CHRISTMAS GREETING.

The Merry Season is Almost Here, and Our Advertisers Wish all Good Cheer.

Yes, Christmas is coming. A few days more and it will be with us. You want to be happy yourself, and the way to insure it is to make somebody else happy. The REFLECTOR is already getting happy because it is telling its readers so many good things its advertisers have in store for them. The advertisers are happy because they know they are going to please you so well when you go to them for Christmas purchases. Now let's have a little chat together over these things by way of helping you in doing your shopping.

The REFLECTOR always feels an interest in its advertisers and what they are doing, and the last few days we have been looking in to see what they have. And we are going to tell something about what is found in the stores of these wide awake and enterprising business men.

J. B. CHERRY & CO.

The Christmas shopper will be almost dazzled when he first enters the mammoth stores of this firm, but bewilderment gives place to joy as an inspection of their excellent stock begins. We don't believe there is a town in North Carolina that can show in one establishment a more complete display of general merchandise. They have something to suit everybody and there is this additional satisfaction about it, that whatever is sold you in this store as to the character or value of any article can be put down as every word true. Among the many things they carry is an excellent line of furniture, and you cannot get a better Christmas present than one of their handsome chairs.

ALFRED FORBES.

Here's another stock of general merchandise well worth looking at. Mr. Forbes has justly won the name of "Old Reliable." While not the oldest in years or longest in statue of any man in town, he is the oldest and longest in business of any other. Having served the people so many years he knows just what you need and he has it for you.

SAM'L T. WHITE.

Another fine stock of general merchandise that is complete in every department. While this clever and popular young man can supply your needs in every line, he is just now making a specialty of celebrated shoes. You will do well to treat yourself to a new pair for Christmas and get a pair for every member of your family.

W. H. WHITE.

This gentleman keeps general merchandise also and treats you right whenever you trade with him.

J. C. COBB & SON.

If there is any business line that Greenville excels in it is general merchandise stores, places where a full line of everything desired is kept and this establishment ranks among the best.

FRANK WILSON.

We have struck the man's friend this time, the "King Clothier." He caters especially to the gentlemen's trade and can fit them out from head to toe. A man never looks better than when he is in Frank Wilson's clothes. He leads the styles and carries the best. At the same time he has a splendid line of dress goods, staple goods and notions for the ladies. Let Frank fit you up and you will be happy.

C. T. MUNFORD.

This popular merchant has as elegant a stock as you wish to look in upon. He has clothing, shoes, hats, dress goods, notions, furnishing goods for gents and ladies, fancy goods, novelties, in fact most anything and everything you could ask to see. In quantity, quality and variety his store stands in the front rank.

RICKS & TAFT.

These enterprising young men are fully abreast with the times and are showing many beautiful articles suitable for presents. They carry a complete line of clothing, dry goods, shoes, hats, etc. Their dress patterns are superb models in style and texture. You will find them courteous and pleasant to deal with.

M. R. LANG.

This store is a real delight—to the ladies. Lang knows just what will please the fair ones and makes his selections accordingly. Many years of experience has made him the leader in his line. His exquisite dress goods, trimmings, capes, cloaks, laces and embroideries are unsurpassed and another good thing about it is Lang sells cheap.

H. M. HARDEE.

can please the holiday shopper. He has a good all-round stock of clothing, dry goods, shoes and notions that cannot be surpassed in quality and price. Go to see him and you will be treated cleverly every time.

H. B. CLARK.

If its bargains you are hunting for go and see Clark. He has marked prices right down on dry goods, shoes and notions. He also has a magnificent line of silverware, and you know nothing makes a more beautiful or useful present than a nice piece of silver.

H. C. HOOKER.

carries a splendid line of general dry goods and notions.

BAKER & HART.

Now we come to a different line of goods. These gentlemen have a complete stock of hardware, stoves, house furnishing goods, builders supplies, cutlery, guns, and so on. Maybe you have been promising yourself a new stove. Try one of their Wilson heaters. A good breech loading gun would make a nice present.

S. E. PENDER & CO.

Here is another stock of hardware, stoves, &c. The Elmwood heater carried by this firm can't be beat. They have a fine line of pocket knives. They are also agents for leading bicycles. If you want to be liberal, there is nothing that would make a more acceptable present than a bicycle.

D. D. HASKETT.

S. M. SCHUTZ.

Now we come down to something for the inner man. What this gentleman fails to keep in the way of good eating is not worth looking for. Groceries of all kinds, confections and fruits in great abundance. He also has a large stock of toys and dolls for Santa Claus. The second floor of his store is devoted to furniture and he has an attractive display of this.

D. S. SMITH.

has a splendid line of groceries, fruits, confections, fine cigars, fire works and other things suitable for Christmas. For a little money you can get enough at his store to fill the children's stockings chock full.

J. S. TENSTALL.

At this store can be found a stock of heavy and fancy groceries, canned goods, pickles, jellies, cigars and all other things in the grocery line. It is a pleasant place to trade, and you get nice goods at the right prices.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18th 1896.

Senator Vest has lost none of his old-time power of expression, nor any of his confidence in the principles for which he has been fighting so long. He made this plain in a short speech he delivered this week. Although he based his remarks upon the Dingley bill, he prefaced them by saying that he knew it was a dead issue and that he only did so because many well-meaning people were urging Congress to act upon it. Later, the death of the Dingley bill was announced by Sherman. Apropos of the late campaign, Mr. Vest said: "While I may be subjected to the charge of being a lunatic, an anarchist and a repudiator, I assert that the only relief for the people is to give them more money. If we are lunatics and anarchists because we ask for the opening of the mints to the free coinage of silver, then over six million American freemen who voted for Wm. J. Bryan are lunatics, and may God help the republic. But it is a vile slander. The men who supported the great leader, Wm. J. Bryan, are as loyal and as intelligent a body of men as any in this country. The gold standard which is the root to this evil is the vilest monopoly ever conceived in the mind of mortal man."

The whole Cuban business was virtually postponed until January when the Senate adopted Senator Morgan's resolution asking the President to furnish all the information about the present situation in Cuba he has, as President Cleveland is hunting on the coast of South Carolina and congress had already adopted a resolution providing for a recess from December 22 to January 5. The speeches made on the subject in the House and Senate have been about as affective as the excited meetings held throughout the country.

The executive committee of the Bimetallic Union has been here for several days, preparing to continue the educational work for silver. All the prominent silver men in congress have been conferring with members of the committee at different times, but there has been no single meeting of all the silver men yet.

Although Senator Allen's resolution for the appointment of a Senate committee to investigate the alleged wholesale use of money in the late National campaign was offered without consultation with Democrats, its spirit meets their approbation. Democrats have ever since the remarkable results of the election in a number of States were announced been anxious to investigate the why and wherefore of the abnormal increase in the total vote cast. Senator Allen had read in connection with his resolution a list of States in which Bryan's vote largely exceeded the winning vote of 1892 and yet he was defeated by heavy majorities. Senator Gorman says he is certain that the total alleged vote of Maryland was at least 20,000 in excess of the adult male population on the first of last January, and he would like nothing better than to find out where the excess came from. According to some of the best parliamentarians, Mr. Allen's resolution will have to be changed a little in order to be effective. For instance, Senator Morgan said: "If Senator Allen makes his resolution joint, and it should pass the Senate and House, there would be no doubt of the authority of congress to probe the matter to its furthest depth. The Senate alone, as I view it, cannot enquire into an election in a State or even into the election of president."

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.

JAMES LONG.

has his usual good line of groceries, confections and toys for Santa Claus.

J. L. STARKEY.

These clever boys have a store piled full of nice things for Christmas. In great abundance you can find all kinds of groceries, fruits, confections, smokers goods, etc. They have a complete stock.

MORRIS MYERS'

place looks like Christmas from front to rear. He can load you up with fruits and confections and send you home happy.

D. W. HARDDE.

This popular grocer can be found at Five Points with a substantial line of staple groceries. He carries the best brands of everything in the grocery line and his prices are right down on the ground floor.

J. S. SMITH.

keeps a choice line of groceries, canned goods, confections, jellies and all such, and can fill your orders promptly.

J. W. BROWN.

is never so happy as when he is doing up some of his nice goods for you. He carries groceries, confections, canned goods, &c. If you want something good to smoke try his leading brands of cigars.

ED. H. SHELBURN & CO.

We've struck it this time—a veritable wonderland for the children, and old folks too. They look and look and look again. Greenville has not seen any better display of toys and fancy Christmas goods than Shelburn is showing. Goods all new and the very prettiest. Headquarters for good old St. Nick and this great friend of the little folks will be sure to go there.

MATHIAS OWENS.

has two stores full of furniture, stoves, housefurnishing goods, &c., with a good line of toys added.

A. B. ELLINGTON.

This is the 5 and 10 cent store and a place of great attraction. The cheapness of his goods will astonish you. Don't miss going there.

W. C. HINES

has a nice line of new groceries and confections. He can also furnish fresh oysters in any quantity.

S. M. DANIEL.

is a new grocer, has just opened a nice and complete stock.

MRS. M. D. HIGGS.

has an unusually pretty display of fine Christmas goods, the very thing for presents.

MRS. GEORGIA JAMES.

has added a line of Christmas novelties to her millinery display.

MRS. L. C. GRIFFIN.

has a pretty line of millinery that the ladies should examine.

J. L. WOOTEN.

has his drug store just filled with beautiful things of every design.

J. G. RAWLS.

has a nice line of jewelry, clocks and optical goods.

Mr. Henry C. Riley, a large capitalist of Philadelphia, has been here a few days. He is in partnership with Messrs. Lovit and W. T. Hines in the big lumber plant to be established here, work on which will be commenced very shortly. Messrs. Hines and Riley all went to Newbern yesterday to see about having a side track run to their mill. The site is near the junction of the A. & N. C. and the W. & W. railroads, and has been purchased from Miss Tiffany West—Kinston Free Press.

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by
 P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE
 NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the night coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.
 Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga. Gentls: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night. I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
 Yours respectfully,
 A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.
 Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1891.

 Comanche County, Texas

Catarrh Cured by P. P. P.

(Lippman's Great Remedy) where all other remedies failed.
 Rheumatism twists and distorts your hands and feet. Its agonies are intense, but speedy relief and a permanent cure is gained by the use of P. P. P.
 Woman's weakness, whether nervous or otherwise, can be cured and the system built up by P. P. P. A healthy woman is a beautiful woman.
 Pimples, blotches, eczema and all disfigurements of the skin are removed and cured by P. P. P.
 P. P. P. will restore your appetite, build up your system and regulate you in every way. P. P. P. removes that heavy, down-the-month feeling.
 For Blotches and Pimples on the face, take P. P. P.
 Ladies, for natural and thorough organic regulation, take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, and get well at once.

WE ARE JUST TOO BUSY

TO-DAY TO WRITE AN AD.

THINK FOR A MOMENT

—What causes the rush at—

ED. H. SHELburn & CO.'S?

The question is very easily answered.

1. Because we are headquarters for Santa Claus.
2. We have the assortment of TOYS and XMAS GOODS in the State.
3. Our prices are way down below the lowest.
4. Our Toys and Dolls are as pretty as you ever saw.
5. Our salesmen are polite and courteous.

Let everybody come and see.
