EDITORIAL COMMENT.

It is said that more than half of the voting population of West Virginia either saw or heard Mr. Bryan during his trip through the State, and yet Mark Hanna & Co. claim that State.

The election news from Georgia gets better every day. The first night after the election estimates of Atkinson's majority was put as low as ten thousand, now no one gives him less than thirty thousand and some as high as forty thousand. Chairman Jones, of the National Democratic Committee, says this insures Mr. Bryan a majority of not less than seventy thousand. Senator Falkner puts the figures at not less than seventy-five thousand.

A vote for any Palmer and Buckner means a half a vote for McKinley and every Democrat ought to realize this and not be a party to the election of a man for President who is run soul and body by Mark Hanna. It you will read the quotation which Mr. Bryan is making from Mr. McKinley's speeches you will see that the above statement is true and that if McKinley is elected he will only be President in name with his boss as President in fact.

As State matters stand now it means either Russell or Cy Watson as Governor. The Republicans are not supporting Guthrie. Hal Ayer says that he considers they have broken their contract for fusion by failing to support Mr. Guthrie. This question then naturally arises in the mind of every white man, and ought in fact to arise in the mind of every colored man. Which had you rather see Governor of this State, Cy Watson or Russell.

The answer to this question in every patriot's heart whether his actions show it or not could only be give us that splendid man, with a character unstained by a single act of dishonor, Cy Watson.

To elect him means that he must receive a solid vote of the Democratic party and all lovers of good Government ought to cast their influence for him and not allow their beloved State to be disgraced by the presence in the gubernatorial chair of that inhuman slanderer of Democrats, Daniel L. Russell.

Any one who was present at the Republican convention here which nominated the county ticket will bear us out in the statement that, if Victor Cox, who is now posing as a candidate for the Legislature, was honest then he is dishonest now, if he is honest now he was dishonest then. Take either horn of the dilemma and you have an example of a man who said that day he was for McKinley and now says, as we learn on the stump, that he will vote for no man for the United States Senate who is not for free silver. Who said that day he would not run on the ticket and is now running on it. Who said that day the ticket was born in corruption and by stifling the will of the majority, and who must now approve this as he is seeking an election on this same ticket. What is the matter with Victor any way? Are the Populist of this county going to be duped in voting for a man upon whom they could not rely to carry out their wishes? The election news on the 3rd of November will answer this question.

There is now but one day left in which you can register—next Saturday.

Life is a succession of hills and valleys. In love, wealth, ambition, success or power, it is up here—down yonder. See for yourself who succeeds. Not the timid one, who at sight of the first obstacle in his path loses heart and yields the game. Not the man whose nerve will not keep his upper lip and under jaw in place. Not the man who gives up on the first trial. These men do not succeed. Success often sports with a man as a shy trout plays with the hook of the angler. MR. SEWALL ACCEPTS.

Letter From Democratic Nominee for Vice-President.

(CONCLUDED FROM YESTERDAY.)

AMERICAN PEOPLE LOYAL.

"Neither shall our opponents be permitted to terrify the people by predictions that temporary disturbance or panic will come from the policy we propose. The American people will be loyal to the nation's money, will stand behind it, and maintain it at whatever value they themselves may put upon it. Once before in the present generation have our people been called upon to face a momentous crisis. What then said Mr. Lincoln, the chosen leader of the plain people of the land? Was he awed by threats or weakened by the wily persuasion of the false friends, who, as today, pleaded for compromise with wrong? His answer was: 'If our sense of duty forbids this, then let us stand by our duty fearlessly and effectively.'"

"Let us be diverted by none of these sophistical contrivances wherewith we are so industriously plied and belabored—contrivances such as groping for some middle ground between the right and the wrong, reversing the Divine rule, and calling not the sinners, but the righteous to repentance; such as invocations to Washington, imploring men to say what Washington said and do what Washington did. Neither let us be turned from our duty by false accusations. Let us have faith that right makes might and in that faith to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it."

"We know what is the nature of the struggle in which we are engaged; we are anxious only that the people of the land shall understand it, and then our battle is won."

THE ONLY DANGEROUS CLASSES.

"Behind the strong entrenchment of the gold standard are gathered all those favored classes it has fostered, the only dangerous classes of the land. Avarice and unholy greed are there; every trust and combination is there; every monopoly is there; led by the greatest monopoly of all, the monopoly of the power of gold. With us, in our assault upon these entrenchments, are all those unselfish men who, not now suffering themselves, cannot rest content with conditions so full of suffering for others; and that vaster number of our people who have been sacrificed to the small and selfish class who now resist their attempts to regain their ancient rights and liberties. These are the patriots of 1896—the foes of a 'dishonest dollar,' which enriches 10 per cent. of our people to rob the rest; the defenders of the homes of the land, of public morals, and public faith, both of which alike forbid the payment of government obligations in a coin costlier to those who have to pay than that the contract calls for; the defenders of the honor of the nation, whose most sacred charge is the welfare of all its citizens. The free and unlimited coinage of silver is the sole remedy with which to check the wrongs of today, to undo the ruin of the past; and for our inspiration we have the justice of our cause and those cherished principles of Jefferson and Jackson, which shall be our guide on our return to power—Equal and exact justice to all men; absolutely acquiescence in the decision of the majority, the vital principle of our republic; the honest payment of our debts, and the sacred preservation of the public faith. 'Profoundly sensible of the high honor of the nomination you tender, I am,
(Signed) "ARTHUR SEWALL."

He Was a Good Thing.

"Hello!" shouted the funny law clerk into the telephone. "Is that Googan's office?"
"Yes, sir," replied the pretty typewriter at the other end of the wire.
"Is Googan there?"
"Yes, sir."
"I'd like to speak to him a moment."
"Who are you?" asked the girl.
"Oh, I'm a good thing," replied the funny clerk.
"Push it along, central. Goodby." And he didn't get Googan.

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by
P. P. P., Lippman's
Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE
NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the nights coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.
Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.
Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily.
I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night.
I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.

A Fatal Defect.

We have received a story entitled "A Dark Deed," which is respectfully declined. The first chapter opens with "It was midnight." That is all right. It is often midnight—at least seven times a week—but the author forgets to add, "and silence brooded o'er the city." This is a fatal oversight. Silence always broods over a city when it is midnight in works of fiction—nowhere else. We can't print a story in which silence does not brood at midnight.—London Tit-Bits.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 33 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made of different styles—the small one, which is made for bed-rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen our store, come and look at them.
