THE LEGISLATURE.

Condensed Report of Proceedings.

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY.

SENATE.

The senate met at 11 o'clock.

Bills and resolutions were introduced as follows:

Rollins, to provide for the representation of North Carolina at the Tennessee centennial, providing for the appointment of a board of managers, composed of nine members, including the governor and the board of agriculture, and appropriating $10,000.

McNeill, to prevent pollution of streams by sawdust.

Anderson, to authorize the exchange of circuit criminal courts and to employ stenographers.

Grant offered a resolution that the president of the senate appoint a committee of seven to investigate the memorial of the president and directors of the North Carolina railroad relative to the lease of said road to the Southern railway.

HOUSE.

The house met at 10 o'clock. There was an avalanche of bills. Among them were the following:

Brown, to make a suit for violation of the fertilizer tax tag law void unless notice is within thirty days given the agricultural department.

McCrary, a resolution on behalf of A. Sylvester Scovel, the American citizen under arrest in Cuba.

Ward, to forbid ex-confederate soldiers from receiving pensions while inmates of the soldiers' home.

Dockery, to amend the charter of Greenville.

Craven, to impose a fine of $25 a day for non-removal of obstructions to passage of fish in streams.

Sutton, of New Hanover, to allow the Wilmington street railway to consolidate with the Wilmington, Newbern and Norfolk railway or with any other railway running to or from Wilmington.

Lyle, to require the attendance of all children between 8 and 14 years of age at school.

Chapin, to amend the charter of Dunn.

Bryan, to repeal the law allowing wire nets to be placed across the mouth of Cape Fear river.

Chilcutt, to provide for commitment of defendants by justices to public roads the terms to end when the amount of fine or costs is worked out.

Sutton, of Cumberland, to establish the relation of master and servant between municipal corporations and their employees.

Young, to pay the colored Agricultural and Mechanical college its pro rata share of the land scrip fund.

Dancy, of Edgecombe, to require railways to carry bicycles as other baggage.

Hauser, to make stock impounding fee 50 cents and 25 cents a day for caring for impounded stock.

Dockery, to designate holidays (legal) to be: January 1st, January 19th, February 22nd, May 10th, May 20th,

May 30th, July 4th, first Monday in September, December 25th and all Saturdays from noon until midnight.

Currie, to make misconduct at religious worship a misdemeanor; punishable by $50 fine or thirty days' imprisonment.

Sutton, of Cumberland, to provide that any married woman who undertakes to engage in business or contract and deal as if she were a feme sole, without first having become a free trader, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined $50 or imprisoned thirty days at the court's discretion.

Lusk, to make the railroad commission a state board to equalize all taxes.

CARD OF THANKS.

MR. EDITOR:—If you will permit me I would thank you for a short space in your paper to express my appreciation and thanks to the good people of Greenville for a kindness which can never, as long as life lasts, be forgotten. Any one who knows how a mother's heart yearns for the welfare of her children, and how she rejoices when all is well with them will comprehend my feelings just now. I desire to heartily thank every body, man or woman, white or colored, who in any way aided in securing the pardon of my son, George. To all who willingly signed the petition, to all who said a word in his behalf, to every human being that aided in securing his pardon, his mother extends her deepest heartfelt thanks.

To Governor Russell, Judge Connor, Gov. Jarvis, Solicitor C. M. Bernard and to Col. I. A. Sugg, who visited the Governor with the petition, I desire to especially thank for their active interest in securing his pardon. I can but invoke heaven's choicest blessings upon them, and every body that so willingly aided in his rescue. I thank you, Mr. Editor, in advance for the space so kindly allowed me to express my appreciation of what has been done for George and me.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1897.

A FORECAST

Of the Prospects the Tobacco Market For 1897.

What are the prospects for the price of tobacco next fall is a question that is studied more than any other by our farmers because nearly all of them are interested, directly or indirectly, in the ultimate outcome of the tobacco crop.

Frequently farmers come to market with tobacco and after it is sold inquire the cause of the low price at which it is sold. Frequently they are told that the grade is inferior to the one with which they are comparing present prices. Against this they argue that tobacco which last year sold for 18 and 20 cents, this year only sold for 12 or 15 and however much one dislike to agree with them, in a great many instances unfortunately it is so. There is no one that is at all informed but that will say the same tobacco is not as high as it was two or three years ago. What is the cause of this? Most assuredly it is not overproduction, for the grades that have most declined in value since 1890 are the classes of tobacco that are scarcest; namely, fine cutters and wrappers, while the common grades of both fillers and smokers, everybody will agree, are holding up amazingly well. Now let us see if we cannot find out the cause of this to some extent and calculate when these grades will again go up.

In 1891 and '92 fine bright wrappers sold at prices ranging anywhere from $40 to $65 per hundred. At present there is only a limited demand for this class of tobacco at just about half that price. There are several causes which have operated largely to depress the price of bright wrappers, chief among which are:

1st. A growing disposition among consumers of plug tobacco to use sun cured tobacco which has no sympathy whatever for the bright sun cured leaf. This of course has decreased to some extent the demand for bright wrappers, and secondly, the plug war that has been on now for some time between the large plug manufacturers has cut and slashed the price of the manufactured article and in the same proportion the price of the raw material has been affected, as they have had to resort to a common and cheaper wrapping stock. This I will say here is one of the reasons why the common grades have held up so remarkably well.

This cut rate war between the plug manufacturers reduced the price of the plug tobacco on which our wrappers are used mainly, to less than half the price this tobacco sold for at wholesale prices four years ago. These two are the principal causes, in my opinion, that have led to the present prices of fine wrapping stock. Of course there are other minor ones, but it can be plainly seen that this last one alone is sufficient to cut our prices in half.

The same causes that have produced the low prices on wrapping stock apply to fine cutting stock as well, and in order to meet what I am disposed to term a temporary demand of the trade a low grade cigarette has been put up on the market and with this the fight on both sides has been waged and in carrying on this fight they have created a temporary demand for this class of cigarettes.

Now as to the future: First, after striking bottom on low prices for the plug tobacco it began to go up again slowly, and already there is an increasing demand for good wrapping stock at better prices than they have sold at for at least a year. The political muddle has been settled and this year a new administration comes in for four years and business will not again right away come in contact with the politicians, hence we can safely estimate that for at least two years the commercial world will have smooth sailing.

Then the most important feature after all is a growing disposition on the part of our farmers to make better tobacco and while we don't know that prices will again attain their former dizzy heights, yet if good tobacco is made this year, take my word for it, the producer will be satisfied. I confidently expect to see tobacco sell better this year than it has for the two previous years.

The Honorable J. F. Greer, one of the best known and most highly respected county Judges of the State of Florida, writes of his horrible sufferings from Inflammatory Rheumatism:

OFFICE OF J. F. GREER, COUNTY JUDGE, Green Cove Springs, Clay Co., Fla.
GENTLEMEN: Twenty-three years ago I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism. I was attended by the most eminent physician in the land. I visited the great Saratoga Springs, N. Y., the noted Hot Springs of Arkansas, and many other watering places, always consulting with the local physicians for directions, and finally came to Florida, ten years ago. About two years ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism, was confined to my room for twelve weeks, and during that time was induced to try P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, knowing that each ingredient was good for impurities of the blood. After using two small bottles I was relieved. At four different times since I have had slight attacks and each time I have taken two small bottles of P. P. P., and have been relieved, and I consider P. P. P. the best medicine of its kind.
Respectfully, J. F. GREER.

James M. Newton, of Aberdeen, Ohio, says he bought a bottle of P. P. P. at Hot Springs, Arkansas, and it did him more good than three months' treatment at Hot Springs.

Rheumatism, as well as sciatica and gout, is cured by a course of P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy.

P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, is a friend indeed to weak women. It is a positive and speedy cure for general weakness and nervousness.

All skin diseases are cured by it; anything from pimples to the worst cases of eczema succumbing to the wonderful healing powers of P. P. P.

Dyspepsia and indigestion in their worst form are cured by it. As a tonic to restore the appetite and to regain lost vigor, it is simply marvelous.

P. P. P. is the best spring medicine in the world. It removes that heavy, out-of-sorts feeling and restores you to a condition of perfect physical health.

For Indigestion, Sick and Nervous Headache, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Heart Failure, Fever, Chills, Debility and Kidney Diseases, take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, the most wonderful medicine in the world.

Sold by all druggists.

The girl who curls up her nose isn't half as pretty as the girl with curls down her back.

The third of March will be Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. April 18th will be Easter Sunday.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I keep ice on hand all the time and it can be procured in any quantity. W. R. PARKER.

A senator in the Kansas legislature proposes to tax unmarried men between 22 and 30 $100 a year and send all over 30 to the penitentiary.

The hard times have affected the women's dress sleeves. The newest sleeve is made skin tight to the shoulder and it takes a considerable less number of yards to build the at-resaid sleeves than it did this time last season.

Union Service.

After consultation by the resident pastors, an arrangement has been made for a union service to be held at the Methodist church on Sunday night. Rev. J. B. Morton, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Tarboro, will preach the sermon, his subject will be "The Closer Union of Christian Denominations." A cordial invitation to attend this service is extended to all.

PERSONAL POINTS.

People You Know, or May Know.

Ed. Patrick returned to Ayden last night.

W. T. Whitehead, of Scotland Neck is here.

Miss Annie Harding returned home last night.

L. I. Moore returned from Raleigh last night.

Mrs. Lula Cleave took the cars this morning for Baltimore, where she will take lessons under competent milliners for several weeks, returning she will accept a position with Mrs. J. S. Tunstall who expects to open a millinery store here soon.

The Birthday Tea.

The Birth day Tea at the residence of Mrs. R. W. King, by the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church, was a pronounced success, both socially and financially. The house was beautifully decorated and every one expressed themselves as spending a very pleasant evening.

Just So.

An exchange says that a fellow in a near y town, who couldn't spare $4 a year for a newspaper, sent fifty 2 cent stamps to a down east yankee to learn how to stop a horse from slobbering. He got his recipe and he'll never forget it: "To stop a horse from slobbering teach him how to spit."
