WITH HIS "SAVAGES."

And How the Little Darkies Did Shout.

D. L. Russell, the Republican nominee for Governor, reached Greenville on Friday evening's train. His coming was known beforehand, and the colored band and about fifty negroes, nine-tenths of them boys, were at the depot to meet him. C. M. Bernard was the one white exception on hand to receive him.

As the train rolled in the band struck up "Sweet Marie" and the boys brandished lightwood torches that had been prepared for the occasion. They gathered around the first-class coach and shined their torches in the windows like they were trying to smoke "Mars Dan" out, but while this was going on Russell slipped out at the front end of the second car. Bernard caught him there and led him back through where the crowd had collected to a carriage.

"Da's him! Da's him!" cried one of the crowd, and instantly a shout went up and torches waved around him. At this ovation Russell raised his hat and bowed to the little negroes as augustly as if he had been in the presence of a king. "Verily, he has come unto his own, and his own received him," we thought.

The carriage occupied by Russell and Bernard started off to town, the band and screeching boys following after in an irregular procession, there being a jam every now and then to see who could get closest to the vehicle. As they went along the band first gave "Safe in the arms of Jesus," and a little later "Sweet Bye and Bye." Quite suggestive airs.

That this reception and escort committee should be marked by the conspicuous absence of men, leads to the suggestion that it is going to be a hard thing to make the voting part of the colored folks swallow Russell and all the bitter things he has said about them.

The object of Russell's coming of course was to make a speech, which took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A little before the time for the speaking the band paraded main street to draw the crowd to the Court House. When Russell entered there was not the slightest ripple of applause that greeted him.

He was introduced by C. M. Bernard and spoke for about an hour and a half. The general sentiment with everybody is that the speech was the greatest disappointment to which they had ever been subjected. Not a single issue advocated by any party was discussed, almost his whole time being consumed in a labored random talk about the election law passed by the last Legislature, with puny praise for the Populist party and slanderous criticism of the Democrats.

He made no reference that there was any Republican ticket, either State or National, to be voted for by Republicans, but advised his hearers to vote the Populist ticket straight through and ask no question. Not a word was said about voting for himself for Governor. Not a word was said about voting for McKinley for President. No candidate of any prominence has ever spoken here in any campaign, who created so little enthusiasm. There was some applause at times, but it seemed manufactured for the occasion.

As a political speech it was the deadliest failure we ever listened to. No better evidence of this was needed than to view the countenance of those who went there expecting to hear something from their leading candidate. The speech was only remarkable for what he did not say, and from it no one is able to tell what he does or does not favor.

One can only judge from the speech and the way he advised his hearers to vote, that Russell has no idea of being a candidate for Governor when the election comes.

Jake Russell, colored, who says he is a half brother of the candidate for Governor, was spruced out in his best Sunday rig to meet Dan, and was quite prominent in his attentions to the latter. Jake says "Dan bears a little closer resemblance to the old man than I do."

Hardy Time.

We do not suppose anybody contemplates undertaking to count a billion, if so we would not discourage him for the world, but in order that he may have some idea of the size of the job refer him to the calculation of an English mathematician who had lots of spare time on hand and figures out that counting at the rate of 200 a minute straight along, without time for lunches or sleep, it would take 8,512 years, 342 days, 5 hours and 20 minutes.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28th, 1896.

Hon. W. E. Chilton, Secretary of State for West Virginia, was one of the party which came to Washington to escort Mr. Bryan to that State. While in Washington Mr. Chilton said: "I am not afraid of the result in West Virginia, and have no hesitation in predicting that Bryan will get its electoral vote. Our people are strongly for silver, and many converts have been made from the republican ranks. The Palmer and Buckner ticket will not poll much of a vote. The republicans are making the most strenuous efforts for McKinley, and the allegations of coercion and intimidation of railway employees are strictly true. But there is always a reaction against such methods, and a feeling of resentment arises in the minds of the men who are thus coerced that will result in causing hundreds of them to vote the other way."

Gen. W. J. St. Clair, of West Virginia, was in Baltimore with Mr. Bryan, and who passed through Washington this week, said: "I found a degree of Bryan enthusiasm in the city of Baltimore that was rather surprising, in view of the tone of its bolting democratic newspapers. The talk about McKinley's great majority in the Maryland metropolis is all nonsense."

Senator Gorman's disinclination to make ante-election claims and promises adds force to what he told Mr. Bryan and the other gentleman who participated in the conference held in New York City this week. He promised that Mr. Bryan should have the electoral vote of Maryland, and he said that he considered that the democrats still had an even chance to win, not withstanding the influence that were being used against them.

THE STORY OF A CANDIDATE.

This is the man

Who for office ran;

And these were his methods—

His campaigning plan.

Rose at six

With all his tricks;

And went into the race like bricks!

Before the clock

Had chimed for ten

Had paid the tax

Of twenty men;

Had sent their children

Off to school,

And raised a mortgage

From a mule;

Had gone to court

With smiling face,

And quickly won

A voter's case;

Had planked five shining

Dollars down,

To help 'em build

A church in town,

Had warded off

A sheriff's sale.

And paid a poor man

Out of jail;

Relieved six widows'

Destitution

And made a campaign

Contribution;

And still they never Heard him groan

When fifteen fellows

Asked a loan.

He took no notes—

Expressed no doubt

But freely shelled his money out!

This was the man

Who for office ran,

And that was his

Campaigning plan;

He lost the office—

For all his giving,

And now splits rails

For a doubtful living!

Endorsed By Mr. Sewall.

Mr. Cement Manly, chairman Democratic State Executive Committee, speaking about some few Democrats who were basing their objection to voting for the joint electoral ticket on the ground that it showed a lack of loyalty to Mr. Sewall, says:

"The action of the State committee in arranging the electoral ticket with the People's party, was the logical and intelligent action of different political parties, who have, on the great principle of the restoration of silver which they hold in common, nominated a mutual candidate to carry that principle into effect. I have been surprised and grieved that some Democrats did not seem to understand our position and did not know that the committee was acting with the sanction and approval of the highest party authority—those who have the National fight in charge—and that our action was in no way disloyal to our candidate for Vice-President. I received today the letter which I hand you from Mr. Sewall:

"Madison Square, New York,

"September 29, 1896.

"Hon. Clement Manly, Chairman, Raleigh, N. C.:

"Dear Sir:—I have the honor of acknowledging the receipt of your favor of the 27th inst., informing me of the basis of fusion in your State, and asking whether it meets my approval.

"I believe that the friends of bimetalism ought to vote for an electoral ticket that will elect Mr. Bryan to the Presidency, and I thoroughly approve of the policy which unites the supporters of free silver in your State and every other State in the Union. It is the people's cause against monopolies and no local differences or personal aspirations ought to prevent union.

"Very respectfully yours,
"ARTHUR SEWALL."

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by

P. P. P., Lippman's

Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD

HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE

NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the nights coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.

Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga. Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily.

I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night.

I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.

Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1891.

It Would Be at Once a Marvel and Affliction.

Candidate Russell has concluded his speech-making campaign in the hill country, and will now proceed to vent his eloquence and give his attention to the denizens of the eastern plain. He didn't set the hills on fire, and we are therefore, not apprehensive of any wide spread of conflagration in the low country. Mr. Russell may be hot at times, but he is not hot enough to engender universal hotneess, unless it is on the other side, where, after hearing him, the people realize more and more the imperative necessity of defeating him for the exalted and responsible position to which he aspires, and unless all the reports we hear be very much at fault, that is what the thoughtful, serious, conservative people of the State, whose memories go back to 1868, propose to do. If, with the feeling among the Democratic masses, among Republicans who protest against the methods by which they allege his nomination was secured, and the widespread hostility to him among the colored voters of the State, and especially in the east where his record and utterances are better known to them, he should be elected, it would be one of the marvels of the day, and if he should be it would be one of the greatest afflictions ever put upon North Carolina.—Wilmington

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made in different styles—the small one, which is made for bed rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen at our store, come and look at them.

RICKS & TAFT,

The Ladies Bazaar.

Novelty Suits.

The collection is great and varied, our own exclusive styles, and but one of each. You are free to touch, handle, examine and criticize them. Note particularly, we don't say "buy." That's another question, the goods are at your 'option.' Our thought now is to interest you.

Serges.

Neat and quiet effects that assume but little and are brimful of honest wear and worth. Gayety and gravity about equally divide the dress goods taste. Hence Serges are prominent on the latter side. Our selections of qualities and colors aggregate far beyond any competition.

Plaids.

Plaids are powerful. We foresaw their popularity and provided accordingly. They vary from the charming shepherd check to the bold criss-crossing. West of England as well as the Highlands are represented here. Come see us.
