AN AUTUMN RHYME.

The autumn winds they sweep along,
But autumn stars are fine,
And autumn fires sing a song.
(Some sugar, please, in mine!)

The fleecy fields will keep us warm ;
Around the board we'll meet,
Safe sheltered from the winter's storm.
(That cider's sharp and sweet!)

What care we for the poor, "last rose?"
It scarcely wins a glance!
Behold! the roaring chimney glows.
(Miss Sally, will you dance?)

A CHARMING TOWN.

The editor spent a very pleasant day Wednesday in the delightful town of Scotland Neck. For a town of its size we believe there is more culture, refinement and gentility among the people of Scotland Neck than any town in the State.

Our business over there was chiefly at the office of the Commonwealth, and while we found Editor Hilliard a very busy and hard-worked man, he took time to show us around and point out several of the town's enterprises. There are lumber and milling plants, carriage factories, knitting mills, chewing gum factory and other industries that give employment to many hands and add much to the general prosperity of the community.

Scotland Neck has some splendid mercantile establishments also, and in singling out one of these to speak of no disparagement is intended to the others. A visitor cannot be otherwise than impressed with the stores of M. Hoffman & Bro. A quarter of a century ago the head of this firm, Mr. M. Hoffman, went to the town a poor man, and in these years he has by indomitable energy amassed a fortune and built up an establishment that would do credit to a city. The Joseys, Shields and others also do an immense business.

The REFLECTOR never feels like passing but one criticism upon the business men of Scotland Neck, if we may be pardoned for mentioning it. That is the apparent meagre support they give their home paper as indicated by its advertising columns. They do not seem to appreciate the treasure they have in Mr. Hilliard and his paper. The excellent editorial work of the Commonwealth faithfully presents the moral, social and intellectual advantages of the town, and its advertising columns ought to be able to show to the outside world the town's splendid business and industrial features as well.

A Lady Caught Them.

Isn't it funny what methods people will sometimes resort to in an effort to draw business to themselves! A lady living at Hobgood, learning that the REFLECTOR man passed up the road Wednesday morning and would return that evening, walked down to the depot to ask him if the Greenville tobacco market had been closed. Being assured that it had not, but on the contrary was selling an average of nearly one hundred thousand pounds of tobacco a day, she explained that she heard two drummers for another market telling that the Greenville warehouses had closed and all the tobacco business suspended, but not believing any such report she determined to find out the facts in the case for herself. Those drummers will have to hatch out a new falsehood, this one won't work.

Superior Court.

The following cases on the criminal docket have been heard since our last report:

Edward Langley and Olfey Warren, affray, submit, judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Henry Williams, carrying concealed weapons, submits, judgment suspended.

W. S. Briley, assault with deadly weapon, guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Isam Griffin, larceny, submits.

Alfred Crandall and Kate Crandall, assault with deadly weapon, guilty, judgment suspended.

Jesse Hill, and Louis Arnold, affray, guilty, each fined $10 and costs.

Louis Arnold, carrying concealed weapons, submits, fined $5 and costs.

Orange Foreman alias Orange Williams, assault with deadly weapon, guilty, fined $15 and costs.

J. R. Smith, retailing without license, submits, fined $10 and costs, in two cases.

R. T. Turnage, assault with deadly weapon, submits, fined $15 and costs.

Ira Porter, disturbing religious worship, submits, fined $10 and costs.

Guthrie Giving Advice.

In his speeches Major Guthrie, the Populist candidate for Governor, tells the Populists that they must not vote for any man for Congress who is not a straight free coiner, and that they must not vote for any man for the Legislature who is pledged to vote for Senator Pritchard or any other gold bug for the Senate. As the Populist party has always professed and yet professes to hold free coinage above all else, Major Guthrie is simply doing his duty and giving his people honest advice. But will they heed it? We shall see. We shall see whether the Populists in Fredell, for instance, will vote for a McKinley Republican for the Legislature, who will vote for Pritchard if he is elected, for Pritchard is the nominee of his party; or whether they will vote for a Populist for the Legislature who is pledged to vote for Pritchard if he is elected. We shall see. If they do we shall then know how earnest they are in their demand for silver.—Statesville Landmark.

The Rate War at an End.

Raleigh, N. C., September 21.—The chairman of the railway commissions of Georgia and South Carolina arrived here today to confer with the North Carolina commission regarding the settlement by arbitration of the railway war between the Southern and the Seaboard Air Line. The commissioners this afternoon received official notice of the ending of the railway war; they will take no steps.

How to Kill Your Town.

Tell your merchants you can buy goods a good deal cheaper in some other town, and charge him with extortion.

If a stranger comes to town, tell him everything is overdone and predict a general crash in the town in the near future.

Keep up a divided public sentiment and knife every man that disagrees with you on the best methods of increasing business.

Public Speaking.

Hon. Cyrus B. Watson, Democratic candidate for Governor, will speak at Kinston, Wednesday, Oct. 14. Snow Hill, Thursday, Oct. 15. Greenville, Friday, Oct. 16. Washington, Saturday, Oct. 17.

A curious contrast or bet was made last night at the Gypsy Feast. A young lady said she would marry a certain young man if Bryan was elected. The young man in return said if McKinley was elected he would marry her. There is sure to be a wedding.

YOU SHOULD KNOW IT.

There's a difference,
You should know it,
For it means a deal to you
Whether, when you spend your dollars
For the Clothes you have in view—
Whether they are really worthy,
That will stand the test of time,
Or the imitation "bargains"
From the mills that make that kind.

GENTLEMEN'S FINE CLOTHING! A SPECIALTY.

It's not merely the beauty of stuff, or the stylish cut—its the fit, the finish, the exquisite stitching and pressing, the shaping of a pocket, the rounding of a corner; nothing forgotten or half done—all-round clothing. Take time to look thoroughly, to compare. There's plenty of cheap clothing, of half-price clothing. See it you want to buy it when you've seen this.

This Ought to Reach Southern men.

One of the most vicious characters in this country is Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, of New York. He professes himself a Democrat and, in addition to drawing a large pension from the government, has been quartered upon the Democratic party in New York for years in one good office after another. But he has never forgiven the "rebels" for having shot one of his legs off and never fails to avail himself of an opportunity to talk about the war and to traduce the South. He hates Cleveland because Cleveland has always felt kindly toward the South and has given it more than its share of the public patronage, among his appointees being many ex-Confederate soldiers, and he is equally vicious toward Bryan on account of his friendliness toward this section. He has just sent out a letter to "his army comrades of all ranks," in which he says, among other things, "Mr. Bryan and many of his supporters are trying to combine the South and West against the North and East. This is sectionalism, of which the rebellion was the offspring." Arguing against free silver, he says: "The cost of all the necessities of life would be doubled, while the value of the money in which wages and pensions would be paid will be reduced nearly one-half."

Ah! yes; the pensions; the sacred pensions; they must not be affected.

And again, speaking of the denial of the authority of the President and the courts to interfere with mobs: "This new doctrine is worse than the old secession heresy you put down with your bayonets—let us silence the new heresy by our ballots." Whereupon this ill-tempered warrior urges the Grand Army of the Republic, including the noble army of pensioners, to vote for "Comrade McKinley, who manifested his love for his country by shouldering his musket and serving for nearly two years as a private soldier."

In the face of such argumentation as this, the Observer appeals with confidence to its readers to lay aside whatever differences of opinion there may exist between the Democratic candidate and them as to the financial question and line up for Bryan.—Charlotte Observer.

The "Continued Prosperity."

That was so good a trip up that Mr. Bryan gave Mr. McKinley last Monday, on his record, that we feel like keeping it before our readers. It is especially good as being an answer by McKinley himself to all the boasts of his party about the prosperity their policy has given the farmers of the land. Mr. Bryan's attention was called to it by the following, which Mr. McKinley said to one of the delegations that called on him at Canton last week:

"Under the Republican protective policy we enjoyed for more than thirty years the most marvelous prosperity that has ever been given to any nation of the world. We not only had individual prosperity, but we had national prosperity."

Mr. Bryan (in his speech called attention to the fact, and read the following, which McKinley wrote and filed with the McKinley bill on April 16, 1890.

"That there is widespread depression in this industry (agriculture) today cannot be doubted. One of the chief complaints now prevalent among our farmers is that they can get no price for their crops at all commensurate with the labor and capital invested in their production. We have not believed that our people, already suffering from low prices can or will be satisfied with legislation which will result in lower prices. No country ever suffered when prices were fairly remunerative. This great industry is foremost in magnitude and importance in our country. Its success and prosperity are vital to the nation. No prosperity is possible to other industries if agriculture languish. The depression in agriculture is not confined to the United States. The reports of the Agricultural Department indicate that this distress is general; that Great Britain, France, and Germany are suffering in a larger degree than the farmers of the United States."

Every man who has paid any attention to what is going on in the agricultural districts knows that the farming interest is more depressed today than it was 1890, and thus it is still going downward. But, notwithstanding this, the Republican National Convention resolved that things must stay as they are for four years more, as far as they are concerned: Is it any wonder that on the farms they are welcoming Bryan as a deliverer?—Richmond Dispatch.

The Best Company.

J. L. Sugg, Esq.,
Agent Accident Department,
Actna Life Ins. Co.,
Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:—I hold accident policy No. 9787 in your Company.

On the 23rd day of June, 1896, while superintending work at my saw-mill my arm was crushed between two logs.

On the 27th day of August I filed my claim with your company for indemnity for two weeks, claiming $25. Your company, noting that my disability was for a period longer than I claimed, sent me their check dated Sept. 1st, 1896, for $26.78. This is a striking contrast with companies which prefer to scale a claim instead of paying the full amount.

I thank you and your company for this prompt and generous settlement, having paid me more than I claimed.

I commend your excellent company to those desiring the best insurance.

Yours very truly,
W. E. PROCTER.

PENNSYLVANIA IN 1683. From an Unpublished Letter From William Penn to Duke Ormonde. I thank god I am safely arrived in the province that the providence of god and Bounty of the King hath made myne, and which the credit, prudence and industry of the people concerned with me must render Considerable. I was received by the ancient Inhabitants with much kindness and respect and the rest brought it with them; there may be about four (f. 215b) thousand soules in all, I speak, I think within compass; we expect an increase from France, Holland and Germany, as well as our Native Country.

The land is Generally good, well water'd and not so thick of wood as imagin'd; there are also many open places that have been old Indian fields, the trees that grow here are the Mulberry, white and red, walnut, black, gray and Hickory, Poplar, Cedar, Cypress, chestnut, Ash, Sassafras, Gum, pine, Spruce, oaks, black, white, red Spanish chestnut and Swamp which has a leaf like a willow, and is most lasting. The food the woods yeild is your Elks, Deer, Racoons, Beaver, Rabbits, Turkeys, Pheasants, heath-birds, Pidgeons and Patredges, innumerable; we need no setting dogs to catch, they run by droves into the house in cold weather. Our Rivers have also plenty of excellent fish and water fowl, as Sturgeon, rock, shad, herring, caddish, or flatheads, sheeps-heads, roach and perch, and trout in inland Streames; of fowls, the Swan, white, gray, and black geese, and brands, (f. 216) the best duck and tel I ever cate, and the Snipe and the Curlew with the Snow-bird are also excellent.

The Aire is sweet and cleare which makes a screen and steady sky, as in the more southern parts of France. Our Summers and Winters are commonly once in three years in extreames; but the Winters Seldom last above ten weeks and rarely begin till the latter end of December; the days are above two hours longer, and the Sun much hotter here then with you, which makes some recompense for the sharpe nights of the Winter season, as well as the woods that make cheap and great fires. We have of graine, wheat, maize, rye, barley, oats, severall excellent sorts of beans and peas, pumpkens, water and mus melions, all englesh roots and Garden stuff, good fruit and excellent Sider, the Peach we have in divers kinds, and very good, and in great abundance. The Vine (of several sorts and the signe with us of rich land) is very fruitfull, and the not so sweet as some I have eaten in Europe, yet it makes a good wine, and the worst, good vinegar. (f. 216b.) I have observed three sorts, the Great grape that has green, red, and black, all ripe on the same tree, the muskedell and black little grapa, which is the best, and may be improvd to an excellent wine. These are spontaneous. Of Cattle, we have the horse, not very handsome but good. Cow Cattle and hogs in much plenty, and sheep encrease apace.

Our town of Philadelphia is seated between two navigable rivers, having from 4 to 10 fathom water, about 150 houses up in one yeare, and 400 country settlements, thus do we labour to render ourselves an industrious Colony, to the honour and benefit of the Crown, as well as our own comfort and advantage, and lett there not be separated, say I.—Notes and Queries.

Thomas C. Platt. Mr. Platt never smoked a cigar except once, when he was a stripling in Owego. He had just left Yale college and started a drug store in this now famous town of Tioga county. This was in the first days of the Republican party. He then wrote the songs for the Fremont campaign, later for the Lincoln contests, and later still for the Grant boomers. He has two trunks at his old home in Owego full of these campaign songs. All through New York state there are happy geniuses with a predilection for writing verses. But Mr. Platt has a record in this respect which is marvelous. A few years ago he was the guest of the newspaper men of the Fellowcraft club. He was called upon for a speech. He looked round the board and saw politicians of the two parties, literary critics, artists and dramatists. All expected a speech from him. Instead he recited an original poem which he composed that afternoon at his office, 49 Broadway, telling of the ultimate fate of a mischievous yet enthusiastic pig. Mr. Platt's poem and the speech of the evening and was received with raves of

DRESS GOODS & TRIMMINGS

We have a beautiful and up-to-date line. You will find the latest styles and we know we can please you. Oh, how lovely, how beautiful, the prettiest line I have ever seen, is what our lady friends say of them. We have a large line both in colors and blacks and can please you.

In Ladies and Gents FURNISHING GOODS we have a splendid line.

In LADIES CLOTH for Wraps we have just what you want.

In Men and Boys PANTS GOODS we have just the best stock to be found and prices were never lower.

SHOES. In shoes we endeavor to buy such as will please the wearer, the prices on shoes are much lower than last season. Give us a trial when you need shoes for yourself or any member of your family. We can fit the smallest or largest foot in the county. Our L. M. Reynolds & Co.'s Shoes for Men and Boys are warranted to give good service. We have had six years experience with this line and know them to be all we claim for them.

and can give you anything you may need at the lowest prices you ever heard of. Come and see our $12.50 Solid Oak Bedroom Suits. To pass us by would be an inexcusable injustice to your pocket book. This is not so because we say so, but because our goods and prices make it so. Here is a fair proposition: If we deserve nothing, give us nothing, but if you find our goods and prices satisfactory, acknowledge it with your patronage. Hoping to see you soon and promising our best efforts to make your coming pleasant and profitable, we are

At Hobgood Wednesday we heard a farmer say much damage had been done the peanut crop in his section by the rain causing the nuts to sprout before they could be dug.

It is a noticeable fact that there are no more liberal and generous hearted men in the community than those connected with our tobacco market. Whenever there is an entertainment for any church purpose, or an object of charity presents itself, they are exceedingly generous in their patronage and liberality. The ladies bear cheerful testimony to this.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made in different styles—the small one, which is made for bed-rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen at our store, come and look at them.
