BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., March 27th, '97.
W. F. Harding, of Greenville, spent Tuesday here on legal business.

J. R. Bell, of Mount Olive spent Thursday here. His many friends were glad to see him.

W. B. Wilson, of Greenville, spent today here.

Rev. D. B. Rickard returned Friday evening, after being absent two weeks attending other churches.

M. O. Blount returned from New York Friday evening.

J. L. White, the clever and accommodating telegraph operator, returned last week after being absent a few weeks.

James R. Carson has taken a position as clerk with F. S. Gardner.

Dr. J. D. Bullock has moved his stock of groceries from railroad street, in the store of J. R. Carson on main street.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's father, W. R. Ford, in Bethel township, on Wednesday, March 24th, at 2:30 o'clock, P. M., Miss Mollie Ford was married to Mr. W. R. Baker, of Pactorlus township, D. C. Moore, Esq., officiating. The attendants were J. R. Baker with Miss Maggie Ford, J. J. Ford with Miss Lucy Baker. Immediately after the marriage the bridal party left for the home of the groom. May joy and prosperity attend them through life.

He Charmed Our People.

Rev. John E. White, Corresponding Secretary of the Baptist State Convention, preached two excellent sermons in the Baptist church Sunday, and Greenville people, regardless of denomination, were charmed with him. He is an eloquent speaker and his sermons of such a character as to draw the closest attention all through. His morning discourse was of a missionary nature—the subject being "The Open Door"—and he showed Christians the many opportunities presented and the privilege they have for working to spread the Gospel of Christ. At the close of this sermon he asked for a collection for the cause of missions and something over $66 was contributed.

The sermon at night was about the love of Christ, showing that to be a perfect Savior He left Heaven and came to earth and touched every phase of humanity. He felt our poverty, endured our weakness, suffered our temptations, participated in our sorrows, "Touched the Bier" for all that He might be the Savior of all. It was a grand sermon. At this service the Methodist church was closed and that congregation worshipped with their Baptist brethren.

Mr. White was well pleased with his visit here and expressed himself as delighted with Greenville and her people.

The next session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly will be held at Morehead June 10th to 20th.

Superior Court.

The spring term of Pitt Superior Court convened this morning with Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson on the bench.

The Grand Jury is composed of T. H. Langley, Foreman, R. M. Starkey, Thos. Little, J. T. Lewis, Mack Dickins, W. H. Harrington, Joshua Tripp, L. B. Stokes, W. J. Whitehurst, W. H. Moore, James G. Wilson, W. B. Smith, David Norris, Ben Bell, J. H. H. Moore, M. C. Cotten, J. B. Lewis, G. R. Dixon.

The Petit Jury for the first week is composed of Aug. Phillips, R. S. Evans, T. L. Turnage, Ben Craft, Jas. Staten, S. T. Carson, N. S. Pollard, T. R. Bullock, Lemon Johnson, F. M. Hodges, J. I. Norville, Levy Pearce, E. T. Roberson, John H. Whitehurst, Jr., J. B. Briley, Robert Bowlin, D. C. Mooring.

W. S. Briley is officer of the Grand Jury and S. M. Daniel Court Crier.

In his charge to the Grand Jury the Judge paid his respects to the recent pugilistic mill at Carson, Nev. He said that there was talk of wiping Nevada from Statehood for permitting such a disgraceful fight in her borders, and he "wished to God it would be done." He congratulated North Carolina that no such spectacle could be witnessed in this State. Judge Robinson's charges have much of the moral lecture order in them and are good.

Coloring Easter Eggs.

Easter eggs can be colored with aniline dye. It should be diluted to the proper shade and the eggs boiled in it. Green, the color of hope and resurrection, is particularly appropriate, but a variety is pleasing red, pink, blue, pale yellow and purple. Eggs can be boiled hard, and painted in water-colors with a single spring flower, as a primrose, or a butterfly, also a symbol of the resurrection. They should be arranged in nests of moss. German children believe that the Easter eggs are laid by hares, so representations of this little animal are often placed on them, or near them. Painted butterflies mount on wire can be made to hover over the nest.—April Ladies' Home Journal.

Sign of Springtime.

Behold the organ-grinder,
Downcast and poorly clad;
His music's a reminder
Of all that's lone and sad;
Of Thomas Cat's sad wailing—
Maria by his side—
Down by the garden pailing,
In the darkness deep and wide.

Mrs. J. S. Tunstall & Co., will have their spring opening on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The very newest and prettiest styles in Millinery will be on exhibition. All the ladies cordially invited.

Charles Bobo, the colored man who shot James Washington, another colored man, in New Berne, during the late Fair, was found guilty of murder in the first degree on Friday, and was sentenced to be hanged May 14th.

YOU WILL FIND
That our CLOTHING cost the least, lasts the longest and has the most style. As the now famous Yellow Kid says when he is giving extremely highly praise, "They are up to the limit of perfection." What we say is exactly what we mean. There is neither honor nor profit in fooling the people. We don't want to sell a Coat, a pair of Pants, or a Vest just for the sake of pocketing the profit on it; we want our customers to go around saying good things of us.

SPRING DRESS GOODS, Trimmings, Clothing, Shoes, Hats. &c.

Price alone is no criterion of cheapness, trash is dear at any price. You may count on saving considerable money if you come here for your spring needs. The great volume of our business gives a scope and unprecedented verge for the very best service to the retail trade of Greenville. The rich completeness of our matchless Spring Merchandise is best understood by the most careful critics. Scores of Novelties and Economies are ready.

Is Your Wife Like This.

The other day a thin, tired-looking man entered a printing office, and, approaching the proprietor, said:

"I want to have a list printed. Suppose you write it down as I tell you."

The proprietor made ready, and the man said:

"Yes, I'm sure I locked the front door. Have you got that?"

"Yes; but I don't understand." "Never mind. Don't interrupt me till I have finished. Are you ready? All right then. I turned out the gas in the bath room."

"Well?" "The kitchen windows are fastened."

"Yes."

"The dog is in the cellar. The servants are all in. The stable door is locked. The cat is out of doors. I turned off the draughts of the range. No, I do not smell smoke. I do not think I hear any one trying to get into the house. No, that is not our dog barking; it's the one next door. It's not necessary to go down and see if the cellar door is fastened; I know it is. That is nobody—it is only the wind rattling the shutters."

"Is there anything more?"

"Well, I think that's about all. You see, my wife asks me certain questions every night, just as I am getting into bed, and if I had a printed list I could show it to her; it would save lots of trouble. Besides that, it injures my lungs to answer them. Have the list printed as soon as possible please."

A Bogus Check.

A certain Western paper offered $3,000 to the three persons who came nearest guessing the electoral vote. An operative in one of the mills at Mt. Holly saw the offer and sent on his figures. Several days ago he received a letter from a man who signed himself S. Midlyham. He said to the Mt. Holly man: "You are one of the lucky numbers, so I herewith enclose you a check for a thousand dollars, which you can get cashed at any of the Charlotte (N. C.) banks."

The check was made out on one of the Charlotte Commercial National Bank's printed checks, the same as in the regular check book. It was a copy of a check. It was presented Tuesday, with the letter from the man Midlyham, at the Commercial Bank. Cashier Brenizer examined it and at once pronounced it bogus. The Mt. Holly man is a thousand dollars worse off than he was before he got the check, for then he was before he got the check, for then he didn't have a thousand dollars to lose. At any rate this ought to teach him and others a lasting lesson about receiving something for nothing.

Trying to Save the Boys.

Chicago has tackled the cigarette evil and is trying to save the schoolboy. There were 5,000 places in that city where cigarettes were sold, but since the new anti-cigarette law has gone into effect, these places have been reduced to 100. The new law is very stringent, providing a heavy license tax and heavy penalties, and one of the provisions forbids the sale of cigarettes within 200 yards of a church. It is now difficult for a youth to buy a cigarette in that town. Chicago is leading the way in a good work.—Charlotte Observer.

'Twas Ever Thus.

A few days since an insurance agent accepted an invitation to inspect a new and beautiful house built by a friend. After taking a peep at the whole establishment from top to bottom, inquired—

"House insured?"
"Yes."
"What do you insure it for?"
"Because it MIGHT burn."
"Not SURE of it, are you?"
"No."
"Is your life insured?"
"No."
"Don't you?"
"Yes."
"Sure?"
"Yes."
"Then why not insure your life as well as your house?"
"Well, really, I never thought of the matter just in that light before, and will give it early attention."—Travelers Record.
