The Bank of Pitt County.

A meeting, attended by a large number of prominent and representative business men of Greenville and Pitt county, was held in the office of The Greenville Bank, Tuesday, April 20th, at 11 o'clock, and under a charter granted by the Legislature of 1897 The Bank of Pitt County was organized with the following stockholders:

R. R. Fleming, (f Pactolus, A. G. Cox, of Winterville, G. J. Cherry, of Parmele, Higgs Bros., of Greenville, J. H. Cobb, of Ayden, Dr B. T. Cox, of Redalia, Jesse Cannon, of Ayden, Dr W. H. Bagwell, of Greenville, Abram Cox, of Redalia, M. Owens, of Greenville, C. Cobb, of Greenville, W. H. Harrington, of Greenville, D. W. Hardee, of Greenville, E. Lang, of Gritton, Ricks & Taft, of Greenville, The Scotland Neck Bank, of Scotland Neck, Noah Biggs, of Scotland Neck, W. T. Dixon, of Baltimore.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Pitt County, the following directors were elected:

R. R. Fleming, Jesse Cannon, A. G. Cox, J. W. Higgs, J. H. Cobb, G. J. Cherry, Dr. W. H. Bagwell, Dr. B. T. Cox and Mathias Owens.

Immediately after the adjournment of the stockholders meeting, a meeting of the directors was held and the following officers were elected:

R. R. Fleming, President.
A. G. Cox, 1st Vice President.
G. J. Cherry, 2nd Vice President.
E. B. Higgs, Cashier.
H. Harding, Assistant Cashier.

The Bank of Pitt County will begin operation and be open to the accommodation and patronage of the public on the 1st day of June 1897, at which time The Greenville Bank will close its business, assigning all of its good will and interest to The Bank of Pitt County.

Murder in Nash County.

Near Battleboro on Sunday two colored boys, named Charles Whitaker and Joseph Neal, had a fuss. Whitaker got a gun and shot Neal through the neck, killing him almost instantly. Whitaker dragged the body off to a marsh and hid it, then went back to where he had committed the deed and washed up the blood. When Neal was missed his people began a search and found the body Monday in the marsh where Whitaker had hid it.

The Odd Fellows Anniversary.

Covenant Lodge, No. 17, I. O. O. F., of this place, will celebrate the 78th anniversary of the order next Tuesday night, April 26th, at their lodge room. E. A. Moye and W. H. Ragsdale will deliver addresses. There will be appropriate music for the occasion, and plenty of refreshments. All visiting Odd Fellows are fraternally invited to be present. The Masons have been extended an invitation also. The ministers and the press are cordially invited to participate with them.

The race between Mary Lee, owned by Smith & Hooker, and Robert Burns, owned by Dr. S. T. Nicholson, of Washington, took place this afternoon at the track near town. The race had not been completed when the REFLECTOR went to press.

Roll of Honor.

For the month ending April 16, 1897, school taught by Mrs. Minnie Manning in district No. 11.

Boys: Claud Norris, Willie Vaniford, James Vaniford, Joe Harris.

Girls: Emily Harris, Carlie Phillips, Keturah Phillips, Eula Norris, Lula Smith, Mollie Smith, Letha Harris, Pennie Lilly.

Base Ball.

The National League commenced the season on the 19th with a game between Boston and Philadelphia at Boston, in which the latter won in a score of 6 to 5.

The first game of the Southern League season at Columbus Ga., on the 19th, between Chattanooga and Columbus, resulted in a score of 5 to 4, in favor of Columbus.

The King's Daughters and Sons.

The state convention of the North Carolina branch of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons will be held in Tarboro, N. C., May 25th to 27th, 1897. All who wish to attend will please send an early notice of the same to the secretary. Mrs. Davis will attend the convention. State papers requested to copy this notice.

MISS HATTIE HOWARD, Sec.
Tarboro, N. C.

Henry Blount Coming.

Henry Blount will deliver his famous lecture "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy" in the Court House here Friday night, under the auspices of the King's Daughters.

The Ft. Smith Daily Record says: "His mimicry of dutch and negro characters was great, and his lecture, 'Beyond the Alps Lies Italy,' in which he draws a high moral lesson for the young as well as old, was one of the finest pieces of word painting in the English language."

A Lively Fight.

At Hines Bros. Lumber Co's mills last Sunday afternoon, Harry Watson, Whit Gray and Henry Fleming, all negroes got into a row. Whit Gray struck at Fleming with a pot of peas, when Fleming made a swipe at Gray with a razor, slicing his coat and shirt from shoulder to elbow. Watson and Gray then made lunges at Fleming with a piece of gas pipe and a stick. Fleming ran from the shanty to the boiler house and there he stopped, but was attacked again, and he again moved as far as the rip saw, but Watson and Gray followed and struck him four licks with sticks on the arm before he could get in an effective blow over Watson's head with a gas pipe. Watson being laid out with a cracked skull, Gray retired from the field of battle.

There was a preliminary hearing before Mayor Temple Monday morning when Fleming and Gray were bound over to court in $100 bond, which they gave.—Kinston Free Press.

Watson came over to Greenville Tuesday.

War between Turkey and Greece is now on in earnest and it is believed that a number of the foreign powers will be involved in it.

Your best judgment requires you to make an immediate provisions for your family.
By insuring today, your estate is increased in value at once.

'T WAS EVER THUS.
A few days since an insurance agent accepted an invitation to inspect a new and beautiful house built by a friend. After taking a peep at the whole establishment from top to bottom, inquired—
"House insured?"
"Yes."
"What do you insure it for?"
"Because it MIGHT burn."
"Not SURE of it, are you?"
"Is your life insured?"
"No."
"Die, won't you?"
"Yes."
"Sure?"
"Yes."
"Then why not insure your life as well as your house?"
"Well, really, I never thought of the matter just in that light before, and will give it early attention."—Travelers Record.

Prayer for the President.
At a prayer meeting of the Maine Methodist Episcopal Conference today, Rev. Dr. A. S. Ladd, of the East Maine Conference, offered a special prayer for the conversion of President McKinley to the Methodist belief. "Make him," prayed the doctor, "a good Methodist, an enemy to all compromise and a leader for the right. Hasten the time, we pray, when this country will be as free of rum as it is of slaves."
Hundreds of the congregation shouted "amen" and "praise God, and then he Conference engaged in silent prayer that President McKinley might become a good Methodist.
Dr. Ladd was the prohibition candidate for Governor last year.—Portland, Me., Dispatch.

ny. "We are surveying, and here are our government papers."
"Paper here or paper there," returned the farmer, "oot ye gang oot o' my field."
"No, we shan't," returned the man, "and you are rendering yourself liable to prosecution for interrupting us."
The farmer said no more, but went over to his shed, which opened into the field, and let out a vicious bull. The bull no sooner saw the redcoats than he went for them in full career. The surveyors snatched up their theodolite and flew for their lives, while the old farmer, in great glee, yelled after them:
"What are ye running for? Can ye no show the bull yer government papers?"—Harper's Round Table

English Wild Cattle.
The British islands have a race of wild cattle. Three herds are known to exist—one in the chase of Chillingham castle, the property of the Earl of Tankerville, in Northumberland; one in that of the Duke of Hamilton, at Hamilton castle, in Scotland, and one at Dremnanrig, in Dumfriesshire.

Beggars' ticks is the common name of Bidens chrysanthemoides. It is so called from the small hooks with which the seed case is provided, by which it attaches itself to almost any substance with which it comes in contact.

The wasp, like the bee and almost every other insect, is infested with parasites. Wasps have been captured which had two or three dozen parasites clinging to their bodies.

Baptists, See Here!
The Southern Baptist Convention meets this year in Wilmington, N. C., May 8th. Now, you want to go to this convention, and you also want to go in style and comfort. There is only one good firstclass line from the South and Southwest to Wilmington, and that line is the Seaboard Air Line, which runs the finest and fastest trains in the South and makes the lowest rates of any railroad running from the South or Southwest. Don't be fooled into making your arrangements until you have consulted one of the Seaboard Air Line agents, who always esteem it a pleasure to serve you. B. A. Newland, General Agent Passenger Department, 6 Kimball house, Atlanta, Ga., will be glad to write you or call on you, or you can apply to any of the representatives of the Seaboard Air Line in any town or city. This is the official route. Do you want to go with your friends?
