crockery.

A great many men are unable to prove that the world owes them a living.

Wealth not expended in usefulness brings no reward in the life beyond this.

The bar is often the stepping-stone to the bench—that is, the prisoner's bench.

Beware of all persons who consider all others as dishonest and not to be trusted.

Dishonesty may win gold, but it loses character: while integrity may lose gold, but it wins heaven.

The model man never makes merchandise of his griefs nor loads the hearts of others with his troubles.

Hell has no higher kickers than married people who live together only to see who will have the last word.

At twenty, man wonders why he was not born sooner; at sixty, he can not understand why he was born at all.

Many a man never thinks to find fault with his neighbor's religious belief till he learns that they differ in political opinions.

A smooth tongue may help you to dead beat your way through this world, but it won't raise the latch-string when you meet St. Peter at the gate.

A plant has been discovered the juice of which has the power of making people laugh. It is not a new discovery, however. The juice of the corn has the power of making people smile.

We like to see a man perfect in his occupation or profession. We like to see expert workmen building a house, running an engine, or shucking corn.—We like to see a carpenter make a joint so close that you can't see the division line, then we know he is a good one. Be an expert in your business or profession, and you'll reach the front row.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

Evidently a McKinley Roster.

A "knight of the grip" stepped off the train here a recent evening, and as usual was assailed by a horde of hotel runners. He seemed to give no heed to them, but ploughing his way through the crowd approached a man standing near and asked:

"Can't you tell me, sir, which is the very best hotel in town?" emphasizing the very best.

"Well sir, I would not throw heads and tails for the difference between them," replied the person interrogated.

"But, really," continued the drummer, "is there no distinction at all between them?"

"None in the world, sir, unless you might want a political difference."

"What is the difference between them politically, then?" he enquired with apparently more interest.

"One Democratic and the other Populist," was the reply.

"Well, by thunder! they're both bad enough," he muttered as he tightened his hold on his grip and trudged off with somewhat of a disgusted look.

Tilman at Kinston.

Hon. B. R. Tilman, of South Carolina, will speak at Kinston on Tuesday, Sept. 22nd. A letter from the President of the Democratic club tells us they are going to have a grand rally and Greenville and Pitt county are invited to join them. Other prominent speakers will also be present.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12.

Bryan enthusiasm has been on tap in Washington this week. The Arkansas election started the ball by putting all the democrats in a jubilant humor, and the news which has been coming to Bryan headquarters has all been of a pleasing nature to his supporters. The local democrats are fairly bubbling over in their enthusiasm while engaged in making preparations for the big meeting they are to hold on the 19th inst., and which is to be addressed by Mr. Bryan. Unless present anticipations fail to be realized it will be the biggest political meeting ever held in Washington.

"Put up or shut up" is the gambler's argument but there are times when it is the most convincing that can possibly be advanced. Representative Mercer, secretary of the republican Congressional committee, is from Nebraska and he never tires of claiming that State for McKinley. This week Mr. C. H. Pirtle, of populist headquarters, who is also from Nebraska, sent Mr. Mercer word that he had $500 to wager that Bryan would carry Nebraska. Mr. Mercer did not accept the wager.

Senator Faulkner said of the silver victory in Arkansas: "If it has any significance, it is not that the battle is won for the democratic nominees, but as evidencing the fact that in one of the greatest Agricultural states of the Union the candidates nominated and the principles announced at Chicago meet the approval and command the support of the great agricultural and laboring classes so strongly represented in that State. It appears further that the great amount of campaign literature sent into Arkansas by the republican organization had no more effect than to stimulate to stronger efforts those who are now realizing that the great producing classes of the county must have relief from continually falling prices, resulting from the gold standard.

Representative Burkhead, of Ala., says his state will give Bryan 75,000 majority regardless of any thing the populists may do, and that if the populists vote with the democrats it will go higher.

Mr. James L. Norris, assistant Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, and president of the Jackson Democratic Association of Washington, made a fiery speech before the latter organization this week, in which he said: "If the candidates named by the true and only democratic party at Chicago are to be elected we must waste no time in the states that opposed the war of 1812. There was the faction then, as there is the gold faction now; there was legalized state smuggling then defrauding the nation, as there is the illegal syndicate despoiling the Federal treasury now; they had Quincy's then who declared for 'separation' of the states. 'amicably if we can, and violently if we must;' they had a British party then, as we have a Morgan-Rothschilds syndicate now, to destroy the credit of the nation that profits may accrue to the syndicate; the pulpit thundered against the war, as it thunders against genuine patriotism today."

No utterance during the campaign has been more pleasing to the friends of Mr. Bryan than the words of Senator Teller in a speech at Morrison, Ill., which were telegraphed to Washington. Senator Teller said: "I think I know every man in public life among the Democrats who had the slightest claim to a nomination, and I say to you here now, after an acquaintance of more than seven years with Mr. Bryan, and a pretty close acquaintance with him, too, that in the whole ranks of the Democracy there was not a man better equipped and more worthy of nomination than he."

WHO THEY ARE.

The Men Who are Candidates for Office in North Carolina.

There being three tickets in the field for State officers, and some changes having been made, there is some confusion in the minds of those who do not make a close study of politics as to who the various candidates are and what tickets they are on. We give all three tickets below, for the information of our readers:

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor, Cyrus Watson; for Lieutenant Governor, Thomas Mason; Secretary of State, C. M. Cooke; Treasurer, B. F. Aycock; Auditor, R. M. Furman; Attorney General, F. I. Osborne; Superintendent of Public Instruction, John C. Scarborough; Justices of the Supreme Court, A. C. Avery, Geo. H. Brown.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For Governor, D. L. Russell; Lieutenant Governor, Oliver H. Dockery; Secretary of State, Cyrus Thompson; Treasurer, W. H. Worth; Attorney General, Z. V. Walser; Auditor, W. R. Henderson; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Chas. A. Mebane; Justices of the Supreme Court, Walter A. Montgomery, Robt. Douglas.

The Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction and one of the Justices on this ticket were first nominated by the Populists and then endorsed by the Republicans.

POPULIST TICKET.

For Governor, W. A. Guthrie; Lieutenant Governor, O. H. Dockery; Secretary of State, Cyrus Thompson; Treasurer, W. H. Worth; Auditor, Hal W. Ayer; Supt., C. A. Mebane. Associate Justice of Supreme Court, Walter Montgomery.

The Attorney General and one Justice of the Supreme Court on this ticket are to be named.

If it is said that in a few days the Populists will complete their ticket by nominating Walter Henry for Attorney General and some other ex-Democrat for Justice of the Supreme Court and the Republicans will get even with the war-horse of the Fee Dee by taking him off their ticket and putting some McKinley Republican in his place.

Don't Mix the Bible and Politics.

A religious exchange is timely in its protest against the habit of politicians in quoting the scriptures for political effect, often wrenching them from their proper significance and applying so as to pervert them to some sinister scheme. It is indeed deplorable and should be discountenanced. It is a fact that an indiscreet mixture of politics and religion proves detrimental to religion without benefiting politics. It is also to be observed that if such scripture quoting politicians ever indulges in his cups the scripture quotations flow more freely, indeed the uses of Bible references often mark the degree of intoxication. The sacredness of the scriptures should be zealously guarded and never used in discussions when the effect is likely to weaken the reverence for them. While the Bible is the foundation of all truth and the criterion of right and the guide to every true life, its benefits are lost to many by the indiscreet and unsanctimonious use of its great lessons.—Ex.

The Czar of Russia is said to be a little nervous as to his destiny. He thinks he reads some ill omens in his early career as Russian autocrat. On the day of his splendid coronation at Moscow, thousands of his people were crushed to death in a panic at the festivals on the great plain there. Just after the Czar set out to meet the Emperor of Germany on an important diplomatic mission, the chief advisor of the Russian monarch, and the second man in the Empire, who was on his way to join the conference of the two rulers, died suddenly. The Czar immediately summoned the governor of Warsaw, a wise man of his realm, to come to him as his temporary chief advisor, and the governor of Warsaw was stricken with paralysis before he could pack his grip. The Czar is said to be somewhat alarmed over these omens. Indeed, it looks like the Czar and Walter R. Henry, Esq., were born under the same star, the Czar having a little the advantage, however, in that he has a life-tenure cinch on his office.—Charlotte Observer.

The Government Cotton Report.

The cotton report of the department of agriculture for September shows a decline from the August condition of the crop which was 80.1 to 61.5 per cent, a decline of 18.6 points. This is the lowest September condition reported in the last twenty seven years. The State averages are as follows: Virginia, 89; North Carolina, 70; South Carolina, 70; Georgia, 71; Florida, 72; Alabama, 66; Mississippi, 61; Louisiana, 59; Texas, 62; Arkansas, 60; Tennessee, 61; Missouri, 81; Indian Territory, 60; Oklahoma, 65.

Paste this in Your Hat.

An old student of human nature has told us to beware of the person who is so eager to entertain you with the faults of others, for the same party will be sure to entertain others with your faults. Avoid small talk and neighborhood gossip; improve your spare moments profitably. Industrious people have little time to waste upon trivial subjects. Life's too short to dream away in idle bickering and imaginary complaints.—Germantown (Pa.) Times-Chronicle.

The REFLECTOR has been told that in a certain section of the county the colored people held a meeting on last Wednesday night and organized a Bryan-Watson club with 140 members.

Handbills have been circulated calling for another Republican county convention here on Saturday, 19th. The call is signed by B. M. W. James, chairman and Redmond Fleming, secretary.

They Always Lead.

Olthus Joyner was back on sale at the Eastern Warehouse today, this being the first sale since he got back from his tour of the Virginia markets. And having his pocket full of big orders and the warehouse full of bright tobacco he was ready to play a high note on prices and that is just what he did. He and Old Man Gus just piled up the prices, and they had a big crowd of highly pleased farmers around them. Both of them know just what tobacco is, and they don't allow a farmer to leave their house dissatisfied. When you start in with tobacco drive straight to the Eastern.

SEPTEMBER SNAPS.

Our Kodak Catches Them Coming and Going.

Col. Harry Skinner came home Saturday evening.

A Cobb, of Newbern, came Saturday evening.

John Howard, of Tarboro, who has been spending a few days here returned home this morning.

A. Pritchard, of Kinston, came over this morning to work for the Pitt county Buggy Co.

Maj. H. L. Grant, a prominent Republican of Goldsboro, is down here over-look the political field.

Maj. W. S. Bernard left for Chocowinity today to resume his duties as instructor in Trinity school.

Rev. J. L. Winfield, editor of the Watch Tower passed through this morning on his way to Washington.

Mrs. Addie Grimsley wife of Mr. John D. Grimsley, of Snow Hill, died Saturday night. She had a large number of friends in this section.

Rev. D. B. Ricard came down from Scotland Neck Saturday evening and preached in the Baptist church Sunday morning and night. He returned home today.

Does It Every Time.

The old Greenville Warehouse had last sale today, but what a pile of tobacco she had when the buyers got over there. And Leon Evans was in good prime ready for them with his weather eye set for big prices. The "Parson" got the prices, too.

Another Large Sale.

Today was another of those lively, rattling sales days on the Greenville tobacco market. The weed was here in large quantity, there being fully 100,000 pounds on the four warehouse floors. The sale started at the Star and it took until 1 o'clock to get through with that house and the Planters. Then after a short interval for dinner they started in at the Eastern which, with the Greenville to follow, had enough to keep the buyers busy the balance of the day. Prices all around show a marked improvement over last week.

Prices Humming.

Today the Planters Warehouse had the largest and most satisfactory sale of the season. There was tobacco on the floor from Beaufort, Martin, Edgecombe, Wilson, Lenoir, Green and Pitt counties and several of the piles brought as high as $25. When prices got to shooting up auctioneers Grenshaw and Lipcomb just let their tongues fairly rattle off the music while Ola Forbes was almost wild with joy. Everybody was pleased and said they were coming again.

There will not be any tobacco sold here on Friday, 18th, as everybody wants to go to Rocky Mount to hear Bryan.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made in different styles—the small one, which is made for bed rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off or put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen our store, come and look at them.
