TAILORS CAN GIVE THEM

They don't cost too much. They are ready to put on without a wrinkle. You have seen the browns, olives, green mixtures, plaids--the swell colorings of the of the season-- we've got them here plenty as pie at a fair. We show the best.

C. T. MUNFORD.

Base Ball.

Louisville, May 27--Hill pitched a magnificent game today and the Senators were unable to get a man past second base, and only two runners reached that bag. The all around work of the Colonels was a feature. Score. Louisville, 5; Washington, 0.

Pittsburg, May 27--Brooklyn won today by out playing the home team at every point. Payne's delivery was a puzzle and he kept the hits scattered. Score. Pittsburg, 3; Brooklyn, 5.

Cincinnati, May 27--The Bostons won from the Reds easily today. Dwyer retired after the first inning and Rhines who relieved him, was pounded all over the lot. Buck played first base for the first time this season, but retired in favor of Hoiday, after the fifth inning. Score. Cincinnati, 7; Boston, 16.

Chicago, May 27--For eight innings the Phillies were unable to touch Briggs and it looked like a shut out, the Cubs having in the meantime piled up six large tallies. In the ninth the first three Quakers up hit safely, and with the help of two bad errors scored three times. Score. Chicago, 6; Philadelphia, 3.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 27--For seven innings of today's game Corbett fooled the Indians badly. Then they found him for fourteen bases in the last two innings, winning the game. Young was knocked out of the box by the Orioles in the second. McDermott, who replaced him did fine work, giving the visitor only five hits. Score. Cleveland, 8; Baltimore, 7.

UNION MEETING.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

J. J. Cherry was chosen moderator and Rev. D. B. Ricard, clerk.

After prayer and praise service, the topic "Non-working church members--what shall we do with them?" was taken up. The discussion was opened in an interesting address by Rev. F. T. Wooten, of Plymouth. Several others took part in the discussion of this subject.

The next topic was "Our Orphanage," in behalf of which Rev. J. O. Alderman, of Washington, spoke interestingly. He showed the duty of the churches in maintaining the institution.

At night Rev. F. T. Wooten preached from the text "Speak to the children of Israel that they go forward." The sermon was a good one and much enjoyed by the congregation. The preliminary services were conducted by Rev. R. T. Vann.

SATURDAY MORNING.

Devotional exercises conducted by F. T. Wooten.

A change in the programme was made and Dr. Vann spoke on "The mission of the church to the world," followed by E. E. Hilliard.

One of the most interesting features of the meeting this morning was the Question Box conducted by Dr. Vann. Quite a number of practical questions were put into the box, which were answered in a very interesting and instructive manner by Messrs. Vann, Hilliard, Fitch, Wooten and Ragsdale.

Mr. Hilliard's speech which was appointed for this morning will be given tonight.

Presiding Elder Hall Seriously Sick.

Please state in your paper that Rev. B. R. Hall, presiding elder of the Washington district, was taken violently sick on Monday night. For two days he was unconscious. He is at his home near Fayetteville. He is some better today, and there are hopes of his recovery. He desires the preachers in his district to hold the quarterly conferences according to appointment.

Yours truly,

L. L. NASH.

Session Closed.

The spring term of Greenville Male Academy has closed. Every session of Prof. Ragsdale's school is a good one, and the term just closed was no exception. There is not a better school for boys in the State.

Hocutt Acquitted.

E. J. Hocutt, telegraph operator at Washington, who in November shot a man named Richard Roberts, who was in his office abusing him, was tried and acquitted at the present term of Beaufort county Superior Court.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, May, 28th, 1897.
 The gag rule of the caucus has been applied to Republican Senators in order to hide their tariff differences from the public. They must do all their kicking before the steering committee, with the privilege of appealing to the caucus when the committee decides against them, but they must follow the committee on the floor of the Senate. It remains to be seen whether this gag rule can be made to work.

One of the most notable things about the opening of the tariff debate was the Republican acknowledgement that, instead of the prosperity they promised the business of the country was in an awful condition. Of course they claim that everything will boom after the tariff bill becomes a law.

Havemeyer, the King of the sugar trust, is now being tried for contempt, for refusing to answer questions asked by a Senate Committee. The trial attracts a crowd daily.

Senator Vest opened his short tariff speech by saying: "There will be no factious opposition to the passage of this bill. We know the desperate condition of this country, the ruined homes, the blasted hearts. If prosperity can come, even from our political opponents, we will not only welcome it, but we will bless the moment when it comes; but I do not believe that higher tariff duties will bring back the sunshine and illuminate the country," and closed with the following: "If our friends can bring relief, if they can shed light upon our darkened path, I will hail it no matter in whose hands may be the lamp. Give us prosperity; relieve the people. Put blood again in the veins of the torpid country. Do this, and I will accept the boon, no matter whence it comes."

In proposing a tariff amendment providing for a bounty on agricultural exports Senator Cannon, of Utah, took occasion to utter this significant threat: "If the bill shall fail to give some measure of justice to the farmer, I shall do all in my power to overthrow it at the first opportunity."

Representative Lentz, of Ohio, who is willing to be the Democratic candidate for governor, says of the outlook: "The Democratic chances for carrying the State could hardly be bettered. Unless the wrong man is put at the head of the ticket, the Democrats, with the aid of the Populists and free silver Republicans, will, in my judgement, easily beat Mark Hanna and the administration. It will be a case of political avalanche sweeping them off the face of the political sphere. The Republicans had a bitter dose of defeat at the spring elections, but that wasn't a circumstance to the bitter pill they will swallow this fall."

An important conference was held in Washington this week, those in attendance being President Black, Treasurer Clark, Secretary Gardner, and Representative McMillin, Chairman of the executive committee, of the National Association of Democratic clubs. The conference was held to arrange the details for carrying out the plan adopted by the executive committee of the association at its meeting last month, relative to a thorough organization of the Democratic clubs throughout the country. Work will be started at once in Maryland; Ohio, New Jersey, Virginia, Iowa and Massachusetts, those States receiving first attention because they are to hold important elections this year.

The promotion of Representative McLauria to the Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Senator Earle, of South Carolina, until the legislature meets and elects a Senator, was highly pleasing to the Democrats in Congress, with whom Senator McLaurin is deservedly popular.

The choicest bit of pie handed out this week by Mr. McKinley was grabbed by an "ex," as usual, ex-Congressman and ex-Minister to Brazil Conger, of Iowa, being again nominated to fill the last named position. Mr. Conger served in Congress with Mr. McKinley, like so many of the others who have been provided for.

The friends of Cuba feel that they have been buncoed by the administration, and they are disposed to hold Mr. McKinley responsible. It is true that he did not personally make any promise, but promises were made by those who came as near to claiming to speak for him as it was possible without actually doing so, that it was the intention of Mr. McKinley to speedily put into operation his policy, which the speakers declared would make Cuba independent. Those promises secured pledges from Republican members of the House that they would aid in preventing the Senate belligerency resolution from being brought before the House until Mr. McKinley had been given ample time to do something. Now it is ascertained that it may be weeks, even months, before Mr. McKinley acts upon the policy which he has in mind, if he really has one in mind.

Shall the independence of Cuba be obtained by direct purchase from Spain? In view of recent events in Washington and in Madrid, as well as in the light of various hints that have been dropped regarding the probable policy of the administration on the Cuban problem, this question assumes considerable importance. This government might purchase Cuba directly from Spain, perhaps, as was suggested nearly fifty years ago, making it a part of the national domain as Alaska and Louisiana now are. On the other hand, the sale of the island might be negotiated by the friendly offices of the United States between Cuba and the mother country, the price agreed upon being in the nature of a war indemnity, secured possibly by bonds guaranteed in Washington. Rumors are flying about that the Spanish government has been approached upon the subject, and has declined to consider the suggestion favorably or otherwise. But while the Canovas ministry might not entertain the question, it is by no means certain that some future government might not. Spain is terribly in want of money, and the receipt of a few hundred millions of dollars in lieu of what is certainly slipping from her grasp might not be spurned by a statesman who did not have a war record to maintain. From the American standpoint it grows more and more certain that intervention in the Cuban struggle is inevitable.—Baltimore Sun.

STATE NEWS.

A young son of Rev. Johnson, of Albermarle, was kicked in the head by a horse late yesterday evening and perhaps fatally injured. His skull was crushed.—Salisbury Sun.

C. H. Williams, of Nash county, is the father of three children, all of whom have six well formed toes on each foot. Mr. Williams says that it was always noticeable when there was an addition to his family and the young one was born with only five toes on each foot it would only live a short while.

J. W. Griffin, a white man living near Dunn, N. C., has left his wife and children and eloped with a young woman who lived near him. He leaves his wife and six children, three of which are almost helpless.

J. B. Stokes, of Berie county, took some eggs from under a hen that had been setting, and had left her nest, laid the eggs down on the ground in the sunshine and after a few hours was surprised to find that the eggs had turned to live chickens. This beats the incubator.

The Methodist conference of the Newbern district will convene at Grifton on Thursday, July 1st. The first day of the conference will be devoted to the district Sunday schools.

Six Things a Boy Ought to Know.

First—That a quiet voice, courtesy and kind acts are as essential to the part in the world of a gentleman as of a gentlewoman.

Second—That roughness, blustering, and even fool hardiness are not manliness. The most firm and courageous men have usually been the most gentle.

Third—That muscular strength is not health.

Fourth—That a brain crammed only with the facts is not necessarily a wise one.

Fifth—That the labor impossible to a boy of fourteen will be easy to the man of twenty.

Sixth—That the best capital for a boy is not money, but a love of work, temperate habits, simple tastes, and a heart loyal to his friends and his God.

Just try a box of Cascarets, the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

People fishing for compliments get their best bites in shallow water.

Is a tramp idle when he labors under an impression or entertains an idea?

In society it is not considered proper to return a bill collector's calls.

Uneasy moves the foot that wears a corn—this is a fact as sure as you are born.

Whom the gods love they make prematurely gray, so they can dye young.

The friends we never forget—those who borrow a dollar of us and never return it.

Men who "talk by the yard and think by the inch" are frequently moved by the foot.

If your best girl values a clear complexion more than a clear conscience, you had better drop her.

Many a man owes his success in life more to the hisses of his enemies rather than to the plaudits of his friends.

Out West farm mortgages have become so heavy that they have to bore through them with an auger in order to plant corn.

The prosperous hardware clerk is known by a stovepipe hat, the carpenter by his claw-hammer coat and the lawyer by his whole suit.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

Think of a government so pusillanimous as to be afraid to publish the names of its own officials, making official reports of outrages and butcheries, for "fear these officials might be assassinated" and we unable to protect them! Think of such a power as the United States unable to protect its own consular officers in the territory of a third rate power like Spain! Shades of Monroe and Jackson!—Houston (Texas) Post.

Sir Benjamin Richardson the distinguished English physician and medical writer, says that seven out of every ten sound and reasonable people ought to live to be 110 years old, and would do so if they "took care of themselves."

Persons should be cautious about trying new and unknown vegetables. Even many known are at times unwholesome. Potatoes, when not fully ripe, are deleterious, causing severe bowel complaint and sickness.

The French government now refuses to take certain French silver coins, among them those bearing the effigy of Charles X, Louis Philippe, and those of Napoleon III which have no laurel crown.

It is said there is ground for a belief that James Monroe did not die in poverty, as is often stated.

Jews Anthropologically Considered.

We continually hear of the Israelitish race. It is spoken of as the most homogeneous of races, and the most refractory. But it is strongly diverse. Anthropologists are accustomed to divide it into two parts well distinguished—the dolichocephalic and the brachycephalic. To the first type belong the Sephardim Jews, the Spanish and Portuguese Jews, and even the larger part of the Jews of Italy and southern France. To the second belong the Askenazim Jews—that is to say, the Polish, Russian and German Jews. In Africa we find agricultural and nomadic Jews allied to the Kabyles and to the Berbers near Setif, from Guelma and Biskra to the frontiers of Morocco. They travel in caravans to Timbuktu, and some of their tribes upon the confines of the Sahara are black, as for instance the Daggatomis, as are also the Falachas Jews of Abyssinia. In India white Jews are found in Bombay and black Jews in Cochin. As to the Jews in China, they are not only allied to the Chinese who surround them, but they have even adopted their customs and the religion of Confucius. It is well known that in Italy they speak Italian, as in France they speak French and in Germany German. A language is learned and spoken by two peoples which have no other point of contact.—Monist.

The Coster of Morocco.

In Morocco the costermonger recommends his wares by pledging the credit of a saint:

"In the name of Mula Idriss! Roast chestnuts!" "In the name of our Lord Mohammed Al Hadji! Popcorn! Popcorn!" "In the name of Sidna Ali-bu-Khaleh! Melons! Nice, sweet melons!" "God is gracious! Cool water!"

These and the like are heard at every turn. Even the auctioneer who is calling out the price of a slave girl or the bids for a carpet is careful to interlard his professional talk with allusions to his maker and the plethora roll of Moorish saints.—London Standard.

Bread and Old Age.

Sir Isaac Holden, the millionaire member of parliament from Yorkshire, now nearly 90 years old, believes with John Wesley that phosphates of lime, in which flour is so rich, are good for growing children, young people, young mothers, but shorten the life of the elderly, by making bones dense and weighty muscles rigid, "furring" the large blood vessels like an old boiler and "choking the capillary arteries." So he eats hardly any bread, his favorite food being oranges, bananas and meat. When he eats the latter, he eats nothing else. Roast apples, with a tiny pinch of bicarbonate of soda to correct the acidity, and milk similarly treated, are important items of his dietary.
