EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Pitt County Representatives are on the following committees of the Legislature. Agriculture, A. J. Moye. Banking and Currency, A. J. Moye, chairman; E. V. Cox. Insane Asylum, A. J. Moye.

One ballot for Engrossing Clerk in the Populist caucus Thursday night showed what crowd some of the Populists put Col. Skinner in. He received an equal number of votes with Mark Hanna and Grover Cleveland.

Thursday's session of the Legislature as will be seen from the proceedings was consumed in listening to the reading of the Governor's Message. The message is an exhaustive paper upon the various subjects upon which it is customary for the Governor to give information to the Legislature. His suggestions are wise and the legislators would do well to adopt them.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

A stitch in time saves many yards of thread.

No words of slander ever fell from a wagon tongue.

Nature puts up many parcels, but few contain prizes.

The cabbage head never suffers with the brain fever.

They never stop slaying even on bear ground in Wall street.

A bill deferred until tomorrow often drives a man to borrow.

A wood stove is not made of wood, neither is a sponge cake made of sponges.

A religion that could adopt itself to all kinds of business would find many votaries.

The cod-liver oil industry is said to be languishing. Another case of overproduction and lack of consumption.

If man reared the displeasure of God as much as he does that of his fellow-man, the paths of sin would need mowing.

In these days of "McKinley prosperity" its a hand-to-mouth existence with most people—especially about mealtime.

A woman's love is as pure as moonbeams upon the untouched snow, and her ministry is as sweet as the odors of flower-fed Spring.

Evil gossip is the slimy and poisonous channel through which flows the foulest and blackest waters of meanness and depravity.

Many men pride themselves on their shrewdness in letting their wives have their own way, when, if the truth was known, they couldn't help doing so even if they wanted to.

"Ah! you flatter me!" lisped an Orange dude to one of the sweetest Orange blossoms, with whom he was conversing. "No, I don't," was the reply, "you couldn't be any flatter than you are."

A woman may be stung by curiosity, struck by an idea, knocked down by an argument, or smothered with delight, yet she never suffers the agony that she experiences when a rival's new silk dress has a longer trail than her own.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

Legislature Proceedings.

THE REFLECTOR will give daily proceedings of the Legislature during the session of that body. Those of our people who wish to keep up with what the Legislature is doing should send in their subscription.

Arm Dislocated.

Yesterday afternoon while roller skating at the Planters Warehouse Edward Matthews fell and dislocated his arm at the wrist. It was attended to by a physician and he is now getting on very well.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Condensed Report of Proceedings.

SECOND DAY.

HOUSE.

The House was called to order at 11:21, and was opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Woodson.

The journal was read. In the midst of the reading, a message from the Governor was announced, and Maj. Telfair, his private secretary, came in bearing apparently the message from the Executive. Mr. Smith, of Johnston, wished the journal corrected, so that he should be recorded as having nominated Mr. Perry instead of Mr. Bunch. Mr. Hancock, of Craven, did not have his name recorded among those who noted for the Speaker. This was corrected. There were a few other unimportant errors corrected.

Mr. Schulken, of Columbus, announced that the committee appointed for that purpose had already waited upon the Governor. The committee was discharged.

Mr. Sutton moved that the reading of the Governor's message be omitted and that 20 copies be printed.

Mr. Lusk thought this was not customary, and moved that the message be read. Mr. Sutton withdrew the motion, and the clerk proceeded to read the message. During the reading Mr. Lusk was called to the chair. Clerk Benbow read the message and endured the strain without relief, although the reading consumed somewhat over two hours.

At the conclusion of the reading Mr. Sutton sent forward a resolution asking for the printing of 2,500 copies of the message. Mr. Schulken wished to amend by printing 250 instead of 2,500. Mr. Brown, of Jones, moved to have one copy for each member, and the balance for the State Library. Mr. Sutton sustained his motion by saying that it were better to have none than 250, as 2,500 was only half of what was printed last time. Mr. Parker, of P. quimans, moved to make it 500. The motion was declared carried to print 250 copies, but Mr. Harris, of Hyde, demanded division but was declared out of order.

On motion of Mr. Johnson, of Sampson, the House at one minute past 2, adjourned until Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

SENATE.

Lieutenant Governor Doughton called body to order at noon, and announced that Senator Ashburn would open the Senate with prayer. Alf. Scales, of Guilford; Dr. Alexander, of Mecklenburg; Mr. Barringer, of Cabarrus; Dr. Shaw, of Robeson, and other Presbyterians rose for prayer, and some others followed their example, but such good Baptists as Justice and Frank Ray prayed leaning on their desks.

Mr. McCaskie reported that the committee waited on the Governor, who said he would submit his message as soon as practicable.

A leave of absence was granted for Senator Maultsby till Monday because of the death in his family. Also to Mr. Odom, who is sick.

Maj. S. F. Telfair, private secretary, arrived with the Governor's message, and on request, read the first portion of the message. He has a fine voice, and read so well that the whole Senate was sorry when he finished, and a volunteer reading clerk, Mr. Hyatt (Mr. Watson not taking charge took up where he left off. The Senators listened to that portion of the message that was well read, but Mr. Telfair had to come to the bat again before the ball could be knocked through to centre field. It was 2 o'clock when the reading of the resolution was finished. Mr. McCaskie introduced a resolution to print 1,500 copies of the Governor's message. Adopted. On motion of Grant, the Senate adjourned till noon Friday.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8th, 1897.

Andrew Jackson Day could not have been more enthusiastically observed at the annual banquet of the Jackson Democratic Association of Washington had the defeat of last November been a victory. In addition to the large number of prominent Democratic guests of the association an innovation was introduced this year by inviting a woman—Mrs. Mary Donaldson Wilcox, daughter of A. J. Donaldson, who was private secretary to President Jackson. This lady enjoys the distinction of having been the first child born in the White House, and resides in Washington.

Presto! Chango! Great is the power of public pap. The Republican Senators who were expressing their willingness to have American blood—not their own, of course—shed, if necessary, to free Cuba from the tyranny of Spain, when Congress adjourned for the Christmas recess, came back to their seats this week as meek as sucking lambs. They have heard from McKinley, and as far as they are concerned suffering Cuba can keep on suffering. Senator Call, of Florida, not having the fear of McKinley's anger to keep him mum, made a speech on his resolution, which was adopted, calling for the official correspondence in the case of Julio Sanguilly, a newspaper correspondent and citizen of the United States, who has been sentenced to prison for life by the Spanish authorities, in which he did some very plain talking about the attitude of this government towards Cuba, and the delay of the Senate in acting upon the Cameron resolution.

The House passed the Loud bill depriving books and sample copies of newspapers of the privilege of second class mail, and is now wrestling with the Pacific Railroad funding bill, which the Huntington lobby is moving heaven and earth to get passed, as their last chance to prevent the foreclosing of Uncle Sam's mortgage on the Union Pacific Railroad.

Senator Allison, who was chairman of the United States delegation to the international monetary conference of 1892, said soon after his return: "The sending of another American Commission in behalf of silver to the old world will be a farce, unless it is invited by Great Britain. I, for one, will never go again on such a bootless errand, no matter what is urged." Senator Allison has never said anything since to indicate that his mind has undergone any change on the subject.

Senator Jones, of Arkansas, and other prominent Democrats, are now confident that the Senate in the next Congress will contain a majority of silver men, notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts of Mark Hanna to get a gold majority by the lavish use of money and of promises of patronage under the McKinley administration.

Secretary Herbert's investigation of the cost of manufacturing steel armor plates, made by the direction of Congress to which his report was this week sent, doesn't show the Carnegie and Bethlehem Steel companies in a very complimentary light. They both refused to give the Secretary information until after they found that he had obtained it from European makers of armor; then, according to Secretary Herbert's report, they gave him misleading information. The report says the two establishments have made a combination to force the government to pay fancy prices for armor, and shows they can furnish armor for one-third less than the government is now paying them and then make in the neighborhood of $150 on each ton. Secretary Herbert's report is being commended on all sides for its thoroughness and fearlessness. What effect it will have upon Congress will be seen when the Naval appropriation bill is taken up.

It is perhaps fortunate that this week is the last of the tariff hearings. Last week, those who appeared before the Ways and Means Committee only asked that the new tariff restore the McKinley duties, but this week a number of them had the cheek to ask that the McKinley rate be raised. After all, it is a grab game, and it is human to grab as much as you can.

Senator Gibson, of Maryland, is indignant over the statement made by the Baltimore Sun that he had predicted the defeat of Senator Gorman and the continued ascendancy of the republicans in Maryland. After characterizing the publication as false and malicious, Senator Gibson said: "Instead of believing that the Republican party is in control of Maryland for an indefinite time, I believe believe that it will not be long before the Democratic party, which gave the State a splendid administration, is recalled to power. Maryland has simply suffered from the wave that has overspread the country, and there will come a time when the wave will recede. The bolters from the Democratic party in the State bear about the same relation to the entire rank and file that the 120,000 Palmer Democrats bear to the 6,500,000 who voted for Bryan."

Country and City Newspapers.

It is a common mistake to suppose that the difference between the city and the country newspaper is simply the difference of size, circulation, frequency of issue or even of environment. It is a difference of purpose, methods, character. The two have little in common save that both are printed on white paper with black ink and are sold at so much a copy. The city newspaper, with the passing of great editors, has become a machine owned by a corporation, each employee a cog on the wheel, the whole adjusted to the highest money-producing capacity. The country newspaper is an individual with an individual's heart and brain and conscience. Its editor is usually its owner and influence of the counting-room upon editorial policy is minimized.—Missouri Editor.

The Names Will Go Hereafter.

The Greensboro Record says: "Few people know the trials of a newspaper man, not that he is worked to death or is starving, but he is often placed in the most awkward positions. "For instance, the other day the Record asked a friend to send in a report of a german given the night previous. He did so, and it was in the office, ready for the hands of the printer, when a request came in from the mother of one of the young ladies, followed soon by others of a like nature, asking that if the german had been written up in detail, to please omit her daughter's name.

"Now here was a mess to be sure, but what could the poor boy do? Simply omit the names and then have the writer come down filled with ire a foot deep and ask what in the thunder we meant by asking him to write an account of the dance and then cut out all the most important part, for, after leaving off the names requested, the report would have been very short so far as names were concerned.

"But why did the mamas desire their daughters' names omitted? Well, that is a matter of surmise, out in one case the true reason was that the mama didn't want her pastor to know of it. Hereafter every name goes. If you don't want to see it, stay away from the dance."

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by
P. P. P., Lippman's
Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE
NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Daily, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the nights coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.
Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.
Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night. I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.
A. M. RAMSEY.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1891. J. M. LAMBERT, N. P., Comanche County, Texas.

Improvement.
"Is it a fact," asked the cynic one day, "that you improve each shining minute?"
"Yes," answered the busy little bee modestly.
"How long have you been doing that?"
"Always."

A Fatality.
"What has become of your back-er?" asked the idle person of Barnes Tormer.
"I guess I worked him too hard," replied that eminent tragedian. "I killed the goose by pulling his golden leg, as the proverb goes."—Indianapolis Journal.

The Romans had a general military distinction, the olive crown. In its nature it was like a British medal "for valor" and was given to such soldiers as in battle distinguished themselves by especial acts of bravery.

The mosquito's buzzing has been a source of much contention among mosquito scientists. It is undoubtedly due to the vibration of the wings and their friction against some portion of the mosquito's body.

Belshazzar and Chancellorsville.
Your interesting reference to the Crimean war brings to mind Tennyson's lines, which have immortalized the "Charge of the Light Brigade."

No one who was present in the ranks, as was the writer, can well forget the opening fire of Stonewall Jackson's 20,000 veterans, when he surprised Hooker's right after sunset at Chancellorsville in 1863. This wing of the army rolled back upon itself with frightful loss and confusion by the advancing rush of the Confederates. For a time the worst fears were entertained by those who were in immediate command of the Union forces.

At this moment Major Keenan, with about 300 cavalry, was ordered to the charge "to hold the enemy back at all cost" until the guns, then "parked on the hill," were "placed" to save the army. The order was well understood by this brave officer, and immediately executed, 300 against twice 10,000 gallant foes. Keenan's command was annihilated, "nor came back on his wounds to tell."

I have told you of the Spaniard who always put on his spectacles when about to eat cherries, that they might look bigger and more tempting. In like manner I make the most of my enjoyments, and though I do not cast my cares away, I pack them in as little compass as I can, and carry them as conveniently as I can for myself, and never let them annoy others.—Southey.

AN INTERNATIONAL MAGAZINE
Edited by ALBERT SHAW

"If only one magazine can be taken, we would suggest the REVIEW OF REVIEWS, as covering more ground than any other magazine."—Board of Library Commissioners of New Hampshire, 1896.

THIS magazine is, in its contributed and departmental features, what its readers, who include the most noted names of the English-speaking world, are pleased to call "absolutely up to date," "thoroughly abreast of the times," "invaluable," and "indispensable." It is profusely illustrated with timely portraits, views, and cartoons. Its original articles are of immediate interest, by the best authorities on their respective subjects. The Editor's "Progress of the World" gives a clear, rightly proportioned view of the history of the human race during the current month. The "Leading Articles of the Month" present the important parts of the best magazine articles that have been written in every part of the world. The newest and most important books are carefully reviewed. Indexes, chronological records, and other departments complete the certainty that the reader of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS will miss nothing of great significance that is said or written or done throughout the world.

The Union Goes to Wilson.

At the last meeting of the Roanoke Union, held with the Baptist church at Washington, an invitation was accepted to hold the next meeting in Greenville, embracing the fifth Sunday in January. A few days ago a request came from the Wilson church that the next Union be allowed to go to that town as the church there wishes to dedicate a new building at that time. Under these circumstances the church here yielded to the request of the Wilson church with the expectation that the Union will come to Greenville in May.
