EDITORIAL NOTES.

Van Wycke the newly elected Mayor of Greater New York pleases his friends when he announces that he will appoint none but true and tried Democrats to any office within his gift.

It is said that President McKinley has called a halt and will make no more appointments until after Congress meets. This will be unwelcome news to the pie hunters here and elsewhere.

There will be a joint debate between some select students from Trinity and Wake Forest Colleges in Raleigh on Thanksgiving day. This sounds better for the Colleges than a game of foot ball would.

There is talk in Washington that Attorney General McKenna will probably be appointed to the Supreme Court Bench as the successor of Associate Justice Field. In case this appointment is made it will cause a vacancy in the cabinet and there is talk that Col. James E. Boyd, of North Carolina, who is already Assistant Attorney General, will be appointed to fill this vacancy.

YOUNG MAN SUICIDES

Tells Relatives He is Going to Die and Invites Them to the Funeral

Mr. John Strickland, a young man of Beaver Dam township, died about 1 o'clock, Monday night, from the effects of laudanum which he had drunk.

Monday afternoon he went among some relatives who lived near his home, told them he was going to die and invited them to attend his funeral. They did not regard the matter seriously, and thought he was only joking, but about night it was discovered that he had been drinking laudanum and had taken two bottles. When the drug took effect on his system he could not be revived.

His relatives can give no cause for the young man committing suicide.

Nell—"Have Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler bought their tandem yet?" Belle—"Yes; but it cost a lot. Wheeler insisted on a 'Scorcher,' and she wanted a 'Juggernaut'; so they got the front part from the Juggernaut people and the hind wheel from the Scorcher manufacturers. Now Wheeler's trying to put the two parts together."

ENGLAND'S CHILD DRUNKARDS.

Thirty Thousand Women Visited Barrooms in One Night.

(By Anglo-American Press.)
MANCHESTER, Eng., Nov. 1.
Lady Elizabeth Biddulph presided at the opening sittings yesterday of the Women's Total Abstinence Union in Bristol.

Mrs. Vane (London) made a special plea for children, saying that there were hundreds of little ones in courts and slums who went to bed drunk every night.

They had parents who, for the sake of drink, were willing to place their children in the care of people really unknown to them, and themselves in- toxicated.

In London alone, out of 80,000 persons who went into public houses one Satur- day night in the course of three hours, over 30,000 were women.

The awful amount of drunkenness among women must cause deplorable wretchedness and suffering.

WILL VIC FREE THE IRISH?

Petition for the Release of Prisoners Laid Before Her.

(By Anglo-American Press.)

DUBLIN, Nov. 1.
Dr. M. D. Kavanagh having, through the Home Secretary, sent a petition to the Queen for the release of the Irish prisoners, has received from the right honorable gentleman the following re- ply:

"Whitehall, Oct. 9, 1897.

"Sir: I am directed by the Secre- tary of State to inform you that the petition on behalf of the treason-felony convicts which you have submitted has been laid before the Queen, but that he has not been able to advise Her Majesty to give any directions thereof. I am, sir, your obedient servant.

"CHARLES S. MURDOCH."

DOLL CAUSED HER DOWNFALL.

Eight-Year-Old Girl Arrested for Stealing a Waxen Belle.

(By Anglo-American Press.)

MANCHESTER, Eng., Nov. 1.
There was something very human in a charge of stealing a doll preferred against a child at Brighton police court yesterday. The small occupant of the dock was only 8 years old, and her name was Rose Coleby.

When passing a toy shop the other day Rose espied a doll displayed out- side the fancy bazar in a manner most attractive.

The child's weakness for dolls was not proof against the sudden tempta- tion. She passed and repassed, and still returned to feast her eyes on the waxen beauty, and, at last, unable to resist any longer, she snatched it up and fled.

The shopman, however, was on the alert, and Rose and the doll were soon parted.

The case aroused considerable curi- osity and amusement at the local court, but matters took a more serious turn when it was intimated that there was another charge against Rose of pur- loining a watch. On that account the child was remanded for further in- quiries.

Fighting Consumption.

Consumption or tuberculosis has been the subject of early and more vigorous efforts to check its trans- mission in Prussia than elsewhere, as is natural considering that Dr. Koch is a Berlin professor. The result is that while from 1875 to 1887, before his discovery, the deaths from tu- berculosis or consumption were 31 in 10,000, since 1887 there has been a gradual decrease to 25 in 10,000. Elsewhere this decrease has not taken place. Prussian prisons and insane asylums show a reduction in their death rate from tuberculosis, since careful precautions were adopted. The death rate from this cause among religious nursing or- ders was in 1881-2 114 per 10,000. In 1893-4 it had dropped to 67, al- most half. Facts like these show the absolute necessity of careful pre- cautions for destroying the sputa of consumptive patients. Rigorous care in this direction would greatly decrease a disease to which a large proportion of deaths are due

WOBURN ABBEY ROBBED.

Room of the Duchess of Bedford Looted by a Burglar.

(By Anglo-American Press.)

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 1.
Woburn Abbey, the seat of the Duke of Bedford, was broken into yesterday and two valuable clocks and a dispatch box were stolen from the private apart- ments of the Duchess.

Two watchmen going their rounds saw the thief leaving the house and arrested him after a fierce struggle.

The man, who appeared to be of the tramp class, gave the name of John Smith, and said he came from Birming- ham.

It was found that he climbed a fence into the abbey grounds and entered the mansion by forcing a window. He was charged before a magistrate to-day and remanded.
