EDITORIAL NOTES.

When a candidate's chances get so shaky that H. P. Cheatham, J. C. Dancy, J. H. Williamson and a clown of the circus all are employed to be working for him, he must be badly scared. That seems to be Skinner's predicament.

We publish again today the letter of Major Guthrie as a large number of this issue will go to many which yesterday's did not. Read it and then hand the paper to some friend whom it would benefit. Every Populist in North Carolina ought to read it between now and next Tuesday.

There has been new life infused into the Democrats in this county for the past week. They see now that the only thing necessary to do to carry Pitt county is for the white men to vote. This they will do. Again we would say to every Democrat in the county every interest you have demands that you should carry the county for the Democratic ticket from township Constable to President. Rally boys, and a victory awaits you for it.

Do you realize that if you vote the straight Populist or Republican ticket next Tuesday that you have turned over the Supreme Court of North Carolina for the next four years to the Republican party? We call your attention to the fact that Douglas' name is on both tickets and unless you take the pains to scratch it off you will vote for him whether you intend to or not. The REFLECTOR calls on every man to read his ticket next Tuesday before depositing it in the ballot box.

We would call the attention of the Populists to the fact that Senator Butler has not even intimated to you that you should vote for a gold bug for any office in this election. He has advised you to the contrary. In his last appeal to you published yesterday he asks you not to send a gold bug to the United States Senate to tie his hands for the next four years. If you wish not to do this you cannot vote for any Republican for the Legislature. If you forget this Tuesday it will be too late to remedy you

Who drew the color line in this campaign? Did you hear anything about a white man's or a black man's government until a few weeks ago when news went out from Republican headquarters that the negro vote must be solid this year? Now what reason is there more for the negro vote being solid than for the white vote? Say what you please, but mark this, a solid negro vote means a solid white vote. The Republican party has forced this issue in the campaign and every white man ought to know this and ask the question what does it mean. The election news Tuesday ought to teach them a lesson.

You Must "Play a Game of Politics" "Do not Discuss Principles."

"You can easily see," writes Chairman Ayer in his confidential circular to the populist chairmen, "that A GAME OF POLITICS IS BEING PLAYED IN THIS STATE." Yes, it is a "game" that will commend itself to gamblers and pie-hunters. In another portion of the same circular, Ayer says: "It is not a chairman's business to DISCUSS PRINCIPLES." It is his business to elect Ayer, and eight gold-bugs to big offices. "Discuss principles!" Perish the thought. Do "principles" butter any parsnips? Do "principles" elect the Populist chairman to a big office? Do "principles" elect goldbugs to Congress? Of course not. Then it is no business of a committeeman's to "discuss principles." He must devote himself, if he lives in the Fifth district, to electing Tom Settle to Congress.

It is true that Settle is an open advocate of the gold standard, that he voted to unconditionally repeal the Sherman law, that he sneers at Populists and tramples Populist principles under foot, that he is the favorite and the agent of the American Tobacco Trust that has brought poverty to the farmers of his district, that he is notoriously careless of his Congressional duties, and that there is nothing in common between him and most Populists. But for all that he must be helped to go back to Congress, because the Populist State committee "AGREED TO IN DIRECTLY HELP THE REPUBLICANS ELECT FOUR CONGRESSMEN," all of them gold-bugs, supporters of McKinley, and one of 'hem a negro! This is the dish that the Populists are ordered to partake of next Tuesday. We do not believe they can be driven into partaking of it by a political boss who is induced to set this nauseating dish before them by a promise of an office for himself. He asks the Populists to abandon "principles"—not even to "discuss principles"—but to "play a game of politics." What for? That he and a few other "leaders" may get to the pie-counter. Is that all? No, but the people must also vote to send gold-bugs to Congress to give the Republicans the Supreme Court, and put the Republican gold bug machine on top.

The Populists will listen to such dishonorable advice when they become goldbug disciples of Mark Hanna, but not before.—Raleigh News and Observer.

AYER "AN INFAMOUS SCOUNDREL."

A Member of the Populist Party Declares That the Populist Chairman is "The Prince of Liars and a Scoundrel, Too."

Roxboro, N. C., Oct. 27,

I herewith enclose you a letter which will show you what a great and INFAMOUS SCOUNDREL Hal W. Ayer is. He is posing as a silver man, but his acts, by the enclosed letter, shows him to be the PRINCE OF LIARS AND A SCOUNDREL WITH IT. We, of the People's party down here, are not for gold or Hal Ayer. And if we CANNOT HAVE A GENTLEMAN AND NOT A SCOUNDREL TO HEAD OUR ORGANIZATION, WE WILL NOT HAVE ANY. We, as men of principle, believe in silver, but not in Hal Ayer. And we will vote for Mr. Kitchen and not Mr. Dalby.

JOHN A. BIARD.

THE AYER LETTER.

The following is the gist of the confidential letter referred to by Mr. Biard:

People's Party State Headquarters,

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 24, 1896.

(Confidential.)

Dear Sir:

I send you by this mail a copy of the Caucasian containing correspondence that has passed between the chairman of the People's Party Executive committee and the Democratic Executive committee.

You will understand from this correspondence that the co-operation entered into by the action of the State committee of the People's party and the Republican party is the policy recommended to the Populists.

I write this as a last appeal to you to support, with all your power, the action of your committee. YOU CAN EASILY SEE THAT A GAME OF POLITICS IS BEING PLAYED IN THIS STATE. You are the chairman of the People's party in your county. It is not his (a chairman's) business as a chairman of a committee TO DISCUSS PRINCIPLES in committee work.

In consideration of the fact that the Republicans promised to help us elect five Congressmen, while the Democrats were trying to beat us everywhere, our State committee AGREED TO INDIRECTLY HELP THE REPUBLICANS ELECT FOUR CONGRESSMEN; and I write you now as a good Populist to aid us in helping that party which has shown more friendship to the People's party than the Democrats have shown.

Now in the fifth district the People's party have a candidate for Congress, Hon. A. J. Dalby. If the Populists in the Fifth district should decide to vote for a Democrat for Congress they would be helping a member of the very party which has done nothing else but try to destroy us.

While the Democrats are showing us nothing but enmity, I want to appeal to you to use all the influence you may have to throw the votes of all the members of our party in the Fifth district to Hon. A. J. Dalby, the Populist nominee for Congress. Of course the Democratic papers call him a goldbug. The Democratic party to which Mr. Kitchen belongs has been and now is our most implacable foe.

Now, let us line up to beat them. Do everything you can to defeat them.

Yours very truly,

HAL W. AYER,
Chairman P. P. State Ex. Com.

Just received 100,000 envelopes for good Job Printing, we are the people.

A VOICE FROM CARTERET.

Honest Populists Cannot Vote the Mongrel Ticket.

This paper printed sometime ago that S. Otho Wilson went to Carteret county and commended the Populists to agree to a fusion that would send Senator Pritchard's private secretary to the Legislature. We expected a kick because that action showed the Populist machine was working to re-elect Pritchard. There has been tall kicking, and most of the Populists have refused to stand by the trade to elect holdbugs. The following card appears in this weeks Beaufort Herald:

Mr. Editor: As one of the delegates to the late Populist convention in Beaufort, I desire to raise my voice in protest against the mongrel ticket put out by the Republicans and a few who claim to be Populists.

The Populist party, of which I have been a member, has been preaching the doctrine of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver, and other reforms generally, since its first inception, and at this late hour for it to leave its old moorings, to fuse with the Republican party; to throw away principle by voting for a member to the next General Assembly of North Carolina who is by word, deed and action pledged to vote for Jeter Pritchard, a goldbug Senator, and a man whom the Caucasian, the People's party organ of the State, said some months ago, was a traitor to silver and the reformers of the State, is more than I can understand. There is no consistency in any such action. I cannot see how honest Populists can support such a ticket.

Making Maj. Guthrie's Burden Easy and His Yoke Light.

The best piece of urging in Hal Ayer's address to his party, is his lamentation over Guthrie's want of gratitude for the tireless efforts of the "representatives of his party" (meaning Adjutant Wilson and himself), to make the "burden of their chief standard bearer easy."

Oh, Guthrie, Guthrie! How often would we have gathered you under Hanna's wings, but ye would not. Now, behold, we are to be clothed in fine linen and occupy the chief seats at Russell's council-table while your house and Dockery's den are left unto you desolate. Wherefore did you dispise the offers of Hanna to give you exceeding great reward if you would march your legions into the city of Gotham, where the streets are paved with gold. Oh! William! William! Thou art joined to thy silver idols and we must let thee alone! Behold Hanna is king and all those who will not bow their heads to the east shall be destroyed.

Did we not agree with Holton for two of his high places and other good things—to fight against the enemies of Hanna? Shall a captain, whom we have set over our hosts, refuse to obey and help us to gather so great spoil?

Behold this unfaithful chief shall be beheaded on the third day of November at the eleventh hour and shall be buried in the potter's field, outside of the limits of the city, in the land where the Gentiles, called Democrats, dwell. Behold the hour is now come when the enemies of King Hanna shall be driven from the goodly city into the wilderness, where the inhabitants of the land eat their bread in the sweat of their faces.

Behold the great steal shall be given to the son of Thomas, whose surname is Cyrus, and he shall be hereafter Captain of our hosts, because he has been loyal to the cause of our friend and the friend of our country, King Hanna—Raleigh News and Observer.

MRS. ALFRED FORBES,

Greenville, N. C.

AN ADDRESS.

To the People's Party Voters of North Carolina.

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 27.—W. A. Guthrie this afternoon issued the following address to the Populist party. It is one of the most pronounced political sensations of this campaign.

"Voters of North Carolina:

Will you, on the eve of the election desert your party flag and the principles you profess to love? Will you be allured into the camp of Mark Hanna and politically slaughtered? I refuse to believe it, and will not be convinced to the contrary until your votes shall be counted and returned. Will you take earnest advice, and listen to this last appeal of him whom you honored with your confidence at our last State Convention by nominating me as your choice for the office of Governor? Will you fail to vote for each and every elector on the Bryan Presidential ticket? Will you vote for a gold bug to represent you in the next Congress of the United States? Will you throw away your votes for a Congressman upon Populist decoys in the Fifth and Ninth Congressional districts, and thereby help to elect gold bugs instead of free silver Congressmen in those districts? Will you vote for members of the General Assembly pledged to support Senator Pritchard or any other gold bug republican for a seat in the Senate United States? Those are questions of vital importance to us as a political party, which you can only answer with your ballots and your personal influence. I beg, I beseech, I implore you, as you love your party and the principles you profess, and which we have taught the people are based upon sound principles of patriotic constitutional government, to stand in this crisis by the principles and teachings of the Populist party, or else prepare yourselves to see your party go to pieces and become a byword and reproach among men.

"Have you forgotten so soon the principle laid down at our State convention only two years ago, relating to a non-partisan judiciary? Are you mindful of the fact that if you vote for Col. Douglas for Supreme Court Judge you will do so in direct violation of that principle, and give to the Republican party three out of five of the Supreme Court justices? Will you do it? If by your vote you elect Col. Douglas a Republican, instead of Hon. A. C. Avery, a sitting member of the Supreme Court, and thereby give the Republicans a majority of the Supreme Court, then let every People's party man in North Carolina hang his head in shame and never advocate again a non-partisan judiciary. There is only one Superior Court Judge to be voted for at this election, and he is to fill a vacancy in the Fifth judicial district, where I myself reside. No People's party lawyer has been nominated for that office. My neighbor, friend, and townsman, James S. Manning, of Durham, is the Democratic candidate for that office. I know Mr. Manning to be a learned lawyer of many years practice, and a gentleman of integrity and high personal character. His opponent is the Republican clerk of Caswell county. Unless you are prepared to renounce the wholesome principles of a non-partisan judiciary, I ask you to vote for Mr. Manning and see to it that his name is on your ticket, or if not, scratch Mr. Spencer Adams and put it there. Let me caution you to be careful to read the names on your tickets before they are put into the ballot boxes.

"My People's party friends, think on these things and before it is too late ask yourself the question, what is the right thing for me to do; then, knowing what is right, have the manhood to go to the polls next Tuesday and do the right thing honestly and fearlessly.

"I beg to assure you that as to my personal candidacy for Governor, it gives me little concern what the result as to my own election or defeat may be, but the future status of the People's party in North Carolina and the right decision of vital questions of Government policy, State and National involved in this political contest, cause me the deepest anxiety. As you love your country, your neighbors, your families and your dearest interests, and would restore prosperity and happiness to the whole people, show yourselves as patriotic at the polls next Tuesday as all true Populists have heretofore professed to be. Let us show to the world that we are not a gang of professional office seekers, but a band of political patriots, moved to action by love of country and proper conception of duties and responsibilities, as well as the privileges of American citizenship. Holy writ and human experience, both alike teach us that a tree is known by its fruits, and a man's acts speak louder than words. Let us prove our political faith by our political acts.

Watch the Count.

It is of the utmost importance that intelligent and wide awake Democrats shall watch the counting of the ballots on the night of the 3rd of November. We give an extract from the law.

"That when the election shall be finished the registrars and judges of election, in the presence of such candidates, or their duly authorized representatives as may choose to attend, shall open the boxes and count the ballots, reading aloud the names of the persons who shall appear on each ticket * * * * and the said counting of votes shall be continued without adjournment until completed and the result thereof declared."

It will be seen that, under the law, candidates, if they prefer to do so, may choose their own representatives to watch the count, and in this way the most intelligent and capable Democrats in every county can see that every ballot is honestly counted. This matter is so important that we hope every Democratic speaker will call attention to it.

WARNS HIS FRIENDS.

A Populist Says He Cannot Support Gold Bugs.

At the first organization of the Populist party, I cast my lot with them, being a firm believer in the principles they advocated, and since that time I have worked and voted for the success of that party. But seeing now the conditions that confront us in the present campaign, that either free silver or gold bug monopoly are to win, that either C. B. Watson or D. L. Russell must be the next Governor of North Carolina, that our next Legislature must select either a free silver or gold bug Senator, and that there is danger of our Supreme Court passing under Republican control, I am forced to declare myself more of a lover of free silver and white supremacy than I am of any party, and to further the cause of these I will vote the Democratic ticket, National, State and Legislature. And I would warn all my Populist friends to be careful that they are not trapped into voting for gold bugs and against the principles they advocate. Don't cast a vote for any man who is going to vote for a gold bug Senator, and do not allow your vote and influence to help put D. L. Russell in the office of Governor or turn the Supreme Court over to the Republicans. I hope my friends will think on these things and act wisely on election day.

DRESS GOODS.

It gives us pleasure to announce that we are now displaying the most extensive and attractive stock of wool Dress Fabrics ever imported by us, selected with the utmost care as to desirability of weave, beauty of effect and excellence of quality; the result has been to enable us to present a superb variety of superior grade goods in a truly wonderful assortment of the most recent creations of wool and silk and wool "fashion's favorites."

Handsome materials and fashionable fabrics will be difficult to obtain this season, for the reason that importation are much below the average, particularly in fine silks and dress fabrics, and the American manufacturers have been obliged to curtail their productions.

Each department of our business is fully prepared to show the newest and correct materials, styles and colorings for fall and winter, and we strongly recommend an early examination of the various departments.

RICKS & TAFT,

The Money Savers.

There were plenty of gamblers along with the circus and they found people ready to be swindled as usual.

The passenger train put on still another crash Thursday night, making two extra ones, and still there was not room for all the circus crowd from down the road.

The REFLECTOR asks the people of Pitt county if they have not seen enough of Harry Skinner's record not to want him to again represent this district in Congress?

Harry Skinner hired the clown to boost him in the circus yesterday, but the clown failed utterly to raise the slightest applause for him. The colonel wasted his money for a bit of cheap notoriety.

We asked a life-long Republican what he and his party expected to gain by supporting Harry Skinner for Congress? "Nothing in the world," he replied. "We hate to vote for him, but it is the only chance we have to vote against the Democratic party."

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made of different styles—the small one, which is made for bed rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen at our store, come and look at them.

BE ON YOUR GUARD.

We print elsewhere a special from Washington showing that an effort is being made to get the electoral vote of North Carolina for McKinley. It also shows that somebody is willing to be bribed to turn it over. Who got that $25,000? This and many other questions may be interesting but the important thing for us all now is to see that it is not done. Shall McKinley have the electoral vote of North Carolina with 233,000 qualified white voters, 215,000 of whom really favor free silver? Shall 20,000 whites with 100,000 negroes overrule and override the will of the 215,000? What a burning shame, and yet the fact stares us in the face that if certain leaders are bought and the people deceived, this may be done.

Now there are several ways in which it is said this is to be done. One is that Hal Ayer is not to send out any Populist electoral tickets. Another is that the right electors are to be put on the tickets but from the wrong districts so that these tickets cannot be counted, again the wrong electors are to be put in the right districts for the same purpose. Still again many tickets have been sent out with only the Democratic electors on them, then again others have been sent out with only the Populist electors on them. Again tickets have been discovered in some parts of the State with the five Populists electors and six Republicans upon them. Again Populist tickets have been sent out with the whole eleven Republican electors upon it. Again tickets with too many electors upon it may be circulated.

All of these things are reported to be going on to cheat Bryan out of North Carolina's electoral vote which by every principle of right and justice belongs to him.

Silver men of all parties be on your guard. Know what names ought to be on your tickets and see if these names are properly on them before you deposit the ballot in the box. You cannot remedy it after you have voted.

That you may know whether the electors are alright and no mistake, we print below the names with their district as should appear on the ticket of every man who wishes to vote for William Jennings Bryan for President of the United States:

For Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States:
LOCKE CRAIG, Ninth Congressional District.
ROBERT B. DAVIS, Sixth Congressional District.
RALPH HOWLAND, First Congressional District.
HOWARD F. FREEMAN, Second Congressional District.
CHARLES R. THOMAS, Third Congressional District.
WILLIAM S. BAILEY, Fourth Congressional District.
WILLIAM D. MERRITT, Fifth Congressional District.
BENJAMIN F. KEITH, Sixth Congressional District.
THEODORE F. KLUTZ, Seventh Congressional District.
TYRE YORR, Eighth Congressional District.
ROBERT D. GILMER, Ninth Congressional District.

If these electors appear on your ticket as above you can push it in and unless your are swindled in the count of the votes you will elect the greatest living statesman, W. J. Bryan, President of these United States.

Don't be deceived and think that he is going to carry this State any way. Be up and at work until the last ballot is deposited. There are many negroes who would like to vote him. Give them a chance by speaking to them. Make the supreme effort of your life to preserve your beloved State from the lasting shame of having sold her electoral vote to Mark Hanna.

STORE BROKEN INTO.

And People are Wondering Where the Watchman Was.

On Thursday night some one entered the hardware store of D. D. Haskett and stole a quantity of goods. The thief effected an entrance by prizing open the shutters to one of the rear windows and breaking a glass so as to remove the inner fastenings. With a hammer and file the money drawer was broken open and what money had been left in the drawer the evening before, about $1 in small change, was taken. The thief went through the show cases and took a dozen or so of pocket knives, razors and some other cutlery, and a number of axes are also missing. A lot of door keys kept in a box in one of the show cases were scattered about as if the thief had picked over them to get such as he desired, and a bunch of truck and disk lock keys were also missing. Mr. Haskett cannot tell how much his loss is and doubtless will never know, but so far he has missed about $100 worth of goods.

Next morning after the robbery a bed of straw was found under a counter in one of the stores of the Rialto block, where work was going on, and by this bed was an empty whiskey flask and a reaping blade, the latter being among the articles taken from Mr. Haskett's store. This leads to the belief that after committing the robbery the thief fixed this straw bed and took a nap before going off with his plunder.

The way the goods were gone through and picked over must have taken the thief sometime and he evidently had a light. It looks like the night watchman must not have been attending to his duty or he certainly could have found out that the robbery was going on.

GETTING READY FOR A LAUNCH.
The First Preparations Are Made When the Keel Blocks Are Laid.
It has often been said that man begins to die the moment that he begins to live. It might also be said that a ship begins to be launched the moment she begins to be built. The first thing in the actual construction is to arrange the keel blocks on which the ship is to rest while she is building. They must be placed at certain distances apart, and each must be a little higher than its neighbor nearer the water. These blocks are usually of the stoutest oak and are placed from two to three feet apart. They must have a regular inclination, or the ship cannot be launched. In vessels like the St. Louis the incline is about half an inch in height to a foot in length. In smaller vessels it is often more than one inch to the foot. Larger vessels have so much weight that a sharp incline is not as necessary as with smaller ones. The keel of the ship is laid on these blocks, and as fast as the sides of the vessel are built up great props are placed against them to make sure that by no accident will the vessel topple over.

At length the hull of the ship is completed. Then it is that the launching apparatus is prepared. This consists of two parts, one that remains fixed on the ground and one that glides into the water with the ship. The part that goes into the water is the cradle. It is that part in which the hull of the vessel rests snugly, and probably that is why it is called a cradle. When the time comes for the launch, a long row of blocks is built under each side of the ship at an equal distance from the keel blocks and of the same inclination. On these blocks rest first the stationary "ways." These consist of broad planks of oak from 3 to 4 feet wide, capable of sustaining a weight of from 2 to 2½ tons to the square foot. On top of these ways are the "sliding ways," of nearly the same breadth, and between the two the tallow is placed.

A narrow cleat runs along the edge of the stationary ways so that the sliding ways shall not slip off as they carry the ship along. Above the sliding ways is what is called the "packing." This consists of pieces of timber packed close against the curving sides of the vessel to hold it firm to the sliding ways beneath. The curves in the hull vary so much that it would be impossible to fit the sliding ways to them, and so, by means of packing, the ship is fitted to the ways instead. The packing and the sliding ways constitute the cradle, and it is fastened to the ship by stout ropes. Along its length, at intervals of about 18 inches, are big wedges, the points of which are inserted between the sliding ways and the packing. A rope about the thickness of a clothesline runs from wedge to wedge, so that none may be lost when they float into the water.

We are now ready for the launch. Tallow to the thickness of about an inch has been spread between the ways as they were put in position, nearly 60 barrels being necessary for a ship like the St. Louis. The cradle sets snugly against the ship's bottom. The vessel, however, is still resting on the keel blocks. The task now is to transfer the ship from these keel blocks to the launching supports and to take away the keel blocks. Then, when the weight of the ship rests on the launching ways alone, all that is necessary is to saw away the "sole piece" at the bow, where the stationary and sliding ways are fastened together, and the ship by her own weight will probably slide into the water. If she needs a start, several "jacks" using hydraulic power are ready beneath the keel to lift her a trifle and give her a push. "Launching a Great Vessel" by Franklin Matthews.

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by
P. P. P., Lippman's
Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED--COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT--ONE
NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the nights coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.
Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.
Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily.
I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night.
I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS--County of Comanche--Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.
A. M. RAMSEY.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1901.
J. M. LAMBERT, N. P.,
Comanche County, Texas.

Catarrh Cured by P. P. P.
(Lippman's Great Remedy) where all other remedies failed.
Rheumatism twists and distorts your hands and feet. Its agonies are intense, but speedy relief and a permanent cure is gained by the use of P. P. P.
Woman's weakness, whether nervous or otherwise, can be cured and the system built up by P. P. P. A healthy woman is a beautiful woman.
Pimples, blotches, eczema and all disfigurements of the skin are removed and cured by P. P. P.
P. P. P. will restore your appetite, build up your system and regulate you in every way. P. P. P. removes that heavy, down-in-the-mouth feeling.
For Blotches and Pimples on the face, take P. P. P.
Ladies, for natural and thorough organic regulation, take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, and get well at once.

RICKS & TAFT.

We Sell Goods Cheaper Than Any Other House.

DRESS GOODS.

It gives us pleasure to announce that we are now displaying the most extensive and attractive stock of wool Dress Fabrics ever imported by us, selected with the utmost care as to desirability of weave, beauty of effect and excellence of quality; the result has been to enable us to present a superb variety of superior grade goods in a truly wonderful assortment of the most recent creations of wool and silk and wool "fashion's favorites."

Handsome materials and fashionable fabrics will be difficult to obtain this season, for the reason that importation are much below the average, particularly in fine silks and dress fabrics, and the American manufacturers have been obliged to curtail their productions.

Each department of our business is fully prepared to show the newest and correct materials, styles and colorings for fall and winter, and we strongly recommend an early examination of the various departments.

Died.

The REFLECTOR is pained to learn of the death of Mrs. W. S. Fleming which occurred Friday afternoon at her home, about two miles from Greenville. She leaves a husband and four small children who have our deepest sympathy.

Sad Accident.

At Holgood Thursday a little son of Dr. Leggett was playing on a pile of cotton seed in the gin-house. The little fellow dug a well in the pile of seed in which he fell head first and was suffocated. He had been missed some time before the sad discovery was made.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made of different styles—the small one, which is made for bed rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Door, which prevents the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen at our store, come and look at them.

WHO GOT THE BOODLE.

$25,000 To Buy the State—The Hiring Claims He Placed the Wad in Proper Hands.—For Gold He Will Crucify Silver—Senator Butler's Good Offices to Be Solicited in Exposing the Dastard.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—A man, whose name is known to a certain Democratic leader, reached the city today from North Carolina, and went immediately to see a prominent Republican to report the result of his mission to North Carolina. He took $25,000 with him to use to buy the electoral vote of the State for McKinley. He reports that he made all necessary arrangements, left the money, and is confident that he has bought the electoral vote for McKinley. There is a history about how a few Democrats here caught on to the arrival of the man, and learned of his mission. The Republican leader, to whom he made report, was elated at the news, and later on made a bet of $1,000 that McKinley would carry North Carolina.

I could not see Senator Faulkner tonight to ask him about this piece of information that comes from a reliable source, and Senator Butler is still in Indiana. It is believed here that he will, upon his return, exert himself to prevent the loss of North Carolina, and will join the Democratic managers in an effort to discover in whose hands the money was placed. North Carolinians here suspect that certain populists were the recipients of the money, but they do not believe the delivery of the vote can be made.

Reminds One.

Many of the political speeches that have been made in this campaign remind one of one of Mr. Lincoln's stories. He had been listening to a young man of great lung power, many words and few ideas. When he had finished, Old Abe said: "That young chap reminds me of a steamboat I once saw on the Ohio river. It had an eight-foot boiler and a twelve-foot whistle, and every time the whistle blew the boat stopped."—Danville Register.

There are now in round numbers a thousand millions of paper dollars in the United States. On the policy of redeeming all this in gold they are a perpetual demand on the hundred millions of gold in the Treasury. This Sherman system of currency, this endless chain of redemption, which is made four times weaker because of the policy adopted by the Harrison and Cleveland administrations of not using silver as a money of final redemption, is one of the rottenest monetary systems ever devised by man.—Cleveland Plaindealer. Dem.

The Populist committee is sadly behind in sending out tickets. It is now practically conceded that many of them will not reach their destination in time. Chairman Ayer has a kind of don't-care-a-darn-if-they-don't-air-about-him while Chairman Holton smiles gleefully and says: "Oh, it doesn't make much difference whether they get there or not. If they don't why the Populists will simply vote the Republican ticket."—Raleigh News and Observer.

The hirelings are now making an effort to have the Populists vote for Russell for Governor instead of voting for Guthrie. Is any Populist in Pitt county going to be duped into helping make Russell Governor of North Carolina?

Nero and Ayer are Alike.

"You can easily see that a game of politics is being played in this State," is a part of the confidential circular which Chairman Ayer is sending out. There is no parallel to this since Nero fiddled while Rome burned. The farmers are in no mood to sit down in the ashes of their poverty to see "a game of politics being played." They want better prices for their crops, juster legislation, and the repeal of those laws that the Populists have been taught by their speakers and papers are oppressive. It must make the blood of every humble farmer boil with indignation to be coolly told that "a game of politics is being played" in which most of the stake goes to the gold-bugs, while he has been working and praying for the day of deliverance from the gold-bugs.

Nero's place in history is not enviable. Hal. Ayer's place in the political history of the State will be identical. And it will be written by the Populists who trusted him to fight the gold-bugs; now that they see he has sold them out, so far as he can, to Mark Hanna's crew.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Vote Against Them.

There are a great many men in Pitt county who propose to scratch some of the names on the Fusion ticket. They will not vote for gold bugs and chronic office seekers. One thing you should remember that unless you put some name in the place of the one you scratch you only cast a half a vote against him, by substituting some other man for his you cast a whole vote against him. By not voting for a gold bug and voting for a silver man in his place your vote counts two against him. Don't forget this if you want to beat the gold bugs. It won't take many votes like this to bury all gold bugs in this county so deep that they will not trouble you again.

Close Up.

There has been considerable talk among the merchants today about closing up their stores on election day, and several signified their willingness and desire to do so if the movement can be made general. This is a good step, everybody close up and put in the day for your ticket. There will be any trade of consequence going on that day and nothing will be lost by closing. Monday the REFLECTOR will print the names of those who will close if they desire it.

We Need to Carry North Carolina.

We need as a nation to elect Mr. Bryan; but we also need to carry North Carolina for the Democracy. Perhaps the latter now comes nearest home to us. There should be, anyway, a determined effort made to elect every Democratic candidate in the State.—Asheville Citizen.

It is said that about 200 colored voters in Greensboro have bound themselves not to vote this year unless paid $25 apiece for their votes. They know Hanna has sent plenty of money for the purpose of buying votes and they reasonably demand that the white "heeler" shall shell it out instead of keeping it in his own pocket. The darkies will certainly get the money if they remain firm.

An Empty Sentiment.

"I wish," said the man who indulges promiscuously in sentiment, "that I could be a boy again." "And have to do your daily duties whether you felt like it or not?" inquired his practical friend.

"Ye-yes."

"And have to ask permission every time you go out at night?" "Of course. Think of the freedom from responsibility, the—"

"Do you think you'd enjoy being told to your face that you should be seen and not heard?"

"No, I can't say that I would."

"Or being licked every time you were caught in a prevarication and compelled to go to bed because somebody else thinks you are sleepy?"

"Of course not. I—or you see it doesn't do to take anything in this life too literally. I was quoting poetry, you know."

ADDRESS

Hon. CYRUS B. WATSON.

A Superb and Eloquent Appeal—Every Voter Should Read It.

My Fellow Citizens:

On the 25th of July, in the City of Raleigh, the Democratic Party in Convention assembled called me from its ranks, and told me I must be its candidate for Governor.

I asked no man for the commission. The vote of the Convention came to me unsought and unbidden. Many stronger and abler hands might have received the party's banner and carried it to victory. Heeding the earnest solicitations of my life-long friends, and hearing the expressed will of that great convention, and being accustomed to obey, I accepted the trust, and with an eager longing to have the honor of being the Chief Executive of the million and a half and more North Carolinians, whom I esteem as the perfect bloom of the Earth's people, I took my position on the front of the battle deck. Although mindful of the arduous and incessant labors of the campaign to be undertaken, I was not deterred by its promise of unceasing toil, and its manifold exactions, because I have known even from childhood and through all the years of my life that the highest honor that could be attained by a North Carolinian was to obtain the suffrages of the free-men of his native State for this high and responsible office.

As soon as the Executive Committee of the Party was organized, under the direction of that committee I went into the field as the representative of my Party, which had become the strongest champion of the great cause for which the people were themselves contending, and as such representative I was eager to declare to you, my Fellow Citizens, my position upon the all important issues involved in this mighty contest—a contest in which the people are demanding that the control of their Government and financial system shall be taken from the money changers of foreign lands and placed into their own hands. In my heart of hearts I knew the winning justice of this noble cause, and loved to support it like a man loves to support the wife and children of his home.

According to the custom esteemed for its usefulness as well as its anti-quity in North Carolina, I DESIRED TO MEET MY OPPONENT, MR. RUSSELL, IN JOINT DEBATE UPON ALL THE QUESTIONS IN THIS CAMPAIGN, BUT HE REJECTED MY CHALLENGE AND DECLINED TO STAND UP IN THE FIELD WITH ME BEFORE THE PEOPLE. A joint discussion with me was sought by Major Guthrie of the People's Party. I cheerfully accepted the request, and after filling some appointments of my own, we entered together on a canvass of some of the western counties. By mutual agreement we parted at Wilkesboro, and I continued my regular appointments through my State. From exposure and fatigue I have been stricken down with sickness, and am now confined to my home. Though much improved and feeling myself growing daily stronger, I am advised that I may not be able to again enter the campaign. Fearing that this may be true, I write this letter that the voters in those sections of North Carolina that I have not been able to reach may know that my heart is with them; that I wish I was able to speak to them in every county in the State to ask their suffrages for the great party that has presented my name for consideration, and to meet the people face to face and talk with them in regard to their necessities and the policy of the government. There has been no time since the establishment of our Government when issues have been presented for the consideration of the plain people of the land which more strongly involve their rights, their liberties and their homes. In 1892 as a delegate from North Carolina to the Chicago convention, I stood for a platform, the main issue wherein should be for the restoration of silver by this Government as a money of final redemption at the ratio last in use by us. At that convention a platform was adopted which to my plain understanding looked to the rejection of the single gold standard by this Country, and to the remonetization of silver as a circulating medium in all the channels of trade. If the purchasing clause of the Sherman Act was a "cowardly makeshift," as the Party platform expressly declared, I supposed and trusted that any honest man standing upon this declaration of principles would see to the administration of a policy which honestly and truthfully carried them out. I opposed the nomination of Mr. Cleveland because I did not believe that he was in sympathy with my idea of the plain meaning of the platform, but I was delighted to sustain my party by my vote and voice, because I hoped from his administration a faithful discharge of the duties and trust reposed in it, and because I knew that from the Democratic Party alone would finally come relief to the distressed and impoverished people, daily growing poorer and poorer while the privileged classes favored by unjust laws were daily growing richer and richer. Our hopes were disappointed. In 1896 I attended another convention of the same great party in the same city. It was with a thrill of delight and hope that I witnessed the adoption of a platform which was no longer a subject of doubtful construction, but a platform presenting the great needs of the American people, and I BEHELD WITH JOY THE NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES UPON THAT PLATFORM WHOSE VERY LIVES EMBODIED THE PRINCIPLES OF THE PLATFORM ITSELF.

It was my most heartfelt wish to present to the good people of North Carolina my views on these great issues presented by the Democratic Party to the American people, and to speak to them of the burdens which they have borne so long and patiently, and to rejoice with them in the glad hopes of returning life and prosperity; to explain to them the income tax, by which the rich should bear their proper burden of taxation, and to urge that men holding property exempted from any direct taxation should contribute to the support of the Government by a just and proportionate tax upon their incomes. This measure adopted by a Democratic Congress was declared unconstitutional by a court which was forced, in order to arrive at its conclusion, to overthrow the decision of the greatest legal minds that have adorned the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States for the last one hundred years. This and many questions presented by the State and national platforms I wished to present to you. I desired above all things to speak to the people of the trusts and unlawful combinations which were threatening the destruction of the commerce and business of the Country—combinations of men by which the very necessities of life were placed under their absolute control to be dealt out to the consumer at prices fixed by illegal means, and under the operations of which small dealers with limited capital are being driven from business. The business of others is being controlled within channels directed by the trusts. The prices of raw materials in the hands of the original producers are fixed by these trusts and combinations at or below the cost of production, and then in turn these same raw materials, when manufactured, are sold by these organizations at the prices fixed by them, and thus to a great extent has all competition in the purchase of raw materials and in the sale of manufactured products been destroyed. Mark Hanna is the apotheosis of these trusts and combines, and his cunning fingers are touching every button and every spring in his reach, and dropping his money into all the open slots, large or small, through all this land.

In my speech to the July convention, I declared then that the situation tendered the issue as to whether the people should be left free to exercise their own choice, or whether the power of Hannaism would not in a stealthy and deceptive manner hood-wink them through trusted leaders and endeavor to defeat their aims.

My declaration has been verified, for Hannaism has entered the rooms of our opposing committees and sub-committees in Nation, State, County and Township, and has at least beclouded the minds of our opponents, and thwarted them in their expressed purpose to see the people united in securing the control of their financial system, which they so much desire.

Bryan, like the Chevalier Bayard, approaches like the grey-hound, defends himself like the lion, and like the wolf retreats only with his face towards his foes.

Hanna carries a dark lantern.

I should feel, my fellow citizens, in my present weakness a great despair if I thought that these vital questions were to be presented to you by me alone; IF I FELT THAT THE ISSUES OF THIS BATTLE DEVOLVED UPON ANY MAN AND THAT MAN WAS MYSELF. BUT I FEEL THAT THE CAUSE IS ABOVE ANY ONE MAN OR SET OF MEN. IT IS THE CAUSE OF THE PEOPLE. They know their needs. The plain people of the land have studied out these questions for themselves. They have felt penury and want. Into the homes of the professional man and merchant have come the shadows of want and poverty. By the fireside of the farmer and tiller of the soil creep in despairing thoughts that his labor and the product of his toil bring him no returns. Into the cottage of the mechanic and laborer rises the pale face of hunger and misery. The people need no messenger to bear to them the story of their present condition, or to tell them the history of legislation which has brought ruin and disaster to their business, and which is constantly and ever increasing with each day that follows the night. Nor need the people be told the cause. Necessity has made them study, and they have found out for themselves the terrible cause. THEY FOUND IT IN LEGISLATION WHICH STRUCK DOWN HALF OF THE MONEY OF THE COUNTRY, THUS DOUBLING IN VALUE THE OTHER HALF WHICH WAS FOUND IN THE COFFERS OF THE RICH. I wanted above all, my fellow citizens, to enter every county in North Carolina and see you personally that I might know you and that you might know me, that in the administration of the responsible duties of Governor of North Carolina, I could represent the interest of every section, knowing no man above another, but doing justice to all. And now from my bed of sickness I send you my greeting, and the full assurance that if I should be by your suffrages elevated to the high position for which the Democratic Party has presented me as its candidate, I would ask no greater honor than to so administer the duties of my high office that my conduct would meet with the approval of you all.

I write to you because I can not come to speak to you. I would that every letter in every word of this might be a tongue to shout in your ears the warning that comes from the surging depths of these anxious days, —a warning against the blow to the liberty of the masses of the people that threatens us in the clenched fist of Mark Hanna. My own voice can not now be raised in your hearing, but let the voice of this letter plead with you, not for myself, but for my name on the ticket and for the names of my comrades—not for myself or for them for our own sakes, but for us and our names only because the cause we represent is the righteous cause of a righteous, long-suffering people—yourselves—who cry for deliverance and, who yearn not for “the purple and the gold of the palace,” but who seek only to dwell, as their fathers intended they should—“under their own vine and fig tree, where none dare to molest or make afraid.”
