BOY TAKEN UP.

IN MANY RESPECTS ANSWERS
DESCRIPTION

Of a Boy Who Left His Home in Kentucky on January 9th.

The following is the description of a boy who left his home in Kentucky, on January 9th, and a reward of $50 is offered for any information that will lead to his recovery.

He is 15 years old and large for his age; about five feet seven inches tall; large blue gray eyes and brown hair; weighs 130 pounds; when he left home wore a suit of black clothes, black storm overcoat and black hat.

This is the description of H. Pryor McDanell, said to be the son of John W. McDanell, of Warsaw, Ky.

Yesterday afternoon a boy answering the description in many respects was picked up by Chief of Police J. A.
Woodall.

There were several things in the boy's appearance that suggested the possibility that he was the boy wanted in Kentucky. The same blue gray eyes, the same youthful appearance, identically five feet seven inches high by measure, and his general weight being about 125 or 130 pounds, was enough to be strikingly similar to the boy wanted.

Letters to Chief Woodall, of this city, and to Chief Hearty, of Raleigh, gave a description of the boy wanted in Kentucky. He was thought to be somewhere in this section.

The boy here gives his name as John McLawhorn, and says he is from Pitt county. If he does not live in that county, as he says, he has evidently been there or else has got his facts concerning people there down "pat." He says he knows the Sheriff of that county, and he also mentioned the names of a number of men there who are well known throughout the State.

Some people here who have conversed with the boy are under the impression that the boy is from Pitt county, as he says, and that he is not very bright, while some think that the boy is not telling all he knows, and that he has more sense than he would have people believe.

The boy says his valise containing his clothes, is in Roxboro, locked up in one of the tobacco warehouses.

Although the description tallies pretty well with the Kentucky boy, yet there is one thing that does not tally.
That is his hair. The hair of the McDanell boy is said to be brown. The hair of this one is light colored and very curly.

Chief Woodall telegraphed to John W. McDanell to know if the boy wanted had light curly hair. The message could not go all the way by telegraph.
A telephone line connects the town of Warsaw, Ky., with the outside world.
On account of the telephone wires being down it has been impossible to get an answer up to the time of this writing.

In the meantime the boy is at liberty to go where he pleases, as there is no authority to hold him unless it shall be proven conclusively beyond the shadow of a doubt that he is the boy wanted.

McLawhorn, as he calls himself, is a book agent, and has been going throughout this section, trying to sell books.
He says he can neither read nor write.
His parents are dead, he says, and he had to leave home because his guardian d'd not treat him right. He also says when he becomes 21 there will be fifty thousand dollars coming to him in his own right.

Whether he is the same boy as is wanted in Kentucky, we cannot say.
Under the circumstances, he should be given the benefit of the doubt.—Durham Sun.

[There is a boy name John McLawhorn whose home was in Pitt county, and from the description given of him above there is hardly a doubt that he is the Pitt county boy and made a correct statement as to where he is from. He used to be seen frequently on the streets of Greenville and was generally looked upon as not being very bright. He has a mother now living in this county. In his talk he was always addicted to considerable boasting about what he could or was going to do. This claim made in Durham that that he would fall heir to $50,000 upon reaching his majority is all a myth, and is about in keeping with his usual style of bragging.—RE-FLECTOR.]

Attractive Flowers.

The prettiest object in town at present is the Camelia Japonica in the yard of Mrs. V. H. Whichard. This tree, which has reached a great size for one of its kind, is now just covered with blooms. It is greatly admired by all who see it. The hyacinth bed in the same yard is also very beautiful.

Judge Robinson.

The session of Pitt Superior Court just closed makes two terms that Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson has held here, one criminal and one civil. He has impressed our people as being a very fair and impartial Judge, and one who does what he conceives to be his duty. He will also preside over the court to be held here in April.

"Glisters on the lip," the young man said, "come from the dye on the moustache red;" now, the maid replied, "if that be true, I'll never catch such a thing from you"

Rev. M. A. Adams will arrive tonight and preach in the Baptist church to-morrow morning and evening. He has the reputation of being a fine preacher, and all are cordially invited to hear him.

Are You One of Them?
An exchange says that a county superintendent in a neighboring county recently asked every teacher at the county institute who took their local paper to hold up their hands, and cut of about one hundred present only six responded, at which he expressed great surprise and said:
"You don't spend one dollar a year with these papers, yet you expect them to print, free of charge, notices of institutes, insert large programs, honor rolls and full reports of what you say and do on these occasions, and thus expect them to advertise you in your chosen profession, thus assisting you to climb the ladder to higher positions and better salaries without a cent's postage." He closed by saying: "Your condition in this manner would lead me, were I an editor of these papers, to promptly throw into the waste basket any communications sent in by any society, the members of which were too proud or too stingy to take a paper, or if I inserted it to demand full advertising rates for every line published."

The 36-year lease bill which the Lower House of the Legislature defeated Monday, was a good bill for the State and one acceptable at the same time to the Southern Railway. It was a mistake to defeat it. It was done with the hope of furnishing a platform with which the Republican party may carry the State in 1898. The Republican party cannot, however, win with the "repudiation of contracts" for a campaign slogan.—Charlotte Observer.

It was something of a relief for Carson City to feel for a whole day that the eyes of the nation were not fixed upon her.—Detroit Free Press.

Now that the inauguration has been ruled off successfully, the eyes of the country will be turned to the Corbett-Frazarons will.—Atlantic Journal.

NEURALGIA
BOUND HIM WITH BANDS OF PAIN

He is now Cured, and He Thanks God and P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, For It.

Mr. George Briggs, of Moore, Okla., suffered almost indescribable torment for three long years. Neuralgia held him captive. The right side of his face was so badly affected that the slightest touch would cause the unfortunate man intense agony. For several weeks he could open his mouth just wide enough to be fed with liquid nourishment, and in this manner life was sustained. Read the following extract from his letter: "Truth is stranger than Fiction."

NEURALGIA, CATARRH AND RHEUMATISM COMPLETELY CURED.

George Briggs, of Moore, Oklahoma, writes that P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him of catarrh, facial neuralgia and rheumatism, after three years of intense suffering. The pain lay in his cheek bone and temple, down the right side of his face, along his upper lip, and from the slightest touch he suffered agonies for weeks at a time. Could only open his mouth wide enough to admit a teaspoon, and any acid in his food would put him in torture. He had a consultation of the best physicians in Texas, but all to no purpose. Catarrh and rheumatism were also causing him much trouble, until he tried P. P. P. He says he is well and will swear that there are no cases of neuralgia, catarrh and rheumatism, no matter how chronic or how old the cases are, that P. P. P. will not make a total cure of.

Mr. Briggs winds up his testimony by saying he thanks God and our medicine, P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, for the great cure.

Kidney troubles, if neglected, bring about serious and painful and very often fatal results. P. P. P. removes the irregularities, and cures the diseased parts.

Dyspepsia and indigestion, skin and blood diseases, can be speedily removed by P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy. Ladies, take P. P. P. and rid your face of pimples, blotches, freckles, yellow or muddy skin, wrinkles and vulgar redness.
