THE FAMOUS ROSE DOCKRILL.

One of the Many Features of the Great John Roberson and Franklin Bros., Combined Shows.

One of the distinguished features with the grandest and best shows, which will be seen in all their unapproachable completeness at Greenville, Oct. 29, is the notable equestrian act performed by the world's most famous Miss Rose Dockrill, the most petite and handsome young horsewoman whose surprising accomplishments have made her the idol of every country. No other lady rider has ever achieved that high grade of excellence accomplished by this gifted young artist. Even her professional rivals accord her the palm of superiority, and point with pride to her as their leader. No prettier picture can be conceived than this young girl, endowed by nature, with rare beauty of form and face, dancing and pirouetting upon the back of a swiftly running horse, with the same ease, grace and abandon as a premier behind the footlights of the mimic stage. Miss Dockrill is, however, only one of the scores of exclusive features which are daily presented by this colossal tented exposition, which, as a whole, far surpasses any amusement enterprise the world has ever known. It is the only place in all America where the wonderful "horseless carriage" can be seen. Other tented amusements advertise this remarkable mechanical device, but this is the only one to present it.

He Was Absent.

It is due ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis to state that he was not present on Wednesday when Harry Skinner publicly denounced him as an "infamous and damnable liar," but was absent in another part of the State. We overlooked mentioning this in our article about it. Doubtless if Gov. Jarvis had been present Skinner would have been compelled to apologize to him as well to the other gentlemen whose names he used in the denunciation.

Married.

In the College at Ayden on Wednesday evening, 14th, at 8 o'clock, Mr. D. L. Summerrell and Miss Minnie Dixon were united in marriage by Rev. I. L. Chestnut.

EXPERIMENT FARM PROGRAM

An Invitation to Visitors of the State Fair to see the Working of the Farm.

During fair week in Raleigh, October 17th-24th, visitors may expect to find the following order observed at the experiment farm. Those especially interested in any of the farm, stable or dairy operations are invited to visit the farm and inspect the work.

Because of the location within the enclosure for the fair, the time fixed for visitors has been advanced until after the regular opening of the fair gates each morning.

The milk separator will be in operation at 10 to 10:30 a. m., and 6 to 6:30 p. m.; stable work after 4:30 p. m. churning and butter working 10 to 11:30 a. m., 20th and 22nd. The Babcock tester will be in operation part of every forenoon at the experiment farm dairy. Both hand and steam machines will be used.

Those who know the location of the experiment farm will find it within the inclosure and west of the fair buildings. The flag pole on the lawn makes the place unmistakable.

FRANK E. EMERY,
Agriculturist.

Died.

Mr. James Whichard, an aged and highly esteemed citizen of the county, died Thursday, 15th, at his home eight miles from Greenville. He had passed beyond the allotted three score and ten years, and the last few years of his life he was confined to his bed a greater portion of the time. He was an excellent man, quiet and unpretentious in his manner, devoted to his home and family, and a faithfully friend. He was as honest as the days are long, a plain, industrious farmer, and was one of the few men in the county who showed by strict attention to his business that something of this world's goods can be accumulated by following the plow handle.

Watch the 16.

An old lady resident of Fayetteville informed the Observer this morning that it has not rained in this section on the 16th of October in 50 years. The 16th was her wedding day, fifty years ago, and she has kept a record ever since. Look out for the 16th, and base your political prognostications on the weather of that day.—Fayetteville Observer.

Over this way it has been about as pretty a day as one could wish for.

Some Entertaining Facts.

There are forty-seven Chinese temples in America.

The largest room in the world is in the imperial palace at Petersburg. It is 160 feet long by 150 wide.

No human head was impressed on coins until after the death of Alexander the Great. All images before that time were of deities.

Hon. Thos. W. Mason, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, addressed a large audience at the Court House this afternoon, and we hear his speech spoken of as a brilliant effort.

The Greenville Drying Association will have a series of races at their track here Nov. 11th and 12th. The purses aggregate $1,000.

BUY THE BEST OVERCOATS UNDERWEAR

We note with much satisfaction a large growth of business in our Overcoat department. Increased sales encouraged us to buy heavy this season. The styles in Men's and Boy's Overcoats are very dressy, and they have that splendid finish that pleases so well.

GETS NEXT TO THE MAN. That's what underwear does. Our kind does that to perfection. Gets there and stays there. Won't stretch so as to make him feel lonesome or shrink and leave him on the outside. Buy underwear from us.

H. M. HARDEE.

Prices will talk louder than anything else we can say.

All the arguments in the world would not induce you to buy from us unless you were to find prices right. We will sell you goods from 15 to 35 per cent lower than any house in town and don't you forget it. We have done it before and are doing it today. The proof of the pudding is in eating. Give us a trial and we warrant like Oliver Twist "You'll ask for more."

Our stock embraces CLOTHING, CAPES, Cloaks, DRESS GOODS, UMBRELLAS, OVERALLS, GLOVES, HOSE, NOTIONS, Caps & Hats, JUMPERS, LACE GOODS, UNDERWEAR, SUSPENDERS, JEWELRY, SHOES, and a lot of other goods too numerous to mention.

Intimidating Voters.

A dispatch from St. Louis, says: Mr. Dugald Crawford, sole owner of one of the larger department stores in St. Louis, is an ardent advocate of the gold standard. Recently he caused a canvass of his employes to be made and found many of them free silver men. Saturday he called twelve heads of departments before him and told them they were no longer in his employ, explaining that he did not want any anarchists to breathe the air of his establishment. "Spread the news throughout the city," said Mr. Crawford. "Let it be known as far and as near as you choose, that you are discharged because you are in favor of free coinage of silver."

The publication of the above story yesterday, with a mass of confirmatory interviews, caused much commotion. The labor unions took the matter up at their weekly meetings and Mr. Crawford was excoriated. The indignation crystallized in the appointment of a committee from various unions, who will call an indignation meeting for some evening this week to give expression to the workmen's views on the matter. Mr. Crawford is a very wealthy man, an ex-president of the Caledonian society and a leader in social and business life. Chairman Cook, of the Democratic State committee, last night stated that Mr. Crawford's action came within offenses punished by the State law for "intimidating, coercing or unduly influencing the choice of a voter." A fund of $1,500 has been subscribed by two leading Democrats to prosecute the case, and information will probably be filed today. Nothing in the campaign has so far stirred up such a commotion in this city.

Silver Story in Indiana.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Colonel Richard Bright, who has just returned from Indiana, believes that State will give Bryan 25,000 majority. He has travelled through all sections, particularly through the farming region, and finds the silver sentiment rapidly growing. Farmers, he says, who have all their lives voted the Republican ticket are now lining up with Bryan, because they find more hope for relief from the oppression of debts and low prices in the triumph of the Democratic party than in the success of the supporters of the gold standard.

Colonel Bright was particularly impressed with the obliteration party lines in every direction. Estimates based on former political results he considers worthless, and believes that the victory of the Democratic party at the polls in November in Indiana will be won by a majority fully up to the figure given.

Colonel Bright is perfectly familiar with Indiana politics, as he has lived all his life in that State. The canvass from which he derived his estimate covered the entire State by counties.

Hoax—"How is it that Wigwag has won such a reputation for humor among the women?"

Joax—"He has a great scheme."

"Does he begin: 'Now, ladies, this is a joke?'"

"No. He only tells his jokes to women with pretty teeth."—Philadelphia Record.

In Mexico the school children who have done best are allowed to smoke cigars while pursuing their lessons.

A SEASONABLE HINT.

[By Miss Johanna, Poet Laureate.]

Oh, don't you remember when you were a boy
And the circus came gleaming to town,
How you stood 'round the canvass and ached to get in,
While you worshipped the jolly old clown?

You could hear the band play and the people hooray;
Catch a glimpse of girls flying like rockets,
And life seemed as threadbare and empty to you,
As were your patched clothes and your pockets.

You had tried for a pass, but, alas and alas,
They'd refused you the chance to tote water;
You could but stand and stare, in the hungriest despair,
Barred from heaven for lack of a quarter.

You would take chances steep 'neath the canvass to creep,
But fortune and fate were agin you,
For a watchman stood there, with a terrible air,
At the slightest move, ready to pin you.

So you lingered about till the show it was out,
While your tears made the twilight seem dimmer;
Till you crawled from the scene of the circus to dream;
A most miserable, poor little sinner.

But the tears have rolled by and time landed you high,
On the soft reserved seats of the play, sir;
In your carriage you ride and you are on the inside,
No matter what you have to pay, sir.

And now, would you enjoy without selfish alloy,
That circus of first fascination,
Take a lot of poor lads to the one of today,
And play angel in their estimation.

There are nearly 275 active volcanoes.
Wild peacocks exist in Asia and Africa.

Ornithologist have determined that there are 8,000 species of birds.

It is said that an earthquake occurs somewhere in the earth every hour.

Seventy-two races inhabit the earth and use 3,004 different tongues. There are about 1,000 religions.

The annual number of births is about 36,792,000—an average of 100,800 a day, 4,200 an hour and seventy a minute.

Kansas editors excel in the selection of eccentric names for their papers. The Prairie Dog, the Astonisher, the Paralyzer and the Thomas Cat are conspicuous among others.

In railroad building across sandy deserts the French engineers are beginning to employ iron ties. A late pattern consists of a wrought-iron bar supported in the middle and at both ends by globular plates of cast-iron.

Cigarette smoking in England dates back to 1844. The great impetus to their increased use was caused by the Crimean war of 1854-56, when numbers of military and naval officers adopted this method of smoking from the inhabitants of Russia, Turkey, Malta, Levant and other parts of Europe.

There is no telling what the little cigarette can do when it gets a fair show. A Williamsport, Pa., boy has just been sent to the penitentiary for rifling letters, his stealing propensity being caused by excessive indulgence in cigarette smoking.

NOW HE ADVERTISES.

A tinware peddler called one day On Mrs. Blank of Dallas And introduced himself, they say, As Raphael Gonzales.

He showed a patent coffee-pot, Which took her eye completely; It boiled the coffee strong and hot, The "grounds" it settled neatly.

"How much for this newfangled pot? I think I'd like to try it." "As it's the last one of the lot, Two dollars, ma'am, will buy it."

When Mr. Blank at home that night Sat by the stove a-yawning, His good wife brought into the light Her purchase of the morning.

Now Mr. Blank, the story goes, Sold hardware—stoves, tin dippers, Spades, shovels, axes, weeding hoes, And also coffee drippers.

So when his good wife told him how Don Raphael Gonzales Had sold at price extremely low Throughout Oak Cliff and Dallas

"These coffee-pots so neat and cute"— "Stop, madam! Blank did holler, "Your statement I right now refute— I sell these for one dollar!"

"Great land of rest!" the lady cries. "Are these kept in your store, sir? Why do you fall to advertise And let the people know, sir?"

"How will they ever find out, pray, If you will never try, sir, To bring the patronage your way, As does the advertiser!"

"You're right, my dear," Blank made reply. "I know I've not surmised, I'd just as well attempt to try As sell without advertising."

And now Blank's trade is growing fast, Way up in wealth he's rising, Since through his wife he found at last The good of advertising.

A CARD.

To the Democratic Voters of the First Congressional District of North Carolina.

The Free and Unlimited Coinage of Silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 has been forced upon the American people as the one paramount issue in the National Campaign. All sorts of alliances and fusions have been and are being made to force this measure upon the people, that it may become the law of the land.

This is not a party question but an Economic Measure upon which individual members of all parties differ.

To all Democrats, who from principle, oppose this measure of free silver coinage, and who oppose the unholy alliances and methods, and the surrender of principles of Democracy to Populism, I beseech you as men who have the courage of your honest convictions, to enter your solemn protest to that measure, or Cheap Money—that threatens to overthrow American Institutions, and bring disaster to the great industrial interest of the country. It is a lack of courage to passively acquiesce in an hour of such peril, but to vote the Honest Convictions or your best judgment is the exercise of the highest and most sacred privilege guaranteed by the Constitution to every American citizen. I call on you to let no sickly sentiment of majority influence you in the discharge of this one great privilege, but as brave men exercise the courage of your convictions. ISAAC A. FUGG.

Elector, National Democratic Party First Congressional District.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made of different styles—the small one, which is made for bed rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen our store, come and look at them.
