TO MY FRIEND MISS MOLLIE BAGLEY.

BY ECHO.

Dear Miss Mollie, always busy
With her puddings, pies and cakes;
Surely none but fairy fingers
Makes the nice things, Mollie makes.

Is a friend or neighbor suffering?
There will Mollie surely go
With some tempting fruit or dainty,
Through the sunshine rain or snow.

Often has your voice cheered me
In my lonely curtained room,
Coming like a gleam of sunlight
Cheating me of half my gloom.

Oh! you dear kind "Cinderella,"
You must wear glass slippers yet;
You must be some prince's darling,
You must be some prince's pet.

Then that happy blissful vision,
Then that needed time of rest,
Not a care, nor household trouble—
Fragrant roses on your breast.

But, the web of life in weaving,
Often times, it gets away;
Threads are tangled, threads are broken,
We can't tell the reason, why.

Though no marks be on the scabbard,
Lightning finds the hidden steel,
So the heart is daily hiding
Anguish, time can never heal.

We must bear each others burdens,
We must give back sigh for sigh,
You have well fulfilled your mission—
Can I say the same?—not I.

I shall soon be sleeping, Mollie,
Underneath the daisies feet.
I am tired—I am weary—
To the weary, rest is sweet.

Years ago I planted Cowslips,
They are growing near my home,
You will find the spot I'm sure, dear,
Though unmarked by marble dome.

The Weldon News has entered on its 32nd volume. The News is one of our best exchanges and is a splendid weekly. We wish Brother Sledge abundant success.

The REFLECTOR is indebted to Misses Aylmer Sugg and Bessie Harding for an invitation to the fifth annual commencement exercises of the State Normal and Industrial College, Greensboro,
May 18th and 19th.

"You can't allus tell whah ter put de credit by lookin' at de surface," said Uncle Eben. "De cork on de fishin' line dances aroun' an' 'tracks a heap o'
'tention, but it's de hook an' de sinker dat's doing de business."

Base Ball.

Philadelphia, April 28—Boston de-fated Philadelphia in the most interesting game of the series. This is Boston's first victory and Philadelphia's first defeat. Fildfield pitched his first game and showed up in league form.
His fielding errors, however, were costly. Score. Philadelphia, 5; Boston 6.

Cincinnati, April 28—The Reds made it three straights today by shutting out Tebeau's Indians. The visitors could do nothing with Damman, the young left hand pitcher of the Reds, who held them down to six hits. Score.
Cincinnati, 7; Cleveland, 3.

Louisville, April 28—The Pirates stopped the Colonels' winning streak today. Hill pitched a better game than Hawley, but two misplays by the home team were fatal. Score. Louisville, 1; Pittsburg, 2.

Baltimore, April 28—The Champions
today won the odd game of this series from Brooklyn. Both sides batted well, but the excellent base running of the home team piled up their score they having no less than fifteen stolen bases to their credit. Score. Baltimore, 13; Brooklyn, 6.

New York, April 28—Young Cy.
Seymour was the hero of the game this afternoon between the New Yorks and the Washingtons. The diminutive left hander had the visitor puzzled and it was not until the fifth inning that they managed to get a hit. Score: New York, 11; Washington, 3.

St. Louis, April 28—Both clubs played poorly today. The Browns had no trouble in stealing bases on "Pop" Anson and his passed balls nearly lost the Colts the game, which was called at the end of the eighth inning on account of rain. Score. St. Louis, 5; Chicago, 6.

FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1897.

A flood in Oklahoma has done great damage and drowned many people. In the city of Guthrie $1,000,000 worth of property was destroyed.

Seven coal cars were wrecked Wednesday on the Western North Carolina railroad near Old Fort. Four tramps were stealing a ride and one of them was killed.

The ceremonies attendant upon the removal of the remains of Gen. Grant and the unveiling of his monument were attended by the largest number of people ever assembled upon a like occasion in this country.

The long contest in the Kentucky legislature has at last ended by electing William J. Deboe United States Senator on the sixty-eighth ballot. The last ballot stood as follows: Deboe 71, Blackburn 50, Martin 13, Stone 1.

Frank Lion, one of the five men under arrest charged with having originated the fire that swept the city of Portsmouth the night of the 28th of March, has made a confession to the attorneys in the case. He stated that the right men were in custody.

At a tenement house fire in Brooklyn, N. Y., Wednesday, a woman threw her two children from the fourth story window into a blanket held by men on the street below. Both children rebounded and were killed by falling on the pavement. Two other persons also perished in the fire.

If a man will not work, neither should he eat, and if a man cannot read neither should he vote. A man with no intelligence of letters is certainly not fit to have a voice in the government.—Reading Herald.

Ignorance is deplorable in any view of the subject, but illiteracy should not be a bar to citizenship.—Raleigh Tribune, Rep.

The Tribune can very well afford to take issue with such a sentiment as is expressed by the Herald, since the great voting strength of the party to which it belongs is made up of the illiterate class.

The war between Turkey and Greece is practically ended and Greece is defeated. Every Christian nation regrets that this is so, and would much rather see the victory reversed. It was a multitude against a few, the Turks outnumbering the Greeks ten to one. The latter showed much valor and patriotism to even undertake a war against such odds. We believe the stronger powers will some day be called to repentance for standing off and allowing the horrible butcheries that have prevailed in Cuba and Greece to go on when they could have interfered and stopped such inhuman cruelty.

Since writing the above we see that France has notified the Turkish ambassador to advise the Sultan of Turkey to hold out the olive branch to Greece, adding that if the Turkish troops went further France would be compelled to come forward as the defender of the Christian cause.

Political Status of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The election of Deboe in Kentucky does not change the political complexion of the senate, but on some party questions might give the republicans a majority if Senator Kyle, of South Dakota, voted with them, together with the vote of the vice president. The election of Deboe makes the total membership of the senate eighty-eight, composed of forty-three republicans, thirty-three democrats and twelve populist and silver republicans. With Kyle the republicans would have forty-four, a tie, and with the vice president a majority of one. It is believed, however, that in case a party vote was imminent or probable that an election would occur in Florida, leaving the senate standing as before Deboe's election. Besides, a party vote would mean a long debate giving the Florida democrats time to get together.

The republican senatorial committee on committees was in session today and was informed of the Kentucky election. This committee will reserve places for the new republican senators. It is expected that their committee will complete its work tomorrow and prepare a report to be submitted to the republican caucus as soon as called. Most of the places have been arranged and await the attendance of other members of the committee before they are definitely agreed upon.

Bicycle Proverbs.

A soft answer turneth away wrath, but a soft tire filleth a man with evil thoughts.

It is a wise cyclometer that shows its master an extraordinary day's run.

As the spoke is bent, so shall the path of the bicycle deviate from the straight and narrow way.

A drop of oil in time may save many gallons of perspiration.

The bicycle hath wisdom which submiteth to the charge that it is at fault and not its master, for running no two days alike during the week.

It cannot be said of a bicycle rider that he begins the way he should go.

A bicycle can do almost anything save climb a tree.

The rider who pursueth his way with his head bowed runneth to his own destruction.

It is not meet that bicycles should greet each other with clasping of hands. Rather let them pay a formal distant greeting one to the other.

The oil cup that goes too long uncovered will become possessed of as much grit as the rider of the bicycle thereof.

As the handle bar is bent, so shall the spinal column of the rider be inclined.

It shall be said of all bicycles that their way is the way of the crank.

The man who looketh behind him in a crowded path would better be a pillar of salt.—New York Journal.

From the Newport News Fire.

Newport News, April 28.—There is no doubt that Elijah Manierson and William Paxton, two colored firemen on the tugboat Wanderer, which was consumed in yesterday's conflagration, were lost, as they have not been seen since. They jumped overboard when the tug was burning.

The crew of the German ship J. D. Bischoff, which was also destroyed, report that one of their number is missing. When last seen he was in the water and it is believed he was drowned. Boatswain Steerman, whose heroic efforts saved the life of the captain of the same vessel, cannot recover from his injuries. He is burned internally.

Carpet-Baggers Getting All the Pie

Southern republicans are complaining that all the important appointments thus far given to the South have been tendered to "carpet-baggers," and not one to a native-born. Buck, of Georgia; Gary, of Maryland; Clayton, of Arkansas; Evans, of Tennessee, and every other Southerner who has received an office thus far, except postoffices and other local positions, were born in the North. The matter has been brought to the attention of President McKinley. The native republicans say that President McKinley has pretended to be interested in building up the party in the South, yet in his distribution of patronage he recognized only the old office-holding "carpet bag" element, to the exclusion of young men, who are natives of the soil, and who have been trying to improve the condition of the South and the republican party in that section.—Washington Dispatch to Chicago Record.

Williams Acquitted.

Savannah, Ga., April 28.—Warren H. Williams, accused of murdering Chas. W. Wilson at Waycross for an insult offered Mrs. Williams, was found not guilty at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The jury was out 90 minutes. Williams, who is proprietor of a hotel at Waycross, was cheered by the crowd in the court room when the verdict was announced.

We may lose all our worldly possession; sickness may rive us with pain; misapplied justice may overwhelm us with an undeserved punishment. But naught can despoil us of our innate manhood; that will live and receive its reward when our mortal form is returned to its original component.—Durham Sun.

Baptists, See Here!

The Southern Baptist Convention meets this year in Wilmington, N. C., May 8th. Now, you want to go to this convention, and you also want to go in style and comfort. There is only one good firstclass line from the South and Southwest to Wilmington, and that line is the Seaboard Air Line, which runs the finest and fastest trains in the South and makes the lowest rates of any railroad running from the South or Southwest. Don't be fooled into making your arrangements until you have consulted one of the Seaboard Air Line agents, who always esteem it a pleasure to serve you. B. A. Newland, General Agent Passenger Department, 6 Kimball house, Atlanta, Ga., will be glad to write you or call on you, or you can apply to any of the representatives of the Seaboard Air Line in any town or city. This is the official route. Do you want to go with your friends?

TWAS EVER THUS.

A few days since an insurance agent accepted an invitation to inspect a new and beautiful house built by a friend. After taking a peep at the whole establishment from top to bottom, inquired—

"House insured?"
"Yes."
"What do you insure it for?"
"Because it MIGHT burn."
"Not SURE of it, are you?"
"No."
"Is your life insured?"
"No."
"Di, won't you?"
"Yes."
"Sure?"
"Yes."
"Then why not insure your life as well as your house?"
"Well, really, I never thought of the matter just in that light before, and will give it early attention."—Travelers Record.

OBITUARY

Death entered the home of Mr. T. E. Little on the 3d of Dec. 1896, and took from him his beloved wife, Mollie. She was fifty-six years old. She was sick about two and one half months with heart disease and a few days before she died had a severe attack of Apoplexy. In the latter part of her sickness she suffered greatly. No human tongue can express the pain she felt, but we believe she is now resting and sleeping in the arms of Jesus. She united with the church at Piney Grove when young and was a faithful member until death. She was very prompt in attending her meetings when health would permit and was ever trying to live a christian life and persuading others to do the same, especially her children. I have heard her plead and talk to them telling them of the besetting sins and the danger of disobeying God, and the promises he has given us.

She was a dear aunt of mine, and I'll never forget the good advice she has given me. I loved her next to my own mother and its very sad to think we'll never hear her voice, never see her smile again, but then 'tis not so sad as if we had no hope, for if we trust in the Lord and keep His commandments we have a hope of meeting her where sorrow and suffering is o'er.

She leaves a husband, five children, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss, but weep not dear ones as those who have no hope, "For blessed are they that die in the Lord."

In the cold and silent grave
They have lain her down to rest,
With the young and old and brave,
She is numbered with the blest.

'Tis sad to give thee up in death,
But not our will be done,
Cold is thy form and still thy breath,
And a victory thou hast won.

'Tis sad to part with one we love,
And it almost breaks our hearts,
But we hope to meet in that world above.

Where we'll never, never part.
Weep not, weep not dear husband,
For God has called me home,
And He'll be calling you some day,
To meet me round his dazzling throne.

Weep not dear children for me,
My sufferings now are o'er,
Be good and you'll be blessed, indeed,
To meet me on the other shore.

FANNIE.
