AT THE MARRIAGE ALTAR.

A Beautiful Marriage in the Methodist Church.

Miss Hortense Forbes, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Forbes, was married Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock to Dr. Elbert A. Moye, eldest son of Superior Court Clerk E. A. Moye, at the Methodist church by Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor.

The church was very prettily decorated with palms, holly, magnolia, callalilies and branches and trailing vines added to the general beauty of the ornature. The pulpit stand was removed and the pulpit was a bed of beautiful flowers and hothouse plants. An arch encircled the front of the pulpit and was covered with evergreen and holly on which were wax tapers.

The bridal party arrived at the church and formed in the vestibule. Under the magic touch of Mrs. J. B. Cherry, on the organ, "Mendelssohn Wedding March" was beautifully rendered, and as the soft, sweet tones vibrated through the edifice, the couples entered the right and left aisles in the following order:

Miss Florence Williams, of Baltimore, with J. M. Moore.

Miss Lizzie Carver, of Raleigh, with J. W. Wiggins.

Miss Sallie Lipscomb with W. W. Moore, of Asheville.

Miss Bessie Jarvis with J. W. Higgs.

Miss Lillian Cherry with C. C. Cobb, of Norfolk, Va.

Miss Ella King with Fred Carr, of Castoria.

Miss Lucy Cox with J. E. Starkey.

Miss Lizzie Peeble with L. I. Moore.

Miss Jessie Harper, of Kinston, with H. W. Whedbee.

Miss Annie Sheppard with C. S. Forbes.

Then came the little flower girls, Misses Mattie Moye King and Maida Lillian Burch, accompanied by the pages, Masters Cecil Cobb and Charles Haskett. The bride followed down the right aisle leaning on the arm of her Maid of Honor, Miss Sallie Rountree, of Kinston, and the groom, on the arm of his best man and brother, Mr. R. M. Moye, down the left aisle. The bridesmaids halted at the front pew and separated to the right and left, the pages and flower girls, maid of honor and the bride passing through, took their positions on the pulpit under the arch. The groom and his best man on the opposite aisle passed through and took their positions. Rev. N. M. Watson then, in a solemn and impressive manner, pronounced them husband and wife. The party then left the church in reversed order.

The ushers were Messrs. J. L. Little, J. L. Starkey, C. M. Jones, S. T. White, Dr. R. L. Carr and Ed Flanagan.

The bridesmaids were dressed in white organdy, carrying pink carnations, the flower girls in white silk, with pink carnations. The Maid of Honor was dressed in nils green brocade satin with Marshal Neil roses. The bride was beautifully gowned in white brocade satin, en traine, richly ornamented with chiffon and pearl trimming, carrying bridal roses. The veil was caught back with a spray of lilies of the valley, held in place by a diamond pin.

From the church the bridal party was driven to the palatial residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Forbes, where a magnificent reception was held.

The decorations at the residence were beautiful. The guests were received in a most hospitable manner.

The bride is deservedly regarded as one of the most lovely and accomplished young ladies of this section. The groom is a prominent and promising young physician and the REFLECTOR extends hearty congratulations, wishing for them a long and happy life.

There were many valuable and beautiful presents.

A Brutal Murder.

James Washington, a colored jockey from Goldsboro, in the employ of Mr. G. D. Bennett, whose racers are famed, was shot dead on the fair grounds yesterday in front of the grand stand in plain sight of thousands of persons. The man who killed him was Charles Bobo, another colored jockey from Richmond, Va., and in the employ of Mr. Joseph Boss.

Bobo and Washington had an altercation in one of the stables near the grand stand. Washington called Bobo a foul name. Bobo threatened to shoot him. Washington fled from the stable with Bobo in pursuit, brandishing a revolver. He fired once, and the ball landed in Washington's throat. Crack! crack!—twice more, each ball taking effect, one in the head, and one cutting its way entirely through the body of the unfortunate negro. He sank dead upon the race track.

Officer Brinson promptly arrested Bobo, Mayor Ellis himself disarming him. He was lodged in the city jail.

Consternation reigned on the grand stand for a period, and there was talk of lynching Bobo. The dead man was put into a Tennessee cart and carried to Marrett Whitley's undertaking establishment. Today the body will be taken to Goldsboro for interment.

The murderer's head is shaped like a bullet, his face is brutal and forbidding. Lombroso would be delighted to study his physiognomy.—New Berne Chronicle.

The Cabinet Made Up.

The daily papers state that Mr. McKinley has completed the work of cabinet making, and the following is given as the result:

TAURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1897.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Condensed Report of Proceedings.

FORTY-SECOND DAY.

SENATE.

The senate met at 11 o'clock. Bills and resolutions were introduced as follows:

Newsen, to provide for working the public roads of Hertford county.

Alexander, to regulate examination of criminals; also for aid for deaf, dumb and blind.

Utley, to provide for additional equipment, repairs and support of the university and normal and industrial school. This carries an appropriation of $5,000 for the university and $12,500 for the normal and industrial school.

For working public roads of Chatham county.

To amend the charter of Southern Pines.

To incorporate the Bank of Enfield. Changing the name of the criminal court of Buncombe, Madison, Haywood and Henderson counties to "circuit court" and allowing the judge to practice law.

To provide for the election of cotton weighers in Raleigh by the county commissioners, so as to make some more places for four populist and republicans. The cotton exchange and many farmers protested.

To prevent the introduction and dissemination of dangerous insects, to encourage horticultural and to aid the horticultural department.

To amend the charter of Southport. The bill was taken up to allow procuring and distributing bodies of human beings for promotion of medical science.

The amendment by Abell was adopted that the bill shall not apply to persons who die in homes for the aged and infirm.

The bill to provide for additional equipment of the university was taken up.

Atwater opposed appropriating an additional sum and demanded a roll call, which was sustained and the bill passed.

The bill to provide for additional equipment, repairs and support of the normal and industrial school was next taken up. It gives this school $25,000 the same as the university receives.

The bill passed to incorporate colored grand lodge, Knights of Pythias of North Carolina.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The senate reassembled at 5 o'clock, Senator Rollins presiding. The bills to provide the manner in which foreign railroads may become incorporated in the state passed.

The bill to license foreign corporations and companies, by requiring all corporations and companies to have an agent in this state on whom all process of law can be received, and that no case shall be removed from the state courts, was re-referred to the committee.

HOUSE.

The house met at 10 o'clock. The following bills and resolutions were introduced:

Dixon, of Cleveland, to submit to the popular vote the question of a dispensary for that county.

Green, to establish a criminal circuit composed of Mitchell, Yancy, McDowell, Ashe, and Watauga counties.

A resolution by Lusk, that after March 1st no bills or resolutions be introduced.

Green, to submit to the popular vote at the next general election the question of state aid to higher education.

Hancock, to reduce the bonds of sheriffs to 50 per cent. of the assessed taxes.

Duffy to allow the commissioners to complete the Quaker Bridge road in Jones county.

Cook, to appropriate funds to rebuild the bridge over Little river in Wayne county.

Bills passed as follows:

To give Cross Creek township, Cumberland county, the fence law.

To charter the Snow Hill railway, with $100,000 capital.

To amend the charter of Elizabeth City (allowing registrars to sit two days instead of fifteen; providing that the commissioners can grant franchises and raising the tax rate from 50 to 60 cents.)

To legalize the bonds issued by Elizabeth City in 1895 and allowing a special tax levy.

Cornstalk Possibilities.

Mr. Prater, of St. Louis, who is connected with the cornstalk enterprise at Owensboro, Ky., and has given the product careful scientific study, was in New Orleans the other day and talking entertainingly to a Picayune reporter with regard to the possibilities of the cornstalk. It is his candid opinion that within a few years the farmers of the country will be receiving from $15 to $25 per acre for their cornstalks. Mills will be established in the South and other parts of the country, he says, and pretty nearly the whole crop of cornstalks—at any rate, that part of the crop which is grown on farms contiguous to railway lines—will be used in the mills. The market for the manufactured products is already made as the products will be staple articles in constant demand.

Of the products that may be evolved from the matured cornstalk—the stalk which has borne its grain—Mr. Prater enumerates cellulose, celluloid, smokeless gunpowder, lacquer, cattle feed, roofing material and a material that will answer every purpose of paper-mache. Green stalks, he says, are rich in glucose, and will yield "a better quality and a finer sugar with less expense than can be made from the cane of Louisiana."

When bilious or costive, eat a Cascaret, candy cathartic, cure guaranteed 10c, 25c.

Just try a 10c. box of Cascarets, the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

Skinner Promised Places.

In a speech today in the House, Mr. Schulken, chairman of the committee to investigate the charges of bribery and fraud in connection with the election of Senator Pritchard, expressed willingness to tell what his committee had so far discovered. After the House adjourned your correspondent asked him what this was, and he replied: "Senator Moore, of Pitt, was before the committee and testified that Congressman Skinner approached him and told him if he would withdraw opposition to Pritchard his uncle should get a place and his cousin another. Moore told us what these places were.—Raleigh Special to Charlotte Observer."

TWO SONNETS WRITTEN AT OXFORD.

MAGDALEN COLLEGE.
Fair are the finer creature sounds. Of these
Is Magdalen full—in briar bees that drop
Within her cloister garth from weeds atop.
And round the priestless pulpit auguries
Of wrens in council, from a hundred leas,
And laughter of the Chorwell fish that stop
The water crowfoot's way, and deer that crop
Delicious herbage under choral trees.

The cry for silver and gold in Christendom
Without threads not her silence and her dark.
Against the immemorial tower there break
But senile rumors of good men to come,
And, through despairing hours, harmonious make
A rhythmic progress in the ears that hark.

SUNSET IN PORT MEADOW.
The plain gives freedom. Hither from the town
How oft a dreamer and a book, of yore,
Escaped the punctual lamps and gauged no more Shout of the game from Cowley's border
brown,
But let October skies with spices down
His head by Plato's in the grass, before
You oar that's never old, the sunset oar,
Near Medley Lock was laid in music down!

Who loves the confines best and who the crowd
Ne'er idled thus, nor felt his lax desire Filled once with light, in space like this high driven,
Go happier than the only moving cloud
That lets her vesture fall, a floss of fire,
Abstracted on the ivory hills of heaven.

Help Inaugurate President McKinley

The inauguration of a President of these United States is a great national event. Every patriotic citizen takes just pride in the dignified impressiveness and at the same time Jacksonian simplicity, attending this function.

To enable those who desire to attend
the inauguration to do so the Seaboard Air Line offers the exceptionally low rate of one fare for the round trip (just half rate) from any point in the South to Washington and return. Tickets on sale March 1st, 2d and 3rd, good to return until March 8th. You can take one of the two daily all rail trains, "The Atlanta Special" or the "S. A. L. Express," or you can take the route via Portsmouth, Old Point Comfort and magnificent Chesapeake bay steamers to Washington. Be sure to get tickets via Seaboard Air Line. Write to B.
A. Newland, General Agent Passenger
Department, 6 Kimball House, Atlanta,
Ga., for particulars.

Baptists, See Here!

The Southern Baptist Convention
meets this year in Wilmington, N. C., May 8th. Now, you want to go to this convention, and you also want to go in style and comfort. There is only one good fast-track line from the South and Southwest to Wilmington, and that line is the Seaboard Air Line, which runs the finest and fastest trains in the South and makes the lowest rates of any railroad running from the South or Southwest. Don't be fooled into making your arrangements until you have consulted one of the Seaboard Air Line agents, who always esteem it a pleasure to serve you. B. A. Newland, General Agent Passenger Department, 6 Kimball House, Atlanta, Ga., will be glad to write you or call on you, or you can apply to any of the representatives of the Seaboard Air Line in any town or city. This is the official route. Do you want to go with your friends?

PERSONAL POINTS.

People You Know, or May Know.

Hugh Parham is in Raleigh.

Morris Meyer returned last night.

W. D. Carstarphen spent yesterday here.

We are glad to hear of the improved condition of Mrs. S. B. Wilson.

J. C. Adler, representing the Old Dominion Paper Co., of Norfolk, was here yesterday.

C. C. Cobb, of Norfolk, arrived last night to be present at the marriage of Dr. E. A. Moyer.

Miss Lula Moore, sister of L. I. Moore, spent last night here and went to New Berne this morning.

Owen Moore, agent and operator at Halifax, was here last night and went to New Berne this morning.

A new supply of Cannon Cloth just received. J. B. CHERRY & Co.

If any one would not take today for a bad one they would be hard to suit.

The Greenville Telephone Company have sixty-three phones in. There should be twice that number.

Just as We Predicted.

On yesterday we predicted that Bird-eye would show the fair people at New Berne what Pitt stock could do for them. In the 2:25 class there were eleven entries and Bird-eye won three heats, getting record money. Tyrolese, owned by Mayor Wm. Ellis, won first money.

Off for New Berne.

The excursion train arrived on time this morning and owing to the heavy rain that had been falling all the morning, the crowd was small. About thirty got aboard here and there were only about forty in all when the train pulled out. If the weather had been good there would have been a large crowd.

Preaching Sunday.

Rev. A. W. Setzer, from Wake Forest College, will preach in the Baptist church here next Sunday morning and night. He was here once last year, and all who heard him were delighted with his sermons. He is a young man of great promise as a preacher, and has several years yet before completing his preparation for his work.

He Was Elected.

An enamored young man, of the town of Callender, addressed a marriage proposal to the subject of his adoration, as follows:

"My Dear Miss —: I hereby announce myself as a candidate for your hand, and shall use all fair and honorable means to secure the nomination. I know that there are many candidates in the field, and I hesitated long before entering the race, but now I am in to stay.

My views on love and matrimony have often been expressed in your hearing, and I need not repeat them here. You know I favor free coinage of love—at 16 to 1 love—and a maintenance of free silver after marriage. If you decide to confer upon me the honor I seek, please fix the date for a caucus with your mother. I have no objection to her acting as temporary chairman of the permanent organization.

"Should the result of the caucus prove satisfactory, we can soon hold the primary and select the date of the convention. I have never believed in long campaigns, so, if you decide to honor me, I will ask you make the convention date as early as possible.

Devotedly Yours,

He received the following brief reply:

"Caucus unnecessary. Report on permanent organization satisfactory; nomination unanimous; come at once and fix date of ratification.

Yours,
