LATE GENERAL NEWS.

The estate of the late Maj. Lewis Ginter, the famous tobacconist who died in Richmond last week, is estimated between $7,000,000 and $8,000,000.

A building of the State Industrial School at Plankinton, S. D., was destroyed by fire, Wednesday night, and seven young ladies lost their lives.

Bandits held up a train near Kansas City, on the Chicago & Alton road.

The shops of the Central Railroad located at Macou, Ga., were destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Loss $75,000 with no insurance.

The Grand Opera House and a ten story furniture building at Detroit, Mich., were destroyed by fire Tuesday night.

The Meeting.

Rev. J. A. Hornaday preached another splendid sermon last night in the Methodist church. He pointed out clearly God's long suffering to man, His power, His hatred of sin but love for the sinner, and that every transgression of ours grieves the great heart of God. His warning appeal to sinners not to tamper with God's mercy was very forcible. The congregation was large and attentive, and the singing led by Mrs. W. M. Bond, was excellent. Services each day at 4 and 7:45 P. M.

Five Advertising Hints.

A small line often lands a big fish. Great ads from little "want" lines grow. The temple of commerce is supported by columns of advertising. An ad's beauty is only ink deep, but its power cannot be fathomed. Whoever sits down to wait for trade to come his way will need a thick cushion on his seat—Profitable Advertising.

Cisterns and Market House

At the monthly meeting of the Town Council, held Thursday night, a committee was appointed to look after locating and building the cisterns for use in case of fire. Another committee was appointed to get a site for a market house, it being necessary to move the present building as it occupies property belonging to the county.

Coming Monday

Harris' Nickel Plate Show will exhibit in Greenville on Monday, 11th. Wherever this show has appeared in the State the papers speak of it as being among the best. The performances are good.

A Warning.

To all evil disposed persons, gamblers, so-called fakirs, games of chance men, villainous infesters of Country Fairs, etc.:

We kindly warn you to stay from the show grounds of this show; you will not be tolerated for one second. The proper authorities will be informed each day when we exhibit to arrest any man or person engaged in any scheme for the purpose of swindling our patrons. We advertise largely, squarely and honestly, and every act, word or feature is a sacred bona fide affidavit that we will do what we say, and we are in duty bound to protect our friends. We repeat, no game of chance, no gambling, no drinking booths, will be allowed near this show. If by chance they are there, it is the duty of all good respectable citizens to report them to the city officials at once, and we will join hands in prosecuting them to the fullest extent of the law. In coming to the Big Show don't let anyone make you believe you can get something for nothing. Have the exact change for your tickets, it will save you a great deal of delay and unnecessary trouble.

The public's obedient servant,
W. H. HARRIS,
Owner, manager and founder of the World Famous Nickel Plate Shows.

GAME LAW VIOLATED.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:—There is a class of hunters who have been violating the game law every year by hunting birds and turkeys in October. It is as much a violation to kill either the last day of October as it is the 1st day of August. Let them take warning if the law is broken this season they may have ten dollars to pay for every bird or turkey they kill. I saw one of this class hunting birds this week and some of the partridges can hardly fly. No huntsman that loves sport ought to countenance any violations.

They are the productions of the best makers in America. Materials, patterns, colorings, fashions, finish and cannot be surpassed by swell custom tailors. Nobby Clothes at popular prices, that show all the tone, grace and excellence of the ones costing twice as much elsewhere. Our ambition is to accomplish a tremendous a tremendous business and nothing has been neglected that might attract customers beneath this roof. Come and examine our stocks, make unbiased comparisons and we are sure that your calm reflection will favor our grand offerings. See us

OTHER IMPORTANT ITEMS.

Hats, Neckwear, Underwear, Half Hose, Gloves, Shirts and various kindred and related lines are here in immense quantities. Phenomenal values abound wherever you pause. Everything was bought in advance of the recent rise and we give you the benefit of our foresightedness. If low prices—popular prices—are any power in the art of trade building ours will grow and grow and grow.

FRANK WILSON.

THE KING CLOTHIER.

Brilliant Fabrics from Two Hemispheres.

Dress Goods, Clothing, Hats, SHOES.

The Autumnal Textiles are in radiant profusion on our counters. No store in the South ever exhibited so much exclusiveness and elegance. There are gorgeous groups of stuffs from Paris, Vienna, Picardy, Roubaix, Glouchau, Gera, Bradford, Leeds, Glasgow and other famous trans-Atlantic manufacturing cities. We selected the best that the makers of France, Germany, Austria, England and Scotland have produced, and you are invited to examine them while they are yet in their exquisite state of freshness and beauty. There are multitudes of plain makes in mono-colors, and an aggregation of fancy effects in multi-colors showing designs and combinations that are too kaleidoscopic for any advertising pen to describe. Price is no object with us.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1897.

Speak but Once a Year, and Then Only to Quarrel

"There is in Tennessee a family of three sisters which presents some of the most startling peculiarities imaginable," said Mr. J. J. Kennedy, of that State, yesterday at the Riggs. "The three sisters live together on a farm, their sole means of subsistence, and work early and late to earn a livelihood. Two of them work in the field; the third does the cooking and other house work.

"There is but one period of the year when any member of the trio has any thing to say to any other member. All during the winter, spring and summer they go about their business with the seal of silence on their lips. When fall comes and the crop is harvested they break the silence, and then only to quarrel over the division of the proceeds. When each gets all that she thinks possible, silence reigns again until the next harvest time. The sisters as you may judge, have made a name for themselves. They are known far and near as the 'deaf and dumb triplets,' although such a title is scarcely appropriate."—Washington Post.

Retrenchment and Reform

During the campaign the Third party candidates and Republicans in Wilson county criticised the Democratic county administration for what they claimed excessive expenditures, and used the argument to make votes promising that if allowed to manage affairs the expenses would be so much less than formerly. Leaving out the question of whether the county is as well governed, we shall take one item from the records to show that our present commissioners are not keeping their promise to the people. The records show that the tax assessors for the whole county last year were paid $235.96, and this year they have been paid $332.56—nearly a hundred dollars more. Last year Mr. Wells was paid $462.00 for making out the tax list. This year Mr. Griffin has sent in his bill for $1,100.—Wilson Times.

A Remarkable Davidson County Woman

Mr. R. J. Holmes, Jr., who has recently returned from a visit to Davidson county, tells us of a remarkable old lady who lives near Sapona. Her name is Mrs. Andrew Young and she is 84 years old. She is yet vigorous and active, walks six miles a day two or three times a week and never takes medicine. There are scarcely any wrinkles in her face and her teeth are in good condition.

She has never been sick but once, having had a slight spell of sickness when she was 35 years old.

Mrs. Young has 100 grand children 100 great grand children and 2 great great grand children. Her descendants are scattered over all parts of the State and many of them she does not even know.—Salisbury World.

THE NEGRO AS AN OBSTACLE.

The colored man will be with us of the South always. His tribe now numbers 7,000,000; his increase is about 200,000 annually. To send him back to Africa is impossible, and if it were not impossible, it would be utterly impracticable. To colonize him in this country is also both impossible and practicable. Amalgamation is losing ground instead of gaining, which is vastly to the credit of our country. So the colored man is here to stay. We must take account of him, we must reckon on him.

Since the gates of Eden closed on Adam and Eve no greater calamity has befallen a people than that which was thrust upon the stricken South by the act giving 1,000,000 slaves, sons of generations of slaves, the right of franchise. From that day until now the course of the Southern people has been a desperate struggle up grade against odds that would have daunted a less valliant race. Politically we are where we were three decades ago. No reforms could be initiated, no advanced positions be taken, because every year and hour the slightest disaffection would throw 100,000 colored voters into ascendancy. Take a simple instance: The editor of the Biblical Recorder, now gathered to his fathers, was denounced and abused throughout North Carolina because he would not advocate a Prohibition party. Those who knew him knew why he was silent. He knew that to advocate the Prohibition party would divide the white people, and the colored voters would rise in power. He preferred liquor-selling with honorable white men in office to liquorselling with incompetent colored men and representatives of them in power. His position was sound.

This is only one instance. Hundreds might be named. For every reform creates division, every new idea creates disaffection. And in consequence the larger element of the white people in the South are politically the slowest in the world to move. And it will be so long as there is the almost inevitable consequence that to initiate a change will turn the country over to an incompetent and unworthy regime.

Without another word it is clear that the negro is an obstacle; clear that inevitably the Southern country must be retarded in her political progress so long as he is an obstacle. It is clear that he is here to stay. What then? Disfranchisement. It is the only hope. There is but one ground that will reach the mark, and that is illiteracy. It is a good ore; it will stand the test of common sense and plain reason and right. Is it impracticable? It cannot be. One year or two years may not achieve the end, but it is worth a decade of struggle. Other issues pale into insignificance beside this; they should not be suffered to interfere. If the unintelligent vote of North Carolina could be eliminated the State could then address herself with a single eye to the needs of the people.—Biblical Recorder.

RUSSELL'S FREE PASS.

Otho Wilson Tells of the Executive's Embarrassment.

Mr. Wilson, has been in Winston getting the Hayseeder in sailing shape. Otho is talking as he walks these days. He tells the Winston Sentinel an interesting story about the governor as follows: "Otho seems to have the dots on Gov. Russell in the 'free pass' matter and tells a story on his excellency which is a stunner if it is true—and Otho vouches for it. It is well known that Russell is making a fight against the issuing of free passes and last week Judge Robinson charged the Wake county grand jury to return true bills against all railroads for this crime (?). During the session of the court there was a case of this kind in which the Governor was a witness for the State.

Well, Otho's story is like this: Governor Russell, Judge Robinson and Solicitor Pou boarded the Seaboard Air Line at Raleigh a few days ago. The meeting of the three men on the train was by accident, but they made a pleasant party and when the conductor came up calling for tickets they were in the midst of animated conversation. The conductor called "tickets," and Solicitor Pou and Judge Robinson handed over their regular tickets, as the Governor says all law abiding citizens should do. All eyes were then turned upon His Excellency. Strange to say, he seemed to have "shrunk up" several pounds (he usually "puffs up" that is, when the tables are not against him.) He didn't hand over a ticket. The conductor assumed an air of "hand over or get off." The Governor squirmed in his seat, "spluttered" out one of his characteristic "snorts" and humbly appealed to the conductor to "pass on" and he would adjust the matter with him in a few minutes. Of course a little later he had a private audience with the conductor and showed his pass over the Seaboard Air Line.

It was evidently embarrassing for Russell to be caught in such a box, especially in the presence of Judge Robinson.—Raleigh Press Visitor.

The Trick Won't Work

The Russell Butler programme seems to be to make the North Carolina Railroad lease the issue in the next campaign, and they have an idea that a good many Democrats will bite at that and go with them in it, but they are reckoning without their host if they think that the Democrats of this State are going to let them make issues to divert attention from the short coming and devilment of the Republican-Populist combine which has done so much to disgrace and humiliate this State since it has held the reins. There are differences of opinions among Democrats on that lease question, but the Butler-Russell combine can't play that to catch Democratic votes.—Wilmington Star.

A Chariot of Fire

A fire, which, to say the least, was unique, occurred on the highway between here and Pineville Saturday.

A wagon, the frame of which was covered with cotton bagging, left town full of hands going to Mr. Baxter Bailes'. There were women as well as men in the crowd. One of the men was smoking. A spark, "unbeknownst" to him got into the bagging. In a few seconds a blaze shot up. The mules were going at a pretty lively pace, and the flames increased so rapidly that the occupants of the wagon barely escaped with their lives. They jumped through the flames or fell out, whichever they could do best. Several of the women caught on fire. The driverless mules rushed on, and the flames rushed up, fully 15 feet. The mules were singed, a new bedstead, a pair of shoes and some clothes in the wagon were consumed, along with the frame. The darkies had often sung about the chariots of fire, but they now prefer to make the exit some other way.—Charlotte Observer.

Right Living

Right living is, in one sense, a living without making mistakes. To make mistakes is human, however, and a mistake may at least have in it the merit of activity. The person who does nothing may escape blundering, but a do nothing policy is not often a help to progress. "Recently" said a notable speaker at a memorable gathering lately assembled, "I saw some people who have made no mistake for thousands of years. They were in the museum of the University of Pennsylvania, in the Peruvian and Mexican departments, in glass cases."—Youths' Companion.

Enlarges many an old business,
Preserves many a large business,
Revives many a dull business,
Rescues many a lost business,
Saves many a failing business.
Secures success to any business

To "advertise judiciously," use the columns of the REFLECTOR.

Keeping Constantly at it Brings Success

TRAIN AND BOAT SCHEDULES.

Passenger and mail train going North, arrives 8:52 A. M. Going South, arrives 6:57 P. M.

Steamer Tar River arrives from Washington Monday, Wednesday and Friday leaves for Washington Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

Fair tonight and Saturday, slightly warmer

LITTLE REFLECTIONS

Caught of the Small Things That Occur.

Grapes will soon be gone.
Cotton declined a few points today.
The corn crop is being gathered.
Stuck on the town—circus pictures.
Edgecombe county is going the way of Halifax. The Southerner says a negro woman has been appointed postmaster at Lawrence in that county.

The next regular monthly meeting of Hope Fire Company will be changed from the second to the third Monday night in this month.

Fresh Arrival—Citron, Cleaned Currants, Chocolate, Dried Prunes, Apricots, Apples, Raisins, Oat Flakes, Buckwheat, Paper Shell A.M.C. Sapolio, at S. M. Shultz.

To the Ladies

If you have lace curtains that need laundering send them to me. Price 50 cents a pair. Goods sent off every Wednesday morning, and returned Saturday evening.

C. B. WHICHARD,
Agt. Wilmington Steam Laundry.

Where are the Frog Catchers.

Mr. J. R. Moore, express agent, is in receipt of an inquiry from a Pennsylvania town if a few hundred dozen large size bull frogs could be procured in this section. There are some frogs around here, but catching them would be where the fun came in.

$30 for $128.78 Worth of Printing
State Printer Barnes Saturday put in a bill for job printing during September for $128.78. And Auditor Ayer drew $30 as superintendent of the State printing. This amount he pays to a clerk which he employed since he has taken charge of the printing.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVES TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

RIVERSIDE DAIRY,

R. M. KENNEDY, Mgr.

Pure, sweet milk delivered at your door, morning and evening, at 30 cents per gallon. With ten years experience in the dairy business in Greenville we deem it unnecessary to say more.

OCTOGENARIANS

None in This Column, But a Few Outside

E. B. Ficklen has returned from Lynchburg.

Mrs. W. H. Harrington and little son, went to Tarboro today.

Miss Florence Jordan, of Branchville Va., is visiting the family of H. B. Clark.

T. D. Summerell and wife, who have been spending a few days here, left this morning.

W. J. Yancey has moved to Washington. His family went there today.

Mrs. Zeno Moore and little son left this morning to visit her parents in Edgecombe.

J. H. Myers and wife, who have been visiting the family of C. M. Bernard, left this morning for Huntington, W. Va.

Miss Hattie Leggett who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. F. McGowan, near Falkland, returned home Thursday.

Rev. A. W. Setzer returned Thursday evening from attending the Tar River Association which met near Rocky Mount.

Big Sales

The tobacco warehouses had full breaks today, the sales continuing nearly all day. This market continues to hold the lead on high prices, in fact there is not a better market in the State than Greenville.

Mad Dog and Fires

Mr. W. M. Smith, of Falkland township, tells us that a mad dog was killed at the cross roads, near his place, on Thursday. The mad dog bit another dog in the neighborhood and he was also killed.

Mr. Smith also said that forest fires are doing much damage through his section of the county.

The Stars and Stripes Wave.

Frank Wilson, the king clothier, comes to the front in the way of patriotism. He has raised a tall pole in front of his store from which gracefully floats a large United States flag. Should Uncle Sam stroll around this way he would take just pride in seeing his stars and stripes floating over such an establishment as Frank Wilson's, and if he went inside Frank could fit him out in a new suit that would make him strictly up to date.

To Correspondents.

As THE EASTERN REFLECTOR is now issued twice a week we would be glad to have our correspondents send in items twice a week if possible. Even if you send only a few items on a postal card it will help make the paper more interesting. We would also like to have correspondents in other sections of the county from which no items are now received. Help us make the twice a week REFLECTOR a paper that gives the news of the entire county. If you are convenient to a telephone call up No 80 and give us the news if you haven't time to write.
