HELP FOR HOPE FIRE CO

They Will Have a Good Engine House

Since the splendid new steam fire engine has been received, Hope Fire Co., has been very anxious for a suitable building to keep the engine and to hold the meetings of the company in. The business men and property owners of the town having contributed liberally to purchase the steam engine, and all available funds having been exhausted in that direction, Capt. A. J. Griffin, Chief of the Fire Department, adopted the plan of issuing a circular asking for contributions to assist in building the engine house. Last week our business men sent some of these circulars to the wholesale merchants and manufactures with whom they dealt, and up to this time many liberal responses have been received.

The following have sent subscriptions:

Strause Bros., high art clothiers, of Baltimore, through C. T. Munford, $10.

Heineman Bros., cigar manufacturers of Baltimore, through J. L. Wooten, $5.

Cushing & Company, stationers of Baltimore, through Alfred Forbes, $5.

Carlin & Fulton, hardware dealers, Baltimore, through Alfred Forbes, $2.

Charles Broadway Rouss, wholesale merchant, New York, through Brown & Hooker, $5.

Krautman & Bowers, cloak and shirt manufacturers, Philadelphia, through M. R. Lang, $5.

Hines Bros. Lumber Co., Kinston, through A. J. Griffin, $5.

Greenville Land & Improvement Co., through Lovit Hine, $5.

W. G. Elliott, President A. C. Line, through J. R. Moore, $15.

J. A. Horner & Co., notion dealers, Baltimore, through H. C. Hooker, $3.50.

Henry Mann & Son, clothing dealers, Baltimore, through S. T. White, $5.

Eagle Shoe Co., Petersburg, through S. T. White, $5.

Snyder, Harris, Bassett & Co., clothing dealers, Philadelphia, through Ricks & Taft, $10.

John W. Poole & Son, millers, Petersburg, through S. T. White, $10.

Moorehouse Mfg. Co., manufacturers baking powder, Savannah, through S. T. White, $3.50.

Vey Brothers, dealers in carriage material, Baltimore, through Pitt County Buggy Co., $5.

Trautmann, Heller & Co., millinery and fancy goods dealers, Baltimore, through Mrs. H. D. Higgs, $5.

J. & E. Mahoney, wholesale liquor dealers, Portsmouth, through E. M. Cheek, $10.

Magnus Hessberg, leather and shoe dealers, Richmond, through J. R. Corey, $1.

Georgia Home Insurance Company, through H. A. White, $10.

Valentine & Co., dealers in varnishes and colors, New York, through John Flanagan Buggy Co., $5.

Adelsdorf, Bobbitt & Co., dealers in hats, Baltimore, through Alfred Forbes, $2.

G. A. Zirckel & Co., dealers in rubber goods, Baltimore, through A. J. Griffin, $1.

Other subscriptions coming in will be acknowledged through the REFLECTOR.

Negro Killed at Hobgood

(Special to Reflector.)

TARBORO, N. C., Nov. 29.—At Hobgood Saturday night a crowd of drunken negroes in Bell & Sims bar got in a row and had a general cutting and shooting match. Several were cut and one negro, named Lawrence Howell, was killed by Reuben Smith. The latter was arrested and sent to Halifax jail.

A Good Man Passes Away

Mr. Harry Gurganus, one of the oldest and best citizens of the county, died about 2 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, at his home near Whichard station. He was in his 80th year, and during the latter months of his life had been a great sufferer. He bore all his suffering patiently and looked forward to death as the messenger who would release him from the afflictions that beset this life. He was a member of the Primitive Baptist church and served his Savior and his generation faithfully. He died in faith and hope of the blessed immortality beyond the grave. His life was full of deeds of kindness to his fellow man, and the community in which he lived will sadly miss him.

Mr. Gurganus leaves an aged widow and two daughters to mourn his death. The latter are Mrs. W. R. Whichard, Sr., of this county, and Mrs. R. F. Wilson, of Beaufort county.

Closed His Year's Work

Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of the Methodist church, preached the closing sermon of the conference year, on Sunday night, to a large congregation. He goes to conference with a full report in every department of his work. Mr. Watson has been in Greenville one year and is very popular with his church and with our people generally. All hope the conference will return him to Greenville.

Appearance is Important.

Do you want Clothes Ready-to-wear? Do you want 'em Made-to-measure? We give great value either way. Our facilities in both departments are matchless. If you are in our Clothes you're in fashion. That advantage is worth money to you, but we charge nothing for it. Suits, Overcoats, Hats, Underwear and Neckwear are now on grand display. Hundreds of novelties and economics await your coming. A little money commands much merchandise.

CLOTHING

Don't Talk of Your Ills.

"Every one of us has his or her own ailments," writes Edward
W. Bok in the Ladies' Home
Journal, decrying the unpleasant habit many people have of discussing their bodily ills. "It is enough for us all to keep well ourselves: to be compelled to listen to the ailments of others
does not make that task any easier. Besides all this, these unnecessary narratives of personal ailments are positively injurious to ourselves. Physicians all agree that many of the slight ailments, of which some people make so much, could be cured if they would but take their minds from themselves. Too many people work themselves into illnesses, or prevent themselves
from getting well, by talking about a petty ailment, which, if forgotten, would right itself. I will not say that women, more than men, are prone to this evil.
But as the majority of women
have more leisure than the majority of men, they are more likely to let their minds dwell
upon every little ill that assails them, and talk about it. It seems to me that one of the most important lessons we can all learn with the close of the year is to refrain from inflicting upon others what is purely personal to ourselves.
Let us cease this tiresome, this inconsiderate, this unnecessary talk about our ailments. Cold and hard as it may seem, the fact is nevertheless true, and will ever remain so, that the vast majority of people are interested in what is pleasant in our lives, but not in what is unpleasant. Pains and sorrows are lamented in our lives
which are sacred and interesting
only to ourselves."

Mrs. Irene Ormond, Misses Lucy Turnage, Maggie Ormond and Gesie Arthur, of Greene county, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of Maj. H. Harding.

A Nice Response

The Georgia Home Insurance Co., is the first insurance company to make a contribution to Hope Fire Co. The following letter shows the interest they have in Greenville.

COLUMBUS, GA., Nov. 26, 1897. MR. H. A. WHITE, Agent, Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:—Replying to your circular letter of 22nd we will ask you to contribute $10 towards the fund for placing an engine house in your town. Please pay the amount to the proper party, returning us voucher.

With our best wishes for the success of the undertaking, we are yours truly GEORGIA HOME INS. CO.

Improved Order of Heptasaphs

W. C. Wharton, organizer of the Improved Order of Heptasaphs, who organized that order in Washington on 16th of this month with 32 members, came up on steamer Myers this morning. Mr. Wharton will institute an order here. The order comes recommended very highly. Rev. N. Harding, Dr. D. T. Tayloe, Dr. John C. Rodman, C. W. Tayloe, D. M. Carter, F. H. Short, B. G. Moss, F. C. Kugler, F. W. Hoyt, J. W. Campbell and Dr. E. M. Brown appear among the charter members of the Washington order.

Music by 'Phone.

About 10 o'clock, Saturday night, the editor answered a ring of the telephone at his residence, and was invited to listen at some music. We enjoyed several very fine selections before the serenade ended. The music was in Rocky Mount and was made by a phonograph in the home of Mr. S. K. Fountain, of that town. Greenville, Tarboro, Wilson, and two or three smaller places were all enjoying the music at the same time. The telephone is a wonderful invention.

Found After Twelve Years

On Sunday morning Mr. D. S. Spain, who lives in the Dancy house, on Pitt street, found a handsome finger ring in his garden. It was found where chickens had just been scratching, the fowls having uncovered it. Mr. Spain began making inquiry for an owner and the ring proved to be one that Mrs. M. M. Nelson lost 12 years ago at the time her mother occupied the premises.

B. Y. P. U.

The next meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union will be held on Thursday night. Mr. John E. Ray, Superintendent of the Deaf and Dumb school at Raleigh, will be present and deliver an address.

Delayed One Day.

Court next week, Judge Timberlake presiding. This term is for the trial of civil cases only and will not begin until Tuesday morning, 7th, owing to the inability of the Judge to get here before Monday night.

OVERCOATS.

"Well, I must say, nobody else has such a handsome stock of Overcoats as you have," is the substance of what is told us every day, by people who have "looked around." But knew it before! There is scarcely any conceivable kind of desirable Overcoat that cannot be found here. THE GREENVILLE SUPPLY CO.

Notice.

This is to notify my friends and patrons that I have this day withdrawn from the partnership of The Greenville Supply Co. and have connected myself with R. L. Davis & Bros' under the firm name of Speight & Co. and I will continue to buy cotton and produce as before under said firm name. Thanking my friends for their past patronage, I assure them that their interests will always have my careful consideration. I think I am better prepared to handle their business than ever before and solicit a continuance of their patronage. This Nov. 16th, 1897. JESSE SPEIGHT.
