MUNFORD

MARRIED.

North Carolina Wins Another Fair
Virginian.

Wednesday afternoon, 15th inst., at 4:30 o'clock, in the Baptist church at Clarksville, Va., Mr. W. T. Lee, of Greenville and Miss Etta H. Drake, of Clarksville, were united in marriage by Rev. G. T. Watkins.

The attendants were V. J. Lee and Miss Janie Drake, John Drake and Miss Minnie Morton, E. B. Goode, Jr., and Miss Sallie Drake, G. P. Finch and Miss Maud Pettingill.

Little Misses Leddon Wood and Belle Doggett were the flower girls.

The church was beautifully decorated and artificially lighted for the occasion.

Soon after the ceremony the couple left on the evening train via Oxford and Henderson, reaching Greenville Thursday evening. At night a reception was held at the home of Mrs. S. D. Lee, in South Greenville, during which a large number of our people called to extend congratulations to the couple and to welcome the bride to Greenville.

They received many very handsome bridal presents from friends at the home of both bride and groom.

The REFLECTOR wishes them a long and happy wedded life.

More and More.

Every week the Greenville market grows better and the sales grow larger. This week has been the best yet of the season, almost full breaks every day with prices very satisfactory. Tobacco comes here from several adjoining counties, in some instances even from the very doors of other markets. This argues, of course, that the Greenville market is in the lead for high prices.

Bell Cracked.

Last spring the town purchased a large steel bell to be used as a fire alarm. This bell was raised on a tower near the Court House and has been used by the watchmen in ringing the hours of the night. A few nights ago the bell cracked and now it has a very different sound from what it once had. It must have been an interior bell to crack so easily. It cost the town $50.

The Way They Do Things in Indiana.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 15.—A report has reached this city to the effect that five men were hanged in Versailles, Ind., a small town last night. They were caught in the act of committing burglary, and they were captured and strung up by a crowd of angry citizens.

A great many burglaries have been committed in the neighborhood of Versailles recently, which stirred the people to a frenzy, and they set about with a strong determination to make an example of some of the thieves, which they carried out with "neatness and dispatch" last night.

STATE NEWS.

A banana tree in Weldon has matured a bunch of fruit.

One hundred convicts have been sent from the penitentiary to pick cotton on the State farms in Halifax county.

The Weldon News says a 17 year old Halifax boy picked out 410 pounds of cotton in one day, and the boy says he believes he can go up to 600.

The Advance tells of a Wilson county boy who in some way got a grain of corn in his windpipe. The matter was neglected too long and the corn sprouted. Physicians think the boy's life cannot be saved.

Showers Promised

The weather report is about as gratifying news as could be published today. A change has long been wished for and the showers, if they come as scheduled, will be heartily welcomed.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1897.

BE SQUARE WITH YOUR PAPER

Probably no one thing has done more to retard the progress of the newspaper in North Carolina than the credit system attached to its subscription list.

With few exceptions, the newspapers published in this State have been issued week after week and sent out to their readers, who strangely enough are set down as "subscribers," and with no thought that these "subscribers" will pay any time before the year ends.

In fact with many newspapers, the "subscriber" who pays within or at the end of a year is regarded as "good pay."

It is no unusual circumstance for newspapers that have been running ten or twenty years to have names of persons upon their books who have been receiving these papers during the entire existence of the paper, and who have never paid a dollar toward their support.

The newspapers in North Carolina that is run upon the strictly pay in advance plan, whose subscribers are cut off with the last issue of the paper for, are so few that they would make a small list, if published.

And yet with this shiftlessness, this is no business way of publishing newspapers, this unlimited credit system, is it surprising that the newspaper business from a financial standpoint, is a failure in this State?

In marked contrast with the above style of issuing newspapers, is the method pursued by the thousands of publishers of newspapers who pour their editions into North Carolina every week.

Is there an outside daily newspaper sent into North Carolina to any subscriber who has not been paid for it in advance?

How many weekly or monthly publications are sent to readers in this State for which the subscription has not been paid?

And yet North Carolinians will pay cash in advance for newspapers published in Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore or New York, Atlanta or Charleston, and make no protest, while at the same time, if their own home newspapers ask for their subscription in advance, they will consider it a hardship, and make a protest against such a system.

Is this a just or a fair treatment of the home newspaper, which courageously upholds its town, county and State with all their interests?

The Press of North Carolina today is hard working, liberal towards its patrons, patriotic in all matters pertaining to its State, yet it must almost beg for its maintenance.

Is it exacting when a newspaper demands cash in advance for its paper? Surely not.

Twice-a-Week Reflector.

To better accommodate the large and growing advertising patronage of THE EASTERN REFLECTOR (our weekly edition) and at the same time to give our subscribers thereto more reading matter and a quicker news service, we have decided to change it from a weekly to a semi-weekly edition. We hope to have everything in readiness to make the change by the first week in October, after which time we will send each and every subscriber two papers a week instead of one as heretofore. Our present plan is to make the publication days of the semi-weekly REFLECTOR Tuesdays and Fridays, as the papers sent out on these days would best reach all sections of the county. The subscription price will remain the same, the two papers a week being sent for only ONE DOLLAR a year.

And is it too much to ask that North Carolinians show the same favor towards their own home newspapers, they ought to do more, that they extend to outside newspapers? Surely not.

If this was done now very different would the Press of the State appear, and then might North Carolina boast of newspapers which in every way might fittingly represent this great commonwealth.

No greater wave of prosperity could pass over the State, than that every reader in North Carolina become a bona fide pay in advance reader of one or more North Carolina newspapers.—Newbern Journal.

Buried Thirteen Days

Ten nights in a bar-room are not to be mentioned with thirteen days and nights entombed in a coal mine without food and water; and if the Arizona miner could put on paper his experience, his thoughts, his despair alternating with hope, and the joy of his final rescue it would be the most thrilling story of the year.

After having gone without food and water for thirteen days this miner, who had been entombed by a cave-in in the Mammoth mine in Arizona, was rescued by his fellow workman who dug through 137 feet of hard porphyritic rock to reach him. When brought from his living tomb he had lost forty-four pounds.

He has not yet gotten back his weight, but is gaining flesh rapidly. For two days after his rescue he was given only chicken broth in small quantities and was not allowed to drink any water or eat any solid food. After the second day he was allowed to eat a hearty meal, and has been steadily improving. The company has paid his full wages and his associates have gotten up a benefit ball for him. He fared much better than the engineer who was sent up into the clouds by the blowing up of his engine, and when he got back down found himself docked for the time he was up in the air.—Augusta Chronicle.

Anointed With Oil.

Messrs. F. N. Day and D. H. Browder went down to High Point yesterday to attend Rev. W. P. Fife's meeting, which is attracting considerable attention on account of the doctrine of "divine healing" as set forth by Evangelist T. H. Leavitt, of Canada, who is assisting Mr. Fife.

Believers in this doctrine claim that any and all diseases can be healed by the afflicted person giving himself wholly up to God and allowing Him to dwell within him. There were four persons anointed with oil at the services yesterday which Messrs. Day and Browder attended, for different troubles, and one lady, whose disease was heart trouble, testified that she felt her troubles leave her and felt peace within even as the oil was poured upon her.

Mr. Fife is a convert to the new faith and says he has thrown away all medicine and is now living, sound and well, by the help of the spirit of God that dwells within him.—Winston Journal.

Had Reasons to Remember.

"Pard," said Mosely Wragers, as the two lounged up in front of a druggist's show window, "I'll bet a cold buckwheat agin a last year's doughnut you don't know what that thing is that's a hangin' up there."

"I know wet it is as well as you do," scornfully answered Tuffold Knutt.

"It's a hot water bottle. I laid down on a porch in Milwaukee wunst an' groaned an' let on like I had the ploodisy an' come durned fool in the house, 'stead of givin' me a drink o' beer, brought me out one o' them things, full o' hot water, an' told me to put it agin my chist. I done it, an, the stopper come out, ar the thing busted, ar somethin', an' it"

Here Tuffold shuddered visibly.

"—It give me the fast bath I'd had fur nineteen year! Reckon I'd furgit wet it looked like? You go an' soak yer old head!"—Chicago Tribune.

Case of Part.

"You and Jack sit next to each other in school, don't you, Willie?"

"Part of the time."

"Only a part?"

"Yes, sir. Jack's standing in the corner most of the time."

"And what do you do then?"

"Oh, I generally stand in the other corner."—Philadelphia Journal.

KLONDIKE SCRAPS.

There is Gold in Some of These.

Cotton 6 1/2 today.

Knights of Pythias meet tonight.

Eggs and chickens at S. M. Schultz.

There was a good sprinkling of cotton in town today.

My new goods are arriving. Call and see them. Mrs. M. D. Higgs.

In today—Fresh N. Y. State Butter and lard at S. M. Schultz.

The latest and prettiest styles in millinery can now be seen at Mrs. M. D. Higgs.

The weather seems bent on getting warmer than ever. Today has been a scorcher.

A photographer has put up a gallery on the vacant lot next to the store of Brown & Hooker.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. R. C. Cannon to Miss Delia E. Cannon, at Rountree's church, this county, on the evening of the 22nd.

If you want your laundry done right, send it to me in time for Wednesday's shipment. Packages always ready for delivery Saturday evening.

JUST FOR FUN.

Honx—"I had a night mare last night. I dreamed I was struggling in the water." Joax—"In the bed springs I suppose."

Muggins—"It strikes me you are looking unusually well." Buggins—"Yes; I haven't been away on my vacation yet."

"This is carrying a joke too far," grumbled the professional humorist as he offered his wares to the twentieth editor in one afternoon.

The Fire Engine.

Mr. Charles R. Moore, an expert engineer of the La France Fire Engine Co., of Elmhurst, N. Y., reached Greenville Thursday evening to mount and test the steam engine which the company shipped to Greenville. The engine was brought down to the engine house today and attracted much attention as it passed through the street. It is a handsome machine and looks like it should do excellent work.

The engine was taken to the river at o'clock to be tested.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVES TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

Printed Points That Pertain to People.

J. L. Fountain, of Falkland, was here today.

Miss Mary Bernard returned Thursday evening.

Rev. J. J. Harper left this morning for his home in Smithfield.

Mrs. E. H. Wilson and children returned to Kinston Thursday evening.

E. B. Ficklen went to Kinston Thursday evening and returned this morning.

Sheriff W. H. Harrington went to Grifton last night and returned this morning.

We were glad to see Rev. B. W. Spilman at the depot this morning. He was on his way to Weldon.

The REFLECTOR was mistaken in saying yesterday that Miss Margie Langley had returned home. She is still in Baltimore.

Mrs. R. M. Hearne and little son, Edward, of Washington, are visiting the family of her father, Allen Warren at Riverside Nurseries.

Misses Bessie Sutton, of Kinston, and Bessie Wyatt, of Raleigh, who made a very pleasant visit here as the guests of Miss Bessie Harding, left Thursday evening for Kinston.

Rev. J. B. Morton, of Tarboro, arrived Thursday evening and will remain here through Sunday. He will fill his regular appointment in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

Appointment Ready.

The appointment from the general school fund of the State has been made and Superintendent of Public Instruction Mebane will send a warrant to every county treasurer in the State next week.

The total amount apportioned is $56,849.13, and is divided out at the ratio of .09 per capita of school population. Wake county receives the largest amount, $1,595.16, Buncombe comes second with $1,310.14, Mecklenburg third with $1,204.56 while Dare receives the smallest sum, $134.

The general school fund arises from the sale of public lands, interest on the bonds and some other sources. Every few years it is apportioned out. The last apportionment before the present one was made in 1894 and the total amount was $43,266.93 at the rate of .07 per capita. It requires $18,000 to run the public schools one day so this $56,849.13 will run them about four days longer. —Raleigh News and Observer.
