THE LEGISLATURE. Condensed Report of Proceedings. THIRTY-SIXTH DAY.

SENATE.

The senate met at 11 o'clock.

A petition was presented for the establishment of a colored normal school at Charlotte, and that the appropriation to the association of $2,500 be continued.

Bills and resolutions were introduced as follows:

Odom, to provide for the appointment of cotton weighers for Wadesboro, Mörven and Lilesville.

Person, to incorporate auxiliary boards of health; also to establish a board of steam locomotive and boiler inspection for each county of the state.

Ramsey, to give suitors time to bring suit after adverse decision of supreme court.

Grant, to authorize the acceptance of bonds given to railroad, express and telegraph companies, when given in an indemnity company perfectly solvent.

Bills were passed as follows:

To renew and keep in force the charter of the Wilmington, Norfolk and Charleston railway.

To allow active firemen of Wilmington the amount of their city poll tax.

To regulate graded schools in Whiteville.

HOUSE.

The house met at 10 o'clock.

Among the bills introduced were these.

Roberts, to prohibit the sale of liquor within two miles of political speakings, (this not to apply to cities and towns where there is a police force.)

Hancock, to amend the charter of Newbern, giving it six wards, with a councilman to be elected every four years from each, the first election taking place May 5th next, councilmen to be appointed by the governor within five days after the election, the councilmen to elect the mayor to serve four years, also a chief of police and two sergeants of police, who in the mayor's absence shall have power to take bond of collateral for appearance before the mayor.

White, to provide that if any person shall perform the marriage service who is not authorized he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned.

Price, to allow any justice of the peace to provide himself with a seal and to attest by the same his official signature and making any official act so attested by seal valid in any county and to be received and acted on without further attestation of its genuineness, the fee for such seal to be ten cents for each attestation, in addition to the fee now allowed.

Chandler, to allow preachers to vote without ninety day's residence in the county and thirty days in the townships.

Hauser, to allow the people of La-Grange to vote on the liquor question.

Meares, to establish a dispensary in Bladen county.

Bills passed as follows:

Incorporating the town of Wintersville, Pitt county.

To allow Green county to levy a special tax.

To incorporate Saratoga, Wilson county.

To provide that in any county where there is a law to work convicts of the county, a convict who has moved his case shall be worked in the county from which he moved it.

At noon the special order, the bill to annul the lease of the North Carolina railroad, came up. There was a majority report favoring the bill, signed by six of the seven members of the special committee and a minority report, signed by Aiken, (republican) of the committee.

At 3:30 o'clock Cook called the previous question. The vote was first taken on the minority report.

In explaining his vote, Howe, colored of New Hanover, caused a great sensation. He said: "This very day Governor Russell, the promoter of this bill, sent for me to come to his office and there in his dictatorial and tyrannical manner, for I presume he is perhaps in employ of the Seaboard Air Line."

At this juncture Hancock shouted "Order," and others joined in it. Some asked that Howe be allowed to speak longer. Others said his time was out, but he said no more, as there were cries of "Object, Object."

The vote was 53 to 62, so the minority report failed to pass. There was a rattling volley of applause as the result of the vote was announced.

The substitute then passed its second reading 60 to 54.

Baptists, See Here

The Southern Baptist Convention meets this year in Wilmington, N. C., May 8th. Now, you want to go to this convention, and you also want to go in style and comfort. There is only one good first-class line from the South and Southwest to Wilmington, and that line is the Seaboard Air Line, which runs the finest and fastest trains in the South and makes the lowest rates of any railroad running from the South or Southwest. Don't be fooled into making your arrangements until you have consulted one of the Seaboard Air Line agents, who always esteem it a pleasure to serve you. B. A. Newland, General Agent Passenger Department, 6 Kimball house, Atlanta, Ga., will be glad to write you or call on you, or you can apply to any of the representatives of the Seaboard Air Line in any town or city. This is the official route. Do you want to go with your friends?

Died.

We are pained to hear of the death of Mrs. Patsie Ann Moore, widow of Mr. William Moore, which occurred this morning about 8 o'clock, near Had-dock's X Roads. She had been sick for some time.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1897.

AWAY DOWN SOUTH.

Through North and South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama—Things Noted Along the Way.

(Editorial Correspondence.)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 15, 1897.

It was five years ago that the "old man" of the REFLECTOR washed his hands of the print shop and bled himself across the continent to the Pacific slope to attend a meeting of the National Editorial Association. There's an old saying that lightning don't strike twice in the same place, and the "old man" naturally felt that that was the trip of his life. Good fortune struck our way again, however, and this time finds us spinning away for Galveston to attend another meeting of the Association, the trip bringing with it an opportunity of visiting the extreme southern and gulf regions of our country. Having already traversed the western, middle, northern and eastern States, nothing could be more desired than this present trip through our own Southland, especially the portions of it we had never visited before.

Nothing can add more to the pleasure of a trip than good traveling companions, hence our route lay by Henderson to join Thad Manning, of the Gold Leaf, then on through the famous county of Chatham where H. A. London, of the Pittsboro Record, was added to the party, thence on via the Seaboard Air Line to Atlanta where J. P. Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer, joined us. All exceedingly clever and congenial companions, as we know by past experience, and nothing but a pleasant journey could be expected in such an agreeable party.

A TRAIN RACE.

The first incident of interest along the route was a very exciting race between the Seaboard and Southern trains from Raleigh to Cary. Between these points the tracks run parallel and races between the trains are frequent when they leave about the same time. On this occasion the Seaboard pulled out of the depot just ahead, but had scarcely gone a mile when the Southern came puffing alongside. Seeing his competitor creeping up on him, the Seaboard engineer threw open his throttle and let drive, slipping away from the other train with apparent ease, and getting a few hundred yards ahead. The engineer of the Southern followed suit and turned on more steam and for a few miles the tilt was lively, both trains almost flying through space. Suddenly it was noticed that the rear train began rapidly lessening the distance between them, a few moments later was alongside again and shot on like an arrow to the front. This at first seemed unaccountable to the Seaboard passengers, this train having distanced the other at the outset, but this was soon explained from the fact that the rapid run had put the train ahead of schedule time which compelled it to slow up before reaching the point where the two tracks crossed near the Cary depot. All the same the race was an exciting one and the passengers on both trains applauded the fine run. It is worthy of suggestion, though that such races may be attended by more or less danger.

LOOKED LIKE CAROLINA.

Going out of North Carolina, through South Carolina and into Georgia as far as Atlanta this trip was made by night. After leaving the latter place this morning, being then in a section new to us we began taking observation. The undulating country and scrubby oak forests prevalent in this portion of Georgia impressed us with the striking similarity it bore to the central sections of North Carolina. On nearer and into Alabama the country grows more hilly, approaching almost to mountainous.

Through Georgia and Alabama we expected to find farming preparations for the next crop much further advanced at this time of year than at home, but the contrary is true. So far we have seen no section that has made even as much preparations as the farmers of Pitt county. It may be different further south.

BOOMS THAT BUSTED.

This side of Atlanta and as far as New Orleans our trip is over the Southern railway, via Anniston, Birmingham and Meridian. One could almost tell when Anniston was reached without being told, from being able to see not much save smoke. It is remembered that the discovery of iron here a few years since created much excitement as well as a big boom, and many iron furnaces were put in operation. Like most booms, especially when land sharks get in them, this one busted and it came pretty near busting Anniston with it.

At Birmingham there was a stop of three hours which gave us a chance to see much of the city. Mr. London has two kinsmen here, Messrs. Alex and John London, who came from Wilmington, N. C., and are very prominent lawyers. These gentlemen took our party in hand and showed us the city. Birmingham has about 45,000 population, and the site of the city was all in the woods twenty-five years ago, there not being even so much as a railroad station here. At the time the iron industry opened up the boomers got hold of this town also. There were 430 licensed real estate agents who in one year paid the city $43,000 taxes. Their operations proved a hindrance rather than a help, and for a while progress was checked. The city has outgrown this now is on a substantial footing. Thrift and enterprise have pushed to the front once more and there are indications of much progress. It is an all around pretty place with many fine business buildings and attractive residences.

THIS WAS CHEAP.

By way of a side note there were a few other things that struck us at Birmingham. The first thing we noticed in passing fruit stands was that nice bananas sold from 5 to 10 cents per dozen. "Umph! if that was only home," we thought. Apples were about the same price. Another remarkable thing was a hotel bill the party paid. We all got dinner—a very good one—and had grips, overcoats, &c., checked while we took in the city. When the bill was settled it struck the crowd with surprise—only 25 cents a head. We have many times paid 75 cents for a dinner not near so good, with bath and care of baggage comming extra. Here it also only cost 5 cents to ride seven miles over the city.

This Year's "Mardi Gras."

At New Orleans will be grander than ever. Don't miss it. The Seaboard Air Line will make a rate of one fare for the round trip (half rate) and give you choice of their swell trains, "The Atlanta Special" or the "S. A. L. Express." By the change in the schedule effective February 7, 1897, this line now makes close connections at Atlanta for Mobile and New Orleans, offering by far the best and most convenient service from any point in the Atlantic States to the great carnival. Apply to agencies of the Seaboard Air Line, and take no other route.

The most ancient books are the writings of Moses and the poems of Homer and Hesiod. The earliest sacred writings of the Chinese are called the Five Kings, king meaning web of cloth, or the warp that keeps the threads in their place. They contain the best sayings of the best sages on the ethics—political duties of life. These sayings cannot be traced to a period higher than the eleventh century B. C. The "Three Vedas" are the most ancient books of the Hindoos, and it is the opinion of Max Muller, Wilson, Johnson and Whitney that they are not older than 11 centuries B. C. The Zendavesta of the Persians is the grandest of all the sacred books next to our Bible. Zoroaster, whose sayings it contains, was born in the twelfth century B. C. Moses wrote his Pentateuch 15 centuries B. C., and, therefore, preceded by 300 years the most ancient of the sacred writings.

AN INTERNATIONAL ILLUSTRATED
Edited by ALBERT SHAW

"If only one magazine can be taken, we would suggest the REVIEW OF REVIEWS, as covering more ground than any other magazine."—Board of Library Commissioners of New Hampshire, 1896.

THIS magazine is, in its contributed and departmental features, what its readers, who include the most noted names of the English-speaking world, are pleased to call "absolutely up to date," "thoroughly abreast of the times," "invaluable," and "indispensable." It is profusely illustrated with timely portraits, views, and cartoons. Its original articles are of immediate interest, by the best authorities on their respective subjects. The Editor's "Progress of the World" gives a clear, rightly proportioned view of the history of the human race during the current month. The "Leading Articles of the Month" present the important parts of the best magazine articles that have been written in every part of the world. The newest and most important books are carefully reviewed. Indexes, chronological records, and other departments complete the certainty that the reader of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS will miss nothing of great significance that is said or written or done throughout the world.

MRS. GEORGIA JAMES.

Fish are said to be good for the brain.
There's food for thought in this.

Ladies go feast your eyes on that lovely imported English china at the 5 and 10 store.

Just received a beautiful line of new style straw sailers—all colors. Cheap
MRS. GEORGE JAMES.

We were in error yesterday in regard to the German. It was postponed until tonight.

FOR RENT.—I have several rooms to rent at reasonable rates.

MRS. M. A. BERNARD.

Fresh Carr Butter 1 pound packages hand all the time and it can be procured in any quantity. W. R. PARKER.

Smith & Hooker entered their three fast horses in the races at New Berne next week. Elise, Birdseye and Lucy Ashby. There is a long list of entries.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen.

From the Reflector office, the red headed, red mustached editor, who presides as boss—rather good looking for a red headed man of his size.

The last heard from him he was on a rapid transit somewhere in the Monte-zumas. No reward is offered as long as the weather keeps pleasant and the sunshine bright, and the wood yard does not need replenishing. However if any one should hear good reports of him we will be thankful. It is thought he went in the direction of the silver mines of Mexico. T. T.

Notice,

Notice is hereby given that The Bank of Greenville will make application to the General Assembly for a Charter.

R. L. DAVIS, Pres't.

MISS LIZZIE LEWIS.

MANTUAMAKER,

GREENVILLE, N. C.

On Dickinson Avenue next to Presbyterian church.

Have had several years experience and solicit work from the citizens of the community. All kinds of ladies and childrens sewing done. Satisfaction will be given on all work.

PERSONAL POINTS.

People You Know, or May Know.

Thos. McGee arrived this morning.

Miss Lizzie Hargrave went down to Kinston last night.

Miss Bessie Jarvis went to Kinston
last night to visit the family of Rev.
A. Greaves.

Miss Florence Williams arrived last night from Baltimore and is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. F. Burch.

Miss Kate and Mamie Hines, of Wilson, are visiting their aunt, Miss Etta Hines, in Forbestown.

Dr. Q. H. Shinn, General Evangelist of the Universalist church, will preach in the Court House tonight.

We regret to learn that Mr. B. H.
Suggs condition continues no better.
He is simply worn out with old age and faithful service. Mr. Sugg is ne of a large family of children. Being the eleventh child, born in the eleventh month, the eleventh day of the month and has lived eleven years of Sunday, if every day in the year had been Sunday. We hope he may soon be up again in his usual place at the regular church meetings.

The Public School.

The public school committee for District No. 66 for white race held a meeting last night to elect teachers. Miss Appie Smith was elected Principal with Miss Lizzie Blow as assistant.
The school will commence on Monday
Feb. 22. B. F. Sugg, Sec'y.

A Birthday Tea.

Don't forget the "Birthday Tea," to be given Friday evening from 7:30 until 11 o'clock at the residence of Mrs.
R. W. King. It is to be given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church. Remember you pay one cent for every year old you are and this includes, they do say, as fine a supper as you ever smacked your lips over. Help the ladies.

Complimentary German.

Wednesday night at the residence of of Mr. J. J. Perkins a complimentary german was given in honor of Mr. W.
W. Moore, nephew of Mrs. J. J. Perkins. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all and when the hour of departure arrived there were many expressions of regret. The house was beautifully decorated. Mr. and Mrs.
E. H. Shelburn and Mrs. M. D. Higgs received in the green room, Mrs. J. J.
Perkins and Miss Helen Perkins received in the pink room and Mrs. J. W.
Perkins in the supper room. The favors were Marechal Neil roses tied with light blue ribbon. The attendants were:

Miss Sallie Rountree with W. W.
Moore.

Miss Myra Skinner with C. S.
Forbes.

Miss Bettie Tyson with J. W. Higgs.

Miss Sallie Lipscomb with Dr. R.
L. Carr.

Miss Lillian Cherry with R. M.
Moye.

Miss Julia Foley with R. D. Cherry

Miss Ella King with J. W. Wiggins.

Miss Lula White with P. H. Gorman.

Stags: W. J. Corbett and W. S.
Atkins.

Help Inaugurate President McKinley

The inauguration of a President of these United States is a great national event. Every patriotic citizen takes just pride in the dignified impressiveness and at the same time Jacksonian simplicity, attending this function.

To enable those who desire to attend the Inauguration to do so the Seaboard Air Line offers the exceptionally low rate of one fare for the round trip (just half rate) from any point in the South to Washington and return. Tickets on sale March 1st, 2d and 3rd, good to return until March 8th. You can take one of the two daily all rail trains, "The Atlanta Special" or the "S. A. L. Express," or you can take the route via Pootsmouth, Old Point Comfort and magnificent Chesapeake Bay steamers to Washington. Be sure to get tickets via Seaboard Air Line. Write to B.
A. Newland, General Agent Passenger Department 6 Kimball House, Atlanta, Ga., for particulars.
