EDITORIAL NOTES.

Chairman Holton, of the Republican State executive committee, says McKinley will carry North Carolina by from 12,000 to 20,000 majority, and Russell by 20,000. If the Populists will stop and consider the question carefully, they ought to see that their actions now are aiding just such a result as Holton predicts. Either Russell or Watson must be the next Governor of North Carolina, and the Populists should be asking themselves which one they are going to help put in office.

President Cleveland has dismissed from office Henry D. Clayton, a district attorney in Alabama, because the latter accepted the Democratic nomination for Congress in his district. We dare say that Mr. Clayton being engaged in a canvass would not neglect his official duties one-tenth as much as the President does in his frequent fishing and hunting jaunts.

What We Seldom See.

A young man of 21, who doesn't think he is able to give his elders a good deal of information about things in general.

A doctor who will tell his patients the truth when there is nothing the matter with them.

A politician who likes to define his views until he knows what will be most popular.

A carpet in a ladies room that has not got a threadbare place in front of the mirror.

A boy who doesn't brag about what he is going to do when he is a man.

A man who doesn't brag about what he used to do when he was a boy.

Struck With a Brick.

This morning out near the warehouses several town darkies gathered around a colored boy from the country and began teasing him. To add to their fun one of the town boys named Heber Harriss threw a brick at the country boy striking him in the stomach. The blow was a severe one and the boy fell unconscious in the street. Thinking the boy was killed the tormentors and assailant fled. Seeing the boy lying out in the street Mr. L. F. Evans had him removed to one of the office rooms of the Greenville Warehouse and summoned a physician to him. At last account the boy was still unconscious and had not spoken since he was struck. No one seemed to know anything about the injured boy or what his name is.

Populist Paper Declares for Democrats.

Gastonia, Oct. 17.—H. P. Allison, editor of the Progressive Reformer, a Populist paper at King's Mountain, has come out in an editorial endorsing Doughton in preference to Linney, also declaring his intention of voting for Anthony, the Democratic nominee for the Senate, and Dr. Dixon, the Democratic nominee for the House in Cleveland county. His reasons are, that he could not support men who would lend their aid to the gold standard.—Charlotte Observer.

Working For McKinley.

C. C. Clark, of Newbern, struck town today with a wagon load of gold bug literature which he put several colored boys to distributing on the streets and among the business houses. This literature bears the stamp of the Democratic Honest Money League, but its distribution is purely in the interest of McKinley, and there is hardly a doubt that Mark Hanna is footing the bill for this kind of McKinley missionary work.

Off for Raleigh.

Company H., Pitt county Rifles left this morning thirty-eight strong to attend the State fair at Raleigh. A special coach was provided for the company and the boys left in high glee anticipating a fine trip.

The following compose the roll call for the trip:

Captain.—J. T. Smith.

Lieutenant.—B. F. Sugg.

Sergeants.—H. M. Snuggs, W. S. Briley, L. N. Briley.

Corporals.—J. F. Evans, E. F. Forbes, W. J. Hemby, J. V. Johnson.

Musician.—L. Hooker.

Privates.—S. J. Nobles, B. F. Smith, C. M. Harris, C. D. Smith, J. F. Polard, R. H. Keel, L. S. Hardee, T. H. Tyson, A. L. Briley, J. B. Fleming, J. J. Jenkins, G. R. Hardee, H. C. Fornes, J. H. Hardee, W. E. Jolly, L. H. Rountree, J. A. Hardee, C. T. Watson, N. H. Stokes, A. W. Outerbridge, Henry Allen, J. B. Tripp, J. E. Fleming, R. A. Forbes, C. B. Whichard, H. B. Hardee, W. E. Nichols, W. E. Symonds.

The boys will return home Friday evening.

News Elsewhere.

An inch of snow fell on Sunday in the northern portion of New York State.

A New Jersey canning factory packed up twelve tons of pumpkins last week.

Six unknown desperadoes invaded a town in Oklahoma, on Saturday night, and "held up" the whole town, robbing twelve stores and the postoffice. They got away with several thousand dollars.

A courageous young Texas woman recently killed a rattlesnake six feet long that had sixteen rattles and one button.

Senator Marion Butler took a "header" from his bicycle on the street in Washington City a few days ago and was considerably shaken up and bruised in the tumble.

A dispatch to the New York Herald from Cadiz says Spain has decided to abandon Cuba if the rebellion is not put down by March 1 next.

Getting Desperate.

We hear it reported on the street here that Harry Skinner, in a speech at Griston Wednesday night, advised the negroes in his audience to vote solidly for McKinley. If this is true, some of the people of that section who heard the speech ought to give the facts to the public. It is a nice candidate, indeed, who professes to be a free silver man and at the same time advises his hearers to vote for gold men. We can't say that the report is true, but repeat, if it is somebody who heard the speech should let the facts be known.

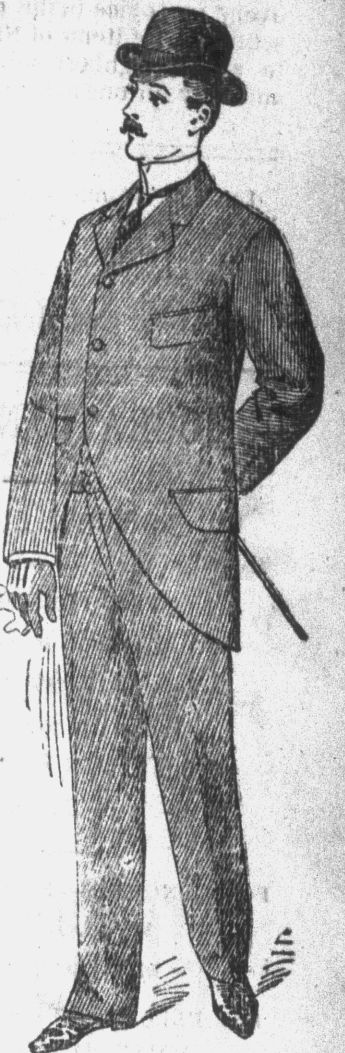

It is very evident that the Colonel is getting very desperate about the negro vote. He skipped his joint debate with Col. Lucas at Beaufort, in order to make a trip to Raleigh, and it is reported that he was there in close conference with Republican chairman Holton and S. Otho Wilson. The presumption is that he was seeking Holton's influence to get the negroes together for him. It is evident to the most casual observer that the white people are slipping away from him, and nobody sees it better than the Colonel himself.

Figures on North Carolina

The people of North Carolina, if they value their State very highly, should read the figures herein given, pull off their coats and go to work with a determination to cast every Democratic vote in the State for Cy. Watson for Governor. It is a year when 2,000 stay-at-home voters may put Dan Russell in the gubernatorial chair.

Two Republican friends of mine have struck town during the past ten days. They were good enough friends and enthusiastic enough Republicans to want to confide a few figures in me for the purpose of showing me that North Carolina is going to elect Dan Russell and a Republican Legislature and give Bryan a close rub.

From numerous figures made, I think I am able to give the Observer the calculations of Chairman Holton. Here they are, and to an unprejudiced mind they seem to be about as fair as could be expected from the opposition. Democrats in North Carolina have always underestimated the Republican vote of the State, and that has caused them to blindly court defeat. The Populist strength is probably underestimated here.

Here are the figures:

Number of negroes in North Carolina, according to the census of 1890, who are over the age of 21, 109,000. Number of whites, 233,000. Add 5,000 for increase since. Number of negroes going to vote this year 92,600. Number to vote for McKinley, 83,000; for Bryan, 9,355 (this includes all Democratic and Populist negroes "and all whose vote will be tampered with"). Number to vote for Russell, 76,200; Guthrie and Dockery, 14,220; Watson, 2,280.

Number of white Republicans, 73,000. Number going to vote this year, 65,800. Number for McKinley, 61,101; for Bryan, 4,599; Russell, 61,600; Guthrie, 3,100; Watson, 1,300.

White Democrats in North Carolina, 140,000. Number to vote this year, 140,200. For Bryan, 127,590; McKinley, 1,559; Palmer, 851. For Watson, 130,093; Guthrie, 107.

White Populists in North Carolina, 25,000. Colored Populists, 7,358 (included in Bryan's negro vote). Total Populist vote, 32,358. Of the 25,000, 23,112 will vote. Of these Bryan will get 19,163 (the balance won't vote the presidential ticket). Guthrie will get 21,209; Watson, 1,302; Russell, 600.

Summing all this up, the Republican informant state the vote to be: McKinley, 145,630; Bryan, 160,807. Bryan's majority, 15,147. For Governor: Russell, 138,400; Watson, 134,675; Guthrie, 3,627. Plurality for Russell, 3,725.

"Now," says the Republican, "we don't give what we believe our majorities will be. In fact we believe we will carry the State for both McKinley and Russell, for so many Democrats are every day writing us they will vote for McKinley. You can't say but that this is a very fine and impartial calculation."

Now, Mr. Observer, what must the better element in North Carolina do? We are foolish to go against census figures and say there are only 80,000 negroes, when there are 109,000. We are foolish to figure on 30,000 white Republicans. The only thing to do is to go ahead, determined to vote every single Democrat in the State for Cy. Watson. The Republicans concede us 140,000 votes. They concede that Russell will poll 138,000. Now, if we let 2,000 stay at home we run a risk. If we can vote these 140, 000, according to Republican figures we can beat Russell. Work is the only thing that will do the work.—George Fell in Charlotte Observer.

The Law Gives No Lien on Household Goods For House Rent.

There is no rule of law about which there is a more widespread error among intelligent business men than the one which obtains in reference to the lien of the landlord on the furniture and effects of the tenant. There is a common belief that where rent for a dwelling house is past due, the landlord has the right to prevent the tenant from moving his furniture and effects from the house until the rent is paid. This is altogether erroneous. The owner of a house who rents it to a tenant has absolutely no claim on the tenant's furniture for the rent, and cannot prevent him from removing his furniture from the house, no matter how much he may be behind in the payment of his rent.—C. W. TILLET in Charlotte Observer.

The discovery has been made that Bryan's father made a speech in 1868 in favor of the gold standard, and certain newspapers are making a great parade of that fact. What if he did? Bryan's father is not running for President; it's his son who is making the race. But worse than that, William McKinley voted in Congress and spoke for free silver, and is now seeking to be elected President on a gold platform. Bryan has never been so inconsistent, and he is not in the smallest manner responsible for the acts of his father.—Goldsboro Argus.

In the Colorado desert they have rainstorms during which not a single drop of water touches the earth. The rain can be seen falling from the clouds high above the desert, but when the water reaches the strata of hot, dry air beneath the clouds it is entirely absorbed before falling half the distance to the ground. It is a singular sight to witness a heavy downpour of rain not a drop of which touches the ground. These strange rainstorms occur in regions where the shade temperature often ranges as high as 128 degrees Fahrenheit.—Kansas Star.

A few years ago a hard-working man got tired of town life and went to the country. It was about all he could do to make a living in town, but he has done well on the farm. A few days ago he was in town with a load of corn, and the beauty of the thing was that the corn, wagon and mules were all his own. That beats town drudgery out of sight. Let others go and do likewise. The town is no place for a man who can dig a good living out of the soil.—Reidsville Weekly.

The New York Journal has sent Chairman Jones a check for $15,000. It agreed to give $1.00 for every $1.00 contributed by others, and the whole sum the committee gets by the Journal's generosity is $30,000. True Democrats will never forget the work of the Journal in this campaign.

There is no real elevation of mind in a contempt of little things. It is, on the contrary, from the narrow views that we consider those things of little importance which have, in fact, such extensive consequences.—Fenelon.

A tobaccoist named Farr had the following painted above his door, "The best tobacco by Farr." A rival tobaccoist, at the other end of the street, painted up, "Far better tobacco than the best tobacco by Farr."

An Unlucky Doodle.

On the 21st of December, 1885, Admiral Dundas gave up the command of the fleet and returned to England.
He was succeeded by Admiral Lyons, between whom and Dundas a signal parting took place which will long be remembered as a standing joke in the navy.

As Admiral Dundas left the fleet
at Kamiesch the crews of both English and French ships manned the yards and gave him a parting cheer. At the same moment, by the desire of Dundas, a signal was run up to Sir E. Lyons on board the Agamemnon, "May success attend you," to which Sir E. Lyons ordered to be hoisted in reply, "May happiness await you."

But though in real life hanging and happiness are generally considered to have no very close connection, yet in the signal code they are very much alike. Unfortunately, in the hurry to reply to Admiral Dundas, the flag for the former instead of the latter word was hoisted, and what was worse the stupid blunder
was not discovered and hauled down till the whole fleet had seen and read it.—Pearson's Weekly.
Perfectly Sound.

"Does your wife know anything about finance?"

"Doesn't she!"

"Is she sound on the silver question?"

"Sound as a burglar. Sleeps with the spoons under her head every night."—Detroit Free Press.

lishments turning out a product valued at $5,507,573.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made of different styles—the small one, which is made for bed rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen our store, come and look at them.
