ANOTHER NICE RESPONSE

With a Most Liberal Contribution

Greenville people certainly have cause for felicitation at the esteem in which our town is held elsewhere, and the warm interest manifested abroad in the movement started by Capt. A. J. Griffin to provide a suitable building for our volunteer fire department. Responses have been generous and cheerful, some of them accompanied by letters expressive of the kindly interest for the success of the undertaking felt by the contributors.

One of these letters comes from The Thos. W. Price Co., of Philadelphia, manufacturers, importers and jobbers of envelopes, paper &c., and is as follows:

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29, 1897.
MR. D. J. WHICHARD,
Greenville, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—Your favor of the 22nd inst. giving us notice of the purpose to erect a suitable building for a fire-engine in your town, was duly received, and we also notice the desire that we make a contribution toward the purpose suggested. We take pleasure in herewith enclosing our check for Ten Dollars ($10.00) to your order, to be applied for the purpose named. We would be glad to make it larger, but have a number of requests for assistance in various ways, and so cannot make our contributions as large as we would like to make them.

Yours Truly,
THE THOS. W. PRICE CO.

STATE NEWS.

The grand jury of Rowan county Superior court returned 20 true bills against dealers for selling cigarettes to boys.

Robt. L. Abernethy, of Mountain Island, Gaston county, hasn't cut his hair since Bryan was defeated and says he isn't going to cut it until Bryan is elected President.

Thomas Crawford, who went from Davie county to Texas 22 years ago, has just returned. He tells the Times that he was 90 days on the way back, traveling in a one-horse wagon, and that he repaired stoves enroute.

Mr. W. H. Mulis, of Morning Star township, counts on having Jane apples for Christmas. A tree on his farm is now bearing a second crop of apples of this variety.—Charlotte Observer.

In Forsyth Superior Court seventeen people were convicted of not giving in their taxes, the cost in each case amounting to $10.80. This in addition to the taxes they had to pay.

Dowell, Helm & Co., dealers in millinery, Baltimore, through Mrs. L. Griffin, $5.

Marcus W. Wolf & Co., wholesale stationers, Baltimore, through J. L. Wooten, $1.

Amount previously reported $133.00
Total contribution to date $163.00

Church Improvements.

The Presbyterian congregation continues to make improvements about their handsome house of worship. They are now having the floor stained and the rostrum and aisles nicely carpeted. The work will all be finished and the building complete before the dedication which takes place on the third Sunday. The REFLECTOR is requested to state that owing to the work now in progress on the interior of the building no Sunday school will be held there next Sunday morning.

Time To Strike.

We've respect for religion, we love sacred songs, we like to know that a Christian enjoys his professions, but when we attend church and hear a delinquent of several years' standing joining in the chorus, "Jesus Paid it All," we feel like going over with a cane and giving him a receipt in full.—Greenville Tenn. News.

Greenville Always Liberal.

Covenant Lodge No. 17, I. O. O. F. sent $35.60 to the Odd Fellows Orphanage at Goldsboro as a Thanksgiving donation. This makes more than $100 that Greenville contributed to the different orphanages on Thanksgiving Day.

Many people give as Christmas presents a year's subscription to some good magazine. Leave your orders at the Reflector Book Store for any periodical wanted.

Appearance
is Important.

Do you want Clothes Ready-to-wear? Do you want 'em Made-to-measure? We give great value either way. Our facilities in both departments are matchless. If you are in our Clothes you're in fashion. That advantage is worth money to you, but we charge nothing for it. Suits, Overcoats, Hats, Underwear and Neckwear are now on grand display. Hundreds of novelties and economics await your coming. SING A SONG.

If you'll sing a song as you go along,
In the face of the real or the fancied wrong,
In spite of the doubt if you'll fight it out,
And show a heart that is brave and stout;
If you'll laugh at the jeers and refuse the tears,
You'll force the ever reluctant cheers
That the world denies when a coward cries,
To give to the man who bravely tries.
And you'll win success with a little song—
If you'll sing the song as you go along!

If you'll sing a song as you plod along,
You'll find that the busy rushing throng
Will catch the strain of the glad refrain;
That the sun will follow the blinding rain;
That the clouds will fly from the blackened
sky;
That the stars will come out by and by,
And you'll make new friends, till hope descends
From where the placid rainbow bends.
And all because of a little song—
If you'll sing the song as you plod along!

If you'll sing a song as you trudge along,
You'll see that the singing will make you strong.
And the heavy load and the rugged road
And the sting and the stripe of the tortuous
goad
Will soar with the note that you set afloat;
That the beam will change to a trifling mote;
That the world is bad when you are sad,
And bright and beautiful when glad.
That all you need is a little song—
If you'll sing the song as you trudge along!
—R. McClain Fields in Nashville American.

Squirrel skins are cut up into the bellies and tails, and, while the first of these are used for coats, trimmings and linings of gloves, the second form the bluish white linings of opera and other cloaks. Tails, on the other hand, are made up into boas. The hair when removed is used for the manufacture of the so called camel's hair paintbrushes.

NEW MONTH—NEW FACES.

But the Same Old Year, and You Have Seen These Names Before.

Miss Anna Morrill, of Marlboro, is visiting her brother, W. F. Morrill.

Manley Hines left Tuesday evening for Sampson county to visit his old home.

Misses Louise Latham and Winnie Skinner went to Kinston Tuesday evening to visit friends.

Severely Burned

Mr. W. F. Harding is carrying his right hand incased in a large poultice, due to a painful accident with which he met this morning. Just before breakfast he went into the kitchen at his home and seeing a pan in which some steak was trying catch on fire he hastily took the pan from the stove and started out the door. Unfortunately he spilled the burning grease all over his hand and was burned severely before the fire could be put out.

Another Runaway

Today a man bought a new buggy here and hitched up to go home. Before he got out of town his horse run away and created much excitement around Five Points. It looked like the new buggy was going to be broken to pieces but the damage was only slight.

The Board of County Commissioners meet next Monday. It will be the beginning of another fiscal year.

Talk about big frost, but the one this morning takes the lead. We hear an old man say he never saw a heavier frost.

During the Month of November the Register of Deeds issued 31 marriage licenses, 21 for white couples and 10 for colored.

The Greenville market had tremendous tobacco breaks Tuesday, it taking until night to complete the sales. There were large breaks again today.

Advertising is very much like riding a bicycle. If you don't keep moving the wheel you will fall off, and if you don't persist in advertising your trade will fall off.

THE GREENVILLE SUPPLY CO.

Notice.

This is to notify my friends and patrons that I have this day withdrawn from the partnership of The Greenville Supply Co. and have connected myself with R. L. Davis & Bros' under the firm name of Speight & Co. and will continue to buy cotton and produce as before under said firm name. Thanking my friends for their past patronage, I assure them that their interests will always have my careful consideration. I think I am better prepared to handle their business than ever before and solicit a continuance of their patronage. This Nov. 16th, 1897.
