Baltimore Wins the Temple Cup.

Baltimore, October 11.—The Temple cup will stay in Baltimore another year. It has been won twice in succession for the first time in its history and if the Orioles take it again it is theirs absolutely. The former champions also take 60 per cent. of the money paid in at the gates during the three games in Boston and the two played here, while the winners of the pennant will get but 40 per cent. unless as is generally believed, the players have agreed among themselves to divide the spoils equally.

Today's game, like all the others of the series save the first one, was an easy proposition for the Baltimoreans, who won as they pleased, while the visitors never appeared to think they had any chance whatever. An audience so small that the management refused to give exact number and so utterly devoid of enthusiasm that scarcely a ripple of applause occurred saw it done and appeared to be glad that the game which, by the way, was one of the worst on record, was over and the season was over with it. There may have been 1,000 people on the grounds, but a better estimate would place the attendance at 750. This fact in view of the pleasant weather which prevailed, indicates that Baltimore baseball enthusiasts have had a surfeit of the sport for the time being and that they do not look upon a Temple cup game as being anything out of the ordinary. At its conclusion both teams discarded and many of the players left for their homes, two of them, Jennings and Kelley, to Philadelphia for the early assumption of marital responsibilities.

The score, Baltimore 9; Boston 3.

Earned runs—Baltimore, 3; Boston, 3. Two base ball hits, O'Brien, Clark Hoffer, Hickman. Three base hits—Stenzel, Yeager. Stolen bases—Stenzel, Double plays, McGraw, Reitz and Bowerman, Reitz, Jennings and Bowerman (2). Left on bases—Baltimore 7; Boston 7. First base on balls—Off Hickman 3. Struck out by Hoffer 1. Passed balls—Yeager 1. Wild pitches—Hickman. Time 1:20. Umpires Hurst and Emslie. Batteries—Hoffer, and Clark; Sullivan, Hickman and Yeager.

Sale of Valuable Property.

On the first Monday in December the Board of County Commissioners will sell at public sale the town lot on which the Market House now stands, situated immediately in front of the Court House. This is valuable property and very desirable for business lots. Particulars of the sale can be seen by reference to advertisement published in this issue.

STATE NEWS.

Ex-Judge Geore V. Strong, of Raleigh, died Sunday.

Durham is being troubled with burglars and safe blowers.

The gin house, grist mill and saw mill of J. D. Taylor, at Conoho, was destroyed by fire a few days ago. Thirty bales of cotton were also burned.

In Raleigh Monday morning Al. Watson, a young man who had been married only three months, shot his wife and then killed himself. Drunkenness was the cause of his horrible crime.

Called Home

Rev. J. A. Hornaday, of Weldon, who was assisting Rev. N. M. Watson in the meeting in the Methodist church was called back home this morning by a telegram announcing that one of his members was not expected to live through the day.

Rev. Mr. Watson will continue the meeting during the week, holding services each day at 4 and 7:45 P. M. Every Christian should give him earnest support in their prayers and work for the saving of souls.

Advertising the Show.

Advertising car No. 1, of the Robinson and Franklin Bros. circus arrived here last night and has been distributing new advertising matter today for the show here on the 27th. There are ten men with the car in charge of W. R. Musgat. The car is a well equipped one and the men are hustlers.

Rained About in Spots.

Early last night the thunder and lightning seemed to indicate a heavy rain fall, but not a drop fell here and by 9 o'clock the sky was perfectly clear. We had a telephone message from Whichard station that it never rained harder there than it did for a half hour when that cloud was passing.

Rates to the Fair.

The Atlantic Coast Line will sell tickets from Greenville to Raleigh, on account of the State fair, at $4.45. The 20th and 21st are to be made special days and on those days tickets will be sold at $3. There is but little difference in the rates from other stations in the county.

To the Ladies

If you have lace curtains that need laundering send them to me. Price 50 cents a pair. Goods sent off every Wednesday morning, and returned Saturday evening.

Two Hemispheres.

Dress Goods, Clothing, Hats, SHOES.

The Autumnal Textiles are in radiant profusion on our counters. No store in the South ever exhibited so much exclusiveness and elegance. There are gorgeous groups of stuffs from Paris, Vienna, Picardy, Roubaix, Glouchau, Gera, Bradford, Leeds, Glasgow and other famous trans-Atlantic manufacturing cities. We selected the best that the makers of France, Germany, Austria, England and Scotland have produced, and you are invited to examine them while they are yet in their exquisite state of freshness and beauty. There are multitudes of plain makes in mono-colors, and an aggregation of fancy effects in multi-colors showing designs and combinations that are too kaleidoscopic for any advertising pen to describe. Price is no object with us.

LOVE ERE TOO LATE.
[From the German of Ferdinand Freiligrath.
"O Lieb so lang du lieben kannst."]
Oh, love as long as love you can,
And love as long as love you may.
The hour will come, the hour will come,
When you shall mourn o'er lifeless clay!

Take care to keep your heart aglow
And love enfold and love uphold
As long as you can find a heart
That answers to affection told.

And when one bares his soul to you
Do what you can to make him glad,
That all his days may be of peace
And not an hour of his be sad.

And guard your tongue and temper well.
An angry word is quickly spoken.
God knows it was not meant to wound,
And yet the other's heart is broken.

Oh, love as long as love you can,
And love as long as love you may.
The hour will come, the hour will come,
When you shall mourn o'er lifeless clay!

Then shall you kneel down by the grave
And hide your sad and tear stained eyes
That ne'er again shall see the face
That 'neath the churchyard verdure lies.

And cry: Oh, look from heaven on me
Who weep in sorrow here below!
Forgive that I was o'er unkind.
O God, I did not mean it so!

He cannot see nor hear nor come
To meet your glad embrace. Ah, no!
The mouth that kissed you oft says not,
Love, I forgave you long ago!

He did forgive you, but his tears
Fell oft because of words you said.
But now 'tis well. Be calm, for he Is numbered with the happy dead.

Oh, love as long as love you can,
And love as long as love you may.
The hour will come, the hour will come,
When you shall mourn o'er lifeless clay!
—L. S. Perkins in Washington Star.

Negroes In the South.
According to the Atlanta Chroni cle, negroes in the south are rapidly filling the trades. As carpenters, bricklayers, plasterers, blacksmiths and wheelwrights they are growing more and more numerous and mak ing it difficult for white men to prosper in these fields of labor. "A glance at the white schools and the negro schools of the south," adds The Chronicle, "will show that the negro schools are teaching their pu pils more of the practical needs of life and fitting them to earn a liveli hood better than the white schools are. For every white technological school the negroes have half a dozen with technological and industrial features. Every year young men are being turned out of the negro schools in the south who have been taught carpentry, shoemaking, printing, the general use of tools and scientific farming, in addition to the usual academic courses, and young women who are taught cook ing, washing, sewing, dressmaking, nursing and housekeeping. When a young negro man or woman leaves any one of more than a dozen schools in the south, he or she is equipped for earning a livelihood and for advancing the standard of therace. Our people need arousing to the importance of technological and industrial education. We want edu cated hands as well as educated heads."

Houses Without Chimneys.
It is curious, though true, that of all the houses, dwellings, stores, ho tels and other buildings that dot the island of Key West from one shore to the other, not one of them has a chimney or anything that will answer the purpose of a chim ney. Handsome residences and low ly hovels are alike in this respect, and from an eminence gazing out over acres of roofs on all sides one is struck with the want of some thing to complete the symmetry of the picture. Wood and coal or fuel of any kind are unknown quantities, as the tropical atmosphere furnishes all the heat required, and for cook ing purposes sticks of carbon are used, which are sold by peddlers, who hawk their wares about the streets.—Atlanta Constitution.

Should Have Spoken Sooner.
He—Miss Quickstep, they say you tabulate your admirers as "prefer red," "eligible," "tolerable," "so so," "emergency," "intolerable," "not to be thought of," and the like. Where do I come in?
She—I—I'm afraid, Mr. Rinckley, you are a little too late to classify. —Chicago Tribune.

A bow recently designed for shooting arrows has a pair of cross ed arms with the shorter ends at tached to the center of the nearest longer ends by springs, which stretch when the cord is drawn backward for shooting.

Alaska's Size.
Some idea of the size of Alaska may be formed when it is known that it contains an area of 577,390 square miles. This is more than twice the area of Texas. Twelve states the size of Pennsylvania could be carved out of the territory of Alaska, with enough left over to make a state like South Carolina.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Many mean men are men of means.
A lost opportunity seldom finds its way back.
No woman wants to be a new woman
except an old woman.

Sin may be ugly, but it understands the art of beauty culture.

A man seldom wears his trousers out at the knees praying for work.

The first step toward knowledge is the discovery that you are ignorant.

A divorced woman is entitled to the name of widow, but she can't keep off
the grass.

Some people save all their sympathy until a man is dead; then they make his grave sloppy with their tears.

A woman should never cease praying for her husband; it may not avail anything, but it will keep her out of mischief.

Death may love a shining mark, but the fact that the idiot who rocks the boat usually escapes proves that it doesn't necessarily love a soft one.—

Dress Goods, Cloaks, Shoes.

Our Dress Goods department is enhanced with weaves that are conspicuous on many counters--Coverts,
Clay, Worsted, Serges, Broadcloth, Drap d'Ete and scores of others that have a quiet, unobstrusive elegance all their own. The colors are triumphs of the dyer's art. Such clear strong, brilliant shades never before gave rich tone and grace to the soft surface of calendered woollens. We have a beautiful line of Cloaks and Shoes, which are offered at prices that fit the season. Come and see us
