QUINERLY ITEMS.

QUINERLY, N. C., July 12th, '97.
Glad to see your townsman, F. C. Harding, in town on the 8th.

The colored people celebrated the "Fofe o' July" near here on the 3rd.

Miss Lillian Sutton spent a few days the past week visiting at E. A. Johnson's.

Miss Julia B. Burgess, of Washington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Latham.

Miss Lillian B. Nobles, of Pactolus, and Miss Birdie Koonce are spending a few days at W. J. Kilpatrick's.

We believe Swift Creek will give a majority against increased taxes for public schools in the August election.

J. L. Patrick, and Miss Annie Brooks spent Saturday and Sunday at Tedoc Frizzelle's near Ormondsville.

Madame Rumor says the marriage bells will ring here soon and we suppose it's true, judging from the way the paint brush is being plied on a certain residence.

Mrs. W. C. Butler, Mrs. Court Patrick and Miss Rosa Quinerly went to Fort Barnwell last week and report a pleasant time. They stopped with R. S. Quinerly while there.

E. A. Parker, a photographer of Kinston, was here on the 6th and 7th inst., and did a rushing business. He is a clever gentleman and a good artist, hope he will give us another call soon.

Two weeks ago our farmers wore a sad face. The tobacco crop seemed to be a failure owing to continued drouth, but on Saturday, June 26th, we had a good rain and now we believe our tobacco crops will rival any in the county. Corn is badly damaged by chinch bugs.

H. T. Gregory, P. O. Inspector, was here on Thursday last looking after one, Peter Dudley, colored, for using the mails for fraudulent purposes. He found Peter but it seems could not find enough evidence that would point to conviction, so the case will be turned over to the District Attorney to use his discretion.

Children's day was observed by the Christian Sunday school, at Salem church on third Sunday evening in June, with appropriate exercises. A large and appreciative audience attended and all were loud in their praises of the success of the entertainment. Mrs. J. B. Latham had charge of the training of those who took part, and the admirable way in which they acquitted themselves reflected great credit upon her tutorship. The amount realized for foreign missions was $12.50.

Goes Next Week.

Co. I. A. Sugg expects to leave for Texas next week and will take with him some samples of the bright tobacco from the great State of Texas. Farmers who have some especially who would like to have the Col. talk it up in the Lone Star State have samples ready by Saturday, 17th. It would doubtless be interesting to hear the Colonel talk county to a Texas crowd.

Music Class.

Miss Lina Sheppard, a music graduate of the Mary Baldwin Seminary, desires a class of music pupils. Course of instruction will be thorough and by the latest method. See announcement.

The showers last night and this forenoon make things look fresher.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., July 12th, '97.

Dr. Hassell, of Jamesville, spent last Friday here.

Town Constable Elisha Bryan went to Ta.boro Sunday.

Miss Annie Clyde Barnhill, of Hamilton, is visiting friends in Bethel township.

There will be quarterly meeting in the Methodist church here next Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mattie Quartermus, of Williamston, spent last week with Mrs. Jesse W. Carson.

G. F. Evans, of Greenville, was in town today, looking after the interest of Eastern warehouse.

Miss Bertha Briley, of Great Swamp, is spending this week with her aunt, Mrs. Guilford Andrews.

R. A. Bryan and S. L. Peal spent Saturday and Sunday here, they returned to Tarboro this morning.

Miss Bettie Hale who has been with Mrs. W. H. Bullock the past three months returned to Baltimore this morning.

Prof. B. F. Hassell left last Friday to visit his parents at Columbia, Tyrell county and friends in Jamesville and Plymouth.

Base Ball.

Cleveland, July 10—Today's game was a battle between pitchers, Wilson and McJames, in which the home team had the better luck. The features were the fielding of Childs, McKean, O'Connor and Demontreville. Score. Cleveland, 3; Washington, 1.

St. Louis, July 10—The Browns won the closing game of the series with Brooklyn. Hallman, in the eight, knocked in the winning run with a double. Sheridan, the umpire, was egged for alleged discrimination against the Browns. Score. Brooklyn, 3; St. Louis, 4.

Cincinnati, July 10—The Reds won the last game of the series from Philadelphia in an interesting game today. The Quakers could do nothing with Breitenstein. Holliday relieved Hoy who was injured sliding to second. Score. Cincinnati, 6; Philadelphia, 3.

Pittsburg, July 10—Lack of support made Tannehill collapse to the eight, giving eight runs, seven of which were earned. The Giants's errors were scattered and not very serious. Score. Pittsburg, 6; New York, 15.

Chicago, July 10—The leaders were defeated for the third straight today by the small margin of one run. The Colts hammered Stuvette and also Sullivan hard. Everett and Long made wonderful catches of line hits. Score. Chicago, 8; Boston, 7.

Louisville, July 10—The Louisville team won the encounter during the present year. Only male literary college in North Carolina that is located in a city.

Delivered in town by carriers without extra cost.

Dodger vs. Newspaper.

Few business men realize how many people read the newspaper in which their advertisement appears. They sometimes print 5,000 dodgers, and although it costs them more money than the same amount of space in a daily newspaper, they imagine it to be cheaper. In the first place they do not consider how many copies of a paper there are that go into the homes of the people they desire to reach. The dodgers are printed and placed in the hands of small boys whose only desire is to get rid of them and draw their pay for distributing them. They will pass down the street and poke one under the arm of each person they meet, no matter if that individual already has had a half dozen of them. The boys pass on and the man throws the dodger down and that is the last of it. The streets are soon covered with them and they are trampled into the dirt unread.

A newspaper is taken into the home. Every member of the family reads it and then it is loaned all over the neighborhood to people who are either too poor or too stingy to take a paper. One subscriber said recently that he did wish something could be done to prevent people from borrowing his newspaper. He said his Sunday paper was not at home long enough for him to scarcely look it over. Before night four different families had borrowed his paper and each member of each family had read it through. He said of course he could not refuse to loan them the paper, but he did wish people would subscribe and pay for their own paper. If this case is a sample, it will be seen that instead of 5,000 readers for this paper we have 25,000. In what cheaper way can an advertiser reach so many people? Many wide awake business men have taken advantage of this method, and they have found that it has paid them many times the amount of the cost of advertisement. It will be well for those who have not tried it to give it a test.—Press and Printer.

"TISS ME DOOD NIGHT."

"Pease mamma, pease, tiss me Dood Night."

My blue eyed love with sunny curls Stood pleading, 'tween her sobs and tears.

I said, "I can't kiss naughty girls."

I led her to her snowy cot, "Pease mamma, pease," she sobbed again,

"I won't be naughty any more."

I left her, all her pleadings vain.

I had been reared in Spartan school, And deemed it duty to control

With rigid rule, nor even knew, That Love with love should sway the soul.

I heard her sob, my Mother heart With yearning filled to soothe and cheer.

Yet I refrained and in her sleep My Baby still lay sobbing there.

'Twas midnight, when I felt a touch— A fevered hand lay on my brow.

My white robed baby pleaded still, "Pease, mamma pease, I tant s'leep now."

All through that agonizing night Delirious she moaned in pain,

The little broken heart still plead For kisses that I gave in vain.

At dawn the Angels hovered near; She nestled close and smiled and said,

"I won't be naughty any more."

And in my arms my baby lay—dead.

And I am old; the passing years Have brought no comfort in their flight,

My heart still hears that sobbing cry, "Pease, mamma, pease, tiss me Dood Night."

—THE FORUM.

A Warning to Disturbers of the Peace.

Attention is directed to the following law, passed by the recent Legislature:

Section 1. That any and all persons who shall, when intoxicated or otherwise, wilfully interrupt or disturb any picnic, excursion party, school entertainments, political meeting, or any meeting or other organization whatsoever lawfully and peacefully held, either at, within or without the place where such picnic, excursion party, school entertainments, political meetings, or any meeting or other organization is held, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 2. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified the 3rd day of March, A. D. 1897.

Persons who make it their business to be rowdy at public gatherings need to take heed of this statute. It is far-reaching and well-bred people, who don't care to be annoyed, will see that it is enforced.

Another European monarch is about to, celebrate in honor of his reign. King Oscar II, of Sweden and Norway, will enjoy his silver jubilee as a ruler.

September 18 next will be the twenty-fifth anniversary of his accession to the throne. He succeeded his brother, Carl XV.

Oscar II, who is now in the sixty eighth year of his age, is the fourth sovereign of the House of Ponte Corvo, and is a grandson of Marshal Bernadotte. Bernadotte is the only Napoleonic figure who founded an Empire that has lasted. He ascended the throne in 1818 under the name of Carl XIV, and succeeded in establishing a dynasty, while Napoleon failed:

The North Carolina plan of employing convict labor in road building is attracting attention and is being commented to other States. Some of the advantages of the system are said to be: The cost of maintaining a convict is six cents per day less than if confined in jail; it does not bring him into competition with free labor and he does a work that would, otherwise, remain undone.—Winston Sentinel.

A Household Necessity.

Cascarets Candy Cathartic, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, acts gently and positively on kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the entire system, dispel colds, cures headache, fever, habitual constipation and biliousness. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. pay 10, 25, 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed to cure by all druggists.

Dr. C. P. Carver, of St. Augustine, Fla., is experimenting with the sugar-producing properties of watermelons. He has so far found that he can extract a fine taffy candy sugar at the proportion of one ounce to eight ounces of the melon pulp without the rind. Dr. Carver is going to ascertain the proportion of saccharine matter in the whole watermelon, for he believes from experiments he has made that a large quantity can be extracted from the rind, as well as the pulp or heart of the melon. He says he is positive a sugar of superior delicacy can be made with the melon.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVES TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

Form a Club.

The recent articles in THE DAILY REFLECTOR relative to building a bicycle path have aroused considerable interest, especially among the riders. Some of them in discussing the matter have concluded that the best way to secure a path or better advantages for riding is to organize a bicycle club so as to have united action in that direction. We are asked to announce a meeting for that purpose on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the Male Academy grove, and every bicycle rider in Greenville and vicinity is requested to be present. Any one not owning a wheel, but who is in sympathy with the wheelmen in this movement, is also invited to be present.

To make this meeting together more interesting and enjoyable it will be followed by a club ride, and all present, gentlemen, ladies, boys and girls, should take their wheels along to join this ride. Any who wish can decorate their wheels. Let every rider be present, at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon.
