RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Adopted by the Bar in Memory of Hon J H Blount.

On Wednesday afternoon at the opening of court, Mr. L. I. Moore announced to his Honor, Judge Timberlake, that since the last term of court, a member of the bar had passed away and that it was the desire of the bar that his Honor should appoint a suitable hour when appropriate exercises might be had to the memory of the late J. H. Blount, whereupon his Honor appointed Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

When that hour arrived Judge Tim-berlake came down and took his seat with the bar. On motion of F. G.
James his Honor Judge Timberlake was elected chairman and Wm. F.
Harding secretary.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

WHEREAS the decree of an All Wise Providence has removed from our midst our professional brother, Hon. J. H. Blount, therefore while we bow with becoming recognition to this painful visitation of a power whose wisdom we cannot and do not question therefore be it resolved.

1st. That in the death of our brother we and the profession generally have lost an able, upright and high minded member.

2nd. That we deeply deplore the loss to ourselves, to this community, and to the section, which has fallen upon us in this removal of our distinguished brother.

3rd. That we will cherish in most pleasant recollection our professional and social association with our departed friend.

4th. That we tender to his widow and his relatives our sincerest condolence and sympathy.

5th. That the presiding Judge be requested to have spread on the records of this court these resolutions so they may remain a perpetual assertion of our tribute of respect to the memory of our deceased brother.

F. G. JAMES,
H. SKINNER,
W. M. BOND,
Committee.

Short speeches were made by L. I.
Moore, W. M. Bond, F. G. James, J.
L. Fleming, A. M. Moore, Harry Skinner and Wm. F. Harding.

MRS HIGGS' OPENING

Ladies Invited to View the Season's Attractions

Wednesday and Thursday, 29th and 30th, have been set apart as opening days at Mrs. M. D. Higgs' millinery emporium. She will have on exhibition the most beautiful styles and effects that have been brought out this season. Beauty, elegance and style are all blended in the selections. The opening display will embrace a full line of pattern hats, walking hats, sailors, Tan O'Shaunters, baby caps and cloaks, feather fans, Roman slits, red leather and Roman belts and ties, novelties in dress trimmings and braids, feathers, flowers, &c. The goods cannot be described and all the ladies are invited to be present at the opening and examine them.

Taxes and Cisterns.

Property owners who are interested in the building of more cisterns for better protection against fire, should not delay about paying their town taxes which are now due. The town authorities say they will not begin the work until the money is in the treasury to pay for it, hence the longer the payment of taxes is delayed the longer the town will be without more cisterns.

I have returned to Greenville and am again ready to serve all having any dressmaking to do. The patronage of my former customers, as well as others will be appreciated.

The Autumnal Textiles are in radiant profusion on our counters. No store in the South ever exhibited so much exclusiveness and elegance. There are gorgeous groups of stuffs from Paris, Vienna, Picardy, Roubaix, Glou-chau, Gera, Bradford, Leeds, Glasgow and other famous trans-Atlantic manufacturing cities. We selected the best that the makers of France, Germany, Austria, England and Scotland have produced, and you are invited to examine them while they are yet in their exquisite state of freshness and beauty. There are multitudes of plain makes in mono-colors, and an aggregation of fancy effects in multi-colors showing designs and combinations that are too kaleidoscopic for any advertising pen to describe. Price is no object with us.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1897.

Elsewhere in this paper is an interesting communication endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the Confederate soldiers of Pitt county. The writer points out the shame of our people for so long neglecting to do honor to the heroes and patriots who have lived before us. He truly says that Pitt county has "a wealth of history but a poverty of record." He names men whose deeds of valor should be so emblazoned on the pages of history as never to be forgotten. Year by year and years have been allowed to go by without any step being taken to honor and perpetuate their memory. The REFLECTOR takes great pleasure in publishing this communication and is glad to state that the same writer, who is one of our most intelligent and gifted young men, will follow this with other letters in which mention will be made of many of Pitt county's noble sons and patriots.

Everyone who is at all posted as to the world's supply of cotton and the present gloomy crops prospects, expects to see cotton advance in price. But the pity of it is that the advance will not come until the vast majority of the farmers have been forced by their necessities to sell their cotton. That portion of them who most sorely need every cent their cotton will bring will have to sell at the low fall prices, and it will only be their better circumstances neighbors and the speculators who will get the benefit of the higher prices which are bound to come. The curtailment of the world's supply of money by the demonetization of silver has brought about this state of affairs. The banks and corporations so manipulate the money supply that farmers' produce sells low until it has left their hands, and then it usually advances. There can be no permanent relief and justice to the producer until silver is given its ancient rights at the mints and the power of the few bankers in the money centers of the country to curtail our paper money circulation at will is taken away. A temporary amelioration of the farmers' condition is only to lull them to sleep on their rights so that they can the more successfully be robbed. It is only by continued effort that they can regain their rights. Let them demand of their candidates for all representative offices that they be silver men. That is the great question. Let nothing obscure it—Statesville Mascot.

Kansas City (Mo.) authorities have decided to suppress pool-rooms and all forms of gambling there.

SHALL WE HAVE A MONUMENT

EDITOR REFLECTOR:—I cannot refrain from adding a word of endorsement to the patriotic letter of Mr. Sugg last week and commending him in his laudable undertaking.

It has been said that "a people who forget their dead deserve themselves to be forgotten" and it might be added are forgotten.

It is the duty of every generation to preserve and perpetuate the memory of its illustrious dead.

Are the people of Pitt county unmindful or ignorant of the patriotic history of their county? To how many of us are the deeds of heroism and patriotism of our forefathers a sealed book?

How many know that within a few miles of your county seat unhonored and almost unmarked lies the remains of the great revolutionary patriot, Colonel John Simpson, who made such a glorious record in North Carolina annals in our struggle for American Independence?

Where rests the bones of Edward Salter, William Robeson, George Evans, William Bryan, James Armstrong and other revolutionary officers and patriots? Where is the brazen tablet to tell to future ages the story of the outlawry in 1775 of John Simpson, Robert Salter, Robert Lanier, Daniel Charles Forbes, Saxon Pearce and Peter Reeves for resistance to King George's Government?

How have we honored those who "under the ties of religion honor and regard for posterity—determined never to become slaves to any power upon earth?" Let that posterity answer.

How long will Carolinians neglect their dead an honest recital of whose deeds would proudly place us in the glory van of our sister States?

Will we continue to deny to our ancestry an honest memorial when a simple recountal of their efforts and deeds will be a most glorious record and an incentive to us for virtuous emulation.

This would tell the heroic story of self sacrifice and devotion to liberty that animated the patriots of Pitt in securing our blood bought liberties.

Every civilized nation since the earliest antiquity perpetuates in enduring form the achievements of her sons and this is the place she claims and is allowed on the scroll of history and fame.

We have a wealth of history but a poverty of record.

In Virginia's Capitol marble bust and brazen tablet keep before the eyes of her people images of such men as Washington, Marshall, Jefferson, Lee, Jackson and others.

The South Carolinian gathers inspiration as he gazes upon effigies of Laurens, Pinckney, Calhoun, Pettigree, &c.

The niches in our Capitol are vacant. Had we no greater men or were we carried onward in the march of Statehood by our border sister States? In answer let the shades of James Innes, Hugh Waddell, Robert Howe, Richard Caswell, Samuel Johnson, Nathaniel Macon, Jonsson Blakely, Stephen Decatur, James Iredell, Thos. Ruffin and a host of others rise and point the finger of shame at a recreant posterity.

When history sleeps scorn and incredulity sneer at her awakening.

While we deprecate this want of State pride let us at least honor the men who have made history for our county.

Let us build a monument to those whose lives and characters have given our county a respectable place in the annals of our State.

Throughout The Country

Several Yale students made tuition fees during vacation by working as motormen on trolley cars.

The Canadian Minister of Finance has gone to England to finance a $10,000,000 loan for use in the Dominion.

Wilfred Bell, a deaf mute student at Malvern, N. Y., is accused by a Coroner's jury of having murdered his mother.

While cooking at a range the apron of Mrs. Arion McChesney, of Port Chester, N. Y., took fire and she was burned to death.

Rev. W. I. Cooper, a pioneer missionary of the Methodist Episcopal Church on the Pacific coast, has been attacked by paralysis at Montezana, Wash., the result of a fall.

Yellow Jack Killed.

Cascarets, Candy Cathartic kills Yellow Jack wherever they find him. No one who takes Cascarets regularly and systematically is in danger from the dreadful disease. Cascarets kill Yellow fever germs in the bowels and prevent new ones from breeding. 10c, 25c, 50c, all druggists.

Oldest Old Maid in the World

The oldest old maid in the world lives at Seymour, Ind., and was 101 years old Wednesday. "Aunt Bettie," as Miss Downing is known, was never in love and declares she never saw a man she considered good enough for her. "I never kept company with but two fellers 'n all my life," she said, "an' as they didn't have spunk enough to ask me to marry 'em, I became disgusted."

Yellow Fever Germs

breed in the bowels. Kill them and you are safe from the awful disease. Cascarets destroy the germs throughout the system and make it impossible for new ones to form. Cascarets are the only reliable safe guard for young and old against Yellow Jack. 10c, 25c, 50c, all druggists.

The fine old town of Scotland Neck, N. C., is given a negro for a postmaster, and a negro bar-keeper at that. Behold one of the beauties of a Republican administration! The Republican party has to pay the darkies for their support of the Republican ticket, and the Southern people are made to bear the brunt of the humiliation involved. How can any Southern white man vote, directly or indirectly, to sustain such a state of things!—Richmond Dispatch.

The poor country newspaper editor is never robbed except by his professed friends. Well may he say, if held up by a highwayman, "I haven't my money with me; my lardy subscribers have it. They got it ahead of you!"—Press and Printer.

Yellow Jack Preventative.

Guard against Yellow Jack by keeping the system thoroughly clean and free from germ breeding matter. Cascarets Candy Cathartic will cleanse the system and kill all contagious disease germs.

Irresponsibility.

Occasionally one comes across persons who are to all intents and purposes utterly irresponsible. No matter what their acts, they have a plausible excuse, and when excuses are exhausted they dismiss the whole affair with a little flutter or a wave of the hand and declare that "really they don't know anything about it, or that they have done all they can, and that's all there is to it." Personal responsibility and the habits of accuracy, reliability, truthfulness and well bred frankness are among the most important items in the education of a child—above all, a feeling of accountability and the disposition to accept whatever belongs to one's share of the responsibilities of life.—New York Ledger.

Bread and Old Age.

Sir Isaac Holden, the millionaire member of parliament from Yorkshire, now nearly 90 years old, believes with John Wesley that phosphates of lime, in which flour is so rich, are good for growing children, young people, young mothers, but shorten the life of the elderly, by making bones dense and weighty muscles rigid, "furring" the large blood vessels like an old boiler and "choking the capillary arteries." So he eats hardly any bread, his favorite food being oranges, bananas and meat. When he eats the latter, he eats nothing else. Roast apples, with a tiny pinch of bicarbonate of soda to correct the acidity, and milk similarly treated are important items of his dietary
