GROSS MISREPRESENTATION.

For the past few days Pitt and Greene counties have been flooded with a deluge of circular matter and dodgers the purport of which were to correct a statement which appeared in Kings Weekly, published in this town, to the effect that the Rocky Mount Tobacco Market had closed on account of the stringency of money matters and the same little squib which was only about four lines, stated that it was understood the same was the cause of the low prices that tobacco was bringing here.

If the Rocky Mount people really thought that they had been damaged by this publication then it was their privilege to employ as many men as they saw proper to send down here to correct the report and flood the country with as much gush and paper as suited them, but if there was any harm done them, they ought to have placed the blame where it belonged, upon the one who circulated the rumor. Instead of that, we are told by a reliable and thorough gentleman from Falkland that one of their justice laden messengers was telling it in that section that the Greenville warehousemen had circulated damaging reports about the Rocky Mount market and had done them a great injustice by telling that the Rocky Mount market had closed.

Now, we want to say that we know that there is not a tobacco man in Greenville nor anyone connected with this market in anyway who is so niggardly or who would stoop so low to induce tobacco to come to this market. The Greenville warehousemen have never yet fallen low enough to employ any such methods to get tobacco. We have all been doing a pretty fair business, in fact as much as we could well get along with and we have done it by pursuing a fair and legitimate course.

Greenville has always, it seems, been an eye sore to some other markets in the east. Why this we do not know unless it be on account of her rapid progress and promising future. This market entertains no spiteful feelings towards any other market. We are willing, perfectly, for them to do all the business they can, but we are not willing to sit quietly and see them defame us and misrepresent us in any such gross and unjust manner.

Now, so far as Rocky Mount is concerned we suppose they have plenty of money, hope they have at least, and we just simply think that they have fastened upon the meager opportunity to make a great to do over nothing. Very few, if any, have ever thought that they had closed, and the free advertising they have got has only repaid them for the damaging report.

Oakley Items.

OAKLEY, N. C., Sept. 14, 1896.

Right much fever in this section but it seems to be of a milder type than a month or so ago.

A goodly number of our people attended yearly meeting at Briery Swamp Sunday and all report a pleasant time.

Our people want to know where ex-Gov. Jarvis is and why it is that he is not in the first district helping to defeat Harry Skinner? It is conceded that help is needed worse here at this time than elsewhere, and we don't want any dodging in this campaign. Our people want the Ex-Gov. to prove his faith by his works, by coming right in the first district and working for the election of Col. Lucas and the defeat of Skinner.

[This is a pointed question to the ex-Governor, and the REFLECTOR columns are open to him if he wishes to answer it.—Ed.]

EDITORIAL NOTES.

At the meeting held in Louisville, Ky., on Saturday night, at which Senator Palmer, of Illinois and Gov. Buckner, of Kentucky, were notified of their nomination for President and Vice President by the recent convention of gold Democrats at Indianapolis who styled themselves the National Democratic party, a telegram was read from President Grover Cleveland in which he declared his endorsement of the ticket. Well, from President Cleveland's course in late years that is no more than was expected of him.

Maj. H. L. Grant, of Goldsboro, a man quite prominent in Republican circles, has been spending a few days in Greenville. Just what was the object of his visit here those on the outside do not know, but it is reported that he held closeted conferences with local Republican leaders and also with Harry Skinner. Mr. Grant seemed satisfied of accomplishing the purpose of his visit, whatever that was, but could not be induced to talk politics much to any one not on the "inside" with him. He did say in response to a question put by the REFLECTOR reporter that "there is no such thing as Russell being taken down, he will stay on the ticket to the finish."

This is to be a memorable week for North Carolina. It marks the coming to our midst of one of the Nation's greatest men, in fact one who at this day is more talked about and more applauded than another. Hon. W. J. Bryan, Democratic nominee for President will reach North Carolina tonight, his first stopping place being Asheville. From there he will on Wednesday begin a two day's itinerary of the State, stopping to make speeches at central points as he passes along. On Friday he will speak at both Goldsboro and Rocky Mount, and all eastern North Carolina will assemble at these points to hear him. North Carolina feels honored at his coming into her borders, and the State is going to give a rousing vote for Bryan in November.

Queer Way to Get a Wife.

The strangest system of selecting a wife known to civilized countries exists in Russia. It is called a game, but it is a very serious one, and always takes place at Christmas time.

Some one of prominence in a village announces that the annual merrymaking will be held at his house. On the appointed day the young men and women hasten in huge excitement to the meeting place. There are songs, and games, and dances, but they are simply a prelude to the more important business of the day.

When the time comes the hostess leads all the girls into one room, where they seat themselves on the benches. Laughing and chattering, they are each promptly muffled in winding sheets by the hostess. The head and hair and figure are completely covered, and when this is done the girls resemble mummies.

The young men draw lots and one by one they enter the room where the muffled girls sit. Helpless so far as sight or touch goes, the puzzled lover tries to find his favorite. Finally he chooses one, and then he may unveil her.

It is the law of custom that the man shall marry the girl he has picked out, and if either backs out a heavy forfeit must be paid. It is said that this matrimonial lottery is productive of many happy marriages.—New York Journal.

Sounds Like a Fish Story.

Mr. J. M. Lancaster, who lives over in Polk county, North Carolina, was in the city yesterday. He said that an old negro named Miles went squirrel hunting the other day near Tyron, and not meeting with much luck he lay down under the shade of a large tree to watch for game. The old man being very tired, soon fell asleep. The next morning his wife, alarmed at his not returning home, collected a large party and went in search of her missing husband. The posse, after scouring the woods diligently for three days in vain, gave up the search and concluded that Miles had quit the country. Just exactly one week from the day Miles fell asleep he woke up. About dusk he arrived home and commanded his wife to hurry up supper as he was very hungry. The old fellow cannot be made to believe that he slept one week and still maintains that the whole thing is a put up job on him.—Spartanburg (S. C.) Herald.

The Girl Who Works.

The girl who works—God bless her. She is brave and she is not too proud to earn her own living. She is studious, painstaking and patient. She smiles from behind the counter or desk, her smile is the reflection of celestial grandeur and eternal bliss. She is like a beautiful mountaineer, her character is pure as the bubbling spring, strong as the rock from which it flows and as high as the mountain's topmost pinnacle. The sight of her should be a fine inspiration to all. Her hand may be stained by dish-washing, sweeping, factory grease or printer's ink, but it is an honest and helping hand. It stays misfortune from many poor homes. It is one shield that protects many a forlorn little family from the poor house and asylum. All honor to the girl who works.

Cats That Travel.

On one of the Southern railroads there is a cat that lives on one of the trains. When the train stops, the cat jumps off at the station and walks about. The moment the conductor calls "All aboard!" puss jumps on the train. She has freedom of the train, and makes friends with the passengers. Nor is this cat the only one that likes to travel. On one of the ferry-boats that crosses from an up-town ferry in New York City to Long Island shore is a cat that has been on the boat ten years. She is the pet of the crew and the passengers. Once in a while puss stays on shore for a trip. When she does, she stretches out on one of the big beams on the bridge and waits for her boat to come back. She never makes the trip on any other boat. The crew feed her and care for her tenderly.

"Which Side are You on?"

Mr. Bryan asks this pertinent question in his speech at Tioli, New York. Each and every voter in the land may make this inquiry of himself, and settle it for himself, in his own conscience and best judgment. Are you ready to take sides with the trusts, monopolies and syndicates that are banded together for the purpose of controlling the government, or do you stand with the people for an honest government, administered by the people, for the people? Democrats cannot hesitate. It is for the doubting Thomas to decide.

A Luminous Cat.

Those who now tolerate mice or rats in or about the house certainly must be blind to the fact that a luminous cat, which costs very little to secure and nothing to keep, has been invented, and can be placed in any dark corner or nook, and effectually scares away all such pests. This cat is struck or cast from metal or other like material so as to represent in appearance the exact counterpart of its animated feline sister. It is painted over with luminous paint, so that it shines in the dark like a cat of flame. After being used for about a week the place is forever free of either mice or rats.

Laughable.

A very erroneous and ridiculous statement appeared in last week's Greenville REFLECTOR to the effect that the Rocky Mount Tobacco market had shut down for the want of funds.—Rocky Mount Phoenix.

Beg your pardon for giving you a flat contradiction, but the REFLECTOR has contained no such statement, and would like for you to correct the charge of its doing so.

DEATH OF A GOOD MAN.

BETHEL, N. C., Sept. 14th, '96.

Mr. Joseph L. Peal of this place, who worked as machinist for the Martin County Lumber Company, at Everetts, had a stroke of paralysis Saturday night and died there Sunday. His remains were brought here on this morning's train accompanied by a large crowd of people from that place. He was buried this evening at 4 o'clock by Bethel Lodge of Odd Fellows, of which he was a member. The lodges of Robersonville and Parmele were also present and assisted in the ceremonies. He leaves a widow and several children who have our heartfelt sympathy in this their sore and unexpected bereavement.

D. L. Rus-el, Republican candidate for Governor and Z. V. Walser, candidate for Attorney General on the same ticket, are announced to speak in Greenville on Saturday, Oct. 3rd.

Getting furniture by the train load is the way it looked from the quantity being hauled to the stores of J. B. Cherry & Co. the last day or two. By the way, there is something to say about furniture and other goods in the advertisement of this firm that will be sure to interest you.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made in different styles—the small one, which is made for bed rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen at our store, come and look at them.
