ALFORD ACQUITTED-FIELDS GUILTY.

The Murder Trial in Progress Nine Day's

(Special to Reflector.)

TARBORO, N. C., Nov. 27.—The case against Alford, white and Fields, colored, charged with the murder of Keel, white, after being in progress here for nine days was given to the jury last night. This morning the jury brought in their verdict that Alford was not guilty and Fields was guilty of murder in the first degree. In the trial Gillham & Gilliam and Bridgers appeared for Alford and Martin for Fields.

LATER—Fields was given a new trial.

REFLECTOR readers will remember this as the crime that occurred at Conetoe some months ago. Keel died suddenly under suspicious circumstances. An examination disclosed that poisoned whiskey had been given him. Fields was arrested and made a confession that he had given Keel the poison, and that Alford had hired him to commit the act. Alford was also arrested and both were kept in Tarboro jail until the trial.

Thanks Extended

An order has been passed at the Caledonia State farm, near Tillery, requiring convicts to take off their hats to the guards. Most of the guards on that farm are negroes and many of the convicts are white men. Another order has been passed that the white and black guards shall eat together. What do the white men of North Carolina think of this social equality?

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov 26, '97.

Mr. McKinley's aid to Boss Hanna has made the election of the latter to the Senate an apparent certainty, but, unless some very shrewd students of things political are wrong, it has also made Mr. McKinley's renomination for the Presidency almost an impossibility. According to current gossip, Senator Foraker will lead a fight on Mr. McKinley in his own State, and the anti-Platt Republicans in New York will use the "Citizen's Union" organization, which has been made permanent, to down Platt and prevent his carrying out the deal to give Mr. McKinley the solid vote of New York in the Republican National Convention of 1900. While these movements may not be directly in the interest of Czar Reed, as some say they are, he is likely to occupy the best position for being benefitted by them, if they succeed, as his friends are known to be at work in New England and elsewhere, to keep the following he had last year together, and to add to it. Platt and Hanna, in addition to the enemies he has made in the distribution of pie, will be a heavy load for Mr. McKinley to carry, and the chances will certainly be against his getting nominated again.

Democrats are inclined to poke fun at Senator Lindsay, of Ky., and to accuse him of having been asleep for a few months, owing to his having returned to Washington singing the same old Cleve and Carlisle song about the only currency legislation needed being that which will retire the greenbacks. Most advocates of the retirement of the greenbacks propose some other sort of currency in their place, but Mr. Lindsay would have the greenbacks retired as fast as they are presented at the Treasury, and nothing issued in their places. In other words, he believes, or thinks that he believes that the people could prosper under a system of enforced contraction of the currency that is already less in volume than the country needs. However, there are not a sufficient number of sharers in that belief to cause any uneasiness.

Representative Gaines, of Tennessee, has a letter written to him by Hon. W. J. Bryan in reply to an inquiry as to the truthfulness of a newspaper statement that Mr. Bryan had decided to retire from politics. The letter says: "The newspaper item is not true. I expect to remain in politics all my life. Whether I shall ever run for office again depends on circumstances." Mr. Gaines hasn't the slightest doubt that Mr. Bryan will head the Democratic ticket in 1900 and be elected President.

Ex-Congressman Paul Sorg, of Ohio, who passed through Washington this week on his way to New York, is enthusiastic over the Democratic outlook. He says the party is in a healthier condition than it has been for sometime, and that there is a greater desire for harmony prevailing inside the party. He expressed the opinion that by 1900, all friction and feuds within the party will have vanished, and that in the national election of that year, the Democratic party will triumph. Mr. Sorg declined to express any opinion for publication about the Hanna-Foraker scrap in Ohio, although it was inferred from his manner that he thought Hanna would win. That is the prevailing opinion among Ohio Democrats in Washington. They also believe that Hanna's success will sound the death knell of Republican rule in Ohio.

Representative Hepburn, of Iowa, has let the Republican financial cat out of the bag and shown why the Republicans would not dare, even if they controlled both branches of Congress, to put Secretary Gage's ideas into a statute, by saying naively, in a published interview: "Why if we should pass a law on those lines at this session of Congress, Iowa would not return a single Republican Congressman next fall and the Republicans would lose a Senator from that State." Mr. Hepburn's confession may not have been politic from a Republican point of view, but it is true, and there are four or five other States in which the Republicans would fare no better than in Iowa. The administration has got to make a bluff at trying to get gold standard legislation from Congress, in order to keep campaign promises, but that is as far as it cares to go now under any circumstances.

B. K. Bruce, the negro ex-Senator, ex-Register of the Treasury, etc., who lives in Washington, but claims a residence in Mississippi for office holding purposes, evidently knew just what he was doing when he went to Ohio to take the stump for Boss Hanna, as Mr. McKinley has dropped a broad hint that Bruce was to be again appointed Register of the Treasury. As a professional office holder, Bruce is hard to beat.

Babies in the Pen.

There are now two babies in the State prison, the one which was born last summer and one which was brought here from the Halifax farms last Saturday. The latter is nearly two months old and the mother has been in the penitentiary since June. Both of the babies are colored. They will be sent away either to their mother's relatives or some one else as soon as they are old enough.

Warden Russell says that the women in the prison are harder to manage and give more trouble than the men. It is difficult to teach them obedience to the prison regulations. However, they are never whipped. Their punishment consists in confining them in a dark cell and feeding them on bread and water. A woman who had continually given trouble was recently subjected to this punishment and Warden Russell says it made a new woman of her.—Raleigh Press Visitor.

Behold the Result!

The only remaining result of the organization of the People's party is the resurrection and restoration to power of the Republican party in poor old North Carolina. This is the only present result of that party's organization in the United States. At first, when the People's party was first organized, with the help of the Democrats it carried Kansas, which had been a strong Republican State, and mighty things were predicted for it. Then it carried Colorado, and one or two other "mining camp" States, and then the leaders of the People's party were greatly encouraged and boasted of their power. Southern Democrats were made to believe that the People's party was sweeping over the country like a tidal wave, and thousands were persuaded to abandon their old party and unite with this "young giant of the West." And what is the result?

Just exactly what the Record and other Democratic papers predicted has happened. These Western States have returned to Republican rule—to their first love—and North Carolina has a Republican Governor and is today governed by a gang of as incompetent and unprincipled demagogues as ever disgraced any State!

Was it for this that honest men abandoned the Democratic party and joined the so-called People's party?—Chatham Record.

His Old Slaves His Pallbearers

When Col. Carter was stricken, several months ago, his old slaves, some of them tottering with age, were as deeply grieved as if they were real members of his family. When the arrangements for the funeral exercises were under discussion, a coterie of the old darkies requested the privilege of carrying the remains of their "marster" to the grave and their request was granted. All the way the casket was carried in the arms of these old negroes, sobbing and swaying at every step.—Atlanta Constitution.

Sauce for Goose is Sauce for Gander.

Just a week ago the United States Court of Appeals at St. Louis held that a boycott by labor against capital is a criminal conspiracy.

Now an Illinois State Court at Chicago has decided that a "blacklisting" by capital against labor is equally unlawful, and has awarded a "blacklisted" laborer $21,666.33 damages.

If the boycott were sound in law, then the black list would also be sound. But these courts, dealing out even justice, have declared the truth that blacklist and boycott are equally odious, equally hostile to Democratic institutions and ideas.

It is fortunate that these two decisions came so closely together. The object lesson they present will not be lost upon either labor or capital.—New York World.

Pension Allowances

The State Auditor yesterday announced the pension allowances for the current year as follows: First class pensioners, $62, a decrease of $2 from last year, second class, $46.50, decrease, $1.50; third class, $31, decrease, $1; fourth class and widows, $15.50, decrease 50 cents. The pension tax yields $2,200 less than last year. There is also an increase of 49 in the number of pensioners. These two things combine to cause the reduction. The total of the pension tax for this year's use is $102,174.

When Girls Use Slang

"It is unfortunate that slang phrases are so easily slipping into our every-day conversation, and taking apparently so fixed a place in our talk," writes Edward W. Bok in the December Ladies' Home Journal. "And the worst of it is that so many people are using slang entirely unconsciously of the fact that they are doing so. If the common usage of slang were confined to a particular order of girls, it would, perhaps, serve as an indicator of character, and pass unnoticed. It would, at least, not touch the sensibilities of gentlefolk. But it is not so confined. Slang is invading the very nicest of circles: it is beginning to influence the talk of our most carefully-reared girls. And this is why the habit should receive closer attention. Girls are forgetting that slang phrases and refinement are absolutely foreign to each other. A slang phrase may be more expressive than a term of polite usage, but it is never impressive, except to impress unfavorably. It is high time that our girls should realize that they should speak the English language in their conversation, and not the dialect of the race track, nor the lingo of the base ball field. A girl may cause a smile by the apt use of some slang phrase. But, inwardly, those who applaud her place her, at the same time, in their estimation. No girl ever won an ounce of respect by being slangy. On the contrary, many a girl, unconscious of the cause, has found herself gradually slipping out of people's respect by the fact that her talk was dotted with slang phrases. 'Oh, she is clever,' said a woman not long ago, of a girl who could keep a company consistently amused by her apt use of slang. 'She amuses me greatly. But I should not care to invite her to my home nor have my girls know her.' It is a poor popularity for a girl, which has as its only basis the caps and bells of the jester. The life of the jester is never long."
