Tribute to Mrs. N. L. Shaw.

This excellent woman whose death was recently announced, having been born in Greenville and spent her childhood years here, we know many REFLECTOR readers will appreciate the following tribute to her that appeared in the last issue of the Biblical Recorder:

WARRENTON, N. C., Nov. 27, 1897.

This community, and especially the Baptist church, has sustained a sad loss in the death of Mrs. Della M. Shaw, the beloved wife of Capt. N. L. Shaw, which occurred on the 23rd of November, after a long and distressing illness.

Della M. Clark was born in Greenville, N. C., on the 9th of February, 1840. After spending her happy childhood in Greenville, she was placed in the, then famous, Warrenton Female Institute, where she remained four years, graduating in 1856.

A year later when she was seventeen years of age, she was united in marriage to Col. Wm. A. Jenkins a prominent member of the Warrenton Bar. Immediately after her marriage she moved to Warrenton, and continued to reside here until her death.

By this marriage she became the mother of several children, only two of whom lived to maturity. One of these a son Wm. A. Jenkins Jr., died several years ago, sincerely regretted by his many friends. The other, daughter, is the wife of Capt. Haywood Clark of Norfolk.

A few months before her marriage she united with the Baptist church in Greenville. When she moved to Warrenton, as a bride, she united with the Baptist church there, and was always loyal to the members, to the doctrines, to the ordinances, and to all the enterprises of her church; and faithfully labored to promote its peace and prosperity.

Col. Jenkins died in 1860, and the subject of this sketch remained a widow for sixteen years.

In Nov. 1885 she was united in marriage to Capt. N. L. Shaw, who is well known in business circles and as a prominent Christian worker.

Sister Shaw was steadfast in her friendships, charitable to the poor, and kind to her attendants. As a Christian she was sincere and devout, as a neighbor she was loyal and true, and in all the relations of life she conscientiously strove to do right.

She will be sadly missed in her home, in the community, and in her church in every department of its work, and of her pastor; for all her pastors from Dr. Solomon to this writer can bear witness to her loving co-operation and unflinching sympathy.

Her many friends unite with the members of her family in mourning their loss.

Sleep on, beloved, sleep and take thy rest:

Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour's breast;

We love the well, but Jesus loves thee best—

Good night!

T. J. TAYLOR.

JUST FOR FUN.

Nipped noses will now be plentiful.

You may pay for your telegraph in advance, but it goes on tick nevertheless.

All men are made of dust. The self-made man from Klondike is made of gold dust.

"The best way to economize," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "is to avoid paying your debts."

De Tanque—"Bibber never knows when he has enough." Old Soak—"No; he never knows whether he's drunk or sober until his wife tells him."

Nell—"May Goldrox struck a bargain in that foreign nobleman she married. He only cost her father $100,000." Belle—"Yes; but gossip says that the bargain very frequently strikes her now."

Hoax—"The fat woman at the unseum who died the other day was too big for a hearse, so they got a conveyance from the brewery." Joax—"Why the brewery?" Hoax—"Well, they wanted a beer-wagon of some sort."

"I'm going into the business for myself," said the plumber's clerk. "What?" exclaimed his employer; "you know nothing about plumbing." "I know all that I need to know; I've been making out bills for you for five years."

Mrs. Gaddy—"Do you believe the quotation that 'reading makes a full man?'" Mrs. Flashby—"Indeed, I do; I gave my husband my milliner's bill to read at dinner yesterday, and you should have seen his condition when he came in last night."

The while I flounder deep in debt,
This thought has crossed my mind:
Soft coal is just as hard to get,
As any other kind.

Musical.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will give their next musicale, second of the series, at the rooms of Mrs. A. M. Moore on Monday night, 6th. Programme will appear tomorrow.

If you want to get your share of the holiday trade put an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR.

Knights of Pythias meet tonight. It is time for the semi-annual election of officers and every member is requested to be present.

Appearance is Important.

Do you want Clothes Ready-to-wear? Do you want 'em Made-to-measure? We give great value either way. Our facilities in both departments are matchless. If you are in our Clothes you're in fashion. That advantage is worth money to you, but we charge nothing for it. Suits, Overcoats, Hats, Underwear and Neckwear are now on grand display. Hundreds of novelties and economics await your coming. A little money commands much merchandise.

TRUE DEMOCRACY.

The State Executive Committee Pass Strong Resolutions.

The Democratic State Executive Committee met in Raleigh on Tuesday night, Nov. 30th, and adopted the following resolutions that every white man in North Carolina ought to be able to endorse:

"The representatives of the Democratic party in North Carolina congratulate the Democrats of her sister State, who, with a firm stand for the principles embodied in the Chicago platform, have won splendid victories for the people. In rejoicing at the success of the Democratic party in the late elections, we remind the people that Democratic majorities were largest, and Republican majorities were smallest, in those States where that platform was the issue. It is a significant fact that Democracy was defeated in the States where local concerns were allowed to overshadow the principles of the party. Democracy is for all the people. The recent utterances of the people are plain and decided. They have expressed their faith in the Chicago platform, their belief in bimetallism, their disgust and disapproval of Republican creeds and practices, and, above all, their hatred of the tyrannous gold standard. They show that they will no longer submit to the robbery of trusts, the domination of bosses and the oppression of the money power." The condemnation of the hypocrisy, and falsehood of the Republican party is crushing.

"It is equally pronounced, whether we hear it, loud and free, in the wheat fields of Ohio and Iowa, or struggling for utterance in the wealth congested centre of 'Greater New York' where the candidate for mayor received 80,000 plurality—a candidate whose only campaign utterance was: 'I am a Democrat,' who was heart and soul for the Chicago platform and the candidates who stood on it.

"No less significant is the fact that the people of the State of New York have elected by 70,000 majority as chief justice of the Court of Appeals, a statesman who sought support by announcing that he had voted for Hon. Wm. J. Bryan last year."

"And with this glorious news of Democratic success we rejoice that 'sham international bimetallism' has been exposed. There is now no room for Republican dodging.

"We reaffirm our belief in the principles of the Chicago and State platforms of the Democratic party, as adopted in 1896, in their entirety; and we will still support those principles until they are written in our laws.

"We would be untrue to the firm and loyal allegiance the Democratic party of North Carolina bears to our greatest leader, Hon. William J. Bryan, if we failed to express our confidence in his honor and integrity and in his devotion of head and heart to the welfare of all the people. We emphasize the fact that our great victory was won in the States of Ohio and Kentucky, where he personally appealed to the people.

"We view with alarm the depressed condition of trade and the low prices of all products raised by our people, but we remind those who heard Republican orators in 1896 predict dire disaster if the Democrats were elected, that McKinley is president of these United States and both branches of Congress are Republican. The people are swift to draw the proper conclusions.

"We think all patriotic citizens who joined with us last year in carrying the State for our presidential candidate, and we invite to the future councils of the Democratic party—the party of the people—all men who believe in its principles, desire its supremacy, and who will assist in carrying out its policies.

"In less than one year opportunity will be given the voters to express a firm adherence to those principles. We regret that the ballot box was not this year opened to all North Carolinians. North Carolina is now accidentally Republican. We do not believe that any number of intelligent and virtuous men expected or hoped for the present rule in this State. We are sure all good men are eager for a change. We have fallen on evil days in North Carolina. They recall the days of reconstruction. They demonstrate the truth that no Southern State can be governed with honor and decency by the Republican party. Too large a number of its voters are ignorant, for the masses to control, and too large a number of the leaders are venal and corrupt to give North Carolina good government. We look with horror upon the evils wrought by a combination of Republicans and the corrupt elements of the Populist party by means of which our Legislature has become a farce, many of our office-holders became corrupt and criminal, and ignorance and vice raised above intelligence and virtue. We denounce the efforts of this combination to place the insane of the State at the mercy of competent, vicious and lustful men, and we condemn the changes wrought in our laws whereby ignorant and impure men have been placed in control of schools, courts, prisons and asylums. These are the inevitable consequences of Republican rule. The Democratic party promises the people on its return to power to correct all these abuses. It will guarantee every citizen his rights, but it demands that virtue and intelligence shall rule the State. It will restore to the white women of the State the security they felt under the twenty years of Democracy inaugurated by the immortal Vance. To the accomplishment of these ends let every patriotic citizen rally to the white man's party. 'To your tents O Israel!'"

The following resolution was introduced by Mr. H. L. Stevenson, of Duplin, and adopted: "That all white electors who intend to vote with us in the next election and who desire the re-establishment of Anglo-Saxon supremacy and honest government in North Carolina are cordially invited to participate in all of our primaries and conventions."

The Democratic Executive Committee intend that there shall be no excuse for any white man to vote with the negroes next year, unless he really wants negro and venal government—such as we have now.

Resolutions of thanks were passed by a rising vote to Chairman Manly and Secretary Thompson for their faithful and abundant labors for the party in the late campaign, and pledging the earnest co-operation of the party in the future work for Democratic ascendancy.

The Republican party is a great humbug. It is astonishing how it has managed to sustain itself before the country for so long. It could not have done so except for its prestige as the party which "suppressed the rebellion." From the time of the enactment of the Wilson-Gorman tariff law until it got back into power itself, it never ceased to deride that measure it failed to raise enough revenue to meet the appropriations of Congress. "Just give us Congress," it said, "and we will remedy all that." The people gave it Congress and it enacted the Dingley tariff law which has not only failed to raise enough revenue for the needs of the government but, according to so good an authority as the Philadelphia Record, "does not provide as much revenue as the act it supplanted," and the government is living on the borrowed money accumulated by the Cleveland administration in excess of the gold reserve. O, it is a great humbug, is this Republican party.—Charlotte Observer.

Don't's

Don't use a gallon of words to express a teaspoonful of thought.

Don't swear to give up a bad habit and then keep on swearing.

Don't hide money in your boot, if you are in the habit of throwing them at cats.

Don't think that women mean it when they kiss each other. They do it for practice.

Same Way Up Here.

Human life is the cheapest thing in South Carolina. The dead man is always in fault. The juries are organized to acquit. The State is always at a disadvantage in prosecuting those charged with murder. The administration of the law is affected by local and class considerations. We choose our victims. It is the man without influence or money who feels the strong hand of the law. "Public opinion" is with the man who reaches the hip pocket first and gets the drop.

The only hope of the State is in arousing public sentiment to a proper appreciation of the sin of bloodguiltiness.—Charleston News and Courier.

ANTONY AND CLEOPATRA.

I am dying, Egypt, dying,
Ebbs the crimson life tide fast,
And the dark Plutonian shadows
Gather on the evening blast.
Let thine arms, O queen, in fold me!
Hush thy sobs and bow thine ear.
Listen to the great heart secrets,
Thou, and thou alone, must hear.

Though my scarr'd and veteran legions
Bear their eagles high no more,
And my wreck'd and scatter'd galleys
Strew dark Actium's fatal shore,
Though no glittering guards surround me,
Prompt to do their master's will,
I must perish like a Roman,
Die the great triumvir still.

Let not Caesar's servile minions
Mock the lion thus laid low,
'Twas his own that struck the blow,
His who, pillow'd on thy bosom,
Turn'd aside from glory's ray,
His who, drunk with thy caresses,
Madly threw a world away.

Should the base plebeian rabble
Dare assail my name at Rome,
Where my noble spouse, Octavia,
Weeps within her widow'd home,
Seek her, say the gods bear witness—
Altars, augurs, circling wings—
That her blood, with mine commingled,
Yet shall mount the throne of kings.

As for thee, star-eyed Egyptian,
Glorious sorceress of the Nile,
Light the path to Stygian horrors
With the splendors of thy smile.
Give to Caesar crowns and arches,
Let his brow the laurel twine.
I can scorn the senate's triumphs,
Triumphing in love like thine.

I am dying, Egypt, dying,
Hark! the insulting foe's cry!
They are coming! Quick! my falchion!
Let me front them ere I die!
Ah, no more amid the battle
Shall my heart exulting swell!
Isis and Osiris guard thee!
Cleopatra, Rome, farewell!
—William Haines Lytle.

The Autocrats.

Teacher—Willie, that is not the way to spell "emperor." You should not end the word with an "e-r." If you will notice, all titles denoting power and greatness—at least most of them—end with "o-r."

J. A. Crews, agent for the Wilmington Messenger, is in town.

L. I. Moore and W. H. Long went to Bethel today on legal business.

W. F. Morrill returned Thursday evening from a trip to Norfolk.

R. L. Smith and A. Savage returned from Richmond Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. M. King went to Wilson today to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wells.

Peter Plummer, a colored man, had a fit at the meeting of the Town Council, Thursday night, and just about broke up the meeting. It was sometime before he got over the fit.

My Christmas stock is in and it will pay you to call at my store before buying. A full line of Toys, Dolls, Confections, in fact everything for Santa Claus. Prices lower than anywhere else. JAMES LONG.

FATAL RUSH.

A William goat, with low-bowed head, Rushed wildly forth to butt— A moment later he lay dead With a shattered cocoon! The fellow that he'd sought to crush— The victor in the fray— Turned out to be a center rush, Who met the goat half way. —Chicago News.

An Interesting Address.

Mr. John E. Ray, of Raleigh, Superintendent of the school for the deaf, dumb and blind, reached Greenville Thursday evening and delivered an address at night before the B. Y. P. U. in the Baptist church. His subject was Hellen Keller, the most remarkable girl living today. She is deaf, dumb and blind, and only 17 years of age, yet she has accomplished more than thousands of persons who possess all their faculties. Mr. Ray's address was exceedingly interesting and was based largely on what he had ascertained from a personal acquaintance with her.

Mr. Ray also sang two songs "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Nearer My God to Thee" in the deaf and dumb sign language. This was very impressive and no one could fail to catch the inspiration of worship embodied in the signs and motions indicating the sentiment of these grand hymns.

A large congregation was present and every one greatly enjoyed hearing and seeing Mr. Ray. We hope he will visit Greenville again.

FOR SALE.

Valuable Town Property.

ON Tuesday, the 7th day of December 1897, we will offer at public sale the residence of Mrs. M. A. Jarvis and two adjoining vacant lots, situated in the town of Greenville, on the corner of Cotanch and 2nd streets near the Macon Hotel.

There are several out houses on the premises. Sale to take place at 12 o'clock M. if not sold privately before. Apply to HARDING & HARDING, Greenville, N. C.

Land Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt county made in a certain special proceeding therein pending entitled et als against J. H. Whitehurst and wife. I will on Monday, December 27th, 1897, before the Court House door in Greenville, sell at public sale to the highest bidder, for cash, that certain tract or parcel of land situated in Carolina township, Pitt county, and on the west side of Bear Branch, adjoining the lands of W. R. Whichard and others the boundaries of which are fully set out in a deed executed by Council James and wife to Jane A. Warren now on record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County in Book T, T. pages 408 and 409.

This Nov. 24th, 1897. ALEX. L. BLOW, Commissioner.
