Base Ball.

Chicago, July 27—Three errors by the Reds infield, a steal, a passed ball and a scratch single gave the Colts three runs in the first. The visitors made one in the fourth, and tied the score in the eighth on Thornton's errors and a bunching of four hits. Everitt, the first man up for the Colts in the tenth, lined a four bagger into the right field bleachers. Ritchie's fielding and two remarkable running catches by Lange were features. Score, Chicago, 4; Cincinnati, 3.

Louisville, July 27—The Brooklyn had on their batting clothes this afternoon and piled up twelve runs off Magee in two innings. Miller finished the game after the seventh. The Colonels could not hit Kennedy. Score, Louisville, 2; Brooklyn, 14.

St. Louis, July 27—The Browns played another great game today and defeated the Bostons. Hart was in fine form; but for Lalley's errors he would have shut out the leaders. Lally redeemed himself in the eighth inning by a remarkable running catch on which he made a double play. Score, St. Louis, 5; Boston, 2.

STATE NEWS.

A. D. Lemonds, of Clear Creek, brought the Observer a bunch of strawberries yesterday—the second crop. His vines, he says, are blooming and bearing as well as they did in strawberry season.—Charlotte Observer.

The Beaufort Herald says Miss Lovie J. Dixon, of Carteret county, accidentally knocked a loaded cartridge from the mantle, the cartridge exploded and the ball took effect in her breast, inflicting a wound from which she died.

Out of the Ordinary.

Mr. James H. Cory brought the Reflector a curiosity. It was a part of a stalk of corn that bore 22 ears. There were two ears on the body of the stalk and every branch of the tassel had also formed a small ear, making a cluster of 20 years at the top.

Mr. Cory also tells us that a turkey gobbler on his place had been setting on a nest of eggs for three weeks, when hogs found the nest and broke him up. Pity but what the gobbler could have been undisturbed until he hatched the eggs.

JUST FOR FUN.

"When you first try a bicycle," said the beginner, "you would enjoy the thing immensely if you could stand on the curbstone and watch yourself trying to ride."

Hobson—"What did the Colonel die of?" Wigwag—"I don't know; hydrophobia, probably." "Mad dog bit him, eh?" Not at all; just breathed it in with his native air. He was from Georgia."

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

The week ending July 26th was very wet; the ground has been thoroughly soaked nearly everywhere. The rainfall average over 2 inches for the week, with amounts varying from 1 to 5 inches. While the rainfall in some sections was excessive, with minor damage to low land crops by standing water and overflowing streams, and some injury to corn by high winds, the seasons on the whole have been very beneficial, and crops have made excellent progress. Cotton is holding its fruit well; tobacco and corn have improved. Sweet potatoes are very fine and digging has commenced; rice is heading nicely. Fair weather, with more sunshine, is now needed.

EASTERN DISTRICT.

The reports of correspondents in the eastern district are very favorable. Showers occurred throughout the week, and the ground is thoroughly soaked. Some excessive rains occurred, washing land, and there was too much rain for low lands, but the damage is insignificant. The temperature was about normal, with less than the usual amount of sunshine. Crops are doing very well indeed. Cotton improved rapidly; continues to bloom nicely, and though not as large as last year, will have more bolls; it is holding its fruit well yet; some fields are getting grassy. Corn planted in May on low lands is very promising. The rains came too late for a good deal of corn which was damaged by previous drought. Tobacco good; cutting and curing progressing. Sweet potatoes were planted for storage and renovating land than usual. Digging sweet potatoes for market begun; crop fine. Gardens improving.

Didn't Wear the Breeches.

Mr. Bryan Buck, of Swift Creek township, was here today to attend the veteran's reunion, and told us a little story on himself. He said his wife wove the cloth and made him a pair of homespun pants, and when she got them out he told her if he wore them to town he would have to go around and show them to the Reflector, and then she wouldn't let him wear them. We told friend Buck his story was mighty thin, and that we believed that he was afraid the other old soldier boys would be on "dress parade" and he was too "stuck up" to appear in ranks in homespun breeches. We got the laugh on him but he paid it back before the camp broke.

Mr. Buck is a gallant veteran who left his right hand on the battle field. He is "true blue" wherever you find him, and loves a joke and a song as well as any man alive.

The Eclipse.

The partial eclipses of the sun came along on schedule time this morning. The first trace of a shadow on its face was noticed about 8:30 o'clock and this continued to increase until about half of the sun was obscured. It could be viewed very readily, though smoked glass and lots of people were taking observations in this way. The shadow had all disappeared by noon.

Thought It Was the Moon.

This morning a man walked up to where some parties were looking at the sun through a smoked glass. He wanted to see what they were looking at, and as soon as he caught a glimpse of the sun with the quarter of it gone he said, "why, what's the matter with the moon?" He would hardly believe it when told it was the sun he was looking at.

THURSDAY, JULY 29, 1897.
CO-OPERATION THE THING.

We heard a gentleman say there seems to be no unity among the business men of Greenville except among the tobacco men. Those engaged in other branches might profit by following the example of the tobacco men. A lack of co-operation has retarded the progress of the town.

We clip the following from the Durham Sun which applies with equal force to Greenville as it does to Durham:

"What we need mostly in Durham, just at this time, is Co-operation; a general awakening to the importance of this matter and a hearty coming together.

"There is entirely too much bickering, and petty spites and jealousies in this community to redound to the good of Durham. It seems to have been cultivated instead of alloyed. There is too much estrangement among our people to prevent them from coming together for the mutual benefit of each and the progress of the city.

"Let us get out of this rut of estrangement imbibe freely of neighborhood brotherly feeling, and do something for our mutual protection, and the upbuilding of our various interests.

"Co operation is the thing, and we honestly believe that when our business men give the matter that attention it deserves they will come together. The question does not need any lengthy argument. Its very suggestion carries with it arguments enough."

Ex United States Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, died Tuesday. He was 82 years old.

New York is having the coldest weather on record for the time of year. Just five years ago this week we remember the city had the other extreme and was then in the midst of the hottest July weather in its history.

The tobacco trade will never in the world be convinced that the one dollar tax on cigarettes was simply to raise additional revenue to keep the government machinery going. The party in power has exhibited its disposition to help the trusts too plainly. —Winston Tobacco Journal.

Costs Money to Die in Ill.

Chairman Odell, of the committee on accounts of the House, is greatly dissatisfied with the bill submitted by the undertaker who had charge of the funeral of the late Congressman Cook, of Illinois. This undertaker asks the House of Representatives to pay him $1,250.

Mr. Odell claims that many of the items of the bill are exorbitant, and altogether out of proportion to the value of the services rendered and the material furnished. He particularly objects to the charge of $50 for embalming the remains, which he declares is three times as much as undertakers usually ask in New York State. The charge of $350 for the casket and cases is another which he thinks altogether too great. Then, too the funeral director asks $45 for the three days he was engaged in traveling between here and Chicago, which Mr. Odell says is more than his own salary as a congressman for the same time, and he does not believe that the services of an undertaker are more valuable than those of a Representative. He wants the bill cut at least $200 before he will consent to recommend its payment. But the undertaker is unwilling to cut it at all.

Mr. Odell points out that his committee has just authorized the payment of the funeral expenses of one of the employes of the House, who died about the same time, the cost of whose funeral was only $148. He fails to see why there should be a difference of $1,000 between the expense of burying a Representative and on employee of the House.—Washington Post.

A popular notion with respect to the training of children is that they should be let alone until old enough to be reasoned with—which would be a beautiful plan if human nature could always be guided by reason. Miss Fisher in her lecture on the kindergarten at the University Extension the let alone theory on the ground that while the parents were waiting habits were being formed, and that these habits were the expression of character. Her judgment was that "character training should begin early, long before the child is conscious of the fact that he is being trained or that he can set up his will in opposition to the wills of others." In other words, begin by bending the twig—don't wait till it shall have become a young tree. This is the true philosophy of child training; and with this truth well in hand the value of the kindergarten in shaping character readily becomes intelligible.—Philadelphia Record.

Reward With $800.

Mr. Jesse Snotherly, of Montgomery county, in a battle in the late war found a Federal soldier between the lines wounded in one knee and unable to get away while the dry leaves, etc., were conducting a fire that would have burned him to death.

The unfortunate man's cries for water especially drew the attention of Mr. Snotherly and elicited his pity.

He hastened to clear away the litter from around the man and also brought him a canteen of water and left him to follow the line of duty and personal safety. Not, however, until he had given the grateful man his name and address. Here all seemed to end—but not so. The wounded Federal recovered and we are told recently opened correspondence with his benefactor and enclosed to him his check for $800.—Concord Standard.

Klondike Stories Not Exaggerated.

Chicago, July 27.—Mrs. Eli Gage, daughter-in-law of Secretary of the Treasury Gage, reached her home in this city today after a three months' stay in Alaska with her husband, who represents the North American Trading Company at Dawson. Mrs. Gage says the reports of the rich harvest of gold are not exaggerated. While admitting that hardships are to be encountered, she declares that there is no danger of famine during the coming winter.

In New Hampshire farmers wives turn many an honest dollar by taking boarders from the city.

This is done also in New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan and Wisconsin. Up there they run their farms by strict system; and it is quite a luxury to the city families to get a change in the open country air. The milk and butter and other products from the farms come easy to the housewife, and the pay for board being pretty good, the good country dames who engage in it find at the end of the season that they have quite a bit of money and have had good city company all the time. —Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

A North Carolinian who went to Raleigh yesterday from Southern Pines reports a very unpleasant and discreditable state of affairs. The town, as all know, was created and settled by New England, mainly. The town has a stock law, as it ought to have. Some ignorant people, natives in the country nearby made angry by this law, have twice invaded the town and cursed the "D-n Yankees." It is also said that threats to burn have been made, and that some of the townsfolk want to sell out and leave. It is yet further stated that none of the natives here yet come forward and even intimidated their sympathy in so annoying a state of affairs. These are the facts as given to the Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer.

The stewards in the Methodist church at Albertsville, Ala., finding their church revenue insufficient, have levied an annual tax of $10 on each tobacco-chewing member of the congregation. The plan is said to work admirably and to bring in a goodly revenue.

When bilious or costive, eat a Cascaret, candy cathartic, cure constipation.

H. P. Strause, of Henderson, arrived Wednesday evening to cast his lot with the force of tobacco buyers here. The right hand of welcome is extended him.

Around the Camp Fire.
The Bryan Grimes Camp of Pitt County Confederate Veterans held its annual meeting in the college grove here today. The attendance was larger than at former meetings, more than a hundred old soldiers being present.

The Camp was called to order by Commander E. A. Meye, who made a brief speech that was appreciated and applauded by his old comrades in arms.

After the speech the annual election of officers was held.

E. A. Meye was unanimously re-elected Commander, and B. F. Sugg was unanimously re-elected Secretary and Treasurer.

J. H. Smith, F. Ward and T. A. Nichols were appointed an Executive Committee.

It was decided that the annual reunions be held hereafter on the last Thursday in July, and that instead of being a meeting of old soldiers alone they bring their wives and children and spend time with them.

A committee of three in each township will be appointed to look after the arrangements for the next annual gathering.

The veterans gathered about in groups and entertained each other with war stories until dinner was announced, when they enjoyed the nice spread prepared for the occasion.

In this public condition of affairs for any community to begin as soon as a stranger moves in their midst, to do whatever is possible to drag him down. Of all despicable wretches upon the face of the earth the village tattler is the meanest.—Trenton News.

NO CURE—NO PAY.
That is the way all druggists sell GROVES TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.
