Base Ball.

Cleveland, July 15—It was a pitcher's battle between Young and Payne today. Honors were about even and base running won for Cleveland. The Grooms scored in the fourth on Anderson's single, Shindle's sacrifice and La Chance's single. Burkett singled with two out in the sixth, stole second, took third on Grim's low throw and scored on Child's hit. O'Connor doubled in the seventh, took third on Zimmer's out, aided by La Chance's high throw, and scored on Tebeau's fly out. One man got so far as first during the rest of the game. Score. Cleveland, 2; Brooklyn, 1.

Chicago, July 15—Dr. Pond, pitched in great form today, allowing only five singles, but his good work was offset by ragged support, especially by Jennings. McGraw got in his regulation argument with the umpire and was sent to the bench in the third. Score. Chicago, 5; Baltimore, 3.

Louisville, July 15—The Colonels could do absolutely nothing with Russie's delivery this afternoon and were shut out. Miller, late of the Michigan State League, pitched good ball for the home team, but his support was awful. Score. Louisville, 0; New York, 10.

Pittsburg, July 15—Boston took a big lead in the first three innings today, scoring five runs on seven hits and Pittsburg's good up hill work was not quite good enough to save defeat. Tanshill's playing in centre was the only feature. Score. Pittsburg, 5; Boston, 7.

Cincinnati, July 1—The Senators knocked Ehret out of the box in the first inning today. Rhines was substituted in the second, but he fared no better, being pounded all over the lot. The visitors played an errorless game and won easily. Score. Cincinnati, 5; Washington, 16.

St. Louis, July 15—Today's game between St. Louis and Phillies was played in a drizzling rain. Orth was invincible, keeping the Browns guessing throughout. Score. St. Louis, 0; Philadelphia, 2.

JUST FOR FUN.

Drummer (to his wife, who has just presented him with twins)—My dear, a sample would have been sufficient. There is no necessity for carrying a stock.—Keystone.

STATE NEWS.

The State Railroad Commission has declined to make any change in the present passenger and freight rates charged by the railroads.

The commissioners of the town of Elkin have ordained that every male citizen shall work on the streets three days in each year.

A severe hail storm in and around Enfield last Tuesday is said to have almost entirely destroyed the large tobacco crops down there and done great damage to other crops.—Warrenton Record.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Of course a man is going slow when he lets old age overtake him.

The hand organ man says that life is a continual grind with him.

It hurts every man a little to see another man marry a real pretty girl.

Take all the advice given you and then toss up assent whether to use it or not.

"All the world's a stage"—and everybody plays the part of a driver or a horse.

When you buy fish you must expect to pay for the scales they are weighed in.

If you can't be first in everything, remember that the horse that is but a second best wins the race.

'Tis a sad fact that we never know what the future and the merchant who doesn't advertise have in store.

When love dies the flower of happiness withers in the heart, and gloom there builds its throne forever more.

A great number of women who have been disappointed in love are not old maids—most of them are married.—Orange, Va. Observer.

Japanese Tea.

Friday night at the residence of Mr. F. M. Hodges, the "Mission Band" gave another of those enjoyable teas, somewhat more elaborate than usual. The parlors and hall were profusely decorated with Japanese effects and brilliantly lighted with colored lanterns. As the guests arrived they were presented with a souvenir of the evening and greeting of welcome. The entertainment consisted of music and recitations, concluded by an address by Maj. W. S. Bernard, which was replete with information of the Orient and rendered in that graceful, fluent manner for which he has gained a reputation.

Miss Maie Woodward proved herself a veritable queen of the song and touched the hearts of all whose good fortune it was to hear her sweet voice.

Mr. Preston Cotten pleased the party greatly with a number of comic selections sang in a happy, inimitable manner.

Refreshments were served. Miss Bessie Jarvis, the president, and the entire band deserve much credit for their zeal and energy in this good good work.

SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1897.

It seems that of late the diabolical crime of rape has become of more frequent occurrence. Hardly a day has passed during the last week or two but what the press dispatches chronicled some outrage of this character, and it is not at all surprising that reports of lynchings have closely followed the commission of the crime.

If Uncle Sam don't keep a sharp look out he is going to have a scrap on his hands yet. This talk of helping Cuba and annexing Hawaii has riled both Spain and Japan, and the report comes over from London that these two countries have entered an agreement to make war on the United States if we don't "keep off their grass."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, July 16th, 1897.

Another disgraceful chapter in the disgraceful history of Congressional sugar scandals was written this week. The thoroughly up to date brigands do not rob individuals upon the public highway; they stand in with those who control the making of a new tariff bill and utilizing their advance information to make fortunes by speculating in the stock market. By giving it out that the tariff conference committee had agreed to a compromise sugar schedule that was more favorable to the sugar trust than the Dingley schedule sugar stock was pushed up sufficiently high to made thousands of dollars for those who bought before the rise and sold at the highest point, and there are good reasons for the belief that members of both branches of Congress were among those who did so.

A prominent Republican was asked when the tariff bill would get out of conference, and he replied disgustedly: "When its schedules can no longer be profitably worked on the stock market." It is remarkable how often the assertion is heard that the conference is being purposely prolonged for speculative purposes.

Jerry Simpson had to smile when his resolution for the appointment of a select committee of five to investigate the sugar trust and its relations to Congressional legislation was referred to the Judiciary committee of the House, which has not been appointed yet.

Probably the majority of the Senate committee on Foreign Relations seek to ease their consciences by such "hot-stuff" as the report made this week on the resolution directing the President to demand the release of three Americans who are in Cuban prisons, having been captured on the steamer Comptitor. They know the House will not act on it.

Senator Tillman never loses an opportunity to remind the country of the contempt he feels for the Democracy of ex-President Cleveland. The latest occurred during the debate which resulted in the insertion by the Senate of a clause in the General Deficiency Appropriation bill limiting the cost of armor plate for naval vessels to $300 a ton. Senator Tillman referred to the remitting of a fine that was imposed upon the Carnegie Steel Co., by the Secretary of the Navy, for furnishing bad armor, by the President, when he was interrupted by Senator Allen who remarked: "And it was a Democratic President who remitted that fine." Mr. Tillman turned to the gentleman from Nebraska and said with studied politeness: "Please don't leave out 'so called' in referring to the Democracy of that President, as it hurts my feelings to hear him referred to as a Democratic President. As for his remitting the fine, I have never sought to fathom the mystery of how he tried to override law and decency by that action."

The Senators do not enjoy being snubbed by Mr. McKinley any more than they did being snubbed by Mr. Cleveland, as they have very plainly shown in their private talk to each other since it became known that Mr. McKinley had decided not to furnish the Senate with the correspondence with Great Britain relating to the Seal fisheries, asked for in a Senate resolution unanimously adopted nearly two months ago. Copies of the correspondence have been prepared, but this week it was decided not to send it to the Senate, on the ground that it would be "incompatible with the public interests" to do so. As an additional reason for not complying with the respectful request of the Senate, officials say it was feared that a publication of the correspondence might result in making the English mad. Probably the uniqueness of this excuse is expected to make up for its lack of plain, everyday common sense. Meanwhile the administration has made public its instructions to Ambassador Hay, which charge the government of Great Britain with trickery.

Republican Senators resorted to filibustering to break a quorum in order to prevent a vote on the Pacific Railroad resolution of Senator Harris, of Kans., which Senator Morgan declares will save the people of this country $30,000,000, if adopted in time to prevent the consummation of the scheme started during the last administration to get possession of the road through an alleged reorganization and purchase, not to mention what will be saved in other creditors and to stockholders. Republicans were afraid to kill the resolution by a direct vote, so they resorted to such roundabout methods of doing it as refusing to vote, thus breaking a quorum. Under the Senate Rules a "counted quorum" doesn't go.

The Editor.

Anybody can edit a paper—an opportunity is all that is needed. The editor ought to know it all whether he does or not.

The editor ought to advertise our business free more than he does.

He ought to hustle for more news but has no right to try to collect during these hard times.

We knew how to edit a paper before the editor was born. He ought to take our advice.

He ought to mention our name. If he does he is running the paper right, provided he makes no mistakes about us—then he is a fool.

The editor ought not to make mistakes. No matter if he does try to correct them we can't forget them.

The editor ought to know we are the most important man in town and ought to write his editorials accordingly.

The editor is a nuisance anyhow. If he mentions my business he don't say enough about it. If he mentions my competitors in business he exaggerates.

Editors are entitled to no consideration. Confound an editor, anyhow.—Southern Tobaccoist.

Some Philosophy.

A good neighbor is like a plaster. He will stick to you at all times.

Love your neighbor, but be careful not to love your neighbor's wife.

You can borrow anything but his cook stove, but if you ask for that you will surely be refused.

If you wish to get rich, pay some attention to your own business, as well as that of your neighbor.

If your neighbor's chickens bother you, quietly introduce them into a pie pot for your own delectation.

If you see your neighbor carrying a demijohn into the house it is good to be taken with a severe pain in the stomach.

Be kindly and generous to your neighbor. Fix a hole in your fence so that his hens can come through and do their egg laying in your yard.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVES TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

Chatham's Treasury Empty.

It is a bad rule that will not work both ways." This is an old saying that is recalled now to illustrate the justice and hardship of the new law, enacted by our "reform" Legislature, to put a man in jail for not paying his taxes. For, why should a man be put in jail for not paying what he owes the State or county, when he can't collect what the county owes him?

Chatham county's treasury is empty and our county orders are not being paid. We do not say whose fault this is, or that it is anybody's fault. It is a sad fact, however, and suggests the old saying, "What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander." That is, it would seem just and proper to apply the same law to the county in paying what it owes as it does to the tax payer in making him pay the county. It is right to put a tax payer in jail because he does not pay the county, why not put somebody in jail when the county does not pay the tax payer?—Chatham Record.

When bilious or costive, eat a Cascaret, candy cathartic, cure constipation.

The Deadly Cigarette.

We believe that the cigarette is a greater evil than the whiskey habit. We believe cigarettes are blasting the hopes of more of our young men, than the drink habit. Smoking cigarettes is looked upon as being more respectable, and young men will smoke even in the presence of ladies when they would not think of drinking or being under the influence of liquor in their presence. It is a growing evil. We recently saw a professor of a leading medical college smoking cigarettes with seeming indifference. Who would think for a moment, of sending his son to a medical college whose instructors smoke cigarettes?—Parson and Gleaner.

A Household Necessity.

Cascarets Candy Cathartic, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, acts gently and positively on kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the entire system, dispel colds, cures headache, fever, habitual constipation and biliousness. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. pay 10, 25, 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed to cure by all druggists.

Dr. Dowling's Story.

The Toledo Blade tells this anecdote of the Rev. Dr. George T. Dowling, Episcopal, of that city, who used to be a Baptist minister. He was in Atlanta not long after he joined the Episcopal church, and happened to meet a Baptist minister, who somewhat bewailed the fact of the loss of three good men. Said he:

"Doctor, will you tell me how our denomination can keep such men as Dr. Behrends, Dr. Moxom and yourself from jumping over the fence?"

"I am sure I can't tell," said Dr. Dowling, with a twinkle in his eye. "unless you make your denomination void of offense."

No Wonder the Son Was Surprised.

A melodrama was some years since played in a certain theater, the chief actor in which had made himself, from his overbearing conduct, disliked by one and all. In the last scene he was supposed to visit the tombs of his ancestors. In the center of the stage, upon a marble pedestal, stood the statue of his father. A heavy fold of drapery covered the figure.

Enter Albert. "Once again," he says, "let me gaze upon those features which in life so often beamed with tenderest affection. Father, thy mourning son now comes to pay thee reverence. Let me remove the veil which from vulgar gaze shields the image of a once dear parent!"

The drapery fell aside, and behold the father stood upon his head! The effect cannot be described. It was electric. The shouts of laughter which followed effectively put an end to the scene, which changed to the next as quickly as possible, amid the bravos of the audience, the anger of the manager, and the uncontrollable rage of the actor.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

Showers tonight and Sunday.

WHAT THERE IS.

Much or Little to Tell—You Find it Here.

Not much else beside tobacco is being talked now.

New Mullets, Cream Cheese and Butter at S. M. Schultz.

Light showers have fallen this afternoon. More are wished for.

We are closing out all Ice Cream Freezers at cost. Now is your chance. BAKER & HART.

It pays a great deal better to have a good reputation at home than to be a man of prominence abroad.

In the past week crops, corn especially, have suffered much for want of rain. We hope the showers now started will give a good season before they stop.

We will continue selling milk at 5 cents a quart, but hereafter our wagon will make only one delivery on Sunday. JAMES AND WILEY BROWN, Props. Elmwood Dairy.

Have your laundry ready for Wednesday morning's shipment. My customers are always pleased.

C. B. WHICHARD,
Agt. Wilmington Steam Laundry.

The colored base ball club that went to Tarboro to play the Rocky Mount club, got beaten, and came home today. Mr. Ola Forbes took the club to Tarboro and back on his gas boat.

Lecture.

Sunday at 4:30 o'clock, in the Methodist church, Col. A. Onley will deliver a lecture on the subject "How to Train the Babies." All the Sunday schools invited to be present.

Pocosin Fire.

Mr. J. W. Smith tells us a bad fire has raged in the big pocosin, in Beaver Dam township, during the past week. It has caused damage to several plantations and the farmers had to leave their crops and fight fire.

We'll Drink at the Fountain.

The Coca Cola Company, of Atlanta, Ga., who have a good thing and know it, and believe it will refresh a tired newspaper man as well as anybody else, sends the REFLECTOR some tickets for drinks at Shelburn's fountain. That everybody drinks Coca Cola and the demand for it keeps increasing is the best testimonial that can be given.

Three and Three Again.

The past week showed a record of three more marriage licenses issued by the Register of Deeds, for the following couples:

WHITE.

James Griffin and James Irene Forbes.

Joseph Harris and Jennie Wells.

COLORED.

Thomas White and Nancy Cepper.

They Go Wherever the Signboard Points.

G. W. Evans went to Tarboro today.

G. E. Harrison left this morning for Oxford.

J. W. Wiggins went to Tarboro this morning.

W. M. Bond returned from Edenon Friday evening.

Will Parker went to Washington today to visit relatives.

Miss Leta McGowan left this morning for a visit to Goldsboro.

Sheriff Harrington returned from Scotland Neck Friday evening.

W. F. Freddy went to Kinston last night and returned this morning.

Tebo Quinerly returned from Kinston and Asheville this morning.

S. V. King who has been visiting relatives, left on the morning train for Tarboro.

Preston Cotten and Allen King, of Falkland, have been on a visit here the last day or two.

Miss Estelle Cotten, of Baltimore, who has been visiting Miss Myra Skinner, left this morning.

Misses Nannie Cox, of Kinston, and May George, of Alabama, arrived this morning to visit Mrs. M. H. Quinerly.

W. E. Proctor, T. M. Moore and W. S. Galloway, who went on the excursion to Asheville, returned this morning.

Misses Nannie and Rieve Lang went to Kinston Friday evening with their aunt, Miss Phillips, who has been visiting here.

Rev. J. B. Morton arrived from Tarboro Friday evening and will fill his regular appointments in the Presbyterian church tomorrow. He will also deliver a lecture on Helen Keller to the Sunday school.

Mrs. E. Hooker, Mrs. W. A. Bright, Misses Cottie, Ada and Mattie Hearne, Lena Matthews, Rosa Hooker, Emma Taft and Eva May Smith, J. J. Cherry, W. B. James, J. A. Brady and J. L. Taft left on steamer Meyers this afternoon for Ocracoke.

We have heard some men appointed as poll holders for the August election in this county say they will not serve.

Good Ball.

Tarboro and Washington base ball clubs played two good games on Thursday and Friday at Washington. In the first game ten innings were played without either side making a score, Washington making 4 and Tarboro 2 in the eleventh inning. The score of the second game was 12 to 10 in favor of Tarboro.

Not Much Interest.

The wheelmen did not turn out in full at the meeting called for Friday evening. So few were present that the matter of organizing a club was postponed. A committee was appointed to see all the riders in town and take the names of all who want to join a club, and if enough are secured another meeting will be called and a club organized. It is evident that many of the riders so far are not much interested in a club, but it would be to their advantage to organize one.

MUSIC PUPILS WANTED.

MISS LINA SHEPARD, a music graduate of the Mary Baldwin Seminary, Staunton, Va., desires to secure a limited number of music pupils. Instruction will be thorough and by the latest method. Terms moderate. For further particulars apply to MISS LINA SHEPPARD.
