CHANGE IN HOUR FOR WORSHIP.

Prompt Attendance is Specially Requested.

It will be seen by reference to the church directory for to-morrow that the time of the night services in the churches has been changed. Beginning with tomorrow, at night, the bells will begin to ring at 7:30 o'clock, and services will commence promptly at 7:45. In the morning the hour remains 11 o'clock.

It is a growing habit here with many people not to go to church until after the services have commenced. If you consider for one moment that this disturbs the entire congregation and the services you will see that you ought to be there on time. No one can appreciate the service properly who does not hear it all, and coming in late not only deprives you of this privilege, but it prevents others from getting the full benefit. The bells ring promptly at the appointed hour and you ought to be ready at this time. We call your attention to this with the hope that it may be remedied at once. Let us all be on time tomorrow at all the services and make this the habit of our lives. Cordial invitations are extended by all the churches to everybody to attend all the services, and to be there at the very beginning. Remember the time and be prompt always and you will aid the services very much.

Never Underrate Competition.

You should never, in your efforts to learn about your competitor, say or do anything that will tend to cause him to be underrated. It is better to appear to your customers as being on amicable terms than otherwise with him. If you should casually say to them that Mr. Blank is a good business man and deserving of credit for the energy and enterprise he displays, they would probably set you down as a broad-minded and liberal and a conscientious man, and this is the sort of reputation you want to get. People will come to think by-and-by that you are prone to withhold credit from yourself and they will say so.—Shoe and Leather Facts.

Mr. Bernard May Win.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—Congressmen Harry Skinner and Hon. C. M. Bernard, Skinner's candidate for United States district attorney, were at the White House today and had a pleasant interview with President McKinley. When they came out of the President's room they wore a satisfied smile, which clearly indicated that the talk had been highly successful. The appointment of district attorney for the eastern district will not, however, be made immediately.

Mr. John Pate was arrested Thursday for trying to burn up his house Wednesday night while drunk. He is in jail in default of $100 bond.—Kinston Free Press.

The three-year-old son of Robert Hubbard was burned to death at Elkin. The child turned over a lamp from which his clothes caught fire. The mother's hands were badly burned and it is feared one of her arms will have to be amputated. Mr. Hubbard lost one of his arms in a planing mill about one year ago.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept 17, 1897

The Hanna-McKinley combine do not wish Secretary Sherman to take the stump in Ohio; they are afraid that he will say something that ought not to be said, either about the alleged Cuban policy or about the various indignities which have been put upon him since he was forced out of the Senate and into the Cabinet. Knowing the old man to possess the stubbornness characteristic of the Sherman family they have not attempted to bulldoze him into making speeches in the Ohio campaign, but have attacked him upon his weakest side. For many years Mr. Sherman has been one of the greatest sticklers for a maintenance of the properties of official life, and that is what the Hanna-McKinley combine has been working on. How much they have impressed the old man may be judged from his reply when asked how soon he was going to Ohio and what part he expected to take in the campaign. He said he did not expect to be in the State before the first of October, and that it was not certain that he would take any part in the campaign, and that it was not customary for the Secretary of State to make political speeches. If somebody doesn't open his eyes Mr. Sherman will make no speeches.

Boss Platt came over from New York this week to urge upon Mr. McKinley the speedy appointment of the Platt candidates for the Federal offices in New York which have not yet been filled with Republicans. He told Mr. McKinley that he wanted the prestige of naming these officers now, for the assistance it would give him in the greater New York municipal campaign; and if he was not to be allowed to name them, he wanted to know at the earliest possible moment. It is understood that Mr. Platt talked to Mr. McKinley more like a man who had the right to demand things than one who asks them as a favor, and that his men are going to be appointed. Platt wants to get Secretary Bliss to resign and become his candidate for Mayor of greater New York.

Notwithstanding the protests of the subcommittee of the Senate committee on Pacific Railroads, the syndicate that is after the Union Pacific Railroad will get it under the decree of the U. S. Circuit court of the Eight District, ordering the road to be sold. The Senators who conferred with the Attorney General asked that the matter be held up until Congress met and pointed out that it could easily be done by the government taking an appeal from the Circuit to the Supreme

Twice-a-Week Reflector.

To better accommodate the large and growing advertising patronage of THE EASTERN REFLECTOR (our weekly edition) and at the same time to give our subscribers thereto more reading matter and a quicker news service, we have decided to change it from a weekly to a semi-weekly edition. We hope to have everything in readiness to make the change by the first week in October, after which time we will send each and every subscriber two papers a week instead of one as heretofore. Our present plan is to make the publication days of the semi-weekly REFLECTOR Tuesdays and Fridays, as the papers sent out on these days would best reach all sections of the county. The subscription price will remain the same, the two papers a week being sent for only ONE DOLLAR a year.

Court, but the members of the purchasing syndicate are men of influence in Republican circles and when the question was brought before Mr. McKinley and his Cabinet it was speedily decided that no appraisal should be taken and that the policy of the government should be hands off. This may seem strange to some people, in view of the very positive statements made on the floor of the Senate by Mr. Morgan, of Ala., and others who have made careful study of this matter, that this sale would mean the loss of millions of dollars to the U. S. and to other creditors of the road, but it really isn't strange; it is merely cause and effect.

The decision of Judge Cox, in the case of Woods against the Postmaster General, that the recent civil service rules promulgated by Mr. McKinley have no authority in law, and that the legal right of the head of a government department to remove his subordinates without giving any reason therefor, was hardly in print before the Civil Service Commission, which is credited with responsibility for the authorship of the rule that no dismissal should be made from the classified service except upon written charge;—the rule upon which Woods based his suit—made a statement trying to break the force of the decision by saying that it did not affect the binding power of the President's order upon all officials. Intelligent persons may decide for themselves how "binding" an order will be which has been declared by a court to be illegal.

The experiments of shipping American butter to London made by the Agricultural Department have not been a financial success. Complete report for the last shipment have been received and they show that the Massachusetts butter, which is sold where it is made for 20 cents a pound, only brought 19 1/2 cents a pound in London, and the Minnesota butter was sold to London wholesalers for 18 1/5 cents a pound. The greed of the London retailer is given as an excuse for the small prices, but, inasmuch as there is no practical way for the American dairymen to compel London retailers to accept a smaller profit and give them the benefit by paying large wholesale prices, it is not a valid one.

Slept Over Fifty Hours.

A case of long sleeping has just come to light here. Richard Morgridge a youth fifteen years of age, whose mother keeps a boarding house on South Elm, came home the other day and lying down on the bed about 3 o'clock went to sleep. He did not complain of being sick and very little attention was paid to him.

He slept on all that night, all the next day, the next night and until between 6 and 7 o'clock the next day, when he woke up, seeming to be none the worse for this long nap of about 50 hours or over.

Dr. Brooks was called in to see him during his sleep and after he had waked up, but said there was nothing in the world the matter with him if so he could not discover it.

Since this time Richard has been as well as usual, going to school and playing like other boys.—Greensboro Record.

A Sure Test of Character.

The way in which a man recovers from one of his own blunders is a sure test of character. If he finds that he has made a mistake, he will either say so in so many words, or else he will wriggle and twist to avoid a confession. The former is the only manly course. There is nothing humiliating in acknowledging an error of judgment or of conduct. A magnanimous nature finds relief in saying explicitly: "I was wrong." But it is not everyone that is magnanimous. The small folk who virtually lay claim to infallibility back from the admission of mistake upon their part as if it were a derogation from the dignity of their character.—Ex.

The latest and prettiest styles in millinery can now be seen at Mrs. M. D. Higg.

This section got a light rain Friday night which had a delightfully cooling effect on the temperature.

The steam fire engine did not quite pump the river dry Friday afternoon. Not much water there, however.

Of course the weather business could commence giving us rain reports when court week drew near. It is seldom that we have a dry court.

If you want your laundry done right, send it to me in time for Wednesday's shipment. Packages always ready for delivery Saturday evening.

THE ENGINE TESTED.

And Does Satisfactory Work.

The steam fire engine was given a thorough testing Friday afternoon, and proved entirely satisfactory. It was first taken to the river, at the wharf. In four minutes after the match was applied the steam gauge registered 40 pounds and it continued to go up rapidly. Nine hundred feet of hose were ran out up the hill to Front street, an elevation of fully 30 feet above the river, and a stream was thrown several feet above the steeple of the colored Methodist church.

The engine was then taken to the cistern on the corner of Evans and Fourth streets and given an exhibition test. Many members of the fire department and a large number of citizens witnessed both tests and expressed themselves as well pleased with the work of the engine.

A pair of Mr. Alfred Forbes' horses carried the engine to the river, and to the cistern and moved it very readily.

With so good an engine as this, so soon as sufficient water is provided Greenville can feel quite safe against fire. But it should be borne in mind yet that water is needed.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVES TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.
