THAT

TAILORS CAN GIVE THEM

They don't cost too much. They are ready to put on without a wrinkle. You have seen the browns, olives, green mixtures, plaids--the swell colorings of the of the season--we've got them here plenty as pie at a fair. We show the best.

C. T. MUNFORD.

Base Ball.

Pittsburg, May 25--In the eighth inning when the bases were full and two men out, Stenzel rapped out a two bagger, scoring two runs. Then three singles followed, bringing in three more tallies and winning the game for the champions. Score. Pittsburg, 2; Baltimore, 6.

Cincinnati, May 25--The grooms made it three straights today, defeating the Reds easily in an uninteresting game. Payne went in the box for the visitors, but was relieved by Fisher after the first inning, one hit being made off the latter in eight innings. Score. Cincinnati, 2; Brooklyn, 6.

Louisville, May 25--The Hubites had everything their own way from the start today, as the Colonels could neither bat nor field. Score. Louisville, 1; Boston, 7.

Chicago, May 25--The Colts were outplayed at all points today and gave their first shut out of the season, only one of them reaching second. Weather cold. Score. Chicago, 0; New York, 8.

Cleveland, May 25--The Indians again defeated the Phillies in a hot finish. Cuppy held the visitors down well until the eighth inning when bad errors by McKean and Childs were responsible for six runs, Cuppy being hit hard after the side should have been retired. McDermott pitched for Cleveland in the ninth and retired the Phillies in order. In the last half Carsey went up in the air, giving three bases on balls, and Orth, who replaced him, forced in a run with another. O'Connor batted for McDermott and his double scored two runs while Zimmer made the winning run on Geir's wild throw to the plate. Score. Cleveland, 10; Philadelphia, 9.

St. Louis, May 25--The Browns played well today and defeated Washington, Donahue, while hit often, was almost invincible when hits meant runs. Wrigley's playing was a feature. Score. St. Louis, 8; Washington, 6.

Union Meeting.

The Roanoke Union, programme of which is published in another column, meets in the Baptist church here tomorrow morning and continues through Sunday. Several ministers and delegates from other towns will be in attendance. As will be seen from the programme subjects of importance will be discussed. Our people are cordially invited to attend the sessions of the Union.

Just received a beautiful line of Shirt Waist Sets and Belt Holders.

MRS. GEORGIA JAMES.

The Veterans Meet.

A called meeting of Bryan Grimes Camp of Pitt county Confederate Veterans was held at college grounds, May 26, 1897, Commander E. A. Moye, presiding. After roll call the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

That the time for our annual meeting be on the last Thursday in July of each year; and that the college grounds be the place of meeting until further notice.

On motion a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the King's Weekly, DAILY REFLECTOR and Greenville Enterprise for their kindness in gratuitously publishing call for this meeting.

No other business appearing the crowd was entertained by Pig Forbes and John Parker, of Company H. 7th, Calvary, who told of their many hardships and escapes from the Yankee Cavalry, and in the very midst of their hilarity, that noble old soldier and chief of the dinner committee, Ruel Willoughby, called the old vets to dinner which was very much enjoyed by all. After dinner they adjourned to meet again at the college grounds, July 29, 1897.

E. A. MOYE, Commander.
B. F. SUGG, Secretary.

The Meeting.

There was a large crowd at the afternoon meeting in the Baptist church Wednesday. Mr. Elsom talked from the text "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life."

Last night the church was full again. The subject of the sermon was "As you sow so shall you reap," and was one of the best he has delivered here. Mr. Elsom proved the declaration of his text first by the Bible, second by nature, and third by human experience. Under each division he gave a number of examples proving that just as a man sows he is sure to reap. He also said that there were two kinds of reaping--one to the flesh, the other to the spirit. The sermon dealt in strong facts and argument to impress the truth of his subject and to warn his hearers against sowing sin and worldliness.

The cottage prayer meeting this morning, which was the last of the series, was one of much warmth and interest. These daily meetings in some home have been a blessing to those who attended them.

This afternoon the business houses close so that everybody can attend the 4 o'clock service. Tonight the meeting will close with a sermon on "The Judgment." All persons who have professed during the meeting are requested to be present tonight as Mr. Elsom desires to make a short talk to them also.

No, Maude, dear, an axle tree does not bear fruit, although it sometimes has nuts on it.--REFLECTOR.

DEAR MISS MAUDE--The REFLECTOR man is foolin' you to death when he tells you the above. The axle-tree bears almost all the fruit we get in all our big markets.

Yours sincerely,

LINDEN.

Although our business this spring has been much larger than any previous we still have a full assortment of sizes and styles in Men's Boys and Children's CLOTHING. We make a specialty of fitting Stout and Long men. Our Furnishing Department, consisting all kinds of Shirts, White and Colored, Soft and Stiff Bosoms, attached and detached collars and cuffs, undershirts and drawers, Neckwear, &c., beats anything ever offered to the Greenville public.

THE BUSINESS FARMER.

The business farmer is today the one who succeeds where a dozen others make a bare living. The business farmer knows what his resources are, and how far these are offset by his liabilities. The business farmer knows almost to a dollar how much his corn crop or his cotton crop is costing him when ready for market. He knows whether this and that cow in his dairy is a source of profit through a liberal flow of milk testing well in butter fat, compared with the cost of producing the product, or is "eating her head off" in expense of labor and feed. He keeps posted regarding market conditions; not only for the moment, and in his local town but in the broad sense of the world's probable supplies and requirements. In a word, the management of the farm is conducted as thoroughly and as intelligently as is the business of the banker, the merchant or the manufacturer. Compare this position with the ridiculous advice given by an esteemed subscriber who writes us that, in his opinion, to successfully raise and market a crop the farmer should "first study carefully a commission merchant's price list of the previous year, selecting those products which then commanded the highest price and then act accordingly." It is the up to date farmer who finds a profit on his ledger at the end of the year; not the one who looks backward rather than forward.—Farm and Home.

Important Decision as to Costs.

In the late case of Guilford vs. Beaufort, the Supreme Court has decided:

1. That the county is not liable to clerk and other officers for half fees in any case in which the grand jury returns "not a true bill."
2. That the clerk is not entitled to charge for "appeal from justice" in a case where the justice binds over, not having final jurisdiction.
3. The county is not liable for any costs in any case, no matter how it results, which is tried in the Superior Courts on appeals from a justice.
4. The fee for "filing papers 10 cents" can be charged only once in a case and not for each paper filed.
5. The fee for "recording and copying papers" does not entitle the clerk the charge for recording the proceedings in the minute docket.

This is one of the most important decisions rendered by the Supreme Court this term and will correct some of the flagrant abuses under which the country has labored. Under the decision the county will no longer be liable for costs when magistrates bind over to court with evidence uninsufficient for the grand jury to find a true bill. Heretofore as we called attention to before, magistrates have frequently bound over to court or committed to jail parties upon evidence perfectly inadequate to convict or to find a true bill and received from the county half costs, whereas if they had not pursued this course they would have received no costs at all. Under this decision the Commissioners cannot allow costs at all unless a true bill is found. Then again the clerk has been collecting a fee of ten cents as many times as the paper in an action is filed, the decision remedies this evil and only allows the clerk the fee one time. It might be proper and just to say that nothing wrong can be imputed to any officers of the county for these over charges, it has been the custom and established rule all over the State and its legality never was denied until Hon. C. F. Warrez was elected counsel of the Board of Commissioners. As soon as his attention was called to some of the bills presented to the Board he held the opinion the charges were illegal. He reported this fact to Clerk Guilford and a friendly suit was made up to refer to the Supreme Court with the above result. Under this decision the county will save hundreds of dollars a year and we hope our magistrates will be sure there is sufficient evidence to find a true bill with the average grand jury before binding over to court and especially committing to jail. One thing is sure unless they do they will lose their cost and not be able to collect half cost out of the county as they have been doing in the past.—Washington Messenger.

Lived Together for 20 Years But Didn't Speak.

James Hooper, member of a prominent Maryland family and an uncle of the present mayor of Baltimore, was buried today. For twenty years previous to his death Mr. Hooper had not exchanged a word with his wife, though they had lived together in the same house with their children and attended the same church. Mr. Hooper was 84 years old at his death and his widow is 80.

Twenty years ago he purchased a lot of ground near Towson, a suburb, with the intention of booming it. He used some money of Mrs. Hooper's. The boom failed, the property fell in value and all of their money was lost.

Mrs. Hooper, who thought her husband was responsible for her losses, refused to speak to him. He reciprocated, and as the years went by the bitterness towards each other increased. They ate at the same table; they went to church together, but would never speak to each other. Their children tried to reconcile them, but all in vain.

When Mr. Hooper fell ill his wife refused to have anything to do with him.—Baltimore Dispatch, 21st.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

The weather during the week ending Monday, May 24th, was very favorable for farm work, but only fairly so for the growth of crops. The nights generally were too cool, retarding growth, especially of cotton; but the latter part of the week was warmer and improvement in crops resulted. There was an excess of sunshine and a deficiency in precipitation, though local showers occurred on 17th and 21st in many counties. Some hail was reported, without material damage. The general crop prospects are fair. Insects are the chief enemies of the farmer at present.

EASTERN DISTRICT.

The past week was sunny and warm during the day, but the nights were quite cool, and, excepting scattered showers one or two days, the weather was quite dry. Crops of all kinds have made some improvement and are clear of grass. The week was very favorable for farm work, which is well up everywhere. Cotton chopping is progressing; cotton small, but fair stand; too cool for cotton, which does not look as well as it might. Bud and cut worms are doing great damage to corn. Corn is irregular in stand and size, but growing fairly well; plowing it now. Tobacco transplanted; needs a warm rain to start it. Peanuts growing fairly well. Irish potatoes are inferior and very much damaged by potato bugs; new crop being shipped from south portion. Sweet potato sprouts being set out. Warm showers needed.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away.

If you want to quit tobacco using easily and forever, be made well strong, magnetic, full of new life and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker that makes weak men strong. Many gain ten pounds in ten days. Over 400,000 cured. Buy No-To-Bac from your own druggist, who will guarantee a cure. Booklet and sample mailed free. Ad. Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

Some time ago the Secretary of War gave the Catholic Church permission to erect a chapel on the government reservation at West Point. This brought on complaint from Protestant churches and the Secretary then announced that any denomination was privileged to erect a chapel on the government reservation at West Point. The Attorney General, however, has just decided that the Secretary has no authority to permit any denomination to erect chapels at West Point.

Bilkins—How is business, Wilkins?
Wilkins—Can't make it go. At this rate I'll be bankrupt in another month. I don't seem to have any head for business.
Bilkins—No, you haven't, but you have a good stand, and if you'll promise to keep hands off and let me run things I'll go in with you as partner.
Wilkins—Done. A friend in need is a friend indeed.
Guest of Mr. Wilkins (ten years after)—What a magnificent place you have—everything that wealth could buy or heart wish! You have been wonderfully prosperous, Mr. Wilkins.
Mr. Wilkins (sadly)—True; but, after all, I get only half the profits of my great establishment. I just tell you, my old friend, the mistake of my life was in taking a partner.—New York Weekly.

Horseshoes of Silver.
The imperial Spanish manege in Vienna is probably the only one of numerous medieval riding schools which have lasted to this day and probably this one would no more exist were it not for the munificence of Emperor Charles VI, who provided for the continuance of this favorite pastime by a large bequest, which provides for the annual spending of the interest only, insuring the permanence of the institution.

The conditions of horseback riding, as handed down here, are probably the most correct example of how riding was taught centuries ago, at a time when the art of riding well constituted the most important as well as necessary quality of a nobleman.

Chivalry then meant expert knowledge of horseback riding. Emperor Charles VI also provided that only horses from the Lipizza stud, in Carinthia, where then the finest horses of Austria were bred, should be ridden in the Spanish manege, and 33 of these beautiful animals are constantly kept in the model stables attached to the manege.

Only stallions are sent to Vienna, and they are snow white, with a flesh colored nose. Horses for the Spanish manege are shod with silver horseshoes.—Pearson's Weekly.

Roman Life.
Up on the Pincio an hour or two before sunset, when the band is playing its liveliest and Roman society is on exhibition, paying and receiving visits from carriage to carriage along the beautiful terraces of the pleasure gardens laid out under Napoleon, is the place, writes Ellen Osborn in an exchange, to study Roman life and Roman manners. The proud old families, with names that have filled men's mouths for centuries, may cut down their establishments and rent all but a few bare rooms of their palaces, but they never give up their horses or the afternoon drive through the Corso and up the Pincian hill. The younger women, with their olive skin, delicate features and large, dark eyes, are apt to be very good to look at, and their dress, with its lavish use of lace and flowers, is often more graceful than that of Frenchwomen, if not always so refined.

Pleasant Prospect.
Jungpoppe—You have just got to come out and take dinner with me tomorrow. I won't take no for an answer. Will you?
Olebatch—Certainly; shall be delighted.
"I thought you would. You see, I want you to come out and see baby. The little fellow is getting so strong. He throws his cup, saucer and spoon clear across the table at every meal now."—Indianapolis Journal.

BAKER & HART

When sweet spring across the hills Sets the prisoned flow'rets free; When the babbling of the rills Joins with song bird's symphony; Then, it seems to us, we oughter Turn our thoughts to soda-water.

For the balmy April breeze Tells the sultry days are nigh When we linger 'neath the trees, And our throats are hot and dry, Then Shelburn's soda fount Fattens up his bank account.
