SOME QUEER NAMES IN OUR NEXT CONGRESS.

From over in Maryland comes Dr. Booze, and while there may be no significance whatever in this close conjunction, the names of the representative in the very next district is Mudd. Maryland also sends a Barber and a Baker to the next house. A Cooke is found in the Illinois delegation, a Gardner in New Jersey, a Plowman in Alabama, a Cowherd in Missouri, a Bishop in Michigan, a Brewer in Ohio, two Coopers, one from Texas, the other from Wisconsin, two Taylors; one from Ohio and one from Alabama, four Smiths, two from Michigan and one each from Illinois and Arizona. A Miller comes from West Virginia, but Illinois furnishes Mills. Illinois also bas a Hunter, New Jersey and North Carolina each a Fowler, but Pennsylvania contributes Robbins.

The little New England state of Rhode Island sends a Bull, Virginia a Lamb, North Carolina a Martin, Mississippi a x, Missouri a Cooney and Ohio a Kerr, while a Skinner comes from North Carolina and a Packer from Pennsylvania. There is a Fischer in the New York delegation, but the only thing for him to catch is Sauerhering, of Wisconsin. Fruit, too, is scarce, there being only one Berry, from Kentucky.

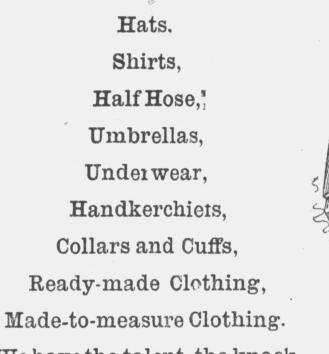

GAINS BY DEMOCRATS.

Republicans Lose Votes in the Next

House.

So far as the lower house of congress is concerned, it was not so glorious a republican victory after, all. Full returns from all the States show that the democrats have made congressional gains as follows : California 1, Colorado 2, Delaware 1, Idaho 1, Illinois 1, Indiana 3, Kansas 1, Kentucky 1, Michgan 1, Missouri 6, Nebraska 3, Ohio 4. Pennsylvania 1, Tennessee 2, Utah 1, Washington 1; total 30. The populists have gained votes in : California 2, Illinois 2, Indiana 1, Kansas 4, Michigan 1, Missouri 1, Montana 1, North Carolina 3 and Washington 1; total 16 The republicans have gained 3 congressmen in Maryland, 1 in Virginia, 1 in New York and 1 in Louisiana ; total 6. The net democratic gain of votes, therefore, in the next congress is 23; the net populist gain 15 and the net republican loss 37. Utah's representative adds one more to the total number ; but 2 gold democrats were elected, and the net gain to the silver men, therefore, combining both democrats and populist, is 36. One of the republicans elected in New York is James J. Belden, an independent, who defeated the regular party nominee, but who is withal as staunch a republican as ever lived,

George W. Murray, the colored republican member from South Carolina, has been defeated again by Colonel William Elliott. A contest may again be expected, since he was success. ful last session. George H. White, of the Second North Carolina district, Congress is a large body in itself, whose election will not be questioned, but it has only a Foote in New York and a Longue in Oregon. A Man in Illinois, however, i. Handy, in Delaware, Moody in Massachusetts, a Minor in Wisconsin, still Young in Virginia and Pennsylvatia, and, above all, Bland in Missouri, New York aggregates to itself all the Fayne, North Carolina all the Love and Missouri all the Joy. Utah is represented by a King, Illinois by by a Prince, and the people of Iowa by their Cousins.

The silver Moon, from the Tennessee mountains, looks down peacefully upon a Hill in Connecticut, a Marsh in Illinois, near which is planted a Cannon that has seen much service, a Flood in Virginia, a Beach in Iowa, an Eddy in Minnesota, a Strait in South Carolina, and a Hull of Long standing in Iowa, while it sheds a bright Ray upon the state of New York.

Color lines are not sharply drawn, for there are only Browns in Ohio and North Carolina, White in the latter state, and both White and Jett in Illinois.

A Bell from Colorado may ring Loud in California, and Sweet and Low in New York. Pennsylvania sends two fine looking Stones, both of whom have been here before, while Vermont, which has such an abundance of fine marble s uds only G rout.

Three good Walkers will be in the next house, one from Massachusetts and two from Virginia, to say nothing of Strode, from Nebraska. The Little man trom Arkansas may offset Grow in Pennsylvania.

More Room Wanted.

Notwithstanding the Coast Line people have kept enlarging the ware room facilities at the depot here, and have made additions until the length of the room has been increased from 70 feet to 190 feet, it seems that their quarters are still too small to accomp modate the immense freight handled here. This morning the REFLECTOR reporter ent through the large freigh room and found it tuil of hogsheads cf tobacco awaiting shipment, and in addition to what was in the warehouse every available freight car on the yard was full of hogsheads and several drays were busy hauling more there. This much tobacco at one time, to say nothing of the cotton and merchandise that has to be handled. If this thing keeps on the railroad folks had just as well make up their minds to build a house half a-mile long and be done with it.

A Void Election.

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C., Nov. 11-It has just been learned that at Piney Point precinct, Carteret county, on November 3rd, just before the polls were closed, one of the judges, in lighting his pipe, accidentally dropped the head of a match in the county box, and when the accident was discovered by them before the box could be opened, most of the tickets had been burned. The judges, four Republicans and two Democrats, decided to guess at the number of votes for each candidate, and replace the burned ballots by new ones. Affidavits have been secured from each of the poll holders and judges setting forth the above facts, and stating that the replacing of the burned tickets was very uncertain, owing to the great number of scratches.

The Republicans of the precinct are very angry with the party who brought this matter before the public as it was considered an affair of their own. The game they may use the Ball which will question is, will this throw out the box? If so, it elects the Democratic member of the Legislature, register of deeds and surveyor, which completes the Democratic county ticket.

THE NEGRO CANDIDATE.

If we take McKinley's popular plurality at 1710,000-that being a splitting of the difference between the lowest present etimate, 600,-000, and the highest, 829,000-and the negro vote in the whole coun try at 2,000,000, and deduct from the latter 90,000 (a large estimate) for the Bryan pegro vote, and concede the balance, 1,910,000, to McKinley, we have this bit of arithmetic:

Negro majority for Mc-Kinley McKinley's plurality in 710,000 total vote

Bryan's plurality of the WHITE VOte 1,200,009

That is an overwhelming majority, as majorities go in our elections, as will appear from the following resume which we find in our able Atlanta contemporary.

During the last half of the campaign, says the Atlanta Constitution, the press and speakers for the single gold standard ap pealed constantly to the public 19 give the Democrats such a crushing defeat that the bimetallic movement would be killed forever On election night, when the returns began to come in, the Republican figurers sent out enormous majorities for McKinley from all the States east of the Mississippi, north of the Ohio river and several south of the latter river. They claimed 20,000 in Virginia, 30,000 in West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina, and 50,000 in Texas, with 10,000 in Florida. They gave very small majorities to Bryan in the the Democratic states, and did everything in their power to make it appear that there had been what they were pleased to term "a landslide."

mum estimate were to be allowed for Texas, McKinley's plurality would be only 600,000, or just about 209,000 greater than Cleveland's plurality over Harrison four years ago. But taking the higher estimate, it is from a landslide, because it is only 51 per cent. of the total vote. In every 100 votes McKinley got less than 53 and Bryan got a fraction more than 47.

Suppose in a contest where there were 500 votes, one candidate should beat the other by twenty-seven votes, the defeat would hardly be considered overwhelming. That is the ratio of Major McKinley's vote to Mr. Bryan's.

In 1892, Mr. Cleveland received 5.556,562 votes and Gen. Harrison received 5,162,874. Cleveland's plurality was about 394,000, or a little less than half McKinley's over Bryan.

In 1888, Cleveland received 5,-558,500 to 5,441,902 for Harrison. In that election Mr. Cleveland received 96,000 more votes than were given to Gcn. Harrison, and yet the latter had a majority of the electoral college and was elected.

In 1854, when Cleveland was elected for the first time, the vote between him and Blaine was very close, there being a difference of only 23,000 in a total vote of 10, 000,000.

Four years ago, when Cleveland. 1,910,000 had a plurality of 400,000 over the Republican candidate, Alabama gave him 128,0.0 of it and Georgia in 157,000.

> The plurality against Bryan this year is small compared to the plurality against Clevelandism two years ago, or the plurality against McKinleyism in 1890, when the Republicans were turn ed out of Congress and the Dem ocrats went in with 150 majority in the House of Representatives. But, as we said at the outset, if the white vote be considered. what an overwhelming majority Bryan has !-- Fayetteville Observer.

THREE SONGS.

[To a friend with a nosegay of wild flowers.] FERNS. In the forest shadows dim. When the thrush's evening hymn With its music, wondrous rare, Fills the twilight like a praver-

There we dance and hope and love, Sheltered by the pines above. Sister, little sister, take us, Take us to thy heart. Happy, happy thou canst make us,

One of us thou art! MEADOW RUE. Where the rippling streamlet floweth Silently we bow and weep, No one but our Father knoweth Of our anguish, still and deep. Close beside the eddving river. There alone we sob and quiver. Though the world forsake us, Take us to thy heart; Sister, little sister, One of us thou art! WHITE VIOLETS.

Where the fern in gladness dances, Where the sad rue droops and mourns, Where the streamlet's bright wave glances When the spring returns, White as winter's spotless drift, There our faces we uplift. When the fern laughs, we are glad; When the rue weeps, we are sad. Still we see the stars above us; Still we trust, because they love us. Are they flowers in the sky, Violets that have learned to fly? We believe and hope and trust, Know that he who made is just, And he never will forsake us While we're white and pure in heart. Sister, maiden sister, take us,

One of us thou art! -Willis Boyd Allen in Youth's Companion.

Crushite.

The results accomplished by the use of "crushite," a new material for sawing and polishing granite, stone and marble, are represented as quite remarkable, the material consisting simply of minute chilled cast metal shot varying in size from mere powder to clover seed size. Blocks of granite are now being sawed with this instead of sand at the rate of four inches in depth and hard grit stone at nine in depth an hour with 12 blades in the machine. It is superseding diamond saws and is claimed to be capable of doing the the cost, and is also being employed in sand blast apparatus in place of sand and in substitution of dismond added 81,000, while Texas chipped drills fer boring and crilling. The state ant is made that in sawing and polishing one ton of this mate rial is equal to about 300 tons of the sharpest sand. The tiny balls are chilled to intense hardness without being brittle, and when struck on an anvil they indent the latter. As the action of crushite is to roll between the blocks and the saw blade or rubber, doing its work by crushing, it retains its spherical shape and cut-

But all the southern States except West Virginia and Kentucky turned out to have gone Democratic by majorities as large as had been claimed for McKinley.

Ever since the Republican papers have been rather shy in figuring on the popular plurality. The papers which have made calculations on this line have gen. erally added thousands of votes gratuitously to Major McKinley's plurality in a number of States and they have diminished Mr. Bryan's pluralities in the same manner in the States which he carried.

The accompanying table [see fourth page] is based on the most reliable reports which have been received. In some instances the minimum estimate has been used, as in the case of Texas, which is allowed only 100,000 majority for Bryan, whereas it is claimed that it will run as high as 330.000. From this table it to be cleaned are placed in a basin stands Major McKinley's popular majority is 829,000 votes in a total of about 15,000,000. If the maxi-

The Congressmen elected last week will rot take their seats until December of next year unless an extra session of Congress called earlier. It certainly is does not seem right that there should be so long an intervalover a year-between the election of Congressmen and the time when they take their seats, and the Constitution of the United States should be amended so as to remedy this glaring defect. And although this is pointed out and commented on by the Press every two years, yet it does not seem to have any effect, for no Congress has yet proposed this sensible and most proper amend ment.-Pittsboro Record.

Last February the Southern Railway was found guilty of running a freight train through Greensboro on Sunday in violation of the law and a fine of $500 was imposed. The railway appealed to the Supreme Court, and that court has affirmed the judgment of the lower court and holding that the stature under which the indictment was drawn was constitutional.

Cleaning Dull Gold.

Dull gold may be cleaned by immersion in a bath of 80 grains calcium hypochlorite, 80 grains sodium bicarbonate and 20 grains table salt, all of which ingredients are dissolved in three quarts distilled water. The fluid must be kept for use in well corked bottles. Articles and covered with liquor and taken out after awhile, washed and rinsed in alcohol and dried in sawdust. The article then looks like new, ting or crushing power, and as it does not become partially imbedded in the blade or rubber, as in the case with sand, emery, etc., it is rolled backward or forward, smoothing the surface by crushing the projecting parts of the block that is being treat. ed.-New York Sun.

Saved From a Lion by Pillow.

An English officer shooting recently in Somaliland. One night when he was in bed inside his tent a lion sprang over the rough thorn fence, which it is usual to throw up round one's encampment at night. Instead of picking up one of the men or animals that must have been lying about asleep inside the fence he would have none but the sportsman himself, made a dash into his tent and seized him-fortunately only by the hand. Then by some wonderful piece of luck, as the lion changed his grip for the shoulder, he grabbed the pillow instead and so vanished with his prize. The pillow was found the next morning several hundred yards distant in the jungle. and outside was also the spoor of a lioness, who had evidently been awaiting the return of her lord with fore. something eatable.-Scribner's

SHE AND HER PARENTS.

There's a house a few miles from the city I frequently linger outside; Tis the home of a maid who is pretty, A maid I would like for my bride. I fear that I never shall win her, My passion is hopeless and mute I'm sure that her parents would skin her If they thought that she smiled on my suit.

Her eyes are the purest and brightest That ever encouraged a hope Her skin is the softest and whitest That ever shed luster on soap; Her hair is the richest and goldest That ever a hairdresser dressed. And her parents are surely the coldest A heroine ever possessed.

Her voice-it's a mezzo soprano-Would make even Patti afraid, And the way that she plays the piano Puts Rubinstein quite in the shade. More perfect she is than perfection; Resign her I can't, and I won't! And she looks upon me with affection. But her parents-oh, bother them-don't. They intend her to marry a title; They want to address her, "Your Grace." They've made up their minds this is vital; Which scratches me out of the race. Nor do I, in theory, blame them. She's worthy a duke, I aver. It's true I'd be puzzled to name them A duke who is worthy of her. Oh, I know she's beyond and above me: I deserve to be hung, I'm aware, For presuming to think she could love me, But I don't altogether despair.

For my heart undergoes an expansion When I think, what I'll tell you about, Of that night when I called at her mansion, And her parents, God bless them, were out

When I think of the way she received me, Of the way, and the words, that I spoke, Of the way that she blushed, and believe me, Of the sixpence we solemnly broke, Of the mutual hopes we confided, As we blended our voices in song, And that rapturous kiss we divided-Well, her parents can go to Hongkong! --Idler.

A Rheumatic's Museum.

A Fifteenth ward man who has been a lifelong sufferer from rheumatism has a queer collection of alleged "cures" arranged in a neat cabinet. One shelf is devoted to a series of small, wrinkled objects which look and feel like large pebbles. They are not pebbles, hcwever, but potatoes which have be- little stemach. come almost petrified through being carried a long time in the pocket of the rheumatic gentleman. Each potato is marked with a small label bearing some such inscription as this: "Carried from Nov. 12, 1878, to May 18, 1880. Very efficacious.' The collector claims that the potato carried in the trousers pocket has proved to be the best of the many remedies he has ever tried. He carries one potato until the return of his rheumatic twinges seem to testify to the decline of the tuber's curative properties. Then he takes a Men's Facial Characterístics.

Artists who draw funny pictures of public men or who make carica. tures are happy when they can find some pecaliar development of feature as a distinguishing mark. What a joy and treasure they found in Theodore Roosevelt! If the president of the police board did not have the big white front teeth, they would be lost. All that is needed in a comic picture of Roosevelt is a row of big teeth. Everybody recog. nizes it at once. Croker's strong point is his coal black beard, close cropped and stiff as wires. Hill's nose and little side patches of whiskers make up the man. The back of his neck stands for President Cleveland every time, and "Grand. father's Hat," detected anywhere, is good for ex-President Harrison.

A perfect sphere on a big hulk of a body is taken for Tom Reed every time, and anything that resembles Napoleon is believed to be McKinley. No one could mistake Conkling's sharp nose, nor did any one ever go astray on the heavy paffs and wattles under the eyes of Mr. Blaine. No man has more features strongly marked than Chauncey Depew. He has a peculiar eye, a wonderful nose, a remarkable mouth, small and thin lipped, a terrible amount of jaw, the strongest of chins. It is impossible to miss him. Hair standing out every way for Sunday, as the expression goes, means anarchist. Smooth hair, plastered down to the scalp, means dude. Long lip means Irishman. Thick lip means negro. And so forth and so on.-New York Press.

Heavy Turkish Fire.

I must draw attention to that feature of the Turkish tactics which stamped the war of 1877 with a character of its own, a feature evident in all sections in which I took part, in none more than in the one Gold3boro daily, except Sunday, 6.05 a under discussion. I refer to the quick fire of the Turkish infantry, of such power, duration and effect as had never before been dreamed of. General Todleben wrote later, "Such a shower of lead as that with which the Turks hail our troops has never before been employed as a mode of warfare by any European army." It was more instinct, experience, silent consent and confithe Turkish foot soldiers to adopt this mode of fighting. I had wit nessed quick fire drill in Widdin, but I venture to say that it was not until after the first battle that the officers became really conscious of the terrific power of long sustained quick fire.

> Our orders were briefly as follows: "As soon as you know or suppose the enemy to be within range of your rifles cover the space presumably occupied by him or presumably to be traversed by him with quick fire, independent of distance, duration, difficulty of aim. probability of hitting and consump tion of cartridges." The awful ef. fect upon the opponent of this rule, if carried out as literally and as much con amore as it was by the Turks, is apparent in the Russian losses, and in the fact that through out the Plevna campaign the Russian attacks, with few and unimportant exceptions, collapsed, numer.
