on which we have laid the stamp of correct and fashionable style.

JUST FOR FUN.

It's only natural that the actors' spirits should rise when the ghost walks.

A woolen shirt and a tramp are very much alike in one respect. They both shrink from washing.

A blind colored man who was selling song sheets on Columbia avenue the other night sang a few bars of "All Coons Look Alike to Me."

There may be good luck in a horse-shoe, says the Marayunk Philosopher, but not if the horse itself passes it up to you behind your back.

She—I think our boy was cut out to be a football player. He—Why, my dear, he isn't at all athletic. She—But look at the beautiful head of hair he has.

Yes, declared the hot headed convict, I was sent here for a long term on four distinct charges, and I'm not ashamed of it. Ah, I see, said the visitor; you have the courage of your convictions.

Will Wynne Coming.

Mr. Will Wynne, of Raleigh, the celebrated bicycle rider will visit Greenville next week and give an exhibition ride here on Tuesday night, 16th. The exhibition will be in the Planters Warehouse and given under the management of the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church.

Mr. Wynne is the best trick and fancy bicycle rider in the South, and an opportunity of seeing him should not be missed. Many of the feats performed by him are marvelous. Further announcement of the program will be made.

All members of the Aid Society are requested to meet at Miss A. M. Perkins' Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, to make arrangements for the entertainment.

A Brutal Assault.

People who were on the street near Five Points early this morning, witnessed a brutal spectacle. Grant Elam, colored, was seen to stagger along and sit down on the steps in front of D. W. Hardee's store. John Day, another colored man, went to Elam and told him to get up. Elam failed to get up, Day dragged him roughly of the step and dealt him several blows, following the blows with savage kicks on his side, back and head. People who witnessed this brutality went up and made Day stop beating Elam.

Day was arrested and taken before Mayor Perkins who fined him $10 for disorderly conduct and bound him over to court for his assault on Elam.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

The man with loose habits is the one that is oftenest tightest.

Fools try to convince a woman but wise men try to persuade her.

The laborer is not worthy of his hire when it is higher than his worth.

Talk is cheap and the barber always supplies it at cut rates.

Sound money is what the organ-grinder gets for moving on to the next block.

Thrashing doesn't always separate a boy from his crop of wild oats.

Fine clothes do not make the woman but they sometimes break the husband.

The man who is too poor to lend his friends money will never have many enemies.

Time works wonders. So would a man if he put in twenty-four hours a day, like time does.

The Firemen.

Hope Fire Company had their regular monthly meeting, Monday night, almost the full membership being present. After the business meeting was over the engine was taken to the cistern for practice. The engine crew are getting a thorough knowledge of it, and did the best and quickest work at this practice they have yet done. The boys are justly proud of their splendid engine, and they are taking pride in the company and in their work. When the town builds a new engine house the company will add a second story to it to provide a suitable meeting hall and reading room. This will be a good step.

Bishop's Appointments.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov 8, '97.

Senator Jones, of Arkansas, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, arrived in Washington in a decidedly jubilant state of mind over the results of last week's elections. He said on the subject: "Well, you bet I'm tickled. It makes me feel 25 years younger and makes me understand that the American people have not been bought or blinded this time. The results are an omen of coming and greater good. It just takes opposition and sorrow to develop the full strength of the Democratic party. This result convinces me that the silver sentiment grows, grows and grows, and that by the next Presidential election, it will have grown to an irresistible strength. Just mark my words. Error dies from a pin scratch, but truth survives from the cyclone. The Democratic party is Truth. When it comes to a long race and a hard race, the Democratic party gets there. I am very sorry because of the turn matters have taken in old Maryland, but hope for her is not dead in my bosom yet. Of course it would have been more desirable had Mark Hanna been inhumed under an avalanche of Democratic votes, but when a great man says his scalp only by the skin of his teeth, it is virtually a defeat."

One of the most interesting stories growing out of the Ohio election is now being told on the quiet in Washington, and it finds believers, too. According to this story, Secretary Sherman has been approached by Foraker Republicans and offered an opportunity to get even with Boss Hanna and Mr. McKinley for the shabby treatment they have given him, not only by preventing Hanna's election to the Senate, but by securing his own return to that body. Mr. Sherman is too old a bird to gobble up everything tempting that is placed before him, but he is said to have this proposition under consideration and to be making a quiet investigation, through trusted agents, as to the probability of success should he consent to enter the anti-Hanna combine. The scheme in brief is for the Foraker members of the Ohio legislature to stay out of the Republican caucus, which will, of course, nominate Hanna for the Senate, and to nominate Gov. Bushnell or some other thick and thin Foraker man as the anti caucus candidate. The Forakerites claim to have members enough to bring about and keep up for an indefinite period, a deadlock in the legislature, and they argue that after Hanna sees his own election to be an impossibility, he will be willing to join Bushnell in withdrawing and in agreeing upon a compromise candidate who can get the entire Republican vote and be elected. That is where the Forakerites tell Mr. Sherman that he can come in. They say that they will suggest him as a compromise candidate for the Senate, and that much as they would like to, neither Boss Hanna nor Mr. McKinley will dare to object. There are too many "ifs" in this scheme, but it indicates how harmonious the Ohio Republicans are.

Consul General Lee has received his final instructions and will this week return to Cuba. He is as careful as ever about discussing Cuban matters, but there are good reasons for saying that he is confident that there will be peace in Cuba in a few months. It was because of this belief on his part that he agreed, when urgently requested to do so by Mr. McKinley, to remain in Cuba until the trouble was over.

The army of pensioners still steadily grows in numbers, notwithstanding the assertion of several Commissioners of Pensions that it had reached high water mark and was about to start on the down grade. The annual report of Commissioner Evans shows that there were 5,336 more names on the rolls on June 30, 1897, than there were one year before, notwithstanding the dropping, during the fiscal year for death and other causes of 41,122 names. There were 976,014 names on the roll at the close of the last fiscal year, and, unless, death claims an unusually large number, it is probable that the million mark will be passed before the close of the present fiscal year.

From all directions come complaints about the tremendous rise in the price of almost everything, excepting the only article that more than half of our people have to sell—their labor. An expert says of the effect of the Dingley tariff upon the price of men's clothes: "A suit of clothes that could be bought last year for $16.00 cannot be duplicated now under $20.00 and that fact is an annoyance to dealers and customers alike. With men of ample means, who have their clothes made by fashionable tailors $5.00 or $10.00 advance on a suit is hardly noticed, and if noticed evokes no complaint. It is very different, however, with those who have to be careful in their expenditures, for to this class $5.00 represents a considerable sum. The number of men who buy $15.00 and $20.00 suits is largely in excess of those who pay tailors $40.00 and $50.00 for a suit, and it is from the poor and the middle class that the kick against the Dingley tariff is sure to come."

The Touch of Sympathy

When the heart is full of sympathy, some of it is bound to overflow. It may not manifest itself in words, to be sure, but it will find some equally effective way of cheering or consoling. Some years ago a widow who was spending the summer in a little town in New Hampshire, received word of the death of her only son, a young man of great promise, who at the time was traveling in Europe. The bereaved mother shut herself into her room with her sorrow, and the family with whom she had been boarding for several weeks collected on the piazza, and talked over the shocking news.

"What can we do for her, poor soul?" said the head of the house, casting a pitying glance toward the closed room within which a heart was breaking.

"I don't see that we can do anything," replied his wife. "I'm sure I don't know what to say to her. And besides, I don't believe she is the sort of a person that likes to hear expressions of sympathy."

"I'm almost sure she would like to feel that some one was near who was sorry for her," said Ethel, a girl of sixteen. "And unless you think I'd better not I'm going into her room."

She was very pale as she entered the house and knocked at the closed door, but when she received no answer, she boldly pushed it ajar and entered. The mother was lying upon the bed, her face stern and set, and her hands clenched. She took no notice of Ethel, even when the girl knelt beside her and began to stroke her tense fingers with a gentle, soothing touch.

After a time the rigid muscles relaxed slightly, and the woman turned her head. She saw a young face white and drawn with pity, and two tender eyes looking upon her through sympathetic tears. There was a moment's hush, and then a great sob broke the stillness of the room. "O, child!" she said, and then with a quick motion she laid her head on Ethel's shoulder, and shed those blessed tears which bring relief to hearts which reached the limit of endurance.

Not a word had the young girl spoken. Indeed, she was not wise enough to comfort sorrow by means of speech. But as those who followed the footsteps of the Man of Nazareth found healing in the mere touch of his garments, so her loving presence and sympathetic touch had been as a balm of consolation to a bruised and broken spirit.—Selected.

It is the opinion of an old cotton buyer on this market that cotton will go as low as 4½ cents before the bottom is reached. The low grades are selling at that price, but he is expecting the best grade to reach those figures and the inferior grades to reach a correspondingly low figure. He bases his conclusion from an experience of 37 years as a buyer and says the planters need not expect any rise in price until about the 1st of March, and then it will not go higher than 6 cents. This prophecy is not very encouraging to the farmers, and while it may not be true as a whole, still the indications now are in his favor and without a great change in the tone of the market his direful prophecy will come to pass.—Goldsboro Argus

Among the propositions dis cussed in France for a change in the electoral system in that Re public is one to provide that an elector who shall three times successively neglect to exercise his right to vote shall thereafter be disfranchised. This penalty would be severe? There is a certain grade of criminality in refusing to discharge the duties of citizenship while enjoying the benefits thereby conferred. Sampson Democrat, has purchased the Pender Star, and will consolidate with the Democrat.

Sheriff Worley, of Buncombe county, has brought three new convicts to the penitentiary. One of them is quite a delicate looking, handsomely dressed young fellow. He claims to be from New York and says his name is Dunlap. He gets five years for burglary.
The authorities have reason to believe that he is a noted crook and professional burglar. When arrested in Asheville he had a full set of burglar's tools. He is now digging potatoes on the penitentiary farm.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Rev. R. H. Leavitt, a North Carolina evangelist who is conducting a revival in a church here, last night saw two young women smiling during service. Walking down the aisle to where they were he knelt and prayed that they would die immediately and go to hell. The Rev. S. C. Hatcher, who was present and who has attended the revivals, straightway left the church. He is said to have replied: "I think it my duty to pray people out of hell, not to pray them in."—Richmond Dispatch.
